SEB Nordic Small Cap Fund – a sub-fund of SEB SICAV 2

Class C (EUR) (LU0385664312)

Management Company: SEB Investment Management AB, part of the SEB Group.

Objectives and Investment Policy

SEB Nordic Small Cap Fund aims to increase the value of your investment over time by outperforming the benchmark. We make active investment decisions based on analysis and selection focusing on small and medium-sized Nordic companies.

The fund's portfolio normally contains 40 to 80 holdings, although this can vary somewhat. We place great emphasis on our fundamental analysis. We meet regularly with the companies in which we invest, prior to as well as during the investment period. We avoid unproven business models, seeking instead to identify what we regard as high quality companies with strong market positions which we believe have a proven ability to generate profitable growth. In situations where the number of companies and the liquidity in the relevant markets are limited, it can be more difficult for the fund manager to make investment decisions that substantially differ from the market. Compared to the benchmark, the fund normally has a higher level of market risk. Additionally, the fund is expected to develop strongly in rising stock markets and more slowly in declining stock markets.

We compare the fund's return to the VINX Small Cap EUR NI, an index that includes equities from Nordic small-sized companies. The majority of the fund's holdings are constituents of the benchmark, but they differ in weight. The fund's investment strategy does not aim to restrict how much the fund's holdings deviate from its benchmark. Deviation, measured as tracking error, will likely be high compared to other equity funds.

The main categories of financial instruments are equities and equity related instruments.

Derivatives may be used to achieve investment objectives or for hedging. Derivatives are a type of financial instrument, the value of which is derived from underlying financial instruments.

The fund follows the management company's sustainability policy when making investments. Our sustainability policy is available on <https://sebgroup.lu/policies>.

Generally, investors can buy or sell units of the fund on any bank business day in Luxembourg except 24 and 31 December.

The unit class is non-distributing.

Recommendation: this fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 year(s).

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator illustrates the relationship between risk and the expected return for the fund. The higher the fund is positioned on this scale, the greater the possible reward, but also the greater risk of losing money. Category 1 does not mean that the investment is risk free.

The risk category is calculated using historical data or simulated historical performance when actual historical data is insufficient. Past performance may not be a reliable indicator of the fund's future risk and reward profile.

This fund is in category 6. This means that the risk for value changes in the fund is high. This category may change over time.

Equity funds are generally subject to large fluctuations in value. The fund is exposed to small companies in the Nordic region, which may imply a higher risk than funds investing in large companies across several geographic markets.

The following risks are not fully reflected in the above classification but still influence the fund's value:

Counterparty risk - if a counterparty does not fulfill its obligations to the fund (e.g. not paying an agreed amount or not delivering securities as agreed).

Liquidity risk - some of the assets of the fund may become difficult to sell at a certain time and for a reasonable price.

Operational risk - the risk of loss resulting from e.g. system breakdowns, human errors or from external events.

Currency risk - the fund invests in securities that are issued in currencies other than the base currency of the fund. As a result the fund is subject to currency risk, which arises from changes in the exchange rates.
