DNCA INVEST SUB-FUNDS

DNCA INVEST - BEYOND EUROPEAN BOND OPPORTUNITIES

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

With the truce in the trade and technology war between China and the United States, the half-year ended on a rather positive note. However, the real main driver behind the good performance of the markets over the last six months remains the return of the - very - accommodating bias of the main central banks, led by the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). This positioning actually gathered momentum in June, with speeches by officials and market discussions on possible cuts in key rates in the coming months on both sides of the Atlantic. As a result, sovereign rates in the eurozone are still falling. Here, for the first time in its history, France's 10-year borrowing rate has entered negative territory. In this universe, where even the smallest yield is difficult to find, credit is being favoured by the market and spreads have tightened significantly. Equities, the ultimate risky asset, have also benefited: the Euro STOXX 50 Net Return has gained nearly 20% since the beginning of the year.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - BEYOND EUROPEAN BOND OPPORTUNITIES performed as follows:

- A share (EUR): +3.13%
- B share (EUR): +3.03%
- I share (EUR): +3.40%
- N share (EUR): +3.18%

Compared with an increase of +5.97% for its benchmark index (FTSE MTS Global).

Past performance does not predict future performance

Among the main transactions over the past six months, we note the inflow of the bonds LIBERBANK Q2 2027 and SYMRISE 2025.

In contrast, the bonds MEDIASET 2019, BANCO POPOLARE 2019 and GRUPPO ESPRESSO CV 2019 were redeemed.

The level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio as at 28/06/2019 stood at +11.83% (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 56.2 million.

Outlook for the second half

As a reminder, the performance in the first half of the current year follows last year's correction. The market has now completely put aside the risk of a rise in interest rates, even as regards to a return to 0% for the German 10-year rate. The sub-fund's positioning remains very cautious in this context.

DNCA INVEST - EUROSE

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

With the truce in the trade and technology war between China and the United States, the half-year ended on a rather positive note. However, the real main driver behind the good performance of the markets over the last six months remains the return of the - very - accommodating bias of the main central banks, led by the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). Equities, the ultimate risky asset, have also benefited: the Euro STOXX 50 Net Return has gained nearly 20% since the beginning of the year.

During this first half, DNCA INVEST - EUROSE performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +4.50%
- I share (CHF): +4.50%
- A share (EUR): +4.13%
- B share (EUR): +4.03%
- B share (CHF): +4.03%

- AD share (EUR): +4.13%
- ID share (EUR): +4.50%
- H-I share (CHF): +5.80%
- H-A share (USD): +6.54%
- H-A share (CHF): +5.43%
- N share (EUR): +4.37%
- ND share (EUR): +4.38%
- Q share (EUR): share launched on 05/06/2019

Compared with +8.40% for its composite index, 20% EURO STOXX 50 + 80% FTSE MTS Global, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance

Since the start of the year, the three best share performances have been achieved by SOLOCAL ROUP, CECONOMY AG and ASM INTERNATIONAL NV. In contrast, EDF, TECHNICOLOR and SOCIETE GENERALE shares were the three weakest.

The level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio stood at +3.81% (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 4,676 million as at 28/06/2019.

The main transactions since the beginning of the year include the strengthening of the positions in PUBLICIS, SOCIETE GENERALE and BOUYGUES. In contrast, NOKIA and VIVENDI shares were reduced, and GEMALTO securities were made available for the takeover bid launched by THALES.

Outlook for the second half

As a reminder, the strong performance in the first half of the current year follows the market downturn at the end of last year. Our convictions remain the same, in terms of allocation choices but even more so in terms of security selection. The market has now completely put aside the risk of a rise in interest rates, even as regards to a return to 0% for the German 10- year rate. The majority of investors are therefore prepared to take significant duration risks. This is evidenced, for example, by the issuing at the end of the month by Unibail-Rodamco- Westfield, the European leader in commercial real estate, of a EUR 500 million bond with a maturity date in 2049 providing an annual return of 1.83%. We do not want to take this risk and are maintaining a low exposure to interest rates. Furthermore, several acquisitions of companies in the eurozone (Altran, Ramirent, Latécoère) are proof that there is currently value in (de)listed shares.

DNCA INVEST - EVOLUTIF

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

During this past six months, the financial markets recorded gains of +17.10% for the CAC40 and +17% for the S&P500, making it the best half year since 1997 due to the combination of two factors: the truce in the Sino-US trade war and expectations on the part of investors that the global central banks would be prepared to be more accommodating in the event of a deterioration in the global macroeconomy. Moreover, macroeconomic data and corporate earnings for the first two quarters seem to suggest that the economic slowdown is at work without, however, pointing to a recession. In conclusion, we seem to be heading towards a favourable scenario for risky assets: a return to very accommodating monetary policies in a "non-recessionary" context on both sides of the Atlantic.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - EVOLUTIF performed as follows:

- A share (EUR): +9.43%
- B share (EUR): +9.23%
- I share (EUR): +9.95%
- Q share (EUR): +10.32%
- AD share (EUR): +9.43%
- N share (EUR): +9.77%
- ID share (EUR): +10.17% until 29/04/2019 (share fully redeemed)
- SI share (EUR): +2.74% until 25/01/2019 (share fully redeemed)

Compared with +10.82% for its benchmark composite index 60% Eurostoxx 50 NR + 30% FTSE MTS EMU GOV 1-3 years + 10% EONIA capitalised, calculated on a dividends and coupons reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance

Since the start of the year, the three best share performances have been achieved by ATOS, VINCI and WORLDLINE.

The main changes included the addition of SAP, LVMH, SIKA and L'OREAL stocks to the sub-fund and, conversely, the liquidation of the SAINT-GOBAIN, ROYAL DUTCH and CARREFOUR holdings.

Sinking to new lows, the central banks' reference rates and accommodating messages point to a continued reduction in the cost of capital for companies while they continue to optimise their cost structure, innovate and take advantage of continued strong consumption in the main developed and emerging zones. As for industry and business services, recent volatility may be an opportunity to increase the value allocation in the portfolios, provided growth and inflation expectations stabilise.

As at 28 June 2019, the level of interest-bearing cash assets stood at +3.96% of the portfolio, and the net assets stood at EUR 268 million.

Outlook for the second half of 2019

Despite six months of historic performance, we believe the equity class can continue to offer potential. There are still large caps (highly liquid) offering prospects for revenue growth, profitability, cash flows and great resilience to disruption within our portfolio, at valuation levels that do not yet fully factor in the value of growth opportunities and shareholder returns.

DNCA INVEST - SOUTH EUROPE OPPORTUNITIES

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

Southern European markets showed strong growth during the first half of 2019, with Italian (FTSEMIB), Spanish (IBEX) and Portuguese (PSI20) indices, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis, at +18.90%, +10.32% and +8.58% respectively.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - SOUTH EUROPE OPPORTUNITIES performed as follows:

- A share (EUR): +14.18%
- I share (EUR): +14.45%
- B share (EUR): +13.96%
- N share (EUR): +14.59%

Compared with +15.44% for its composite benchmark indicator 55% FTSEMIBN Index, 40% IBEX35TR, 5% PSI20, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

Top contributors included Ferrari, utility companies Iberdrola and Enel, the Spanish telecommunications infrastructure operator Cellnex, the Italian auditory prosthesis distribution company Amplifon and private bank Banca Generali. In contrast, Spanish banking stocks Caixabank and Bankinter, as well as the IAG Group, which includes the airlines British Airways, Iberia, Vueling and Aer Lingus, adversely affected performance.

The choice of stocks in the portfolio is guided by an in-depth fundamental analysis, the conclusions of which are validated by regular discussions with company managers (more than 200 meetings per year) and by an opportunistic approach resulting more from very close monitoring of stocks, enabling great responsiveness, rather than gambles related to sector, geography, style or capitalisation size.

The level of interest-bearing cash assets at the end of the period stood at +1.59% (including money market UCITS and similar funds) of the portfolio, and its assets stood at EUR 155.1 million.

Outlook for the second half

While a rise in interest rates was expected at the start of the year, continuing an accommodating monetary policy is now on the agenda given the uncertainties about the global growth trajectory and the impact that the ongoing trade negotiations between the major powers could have. Political risk is diminishing in Italy, with a stronger-than-expected Lega-M5S coalition, and after Brussels abandoned imposing sanctions on Italy for an excessive deficit. In Spain, the parliament will decide at the end of July whether it will support a government headed by the socialist Pedro Sanchez, otherwise new elections will be held.

Our focus continues to be on the sustainability of the earnings growth drivers for the companies in our portfolio and on potential new inflows. Discussions regarding a Fiat-Renault merger and the proposed mergers of Gima TT and Mediaset España with their parent companies, and the acquisition of Parques Reunidos by the Luxembourg fund EQT, remind us that mergers and acquisitions are still on the cards due to the low cost of money and/or attractive valuation multiples.

DNCA INVEST - VALUE EUROPE

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

Part of the very good performance of the stock market indices is down to the excessive correction in the last three months of 2018. These excesses were linked to an environment overshadowed by fears about growth, linked in particular to the toughening of negotiations between the White House and Beijing and the pro-normalisation stance of the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). In contrast, in the first six months of 2019 the European and US central banks were very proactive, with Fed's Chairman Jerome Powell ending the half-year by officially paving the way for rate cuts. In this "dovish" environment, the tensions between Rome and Brussels over the budget deficit and the diehard stance of Boris Johnson, the favourite to take over from Theresa May, were regarded as background noise. Quality stocks are the ones that benefited most from the good stock market performance.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - VALUE EUROPE performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +9.78%
- A share (EUR): +9.23%
- B share (EUR): +9.02%
- AD share (EUR): +9.23%
- ID share (EUR): +9.78%
- H-I share (USD): +12.38%
- H-A share (USD): +11.82%
- IG share (EUR): +9.52%
- N share (EUR): +9.61%
- ND share (EUR): +9.60%
- Q share (EUR): +10.19%

Compared with +16.46% for its benchmark index, the STOXX 600, calculated on dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

During this first half-year, the sub-fund's three best performances, with dividends reinvested, were achieved by SBM Offshore, Novartis and Enel. In contrast, Babcock International, Société Générale and Imperial Brands were the three weakest performers. The sub-fund took in TUI, FLSmidth and Prosieben and sold its positions in Smurfit Kappa Group, Equinor and Gemalto.

The level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) stood at +9.00% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 732 million.

Outlook for the second half

Global economic growth is a source of concern, but the likelihood of a future recession is still low. Low inflation and low rates are expected to support the market in part, assuming global economic stabilisation. The extreme differences in performance between the growth and value styles suggest a possible rebalancing. In this environment, we favour less indebted stocks with a capital expenditure (CAPEX) discipline.

DNCA INVEST - BEYOND INFRASTRUCTURE & TRANSITION

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

After the downturn in May, June saw a rebound in the main global equity indices to close a buoyant first half. Central banks were driving forces on both sides of the Atlantic, with Mario Draghi mentioning at the Sintra forum new supporting measures that the European Central Bank could implement, and Jerome Powell confirming the possibility of a cut in key rates. The issue remains the same: returning to inflation, which is still sluggish despite years of accommodating monetary policies, at the same time as the trade war is materialising through certain signs of an economic slowdown. On this point, the good interaction between Donald Trump and Xi Jinping at the G20 meeting sent a positive signal about the outcome of the trade negotiations, although a further about-turn cannot be ruled out. Against this backdrop, we can imagine real interest rates remaining low (in the United-States) or even negative (eurozone), driven by further cuts in key rates or by an upturn in inflation in the second half of the year, favourable to the infrastructure sector.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - BEYOND INFRASTRUCTURE & TRANSITION performed as follows:

- A share (EUR): +13.12%
- B share (EUR): +12.91%
- I share (EUR): +13.71%
- N share (EUR): +13.52%

Compared with +8.03% for its benchmark index, the MSCI Europe Infrastructure, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

The best performances in the portfolio over the period were Port de Hambourg, Enel, Albioma, Cellnex and Ecorodovias. In contrast, the worst performers were Eutelsat Communications, Telecom Italia, Voltalia, ADP and Attendo.

The main transactions included Voltalia stocks being brought into the sub-fund and, in contrast, the Attendo, Pizzorno, Enagas, SIAS and Terna positions being sold.

The level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio stood at +4.74% (including money market UCITS and similar funds) at the end of the period, and net assets stood at EUR 93.9 million.

Outlook for the second half

In an environment of negative interest rates in Europe, companies are finding themselves in favourable conditions to finance their projects. For example, two companies in our selection resorted to the market during the month. Cellnex, a telecom transmission tower operator, issued a new convertible bond for EUR 850 million, with a maturity date in 2028. This issue enables the group to capture an attractive return of 1.4% over this kind of maturity (nine years), to finance its consolidation plan for the European sector. Voltalia, a producer of electricity from renewable sources, initiated a EUR 376 million capital increase to finance its solar and wind farm. This transaction, which is 75% guaranteed by a group of investors, was subscribed to by the management team and should enable the group to change dimension by 2023 (2.6 GW in production vs 0.5 GW at the end of 2018). What these two companies have in common is the nature of their infrastructure model: long-duration assets (15- 30 years), indebted and with inflation-linked remuneration, the appeal of which, in addition to technological considerations, is based on the ability to obtain low-cost financing. The current environment remains largely favourable to activities of this type while there is no prospect of a significant and sudden rebound in real interest rates in the medium term.

DNCA INVEST - BEYOND GLOBAL LEADERS

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

After the weakness in the fourth quarter 2018, financial markets were due for a bounce back in 2019, and that is exactly what happened - and wow - in style! With most major equity markets around the world up between 15%-20% in the first half of 2019, this marked a real turnaround from the morose sentiment seen at the end of last year.

Apart from the simple fact that investors realized that the world was not coming to a complete standstill, was also the realization - as we mentioned in our last missive - that there was not going to be a hard economic landing in China. Stimulus measures are warranted, and even despite that, GDP growth going forward will never be as strong as in previous years. However the Chinese government will continue to press forward with strong growth stimuli. It has no choice, if simply to maintain stability in the "Middle Kingdom".

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - BEYOND GLOBAL LEADERS performed as follows:

- Class A (EUR): +15.31%
- Class B (EUR): +15.17%
- Class I (EUR): +15.89%
- Class Q (EUR): +16.14%
- Class N (EUR): +15.69%

Against +16.67% for its benchmark, the MSCI All Countries World Index Net Return, calculated on a dividends-reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

The one thing we are sure of now is the fact that the "trade war" is actually more of a "technology war" - clearly emphasised by the decision of the Trump administration to place Huawei on the entity list, thus barring it from benefiting from technological advances of companies elsewhere in the world. This is just the start of a long drawn out battle of attrition of the two global economic powers. Whether we like it or not, the increasing globalization that we have seen over the last few decades has started slowing, and sentiment and global growth will by essence slow down.

In the first half of the year, some of the standout performers were Bioxcel (+184%), Estee Lauder (+41%), LVMH (+45%), PureTech Health (+33%), Nittoku Engineering (+49%), and Alexion (+35%) – an interesting collection with most of the companies being either health care, or premium consumption.

Among the disappointments, there were AMBU (-32%), Infineon (-10%), and Gruh Finance (- 12%).

The main changes in the sub-fund were the removal of IDFC First Capital Bank, Trend Micro, Ionis Pharmaceutical, and VAT Group. The additions included PKSHA Technology, Ubisoft Entertainment, LVMH, and Swedencare.

As at 28 June 2019, the sub-fund was invested in 38 companies and had a level of interest-bearing cash assets which stood at +9.76% of the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) with net assets of EUR 317,7 million.

Outlook for the second half of the year

We have remained long term investors in our sectors of choice - namely new technologies, robotics, artificial intelligence (AI), healthcare, medical technology, and biotechnology, and emerging market consumption. There were a few changes in the portfolio, linked primarily to mergers or acquisitions but as a whole there was little movement within the sub-fund. The weighting in the United-States remained low because of high valuations and balance sheets that have actually become quite indebted, contrary to Japan where the companies have remarkably solid balance sheets and where weighting has actually risen. We believe that a lot of the recovery in the global indices have already taken place and the second half of the year will be much more of a stock pickers market.

DNCA INVEST - CONVERTIBLES

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

The European equity markets posted strong performances in June and the accommodating stance of the two main central banks enabled equities to rise again. Via the yields observed on sovereign debt, the financial markets have already incorporated some of the potential future announcements, despite economic statistics which are struggling overall to change course, like the latest Purchasing Managers' Indices (PMI). So investors value far more the support given to the economy than the reasons behind these exceptional measures. In Europe, however, the European Central Bank (ECB) has much less room for manoeuvre, with a balance sheet still accounting for 45% of eurozone GDP, compared with 20% for the US Federal Reserve (Fed). The European primary market for convertible bonds offered some investment opportunities, with five transactions representing a total amount close to EUR 1.7 billion.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - CONVERTIBLES performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +4.85%
- A share (EUR): +4.48%
- B share (EUR): +4.38%
- N share (EUR): +4.79%
- B share (CHF): +4.38%
- SI share (EUR): +4.95%

Compared with +5.09% for its benchmark indicator, the Exane ECI Euro index, calculated on a coupons reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

Over the period, the portfolio's best performances came from Cellnex 2026, Airbus 2022, Inmarsat 2023, Telecom Italia 2022 and Soitec 2023. In contrast, the sub-fund suffered due to its exposure to the Rallye 2023, Rallye 2022, Renault TP, Air France 2023 and Ence 2023 bond issues.

During the period, the five largest positions in the portfolio were: Telecom Italia 2022, Telefonica 2021, IAG 2022, Airbus/Dassault 2021 and Haniel 2020. In addition, 10 bonds exited our selection (including three redeemed at their maturity date) for six new lines.

At the end of the period, the level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio stood at +1.38% (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 697.9 million.

Outlook for the second half

The start of the half-year earnings publications season will enable investors to observe the behaviour of microeconomic players faced with a macroeconomic environment that was difficult to grasp over the period. The performance of certain segments of the financial markets now leave little room for disappointment and the return of mergers and acquisitions reflects attractive financing costs and valuation levels on listed markets. However, attention should be paid to the signals conveyed by these external growth transactions, which could in certain cases be seeking to compensate for weaker organic growth, synonymous with the end of the cycle. The sub-fund is maintaining cautious positioning with a "delta/yield" profile of 27% and 0.6% versus 31% and -2.3% respectively for its benchmark index. The truce concluded at the G20 regarding the Sino-US conflict should support well-weighted cyclical stocks within the portfolio, which might benefit from greater geopolitical visibility over the coming months.

DNCA INVEST - MIURA

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

The equity markets rose in the first half of 2019 against a backdrop of general economic slowdown. After the decline at the end of 2018, the markets acknowledged on the one hand that trade discussions were ongoing between the United States and China, and on the other that the central banks would continue to support their economies. We believe these two points are essential in that they have a powerful impact on the direction of the markets (rate cuts, expansion of multiples) and their positioning (defensive, visible growth). We will not risk predicting a conclusion to the trade war, but we must emphasise that the situation is unique in history. Since the First World War, only the USSR had challenged the international trade framework. Today, it is the strong party that is calling for a change to a situation that it created itself. The political agenda of the two countries will probably dictate the outcome of this crisis, which will so far have had negative impacts on the sectors most exposed to the Chinese economy (automotive, electronics) and on economic models based on exportation (Germany).

The performance of DNCA INVEST - MIURA has been impacted by its style. By way of a reminder, our investment process is simple: from our investment universe, for our long positions we select for purchase stocks that have underperformed, benefiting from an attractive valuation and on which we identify positive catalysts. On the other hand, for our short positions, we identify stocks that have over performed, trading at a premium rate relative to their peers and on which we identify negative catalysts. The first half of 2019 was marked by unprecedented capitulation of the value and a return to the average in the face of the momentum ("price momentum").

Our portfolio is consistent with our fundamental approach using catalysts. In terms of net exposure, we remain relatively unexposed to the market and continue to diversify significantly through around forty or so "pair trades" spread out over the main European sectors and geographical regions.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - MIURA performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): -5.30%
- A share (EUR): -5.68%
- B share (EUR): -5.78%
- Q share (EUR): -4.96%
- N share (EUR): -5.37%

Compared with -0.18% for the EONIA, the sub-fund's benchmark index.

Past performance in no way predicts future performance.

The sub-fund posted volatility above its objective, since it was 6.35% over 12 months versus an objective of 5.0% maximum. Measures have been initiated to reduce the volatility.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - MIURA suffered in particular from the following "pair trades":

- Long Unicredit short Generali
- Long Credit Agricole short Munich Re
- Long ITV short Reed
- Long Mittal short Rio
- Long Inditex short Adidas
- Long Bouygues short Vinci

The level of cash assets stood at 26.65% of the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) at the end of the period, and net assets stood at EUR 276.4 million.

Gross exposure (long positions + short positions reduced to net assets) is 196.53%, and net exposure (equities + long-term CFDs - short-term CFDs reduced to net assets) is -3.88%.

Outlook for the second half

We are entering the second half with a net exposure approaching 0 and are continuing to favour stock picking over market direction. Our portfolio consists of forty or so pair trades. After a market that was very focused on macroeconomics in May and June, July should allow us to focus on companies as we approach the quarterly earnings season. Moreover, in our long positions, we continue to favour stocks that can be the subject of a Merger and Acquisition ("M&A"), as we are starting to see, in Europe, the emergence of mergers and acquisitions such as Capgemini's of Altran Technologies or KKR's of Axel Springer.

The performance of DNCA INVEST - MIURI was impacted during this first half by poor stock picking. The sub-fund's underperformance focused in particular on stocks where the market has doubts about their ability to drive relaunch structural earnings growth (tobacco, telecoms, media).

As at 28 June 2019, the sub-fund was positioned in 36 stocks and exposed to the market via futures on the Eurostoxx 50, DAX and CAC indices as well as sector indices. Saint-Gobain, Bouygues, Schneider, Atos and Lagardère are the main high-conviction purchasing positions in the portfolio.

The level of liquidity in the portfolio stood at 26.47% at the end of the period, and net assets stood at EUR 474.3 million.

Gross exposure (long + short positions reduced to net assets) is 163.7%, and net exposure (equities + long CFDs - short CFDs - futures reduced to net assets) is 3.6%.

Outlook for the second half

We are entering the second half with a net exposure approaching 0 and are continuing to favour stock picking over market direction. The value portion of the DNCA INVEST - MIURI portfolio has increased and represents nearly 80% of the long portfolio. It consists of low- valuation companies (PE around 10x/FCF 10%) with healthy balance sheets and whose activity should continue to grow in the coming years. The rest of the portfolio is made up of companies whose growth potential we consider to be underestimated by the market. These investments are focused on companies that are benefiting from the "digital manufacturing" revolution, the development of large urban centres and the growth in international tourism.

DNCA INVEST - EUROPE GROWTH

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

The equity markets started 2019 with a strong rebound, wiping out the excessive downturn of the last three months of 2018. The central banks were also very proactive: in March, the US Federal Reserve (Fed) sent a clear message by postponing the prospect of another interest rate hike to beyond 2019. However, things were once again complicated in May with the toughening of the White House's position in the negotiations with Beijing and the announcement of an increase in tariffs from 10% to 25% on USD 200 billion of Chinese imports. The market was caught on the wrong foot after being at its highest at the end of April/beginning of May.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - EUROPE GROWTH performed as follows:

Compared with +16.46% for its benchmark index, the Stoxx 600 NR, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

Over the period, our main high-conviction stocks were once more the main contributors to the sub-fund's performance. Examples include Teleperformance, Alten and Sika. It is also worth noting the outperformance of healthcare stocks such as Amplifon, Sartorius Stedim, Straumann and Lonza, which helped the sub-fund to be more resilient in a turbulent market. The new inflows (LVMH and Tomra) in 2019 also performed very well. Disappointments included Stabilus and SFS. It is very difficult to assess the precise impact of the protectionist measures arising from trade tensions, but they are undoubtedly having a disruptive effect on certain sectors such as auto, industry and even semi-conductors. For this reason, we have significantly reduced our exposure to these sectors since the second half of 2018 (Brembo, Norma, SFS and Stabilus have all exited the sub-fund) due to a marked deterioration in visibility regarding their growth in 2019. In addition, Solutions 30 posted a very encouraging first quarter, but the share price fell sharply following the announcement of a short sell transaction initiated by a US hedge fund. To date, we still do not know the reasons behind the taking of this short position.

One major event worth mentioning is Cap Gemini's friendly takeover bid for Altran. However, the sub-fund is not a shareholder in these two companies but Alten, Altran's major competitor, is in second place. This merger between the leaders in the IT and outsourced R&D sectors is a surprise, but the convergence of these two sectors is a hard fact. Cap Gemini's decision is therefore fairly logical. There is a question mark over the future of Alten's shareholding structure. Specifically, its founder, Mr Azoulay (63), owns 15% of the capital and 26% of the voting rights and, to our knowledge, there is no family succession within the group. We cannot therefore rule out the possibility of other large IT groups (Accenture, Deloitte, Cognizant, etc.) following Cap Gemini's example in the coming years.

At the end of the period, the level of interest-bearing cash assets in the portfolio stood at +5.53% (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 1,278 million.

Outlook for the second half

Since the beginning of June, the equity markets have recovered well, thanks in particular to the very accommodating stance of the central banks. Sovereign rates have therefore logically declined, with the 10-year French treasury bond (OAT) rate now being at 0% - a historic first! This recent rates trend is obviously favourable for "growth/quality" (and therefore for the sub-fund), since it is squeezing the free cash flow discount rates for these long-term securities. This situation is leading to an increase in valuation multiples, meaning it is becoming increasingly difficult to find growth companies at reasonable prices. Developments in Sino-US relations will also be decisive for the direction of the markets between now and the end of the year.

During the Paris Air Show, we had the opportunity to meet with many companies from the aeronautical and defence sector. The tone was most often optimistic thanks to Airbus's well-filled order book, uninterrupted growth in air traffic, and the ramp-up in the latest generation of engines. The defence budgets of the major European countries are also on an upward trend. The main uncertainties revolve around Boeing, and in the longer term the CO2 impact of the sector. In our view, this sector is one of the few stable oasis (along with healthcare) and it should continue to be favoured for the rest of the year.

DNCA INVEST - ARCHER MID-CAP EUROPE

Part of the very good performance of the stock market indices is down to the excessive correction in the last three months of 2018. These excesses were linked to an environment overshadowed by fears about growth, linked in particular to the toughening of negotiations between the White House and Beijing and the tightening stance of the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). In contrast, in the first six months of 2019 the European and US central banks were very proactive, with Fed's Chairman Jerome Powell ending the half-year by officially paving the way for rate cuts. In this "dovish" environment quality, growth stocks are the ones that benefited most from the good stock market performance.

The strongest contributor to performance was Altran Technologies (French headquartered R&D outsourcers) subject of a takeover bid from Cap Gemini. Other strong performers include Jumbo (Greek discount retailer), Dermapharm (German healthcare company), Sulzer (Swiss industrial pump manufacturer). Negative contributors to performance included Origin Enterprises (Irish agribusiness), Humana (Swedish healthcare services) and Karnov (Danish headquartered provider of legal database).

The level of cash assets in the portfolio stood at +2.76% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 109,3 million.

Outlook for the second half

The sub-fund invests in the attractive European mid-cap segment. We focus on businesses with:

- i) some form of competitive advantage
- ii) a strong alignment between shareholders and management interests
- iii) attractive valuations.

The sub-fund celebrated its 3-year anniversary in June and ranks in the first quartile among the Morningstar category, Europe Mid-Cap Equities, since its inception. We believe that the sub-fund's positioning of avoiding the most favoured and richly priced mid-cap growth stocks differentiates us from other funds in this category. Global economic growth is a source of concern, but the likelihood of a future recession is still low. Low inflation and low rates are expected to support the market in part, assuming global economic stabilisation. The extreme differences in performance between the growth and value styles has become ever more extreme and could renormalize. Several acquisitions of European mid-caps (Altran Technologies, Merlin Entertainment, BCA, Latécoère etc) are proof that industrials and Private Equity see intrinsic value among European midcaps.

Since the beginning of June, the equity markets have recovered well, thanks in particular to the very accommodating stance of the central banks. Sovereign rates have therefore logically declined, with the 10-year French treasury bond (OAT) rate now being at 0% - a historic first! This recent rates trend is obviously favourable for "growth/quality" (and therefore for the sub-fund), since it is squeezing the free cash flow discount rates for these long-term securities. This situation is leading to an increase in valuation multiples, meaning it is becoming increasingly difficult to find growth companies at reasonable prices. Developments in Sino-US relations will also be decisive for the direction of the markets between now and the end of the year.

In this context, we are favouring Nordic countries to identify new ideas because we are managing to find "growth/quality" stocks at reasonable prices that are still relatively unknown to European investors. Karnov is one of these. A legal information specialist, the equivalent of "Bloomberg", it provides a database for legal professionals. It has a near-monopoly position in Denmark and Sweden (following the recent acquisition of a Swedish competitor). Its economic model is very profitable (40% operating margin), with strong cash generation. Furthermore, this is an extremely defensive industry, regardless of the Macroeconomic situation. Its ability to raise prices in Sweden, to bridge the 30% discount compared with Denmark, will enable the company to generate organic growth of +4-5% annually. Its Price-Earnings Ratio (PER) of 17.3x for 2020 seems reasonable to us for such a high-quality growth and sustainability profile in a context of political and economic uncertainty.

DNCA INVEST - SERENITE PLUS

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

With the truce in the trade and technology war between China and the United States, the half-year ended on a rather positive note. However, the real main driver behind the good performance of the markets over the last six months remains the return of the - very - accommodating bias of the main central banks, led by the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). This positioning actually gathered momentum in June, with speeches by officials and market discussions on possible cuts in key rates in the coming months on both sides of the Atlantic. As a result, sovereign rates in the eurozone are still falling. Here, for the first time in its history, France's 10-year borrowing rate has entered negative territory. In this universe, where even the smallest yield is difficult to find, credit is being favoured by the market and spreads have tightened significantly. Equities, the ultimate risky asset, have also benefited: the Euro STOXX 50 Net Return has gained nearly 20% since the beginning of the year.

During the half-year, DNCA INVEST - SERENITE PLUS performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +1.01%
- A share (EUR): +0.89%
- B share (EUR): +0.81%
- AD share (EUR): +0.89%
- ID share (EUR): +1.02%

Compared with +0.35% for its index, the FTSE MTS Index 1-3 years, calculated on a coupons reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

The main investments were in HANIEL (exchangeable for METRO) 2020, CASINO 2019 and 2020, as well as BANCO BPM 2022. In contrast, the MEDIASET 2019, GALP 2019 and BANCO BPM 2019 bonds were amortised.

At the end of the period, the level of interest-bearing cash assets stood at +7.25% of the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 319 million.

Outlook for the second half

As a reminder, the performance in the first half of the current year follows last year's correction. The market has now completely put aside the risk of a rise in interest rates, even as regards to a return to 0% for the German 10-year rate. The sub-fund's positioning remains very cautious in this context.

DNCA INVEST - VENASQUO

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

The equity markets rose in the first half of 2019 against a backdrop of general economic slowdown. After the decline at the end of 2018, the markets acknowledged on the one hand that trade discussions were ongoing between the United States and China, and on the other that the central banks would continue to support their economies. We believe these two points are essential in that they have a powerful impact on the direction of the markets (rate cuts, expansion of multiples) and their positioning (defensive, visible growth). We will not risk predicting a conclusion to the trade war, but we must emphasise that the situation is unique in history. Since the First World War, only the USSR had challenged the international trade framework. Today, it is the strong party that is calling for a change to a situation that it created itself. The political agenda of the two countries will probably dictate the outcome of this crisis, which will so far have had negative impacts on the sectors most exposed to the Chinese economy (automotive, electronics) and on economic models based on exporting (Germany).

The performance of DNCA INVEST - VENASQUO was impacted during this first half by poor stock picking. The sub-fund's underperformance focused in particular on stocks where the market has doubts about their ability to drive relaunch structural earnings growth (tobacco, telecoms, media).

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - VENASQUO performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +5,31%
- A share (EUR): +4,97%
- B share (EUR): +4,77%
- Q share (EUR): +5,71%
- N share (EUR): +5,24%

Compared with +8.78 for its composite index, 50% EONIA+50% Eurostoxx 50, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

The sub-fund posted volatility slightly above its objective, since it was 5.5% over 12 months versus an objective of 5.0% maximum. Measures have been initiated to reduce the volatility.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - VENASQUO benefited in particular from positions in Schneider-Electric, AB Inbev, Heidelberg cement, Atos and TF1. As at 28 June 2019, the sub-fund was positioned in 33 stocks and exposed to the market via futures on the Eurostoxx 50, DAX and CAC indices as well as sector indices. Saint-Gobain, Bouygues, Schneider Electric, Siemens and Sopra Steria are the main high-conviction purchasing positions in the portfolio.

The level of liquidity in the portfolio stood at +13.86% at the end of the period, and net assets stood at EUR 73.5 million.

Gross exposure (long + short positions reduced to net assets) is 148%, and net exposure (equities + long CFDs - short CFDs - futures reduced to net assets) is 59%.

Outlook for the second half

We are entering the second half of the year with a net exposure slightly above our benchmark (59% versus 50%) but are continuing to favour stock picking over market direction. The value portion of the DNCA INVEST - VENASQUO portfolio has increased and represents nearly 80% of the long portfolio. It consists of low-valuation companies (PE around 10x/FCF 10%) with healthy balance sheets and whose activity should continue to grow in the coming years. The rest of the portfolio is made up of companies whose growth potential we consider to be underestimated by the market. These investments are focused on companies that are benefiting from the "digital manufacturing" revolution, the development of large urban centres and the growth in international tourism.

DNCA INVEST - GLOBAL CONVERTIBLES

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

The equity markets posted strong performances in June and the accommodating stance of the two main central banks enabled equities to rise again. Via the yields observed on sovereign debt, the financial markets have already incorporated some of the potential future announcements, despite economic statistics which are struggling overall to change course, like the latest Purchasing Managers' Indices (PMI). Consequently, investors value far more the support given to the economy than the reasons behind these exceptional measures. In Europe, however, the European Central Bank (ECB) has much less room for manoeuvre, with a balance sheet still accounting for 45% of eurozone GDP, compared with 20% for the US Federal Reserve (Fed). The primary market for international convertible bonds has continued to be dynamic, driven by the two main regions, the United States and Europe. Specifically, 18 transactions were initiated for a total amount representing approximately EUR 6 billion.

- A share (EUR): +5.25%
- B share (EUR): +5.14%
- Q share (EUR): +5.92%
- N share (EUR): share launched on 14/02/2019

Compared with +6.08% for its benchmark index, UBS Thomson Reuters Global Focus CB, calculated on a coupons reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

Over the period, the portfolio's best performances were Sea Ltd 2023, Soitec 2023, Carrefour 2023, Axa EQH 2021 and LVMH 2021. In contrast, the Rallye 2022, Evolent 2025, Rallye 2023, Air France 2026 and Renault TP lines performed the worst.

During the period, the five largest positions in the portfolio were: Carrefour 2023, Telecom Italia 2022, Indra 2023, IAG 2022 and Fresenius 2024.

At the end of the period, the level of interest-bearing cash assets stood at +3.45% of the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds), and net assets stood at EUR 56.3 million.

Outlook for the second half

The start of the half-year earnings publications season will enable investors to observe the behaviour of microeconomic players faced with a macroeconomic environment that was difficult to grasp over the first half year. The performance of certain segments of the financial markets now leave little room for disappointment and the return of mergers and acquisitions reflects attractive financing costs and valuation levels on listed markets. However, attention should be paid to the signals conveyed by these external growth transactions, which could in certain cases be seeking to compensate for weaker organic growth, synonymous with the end of the cycle. The sub-fund is maintaining cautious positioning with a "delta/yield" profile of 36% and 1%. The truce concluded at the G20 regarding the Sino-US conflict should support well-weighted cyclical stocks within the portfolio, which might benefit from greater geopolitical visibility over the coming months.

DNCA INVEST - ALPHA BONDS

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

Economic growth in the first half of 2019 was not as weak as the financial markets had expected. US growth remained strong, while in Europe it was admittedly a little weaker, mainly due to the stagnation in activity in Germany and Italy. Everywhere, household consumption was the main driver of growth, and international trade was its main obstacle. In this environment, never has the dichotomy between service-related sectors, bolstered by the purchasing power of households, and industry, whose entrepreneurs continue to be worried about the trade war, appeared so significant. Despite a continued decline in unemployment, wages continued to be stable and, with the fall in oil prices in the fourth quarter of 2018, inflation showed no sign of recovery. Volatility on the foreign exchange markets remained contained between the major currencies, where little fluctuation was recorded. Lastly, the equity and credit markets benefited from this buoyant environment to make up for the ground lost the previous year, with some stock indices reaching historic highs.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - ALPHA BONDS performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +1.52%
- A share (EUR): +1.23%
- B share (EUR): +1.11%
- N share (EUR): +1.42%
- Q share (EUR): +1.81%

Compared with +1.07% for its benchmark indicator, EONIA +2.5%. Past performance does not predict future performance. In terms of management, our positioning, which takes into account an environment less weak than the market environment and which ultimately proved to be fairly accurate, did not pay off. In this context, we did not in fact consider the possibility of additional monetary easing that the major central banks have practically adopted for the second half, and so maintained a negative exposure to the rate risk. Short positions on German five-year and then 10-year interest rates, the position in Canada concerning this same maturity and, to a lesser extent, in the United States and Italy, consequently penalised us.

These were more than offset by all the long and diversified positions in the portfolio, and by the long positions on the main and senior bank CDS taken at the beginning of the period when, in our opinion, the consensus among economists was too conservative. On the foreign exchange market, the major change concerns exposure to the US dollar, which is no longer part of the portfolio allocation, mainly to the benefit of the Canadian dollar and the Japanese yen. In terms of risk, the portfolio's volatility was consistently contained between 2.5% and 3.5%, and the liquidity score (Bloomberg data) above 94.

The main negative contributors to performance during the half-year were the sell positions on German, Canadian and Italian government bonds. The main positive contributions came from the Portuguese, Greek and New Zealand government bonds, and CDS on European credit indices.

During the period that just ended, the main transactions in the portfolio involved:

- investing in the European credit market via CDS on indices at the beginning of the half-year to strengthen positions on inflation swaps;
- investing in Japanese government bonds;
- selling our currency exposure to the US dollar;
- selling our exposure to the European credit market via CDS on indices at the end of the half year.

The level of cash assets in the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) stood at +22.6% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 3,554 million.

Outlook for the second half

The absence of inflation and uncertainties about the settlement of the Sino-American trade dispute have prompted a radical change in the stance of the central banks, which now want to make their monetary policy even more accommodating. The US Federal Reserve (Fed), the European Central Bank (ECB) and the People's Bank of China (PBoC) are thus expected to take action in the second half of the year, following in the footsteps of the national banks of Australia, New Zealand, India and Chile in the first half.

DNCA INVEST - FLEX INFLATION

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

In terms of management, our positioning, which takes into account an environment less weak than the market environment and which ultimately proved to be fairly accurate, did not pay off. In this context, we did not in fact consider the possibility of additional monetary easing that the major central banks have practically adopted for the second half, and so maintained a lower bond exposure than its benchmark. We were consequently penalised by this underexposure in a generally buoyant bond market. Faced with falling yields, mainly caused by expectations of monetary easing, our significant bull position on breakeven inflation rates should have appreciated. This has not yet been the case, but we are keeping this strategy in place because inflation premiums are still negative. In terms of risk, the portfolio's volatility was consistently contained between 2.5% and 3.5%, and the liquidity score (Bloomberg data) above 95.

The main negative contributors to performance during the half year were the sell positions on German, Canadian and Italian government bonds. The main positive contributors were New Zealand, Hungarian and Portuguese government bonds.

During the period that just ended, the main transactions in the portfolio involved:

- strengthening positions on inflation swaps;
- investing in Japanese government bonds;

The level of cash assets in the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) stood at +6.68% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 239.7 million.

DNCA INVEST - BEYOND ALTEROSA

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

With the truce in the trade and technology war between China and the United States, the half year ended on a rather positive note. However, the real main driver behind the good performance of the markets over the last six months remains the return of the - very - accommodating bias of the main central banks, led by the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and the European Central Bank (ECB). - A share (EUR): +7.00%
- N share (EUR): +7.26%

Compared with +9.79% for its benchmark indicator, 30% of the EUROSTOXX and 70% of the FTS MTS Global, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

During this first half year, DSM, ADIDAS and SCHNEIDER ELECTRIC were the three best performances, with dividends reinvested, in the sub-fund. In contrast, UMICORE, CASINO 5.976% 05/2021 and INFINEON were the three weakest.

The main transactions carried out during this first half-year included the portfolio inflows of BOUYGUES and IBERDROLA as regards equities and SYMRISE 1.25% 11/2025, PRYSMIAN 0% 01/2022 and CASINO 4.726% 05/2021 regarding bonds. In contrast, the bonds BANIJAY 4% 07/2022 and TELEFONICA TV PERP exited our selection.

The level of cash assets in the portfolio (including money market UCITS and similar funds) stood at +9.88% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 55.2 million.

Outlook for the second half

As a reminder, the strong performance in the first half of the current year follows the market downturn at the end of last year. Our convictions remain the same, in terms of allocation choices but even more so in terms of security selection. The market has now completely put aside the risk of a rise in interest rates, even as regards a return to 0% for the German 10-year rate. The majority of investors are therefore prepared to take significant duration risks.

We are maintaining a low exposure to interest rates and are continuing to favour the equities asset class.

DNCA INVEST - BEYOND SEMPEROSA

Update on the first half of 2019 just ended

There was a strong rebound in the equity markets in the first half-year, despite an abrupt stop in May. Specifically, the intensification of US customs measures against China, followed by the sudden introduction of graduated taxes on Mexican imports, combined with more mixed macroeconomic indicators, eliminated the renewed optimism that had been evident since the beginning of the year. At the end of June, the markets recorded a rise of between 15% and 18%, still driven by an accommodating monetary policy favourable to growth stocks, which significantly outperformed the markets.

During the half year, DNCA INVEST - BEYOND SEMPEROSA performed as follows:

- I share (EUR): +18.86%
- A share (EUR): +18.41%
- N share (EUR): +18.73%
- Q share (EUR): launched on 31/05/2019

Compared with +18.32% for its benchmark indicator, the EUROSTOXX 50 NR, calculated on a dividends reinvested basis.

Past performance does not predict future performance.

During the first half year, the top three performers were DSM, SCHNEIDER ELECTRIC and ASML shares. In contrast, UMICORE, INFINEON and CHR HANSEN shares were the three worst performers.

The main transactions during the sub-fund's launch phase included the following purchases: THULE, 2CRSI, INDRA SISTEMAS, GIVAUDAN, IBERDROLA, CHR HANSEN and KERRY. In contrast, only one stock exited the portfolio: WESSANEN, following a takeover bid.

Moreover, as regards to the issues of corporate responsibility and positive impact on the sustainable transition, no stock held in the portfolio was the subject of controversy or a change in its rating.

The level of cash assets in the portfolio stood at +4.49% at the end of the period, and its net assets reached EUR 61 million.

Outlook for the second half

The sub-fund is entering the second half with 95% exposure to equities in a context of the publication of half-yearly results that will be decisive for the continuation of the upward trend. We remain vigilant following a few disappointing macroeconomic publications and, in this context, the proportion of defensive stocks continues to be significant, making up more than 60% of the portfolio. The quality growth bias also continues to be dominant.

2.2 Valuation rules

The value of the following assets is determined as follows:

a) The value of any cash in hand or on deposit, bills and demand notes and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends and interest declared or accrued as aforesaid and not yet received is deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof is arrived at after making such discount as may be considered appropriate in such case to reflect the true value thereof.

b) The value of securities and/or financial derivative instruments, which are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, is based on the last available price on the stock exchange, which is normally the principal market for such assets.

c) The value of assets dealt in any other Regulated Market is based on the last available price.

d) In the event that any assets are not listed or dealt in on any stock exchange or on any other Regulated Market, or if, with respect to assets listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, or other Regulated Market as aforesaid, the price as determined pursuant to sub-paragraph (b) or (c) is not representative of the fair market value of the relevant assets, the value of such assets are based on the reasonably foreseeable sales price determined prudently and in good faith.

e) The liquidating value of options contracts not traded on stock exchanges or on other Regulated Markets means their net liquidating value determined, pursuant to the policies established by the Board of Directors of the Fund, on a basis consistently applied for each different variety of contracts. The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets is based upon the last available closing or settlement prices of these contracts on exchanges and Regulated Markets on which the particular futures, forward or options contracts are traded by the Fund; provided that if a futures, forward or options contract cannot be liquidated on the day with respect to which net assets are being determined, the basis for determining the liquidating value of such contract shall be such value as the Board of Directors of the Fund may deem fair and reasonable.

f) Investments in UCITS and other UCIs are taken at their latest official net asset values or their latest unofficial net asset values (i.e. which are not generally used for the purposes of subscription and redemption of Shares of the target funds) as provided by the relevant administrators if more recent than their official net asset values and for which the Administrative Agent has sufficient assurance that the valuation method used by the relevant administrator for said unofficial net asset values is coherent as compared to the official one.

If events have occurred which may have resulted in a material change of the net asset value of such shares or units of UCITS and/or other UCI since the day on which the latest official net asset value was calculated, the value of such shares or units may be adjusted in order to reflect, in the reasonable opinion of the Board of Directors, such change of value.

g) Non-listed money market instruments held by the company with a remaining maturity of ninety days or less are valued at the amortised cost method which approximates market value.

h) All other securities and other assets are valued at fair market value as determined in good faith pursuant to the procedures established by the Board of Directors.

i) Contracts for Difference ("CFD") are over-the-counter financial instruments which allow an investor to take advantage of the Share price movements without having to hold such Shares or to manage the holding constraints (custody, financing, loan for shorts). Indeed, a "CFD" is a contract entered into between two parties to exchange, at the end of this contract, the difference between the opening and the closing prices of the contract, multiplied by the number of units of the underlying asset as specified in the contract. The settlement of these differences is completed through a cash payment, not through a physical delivery of the underlying assets. Contracts for Difference are valued at their market value according to the closing price of the underlying securities on the valuation day. The market value of the corresponding line indicates the difference between the market value and the strike price of the underlying securities. Net realised gain or (loss) and net change in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) on CFD are recorded in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets. The net unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are recorded in the Statement of Net Assets. The valuation of a CFD shall reflect at all times the difference between the latest known price of the underlying security and the valuation that was taken into account when determining the transactions. Realised gain or (loss) and the Changes in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

j) Futures contracts are valued based on the last available market price. Net realised gain or (loss) and net change in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) on futures contracts are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets. The net unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are recorded in the Statement of Net Assets. For the calculation of net holdings by currency on financial instruments, the holdings are converted at the exchange rate prevailing at the period-end.

k) The forward foreign exchange contracts represent obligations of purchase or the sale of foreign currency on the basis of future exchange rates determined at a fixed price at the time of conclusion of the contracts. The unexpired forward foreign exchange contracts are valued at the last "forward" rate available on the valuation dates or at the balance sheet date and unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are recorded. Realised gain or (loss) and the Changes in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets. The net unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are recorded in the Statement of Net Assets.

l) Interest rate swaps contracts and Inflation linked swaps contracts are bilateral agreements in which each party agrees to exchange a series of interest payments for another series of interest payments on the basis of a notional amount serving as the basis of calculation that is generally not exchanged.

Interest rate swaps contracts and Inflation linked swaps contracts are valued at their last known closing price of the underlying security. Net realised gain or (loss) and change in unrealised are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under caption Net realised gain or (loss) on options contracts and swaps contracts and Net change in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) on options contracts and swaps contracts.

The net realised gain or (loss) and net change in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) on Interest rate swaps and Inflation linked swaps contracts are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under the caption swaps contracts. The net unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) are recorded in the Statement of Net Assets.

2.3 Foreign currency translation

The accounts of each Sub-Fund of the Fund are denominated in the currency in which its net asset value is calculated.

The cost of investments denominated in currencies other than the Sub-Fund's accounting currency is converted into that currency at the exchange rate prevailing at the purchase date.

Income and expenses in currencies other than the Sub-Fund's accounting currency are converted into that currency at the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date.

The foreign exchange gains and losses on investments are included in the net realised gain or (loss) on investments, in the statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

At the end of the period, the investments' market value (determined as noted previously), the receivables, cash at banks and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the Sub-Fund's accounting currency are converted into that currency at the exchange rates prevailing at that date. The net realised gain or (loss) and net change in unrealised appreciation or (depreciation) on foreign currencies transactions are included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets under the caption.

2.4 Net realised gain or (loss) on of investments

The net realised gain or (loss) on sales of investments is calculated on an average cost basis and is included in the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

2.5 Expenses

Interest expenses are accounted for on accrual basis. Expenses are included to the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.

2.6 Dividends and interests

Dividends and interest received or paid by the Fund on its investments are in many cases subject to recoverable withholding taxes at source. The value of any dividends and interest declared or accrued as aforesaid and not yet received or paid is deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full. Dividends are recognised as income net of withholding tax on the date the securities are first quoted ex-dividend to the extent the information is reasonably available to the Fund. Interest is accrued at each net asset valuation.

2.7 Transaction costs

The Fund incurred transaction costs which have been defined as brokerage fees, certain taxes and certain depositary fees relating to the purchase and sale of transferable securities, money market instruments or other eligible assets. The global amounts of transaction costs are all taken into account through the Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.
