THIS PROSPECTUS

This Prospectus describes Eaton Vance International (Ireland) Funds plc (the “Company”), an investment company with variable capital incorporated in Ireland as a public limited company. The Company is constituted as an umbrella fund insofar as the share capital of the Company will be divided into different Series of Shares with each Series of Shares representing a portfolio of assets which will comprise a separate fund. The portfolio of assets maintained for each Series of Shares and comprising a separate sub-fund (each a “Sub-Fund”) will be invested in accordance with the investment objectives and policies applicable to such Sub-Fund as specified in the Relevant Supplement. Each Supplement should be read in conjunction with, and construed as, one document with this Prospectus. For the purposes of this Prospectus, where the context so admits or requires, the term “Sub-Fund” shall also be deemed to mean the Directors or their delegate acting for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund.

This Prospectus and the Supplements may be translated into other languages and such translations shall contain only the same information as this Prospectus and the Supplements. In the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity in relation to the meaning of any word or phrase in any translation, the English text shall prevail and all disputes as to the terms thereof shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of Ireland.

The distribution of this Prospectus, any Supplement and the offering or purchase of Shares may be restricted in certain jurisdictions. Other investment restrictions which apply are as follows:

- (vi) A Sub-Fund shall not acquire either precious metals or certificates representing them.
- (vii) A Sub-Fund shall not (except as described below) make any loan of its assets provided that, for the purpose of this restriction, the acquisition of bonds, debentures, debenture stock, notes, commercial paper, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and short-term debt securities or obligations permitted by the UCITS Regulations, or the acquisition of transferable securities which are not fully paid, or the holding of ancillary liquid assets time deposits shall not be deemed to constitute the making of a loan.

- (viii) The assets of a Sub-Fund may not be used to underwrite or sub-underwrite any securities of any issuer.
- (ix) A Sub-Fund shall not take legal or management control over the issuers of its underlying securities.

The Directors may, without limitation, adopt additional investment restrictions with respect to any Sub-Fund to facilitate the distribution of Shares in the relevant Sub-Fund to the public in a particular jurisdiction. In addition, the investment restrictions set out above may be changed from time to time by the Directors in accordance with a change in the applicable law and regulations in any jurisdiction in which Shares in the Sub-Funds are currently offered provided that the assets of each Sub-Fund will at all times be invested in accordance with the restrictions on investments set out in the UCITS Regulations. In the event of any such addition to, or change in, the investment restrictions applicable to any Sub-Fund, a reasonable notification period will be provided by the Company to enable Shareholders in the relevant Sub-Fund to redeem their Shares prior to implementation of these changes.

Details of the holdings of each Sub-Fund may be made available to Shareholders in that Sub-Fund on a periodic basis, including through dissemination of Shareholder reports and through posting details of the Sub-Fund's holdings. Such details shall relate to historical holdings of the Sub-Fund. Any disclosure may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, from time to time determine. Such conditions may include the entry into of a written confidentiality agreement relating to the details of the holdings of a Sub-Fund. Shareholders in a Sub-Fund are advised to contact the relevant Investment Adviser to ascertain whether this information is available in respect of the relevant Sub-Fund and what conditions (if any) may be applied to its supply to Shareholders. In addition to the above, the Company may disclose certain aggregate information in relation to the characteristics of each Sub-Fund's holdings periodically on the Eaton Vance website, <http://international.eatonvance.com>. Such information shall relate to historical holdings of the relevant Sub-Fund.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS AND RISK FACTORS

Investment in the Sub-Funds carries with it a degree of risk including, but not limited to, the risks referred to below. While there are some risks that may be common to a number or all of the Sub-Funds, there may also be specific risk considerations which apply to a particular Sub-Fund in which case such risks will be specified in the Relevant Supplement for that Sub-Fund. Thus the investment risks described below are not purported to be exhaustive and potential investors should review this Prospectus and the Relevant Supplement(s) in their entirety, and consult with their professional advisers, before purchasing Shares. The levels and bases of, and reliefs from, taxation to which both the Company and Shareholders may be subject, may change. Potential investors' attention is drawn to the section headed "TAXATION". There can be no assurance that any Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective. The Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund, and the income therefrom, may go down as well as up and investors may not get back the amount invested or any return on their investment.

MARKET RISK

The investments of a Sub-Fund are subject to normal market fluctuations and the risks inherent in investment in international securities markets and there can be no assurances that appreciation or preservation will occur.

INTERNATIONAL INVESTING

Investing in securities issued by companies and governments in different countries involves considerations and possible risks not associated with investing in issuers of one country. The values of investments denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency of a Sub-Fund are affected by changes in currency rates. Investing in multiple jurisdictions involves consideration of different exchange control regulations, tax law, including withholding taxes, changes in governmental administration or economic or monetary policy or changed circumstances in dealings between nations. Currency rates may fluctuate significantly over short periods of time causing a Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value to fluctuate as well. Costs are incurred in connection with conversions between various currencies. In addition, brokerage commissions, custody fees and other costs of investing are higher in certain countries and less developed markets may be less liquid, more volatile and less subject to governmental supervision than elsewhere. Investments in some issuers could be affected by factors such as expropriation, confiscatory taxation, lack of uniform accounting and auditing standards and potential difficulties in enforcing contractual obligations. Securities transactions in some countries are subject to settlement delays or risk of loss.

EMERGING MARKETS

Certain of the Sub-Funds may invest in securities issued in emerging markets. Investing in emerging markets, in particular, involves exposure to economic structures that generally are less diverse and mature, and to political systems that have less stability, than those of developed countries. Other characteristics of emerging markets that may affect investment include certain national policies that may restrict investment by foreigners and the absence of developed legal structures governing private and foreign investments and private property. Moreover, individual economies of emerging market countries may differ favourably or unfavourably from the economies of non-emerging market countries in such respects as growth of gross national product, rate of inflation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency and balance of payments position. The typically small size of the markets for securities issued by issuers located in emerging markets and the possibility of a low or non-existent volume of trading in those securities may also result in a lack of liquidity and in price volatility of those securities. Investors should note that an investment in those Sub-Funds which may invest in emerging markets should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors. Certain emerging market countries are known to experience long delays between the trade and settlement dates of securities purchased or sold. In addition, with respect to certain emerging market countries, there is a possibility of expropriation, nationalisation, confiscatory taxation and limitations on the use or removal of funds or other assets of a Sub-Fund, including the withholding of dividends. In addition, the lack of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards and other regulatory practices and the increased possibility for the revaluation of an emerging market country's currency may negatively impact the Sub-Funds. The Central Bank requires that the Depositary hold on trust a Sub-Fund's assets, ensuring that there is legal separation of non-cash assets held under custody and that records are maintained that clearly identify those assets and where documents of title are held. Where a sub-custodian is engaged, the Depositary must ensure that the sub-custodian maintains these standards and the Depositary's liability will remain unaffected. Certain jurisdictions, however, have different rules regarding the ownership and custody of assets generally and the recognition of the interests of a beneficial owner, such as a Sub-Fund. There is a risk that in the event the Depositary or sub-custodian becomes insolvent, the relevant Sub-Fund's beneficial ownership of assets may not be recognised in foreign jurisdictions and creditors of the Custodian or sub-custodian may seek recourse to the Sub-Fund's assets, or where a Sub-Fund's beneficial ownership is recognised, the Sub-Fund may suffer a delay in recovering its assets, pending the determination of insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings.

INVESTING IN CHINA

One or more Sub-Funds may make investments that are tied economically to issuers from the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), or other issuers associated with the greater China region, such as Hong Kong, Macau or Taiwan. Certain Sub-Funds may also invest in issuers which may be listed or traded on recognized or over-the-counter markets located both inside and outside of the greater China region, such as the United Kingdom, Singapore, Japan or the United States.

Investments in PRC companies involve certain risks and special considerations not typically associated with Anglo sphere markets (i.e. Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the U.S.), such as greater government control over the economy, political and legal uncertainty, controls imposed by the PRC authorities on foreign exchange and movements in exchanges rates (which may impact on the operations and financial results of PRC companies), confiscatory taxation, the risk that the PRC government may decide not to continue to support economic reform programs, the risk of nationalisation or expropriation of assets, lack of uniform auditing and accounting standards, less publicly available financial and other information, potential difficulties in enforcing contractual obligations and limitations on the ability to distribute dividends due to currency exchange issues, which may result in risk of loss of favourable tax treatment.

The Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange may have lower trading volumes when compared to exchanges in developed markets and the market capitalizations of many listed companies are small compared to those on exchanges in developed markets. The listed equity securities of many companies in the PRC, such as China A Shares and China B Shares, are accordingly less liquid and may experience greater volatility than in more developed, OECD countries. China A Shares are shares of companies incorporated in the PRC and listed on the Shanghai and Shenzhen Stock Exchanges that may be subscribed for and traded in Chinese Yuan Renminbi by PRC investors and non-PRC investors with Qualified Foreign Institutional Investors status ("QFII"), or Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor ("RQFII") status or via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect program ("SC") described below (also known as "Chinese Yuan common stock"). China B Shares are shares of companies incorporated in the PRC and listed on the Shanghai and Shenzhen Stock Exchanges that may be subscribed for and traded in foreign currencies by non-PRC investors (also known as "Chinese Yuan special shares").

Government supervision and regulation of the PRC securities market and of quoted companies is also less developed than in many OECD countries. The PRC stock market has in the past experienced substantial price volatility and no assurance can be given that such volatility will not occur in the future. The above factors could negatively affect the capital growth and performance of such investments and the Net Asset Value of Sub-Funds that make such investments, the ability to redeem Shares in the relevant Sub-Fund and the price at which such Shares may be redeemed. The evidence of title of exchange-traded securities in the PRC consists only of electronic book entries in the depository and/or registry associated with the exchange. These arrangements of the depositories and registries are new and not fully tested in regard to their efficiency, accuracy and security.

These risks may be more pronounced for the China A Share market than for PRC securities markets generally because the China A Share market is subject to greater governmental restrictions and control. Moreover, information available about PRC companies may not be as complete, accurate or timely as information about listed Anglo sphere companies. Under the current PRC regulations, foreign investors can only invest directly in the China A Share market through institutions that have obtained QFII or RQFII status, or through the SC. It is anticipated that certain Sub-Funds will gain exposure to the China A Share market through the SC and will not invest in this market through either a QFII or a RQFII license.

The SC is a program being implemented by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (“CSRC”) and the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong, which is intended to provide mutual stock market access between the PRC and Hong Kong. The SC is a securities trading and clearing linked program developed by Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited (“HKEx”), the Shanghai Stock Exchange (“SSE”) and China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited (“ChinaClear”).

To the extent that a Sub-Fund participates in SC or any similar access program that is novel, new or under development, the Sub-Fund may be subject to new, uncertain or untested rules and regulations promulgated by the relevant regulatory authorities. Moreover, current regulations governing a Sub-Fund’s investment in PRC companies may be subject to change. There can be no assurance that SC or any other investment program will not be abolished. Any Sub-Fund investing in securities issued by issuers from the PRC or the greater China region may be adversely affected as a result of such changes.

RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE SHANGHAI-HONG KONG STOCK CONNECT

Any Sub-Fund which invests through the SC will be subject to the following additional risks:

Quota limitations

Trading under SC will be subject to a maximum cross-boundary investment quota (“Aggregate Quota”), together with a daily quota (“Daily Quota”). Northbound trading will be subject to a separate Aggregate Quota and Daily Quota. The Aggregate Quota caps the absolute amount of fund inflow into the PRC under Northbound trading. The Northbound Aggregate Quota is currently set at CNY300 billion. The Company does not have exclusive use of the Aggregate Quota and Daily Quota and such quotas are utilised on a first-come,first-served basis.

Once the remaining balance of the Northbound Daily Quota drops to zero or the Northbound Daily Quota is exceeded during the opening call session, new buy orders will be rejected (though investors will be allowed to sell their cross-boundary securities regardless of the quota balance). Therefore, quota limitations may restrict a Sub-Fund’s ability to invest in China A Shares through SC on a timely basis.

Suspension risk

It is contemplated that both The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“SEHK”) and the SSE would reserve the right to suspend Northbound and/or Southbound trading, if necessary, to ensure an orderly and fair market and that risks are managed prudently. Consent from the relevant regulator would be sought before a suspension is triggered. Where a suspension in the Northbound trading through SC is effected, a Sub-Fund’s ability to access the PRC market will be adversely affected.

Differences in trading day

SC will only operate on days when both the PRC and Hong Kong markets are open for trading and when banks in both markets are open on the corresponding settlement days. So it is possible that there are occasions when it is a normal trading day for the PRC market but Hong Kong investors (such as a Sub-Fund) cannot carry out any China A Shares trading. As a result, Sub-Funds may be subject to a risk of price fluctuations in China A Shares during the time when SC is not trading.

Operational risk

The SC is premised on the functioning of the operational systems of the relevant market participants. Market participants are able to participate in this program subject to meeting certain information technology capability, risk management and other requirements as may be specified by the relevant exchange and/or clearing house.

Prior to the launch of the SC, market participants had an opportunity to configure and adapt their operational and technical systems. However, it should be appreciated that the securities regimes and legal systems of the two markets differ significantly and in order for the trial program to operate, market participants may need to address issues arising from the differences on an on-going basis.

Further, the “connectivity” in the SC requires routing of orders across the border. This requires the development of new information technology systems on the part of the SEHK and exchange participants (i.e. a new order routing system set up by SEHK to which exchange participants need to connect). There is no assurance that the systems of the SEHK and market participants will function properly or will continue to be adapted to changes and developments in both markets. In the event that the relevant systems failed to function properly, trading in both markets through the program could be disrupted. Accordingly, a Sub-Fund’s ability to access the China A Share market (and hence to pursue its investment strategy) would be adversely affected.

Restrictions on selling imposed by front-end monitoring

PRC regulations require that before an investor sells any share, there should be sufficient shares in the account; otherwise SSE will reject the sell order concerned. SEHK will carry out pre-trade checking on China A Shares sell orders of its exchange participants (i.e. the stock brokers) to ensure there is no over-selling.

If a Sub-Fund desires to sell certain China A Shares it holds, SEHK requires that the broker involved in the sale of the China A Shares must confirm the Sub-Fund holds sufficient amount of those China A Shares before the market opens on the day of selling (“trading day”). If the broker cannot confirm this prior to the market open, it will not be able to execute the sale of those China A Shares on behalf of the Sub-Fund on that trading day. Because of this requirement, the Sub-Funds will need to facilitate this broker confirmation in order to dispose of holdings of China A Shares in a timely manner. Some local custodians are offering solutions to assist investors in meeting this requirement without the need to pre-deliver the shares to the broker prior to the trading date. For example, certain local custodians are offering a “bundled brokerage/custodian model” where the local custodian will be appointed to act as the sub-custodian to the relevant Sub-Fund and the brokerage arm of the local custodian will act as the broker to the relevant Sub-Fund. Under this model, the brokerage arm of the local custodian, in its capacity as the relevant Sub-Fund’s broker, will be provided with information about the Sub-Fund’s shareholdings directly from the local custodian in a timely manner. It enables the broker to confirm that the relevant Sub-Fund holds sufficient shares without the need to pre-deliver such shares to the broker prior to the trading day. This model allows the Sub-Fund to ensure that the shares remain in custody at all times.

SEHK has recently implemented an enhanced pre-trade checking model which aims at removing the requirement to pre-deliver shares to brokers. Depositories will need to open a “special segregated account” with CCASS (the Central Clearing and Settlement System operated by the Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited (“HKSCC”) for the clearing of securities listed or traded on SEHK) for investors, which will generate a unique investor ID. CCASS will snapshot the securities holdings in that account to facilitate pre-trade checking requirement. Brokers when executing sell orders for investors who opt to use the enhanced model will need to provide the investor ID as an identifier. It is intended that the enhanced model will allow greater flexibility to investors to use multiple brokers. However, a number of operational and practical challenges have been identified by the industry in relation to the enhanced model, which may pose difficulties for the market players to utilise the enhanced model. The Company intends to adopt the bundled brokerage/custodian model until such time as the operational and practical challenges relating to the enhanced model, or similar improvement, have been resolved. However, please note that there is no guarantee that any such proposal will be maintained and not revoked, or how effective it would help addressing the requirement and at what cost.

Short swing profit rule

According to the PRC securities law, a shareholder of 5% or more of the total issued shares of a PRC listed company ("major shareholder") has to return any profits obtained from the purchase and sale of shares of such PRC listed company if both transactions occur within a six-month period. In the event that the Company or a Sub-Fund becomes a major shareholder of a PRC listed company by investing in China A Shares via the SC, the profits that Sub-Funds may derive from such investments may be limited and thus the performance of the Sub-Funds may be adversely affected.

Restriction on Turnaround (day) Trading

Turnaround (day) trading is not permitted on the China A Share market. Investors cannot purchase and sell the same securities via the SC in the same trading day. This may restrict the Sub-Fund's ability to invest in China A Shares through the SC and to enter into or exit trades on a timely basis.

Recalling of eligible stocks

When a stock is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks for trading via the SC, the stock can only be sold but will be restricted from being bought. This may affect the investment portfolio or strategies of a Sub-Fund, for example, when an Investment Adviser wishes to purchase a stock which is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks.

Clearing and settlement risk

HKSCC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of HKEx, and ChinaClear will establish the clearing links and each will become a participant of each other to facilitate clearing and settlement of cross-border trades. For cross-border trades initiated in a market, the clearing house of that market will on one hand clear and settle with its own clearing participants, and on the other hand undertake to fulfil the clearing and settlement obligations of its clearing participants with the counterparty clearing house.

Should the remote event of ChinaClear default occur and ChinaClear be declared as a defaulter, HKSCC's liabilities in Northbound trades under its market contracts with clearing participants will be limited to assisting clearing participants in pursuing their claims against ChinaClear. HKSCC will in good faith, seek recovery of the outstanding stocks and monies from ChinaClear through available legal channels or through ChinaClear's liquidation. In that event, a Sub-Fund may suffer delay in the recovery process or may not be able to fully recover its losses from ChinaClear.

Participation in corporate actions and shareholders' meetings

HKSCC will keep participants in CCASS informed of corporate actions of stocks listed on the SSE ("SSE Securities"). Hong Kong and overseas investors (including the relevant Sub-Funds) will need to comply with the arrangement and deadline specified by their respective brokers or custodians (i.e. CCASS participants). The time for them to take actions for some types of corporate actions of SSE Securities may be as short as one business day only. Therefore, Sub-Funds may not be able to participate in some corporate actions in a timely manner.

Hong Kong and overseas investors (including the relevant Sub-Funds) are holding SSE Securities traded via the SC program through their brokers or custodians. According to existing PRC practice, multiple proxies are not available. Therefore, Sub-Funds may not be able to appoint proxies to attend or participate in shareholders' meetings in respect of the SSE Securities.

No Protection by Investor Compensation Fund

Investment through the SC is conducted through broker(s), and is subject to the risks of default by such brokers' in their obligations.

Investments through Northbound trading under the SC will not be covered by Hong Kong's Investor Compensation Fund. Hong Kong's Investor Compensation Fund is established to pay compensation to investors of any nationality who suffer pecuniary losses as a result of default of a licensed intermediary or authorised financial institution in relation to exchange-traded products in Hong Kong. Since default matters in Northbound trading via the SC do not involve products listed or traded on the SEHK or Hong Kong Futures Exchange Limited, they will not be covered by the Investor Compensation Fund.

Furthermore, since the Sub-Funds will be carrying out Northbound trading through securities brokers in Hong Kong but not PRC brokers, they are not protected by the China Securities Investor Protection Fund in the PRC. Therefore the Sub-Funds are exposed to the risks of default of the broker(s) it engages in its trading in China A Shares through the program.

Regulatory risk

The SC is novel in nature and will be subject to regulations promulgated by regulatory authorities and implementation rules made by the stock exchanges in the PRC and Hong Kong. Further, new regulations may be promulgated from time to time by the regulators in connection with operations and cross-border legal enforcement in connection with cross-border trades under the SC.

It should be noted that the regulations are untested and there is no certainty as to how they will be applied. Moreover, the current regulations are subject to change. There can be no assurance that the SC will not be abolished. Sub-Funds which invest in the PRC markets through the SC may be adversely affected as a result of such changes.

Taxation risk

According to a circular of Caishui [2014] no. 81 jointly issued by PRC Ministry of Finance ("MOF"), the State Administration of Tax ("SAT") and CSRC on 14 November 2014, the capital gains realised by a Sub-Fund from trading of eligible China A Shares on the SSE under the SC currently enjoy a temporary exemption from PRC income tax and PRC business tax. However, it is uncertain when such exemption will expire and whether other PRC taxes will be applicable to trading of SSE Securities under the SC in the future. The dividends derived from SSE Securities are subject to a 10% PRC withholding tax, except that investors who are tax residents of other countries which have entered into tax treaties with China whereunder the applicable tax rate for dividends is lower than 10% may apply to the competent tax authority for applying the lower tax rate under the treaty. PRC stamp duty is also payable for transactions in SSE Securities under the SC. Given the relevant tax guidance concerning the SC was issued on 14 November 2014 and is yet to be established in the administrative practice of the PRC tax authorities, there are uncertainties as to how the guidance would be implemented in practice. In addition, the PRC tax authorities may issue further guidance on the tax consequences relating to SSE Securities at any time and, as a result, the PRC tax positions of the relevant Sub-Funds using the SC may change accordingly.

According to the above, Sub-Funds will not make any PRC income tax or business tax provision for realised and unrealised gains derived from trading SSE Securities under the SC until and unless a tax provision is required by any further guidance issued by PRC tax authorities, which may have a substantial negative impact on the Net Asset Value of such Sub-Funds.

INTEREST RATE RISK

The fixed-income securities in which a Sub-Fund may invest are interest rate sensitive and may be subject to price volatility due to such factors including, but not limited to, changes in interest rates, market perception of the creditworthiness of the issuer and general market liquidity. The magnitude of these fluctuations will be greater when the maturity of the outstanding securities is longer. An increase in interest rates will generally reduce the value of fixed-income securities, while a decline in interest rates will generally increase the value of fixed-income securities. When interest rates are falling the inflow of net new money to a Sub-Fund from the continuous sale of Shares in the Sub-Fund tends to be invested in instruments producing lower yields than the balance of the obligations held by the Sub-Fund, thereby reducing the Sub-Fund's current yield. In periods of rising interest rates the opposite can be expected to occur.

The performance of a Sub-Fund will therefore depend in part on the ability of the relevant Investment Adviser to anticipate and respond to such fluctuations in market interest rates and to utilise appropriate strategies to maximise returns, while attempting to minimise the associated risks to investment capital.

CREDIT RISK

A Sub-Fund will have a credit risk on the issuer of debt securities in which it invests which will vary depending on the issuer's ability to make principal and interest payments on the obligation. Not all of the securities in which a Sub-Fund may invest that are issued by sovereign governments or political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities thereof, will have the explicit full faith and credit support of the relevant Government. Any failure by any such Government to meet the obligations of any such political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities which default will have adverse consequences for a Sub-Fund and will adversely affect the Net Asset Value per Share in a Sub-Fund.

A Sub-Fund will also have a credit risk on the parties with which it trades including for example, counterparties to repurchase agreements or securities lending contracts. In the event of the insolvency, bankruptcy or default of the seller under a repurchase agreement, a Sub-Fund may experience both delays in liquidating the underlying securities and losses, including the possible decline in the value of securities, during the period while it seeks to enforce its rights thereto, possible sub-normal level of income, lack of access to income during the period and expenses in enforcing its rights. The risks associated with lending portfolio securities include the possible loss of rights against the collateral for the securities should the borrower fail financially.

A Sub-Fund's foreign exchange, futures and other transactions also involve counterparty credit risk and will expose the Sub-Fund to unanticipated losses to the extent that counterparties are unable or unwilling to fulfil their contractual obligations. With respect to futures contracts and options on futures, the risk is more complex in that it involves the potential default of the clearing house or the clearing broker.

An Investment Adviser will have contractual remedies upon any default pursuant to the agreements related to the transactions. Such remedies could be inadequate, however, to the extent that the collateral or other assets available are insufficient.

Ratings of recognised rating agencies, such as S & P and Moody's, are relative and subjective and are not absolute standards of quality. Credit ratings are based largely on the relevant rating agency's investment analysis at the time of rating and the rating assigned to any particular security is not necessarily a reflection of the issuer's current financial condition. The rating assigned to a security by a rating agency does not necessarily reflect its assessment of the volatility of a security's market value or of the liquidity of an investment in the security. Although these ratings are initial criteria for selection of investments, the Investment Advisers also make their own evaluation of these securities. Among the factors that are considered are the long-term ability of the issuers to pay principal and interest and general economic trends.

RISK DISCLOSURE RE WITHHOLDING TAX

Distributions of income and capital gains on securities issued in countries other than Ireland may be subject to taxes including withholding taxes imposed by such countries. The Company may not be able to benefit from a reduction in the rate of withholding tax by virtue of the double taxation treaties in operation between Ireland and other countries. The Company may not therefore be able to reclaim withholding tax suffered by it in particular countries. If this position changes in the future and the application of a lower rate results in a repayment to the Company, the Net Asset Value of the Company will not be restated and the benefit will be allocated to the then-existing Shareholders rateably at the time of repayment.

FOREIGN TAXES

The Company may be liable to taxes (including withholding taxes) in countries other than Ireland on income earned and capital gains arising on its investments. The Company may not be able to benefit from a reduction in the rate of such foreign tax by virtue of the double taxation treaties between Ireland and other countries. The Company may not, therefore, be able to reclaim any foreign withholding tax suffered by it in particular countries. If this position changes and the Company obtains a repayment of foreign tax, the Net Asset Value of the Company will not be restated and the benefit will be allocated to the then-existing Shareholders ratably at the time of repayment.

FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT

The Company (or each Sub-Fund) will be required to comply (or be deemed compliant) with extensive new reporting and withholding requirements designed to inform the U.S. Department of the Treasury of U.S.-owned foreign investment accounts. Failure to comply (or be deemed compliant) with these requirements will subject the Company (or each Sub-Fund) to U.S. withholding taxes on certain U.S.-sourced income and gains beginning in July 2014. Pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and Ireland, the Company (or each Sub-Fund) may be deemed compliant, and therefore not subject to the withholding tax, if it identifies and reports U.S. taxpayer information directly to the Irish government. Shareholders may be requested to provide additional information to the Company to enable the Company (or each Sub-Fund) to satisfy these obligations. Failure to provide requested information may subject a Shareholder to liability for any resulting U.S. withholding taxes, U.S. tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the Shareholder's interest in its Shares. Detailed guidance as to the mechanics and scope of this new reporting and withholding regime is continuing to develop. There can be no assurance as to the timing or impact of any such guidance on future operations of the Company or its Sub-Funds.

U.S. GOVERNMENT SECURITIES

Certain U.S. Government securities, such as U.S. Treasury bills, Treasury notes and Treasury bonds, which differ only in their interest rates, maturities and times of issuance, are supported by the full faith and credit of the United States. Others are not supported by the full faith and credit of the United States but are supported by: (i) the right of the issuer to borrow from the U.S. Treasury, such as securities of the Federal Home Loan Banks; (ii) the discretionary authority of the U.S. Government to purchase the agency's obligations, such as securities of the FNMA; or (iii) only the credit of the issuer, such as securities of the Student Loan Marketing Association. No assurance can be given to investors in Sub-Funds which may invest in such securities that the U.S. Government will provide financial support in the future to U.S. Government agencies, authorities or instrumentalities that are not supported by the full faith and credit of the United States.

U.S. Government securities may include zero coupon securities that may be purchased when yields are attractive and/or to enhance fund liquidity. Zero coupon U.S. Government securities are debt obligations that are issued or purchased at a significant discount from face value. The discount approximates the total amount of interest the security will accrue and compound over the period until maturity or the particular interest payment date at a rate of interest reflecting the market rate of the security at the time of issuance. Zero coupon U.S. Government securities do not require the periodic payment of interest. Investors in Sub-Funds which may invest in such securities should be aware that these investments benefit the user by mitigating its need for cash to meet debt service, but also require a higher rate of return to attract investors who are willing to defer receipt of cash. They may experience greater volatility in market value than U.S. Government securities that make regular payments of interest.

MORTGAGE RELATED SECURITIES

Certain of the Sub-Funds may invest in mortgage related securities, which include certain risks. The monthly cash flow from the underlying loans may not be sufficient to meet the monthly payment requirements of the mortgage related security. Prepayment of principal by the mortgagors or mortgage foreclosures shorten the term of the underlying mortgage pool for a mortgage related security. The occurrence of mortgage prepayments is affected by the level of interest rates, general economic conditions, the location and age of the mortgage and other social and demographic conditions. In periods of rising interest rates, the rate of prepayment tends to decrease, thereby lengthening the average life of a pool of mortgage related securities. Conversely, in periods of falling interest rates the rate of prepayment tends to increase, thereby shortening the average life of a pool. Reinvestment of prepayments may occur at higher or lower interest rates than the original investment, thus affecting yield. Because prepayments of principal generally occur when interest rates are declining, the proceeds of prepayments must be invested. If this occurs, a Sub-Fund's yield correspondingly declines. Thus, mortgage related securities have less potential for capital appreciation in periods of falling interest rates than other fixed income securities of comparable maturity, and they have a higher risk of decline in market value in periods of rising interest rates. To the extent that mortgage related securities are purchased at a premium, unscheduled prepayments, which are made at par, result in a loss equal to any unamortized premium.

LOWER QUALITY DEBT SECURITIES

Debt securities rated in the fourth highest category by S&P or Moody's or given equivalent credit ratings by other recognised rating agencies, although considered investment grade, may possess speculative characteristics, and changes in economic or other conditions are more likely to impair the ability of their issuers to make interest and principal payments than is the case with respect to issuers of higher grade debt securities.

Generally, medium or lower rated securities and unrated securities of comparable quality offer a higher current yield than is offered by higher rated securities, but also (i) are likely have some quality and protective characteristics that, in the judgement of the rating organisations, are outweighed by large uncertainties or major risk exposures to adverse conditions; and (ii) are predominantly speculative with respect to the issuers capacity to pay interest and repay principal in accordance with the terms of the obligation. The market values of certain of these securities also tend to be more sensitive to individual corporate developments and changes in economic conditions than higher quality bonds. In addition, medium and lower rated securities and comparable unrated securities generally present a higher degree of credit risk. The risk of loss due to default by these issuers, is significantly greater because medium and lower rated securities and unrated securities of comparable quality generally are unsecured and frequently are subordinated to the prior payment of senior indebtedness. In light of these risks, the relevant Investment Adviser, in evaluating the creditworthiness of an issue, whether rated or unrated, takes various factors into consideration, which may include, as applicable, the issuer's financial resources, its sensitivity to economic conditions and trends, the ability of the issuer's management and regulatory matters.

The market value of securities in lower rated categories is more volatile than that of higher quality securities, and the markets in which medium and lower rated or unrated securities are traded are more limited than those in which higher rated securities are traded. The existence of limited markets may make it more difficult to obtain accurate market quotations for purposes of valuing the securities held by, and calculating the Net Asset Value of, a Sub-Fund. Moreover, the lack of a liquid trading market may restrict the availability of securities for purchase and may also have the effect of limiting the ability of a Sub-Fund to sell securities at their fair value either to meet withdrawal requests or to respond to changes in the economic or the financial markets.

Lower rated debt obligations also present risks based on payment exceptions. If an issuer calls the obligation for redemption, the obligation may have to be replaced with a lower yielding security, resulting in a decreased return for investors. In the event of rising interest rates the value of the securities held by a Sub-Fund may decline proportionately more than higher rated securities. If a Sub-Fund experiences unexpected net withdrawals, higher rated bonds may have to be sold, resulting in a decline in the overall credit quality of the securities held by the Sub-Fund and increasing the exposure of the Sub-Fund to the risks of lower rated securities.

Subsequent to purchase, an issue of securities may cease to be rated or its rating may be reduced below the minimum required for purchase by a Sub-Fund. Neither event requires sale of these securities by the relevant Sub-Fund, but the relevant Investment Adviser considers the event in its determination of whether the securities should continue to be held.

LOWER RATED SECURITIES

A Sub-Fund may invest in securities which are not investment grade. Such securities may have a higher yield than securities with an investment grade rating, but are more likely to react to developments affecting market and credit risk than such higher rated securities, which primarily react to movements in the general level of interest rates. Lower rated or unrated securities are generally subject to a greater default risk than such higher rated securities.

WHEN-ISSUED AND DELAYED-DELIVERY SECURITIES

Each Sub-Fund may purchase securities on a when-issued or delayed-delivery basis for the purposes of efficient portfolio management. Purchase of securities on such basis may expose a Sub-Fund to risk because the securities may experience fluctuations in value prior to their actual delivery. Income is not accrued for a Sub-Fund with respect to a when-issued or delayed-delivery security prior to its stated delivery date. Purchasing securities on a when-issued or delayed-delivery basis can involve the additional risk that the yield available in the market when the delivery takes place may be higher than that obtained in the transaction itself. There is also a risk that the securities may not be delivered and that the Sub-Fund may incur a loss.

SUPRANATIONAL ENTITIES

Each Sub-Fund may invest in debt securities issued by supranational organisations. As supranational organisations do not possess taxing authority, they are dependent upon their members' continued support in order to meet interest and principal payments.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK

Where a Sub-Fund engages in foreign exchange transactions which alter the currency exposure characteristics of its investments the performance of such Sub-Fund may be strongly influenced by movements in exchange rates as currency positions held by the Sub-Fund may not correspond with the securities positions held.

The Net Asset Value per Share of a Sub-Fund will be computed in its Base Currency whereas the investments held for the account of a Sub-Fund may be acquired in other currencies. A Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value may change significantly when the currencies other than the Base Currency in which some of the Sub-Fund's investments are denominated strengthen or weaken against the Base Currency. Currency exchange rates generally are determined by supply and demand in the foreign exchange markets and the perceived relative merits of investments in different countries. Currency exchange rates can also be affected unpredictably by intervention by Government or Central Bank or by currency controls or political developments.

In addition currency hedging transactions, while potentially reducing the currency risks to which the Sub-Fund would otherwise be exposed, involve certain other risks, including the risk of a default by a Counterparty, as described above. In addition, where a Sub-Fund enters into "cross-hedging" transactions (e.g., utilising a currency different than the currency in which the security being hedged is denominated), the Sub-Fund will be exposed to the risk that changes in the value of the currency used to hedge will not correlate with changes in the value of the currency in which the securities are denominated, which could result in loss on both the hedging transaction and the Sub-Fund securities.

A Sub-Fund may issue Classes of Shares which are hedged or unhedged. In the case of hedged classes, hedging will be limited to the extent of the relevant Classes' currency exposure. Save as specified in this paragraph, a Class of Shares may not be leveraged as a result of the use of such techniques and instruments. Such hedging shall be limited to the extent of the relevant Class of Share's currency exposure. The costs, gains and / or losses of such hedging transactions will accrue solely to the relevant Class. In no case will the hedging of the currency exposure be permitted to exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the particular Class of Shares. Hedging will be monitored on at least a monthly basis to ensure that over-hedged positions do not exceed this limit and the level of hedging will be reduced to ensure that positions materially in excess of 100% of the Net Asset Value attributable to the relevant Class will not be carried forward from month to month. While not the intention, over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Sub-Fund. In the case of unhedged Classes, the investor will bear all risks attributable to currency fluctuations between the underlying portfolio, the Base Currency of the Sub-Fund, and the currency of the applicable unhedged Share Class.

Forward currency contracts involve the possibility that the market for them may be limited with respect to certain currencies and, upon a contract's maturity, the possible inability to negotiate with the dealer to enter into an offsetting transaction. There is no assurance that an active forward currency contract market will always exist. These factors restrict the ability to hedge against the risk of devaluation of currencies in which a substantial quantity of securities are being held for a Sub-Fund and are unrelated to the qualitative rating that may be assigned to any particular security.

FUTURES AND OPTIONS CONTRACTS

A Sub-Fund may use futures, forwards, options and swaps for efficient portfolio management purposes which includes hedging against market movements, currency exchange or interest rate risks or otherwise, and for investment purposes. An Investment Adviser's ability to use these strategies may be limited by market conditions, regulatory limits and tax considerations. Use of these strategies involves certain special risks, including (i) dependence on an Investment Adviser's ability to predict movements in the price of securities and movements in interest rates; (ii) imperfect correlation between movements in the securities or currency on which a futures or options contract is based and movements in the securities or currencies in the relevant Sub-Fund; (iii) the absence of a liquid market for any particular instrument at any particular time; (iv) while a Sub-Fund may not be leveraged or geared in any way through the use of derivatives, the degree of leverage inherent in futures trading, i.e., the low margin deposits normally required in futures trading means that futures trading may be highly leveraged and accordingly, a relatively small price movement in a futures contract may result in an immediate and substantial loss to a Sub-Fund; and (v) possible impediments to effective portfolio management or the ability to meet redemption requests or other short-term obligations because of the percentage of a Sub-Fund's assets segregated to cover its obligations.

Derivative instruments are subject to various types of risks, including market risk, liquidity risk, the risk of non-performance by the counterparty, risks relating to the financial soundness and creditworthiness of the counterparty, legal risk, and operations risk. For derivative instruments other than purchased options, any loss suffered may exceed the amount of the initial investment made or the premium received by the Sub-Fund. OTC derivative instruments involve an enhanced risk that the counterparty will fail to perform its contractual obligations. Some derivative instruments are not readily marketable or may become illiquid under adverse market conditions. In addition, during periods of market volatility, a commodity exchange may suspend or limit trading in an exchange-traded derivative instrument which may make the contract temporarily illiquid and difficult to price. Commodity exchanges may also establish daily limits on the amount that the price of a futures option or futures contract can vary from the previous day's settlement price. Once the daily limit is exceeded, no trades may be made that day at a price beyond the limit. This may prevent a Sub-Fund from closing out positions and limiting its losses.

SWAP AGREEMENTS

Where provided for in the Relevant Supplement, a Sub-Fund may enter into swap agreements. Swap agreements are derivative products in which two parties agree to exchange payment streams that may be calculated in relation to a rate, index, instrument, or certain securities and a particular "notional amount." Swaps may be subject to various types of risks, including market risk, liquidity risk, structuring risk, tax risk, and the risk of non-performance by the counterparty, including risks relating to the financial soundness and creditworthiness of the counterparty. Swaps may be structured to include exposure to a variety of different types of investments or market factors. Depending on their structure, swaps may increase or decrease a Sub-Fund's exposure to equity or debt securities, long-term or short-term interest rates (in the United States or abroad), foreign currency values, corporate borrowing rates, or other factors such as security prices, baskets of securities, or inflation rates and may increase or decrease the overall volatility of the Sub-Fund's portfolio. Swaps may embed an agreed fee or rate of return for the counterparty. Swap agreements can take many different forms and are known by a variety of names. A Sub-Fund is not limited to any particular form of swap agreement if the Investment Adviser determines that other forms are consistent with the Sub-Fund's investment objective and policies.

Most swaps entered into by a Sub-Fund would require the calculation of the obligations of the parties to the agreements on a "net basis". Consequently, a Sub-Fund's current obligations (or rights) under a swap generally will be equal only to the net amount to be paid or received under the agreement based on the relative values of the positions held by each party to the agreement (the "net amount"). The risk of loss with respect to swaps is limited to the net amount of payments that the Sub-Fund is contractually obligated to make. If the other party to a swap defaults, a Sub-Fund's risk of loss consists of any margin or the net amount of payments that the Sub-Fund is contractually entitled to receive if uncollateralised.

The most significant factor in the performance of swaps is the change in individual equity values, specific interest rate, currency or other factors that determine the amounts of payments due to and from the counterparties. If a swap calls for payments by a Sub-Fund, the Sub-Fund must have sufficient cash available to make such payments when due. In addition, if a counterparty's creditworthiness declines, the value of a swap agreement would be likely to decline, potentially resulting in losses to the Sub-Fund.

Swaps may be individually negotiated transactions in the over-the-counter market in which a Sub-Fund assumes the credit risk of the other counterparty to the swap and is exposed to the risk of loss of the amount expected to be received under a swap agreement in the event of the default or insolvency of the swap counterparty. Such over-the-counter swap transactions may be highly illiquid and may increase or decrease the volatility of a Sub-Fund's portfolio. If there is a default by a counterparty, a Sub-Fund under most normal circumstances will have contractual remedies pursuant to the swap agreement; however, exercising such contractual rights may involve delays or costs which could result in the net asset value of the Sub-Fund being less than if the Sub-Fund had not entered into the transaction. Furthermore, there is a risk that a swap counterparty could become insolvent and / or the subject of insolvency proceedings, in which event the recovery of the collateral posted by the Sub-Fund with such counterparty or the payment of claims under the swap agreement may be significantly delayed and the Sub-Fund may recover substantially less than the full value of the collateral entrusted to such counterparty or of the Sub-Fund's claims.

A Sub-Fund will also bear the risk of loss if it breaches the swap agreement or if it fails to post or maintain required collateral. Recent changes in law and regulation require certain types of swap agreements to be transacted on exchanges and / or cleared through a clearinghouse, and will in the future require additional types of swap agreements to be transacted on exchanges and / or cleared through a clearinghouse.

PORTFOLIO TURNOVER

When circumstances warrant, securities may be sold without regard to the length of time held. In some Sub-Funds, active short-term trading may be engaged in to benefit from yield disparities among different issues of securities, to seek short-term profits during periods of fluctuating interest rates or for other reasons. Active trading increases a Sub-Fund's rate of turnover, which may increase brokerage commissions paid and certain other transaction expenses.

NO INVESTMENT GUARANTEE EQUIVALENT TO DEPOSIT PROTECTION

An investment in the Company is not in the nature of a deposit in a bank account and is not protected by any Government, Government agency or other guarantee scheme which may be available to protect the holder of a bank deposit account.

CONVERTIBLE SECURITIES

A Sub-Fund may from time to time invest in debt securities and preferred stocks which are convertible into, or carry the right to purchase, common stock or other equity securities. Convertible securities may be purchased where the Investment Adviser believes that they have appreciation potential on the basis that the Investment Adviser is of the opinion that they yield more than the underlying securities at the time of purchase or considers them to present less risk of principal loss than the underlying securities. Generally speaking, the interest or dividend yield of a convertible security is somewhat less than that of a non-convertible security of similar quality issued by the same Company.

EMERGING COMPANIES

The investment risk associated with emerging companies is higher than that normally associated with larger, older companies due to the greater business risks associated with small size, the relative age of the company, limited product lines, distribution channels and financial and managerial resources. Further, there is typically less publicly available information concerning smaller companies than for larger, more established ones. The securities of small companies are often traded only over-the-counter and may not be traded in the volumes typical of trading on national securities exchange. Nonetheless, a Sub-Fund will not invest more than 10% of its net assets in securities traded over the counter as provided in the "Investment Restrictions" section. As a result, in order to sell this type of holding, a Sub-Fund may need to discount the securities from recent prices or dispose of the securities over a long period of time. The prices of this type of security may be more volatile than those of larger companies which are often traded on a national securities exchange.

COMPANY'S LIABILITIES

Pursuant to Irish Law, the Company should not be liable as a whole to third parties and there should not be the potential for cross contamination of liabilities between Sub-Funds. However, there can be no categorical assurance that, should an action be brought against the Company in the courts of another jurisdiction, the segregated nature of the Sub-Funds will necessarily be upheld.

BREACHES IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SECURITY

The Investment Advisers and the Administrator maintain global information technology systems, consisting of infrastructure, applications and communications networks to support the Company's as well as their own business activities. These systems could be subject to security breaches such as 'cyber-crime' resulting in theft, a disruption in the ability to close out positions and the disclosure or corruption of sensitive and confidential information. Security breaches may also result in misappropriation of assets and could create significant financial and/or legal exposure for the Company. The Investment Advisers and Administrator seek to mitigate attacks on their own systems but will not be able to control directly the risks to third-party systems to which it may connect. Any breach in security of the Investment Advisers' or Administrators' systems could have a material adverse effect on the relevant Investment Adviser or the Administrator and may cause the Company to suffer, among other things, financial loss, the disruption of its business, liability to third parties, regulatory intervention or reputational damage.

UMBRELLA CASH ACCOUNTS

The Company has established a collection account at umbrella level in the name of the Company (the "Umbrella Cash Collection Account") and has not established such accounts at Sub-Fund level.

Subscriptions monies received in respect of a Sub-Fund in advance of the issue of Shares will be held in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account in the name of the Company. Investors will be unsecured creditors of such Sub-Fund with respect to the amount subscribed until such Shares are issued, and will not benefit from any appreciation in the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund or any other Shareholder rights (including dividend entitlement) until such time as Shares are issued. In the event of an insolvency of the Sub-Fund or the Company there is no guarantee that the Sub-Fund or the Company will have sufficient funds to pay unsecured creditors in full.

Payment by the Sub-Fund of redemption proceeds and dividends is subject to receipt by the Administrator of original subscription documents and compliance with all anti-money laundering procedures. Notwithstanding this, redeeming Shareholders will cease to be Shareholders, with regard to the redeemed Shares, from the relevant redemption date. Redeeming Shareholders and Shareholders entitled to distributions will, from the redemption or distribution date, as appropriate, be unsecured creditors of the relevant Sub-Fund and will not benefit from any appreciation in the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund or any other Shareholder rights (including further dividend entitlement), with respect to the redemption or distribution amount. In the event of an insolvency of the Sub-Fund or the Company during this period, there is no guarantee that the Sub-Fund or the Company will have sufficient funds to pay unsecured creditors in full. Redeeming Shareholders and Shareholders entitled to distributions should therefore ensure that any outstanding documentation and information is provided to the Administrator promptly. Failure to do so is at such Shareholder's own risk.

In the event of the insolvency of another Sub-Fund of the Company, recovery of any amounts to which a Sub-Fund is entitled, but which may have transferred to such other Sub-Fund as a result of the operation of the Umbrella Cash Collection Account, will be subject to the principles of Irish trust law and the terms of the operational procedures for the Umbrella Cash Collection Account. There may be delays in effecting and / or disputes as to the recovery of such amounts, and the insolvent Sub-Fund may have insufficient funds to repay amounts due to the relevant Sub-Fund. Accordingly, there is no guarantee that such Sub-Fund or the Company will recover such amounts. Furthermore, there is no guarantee that in such circumstances the Sub-Fund or the Company would have sufficient funds to repay any unsecured creditors.

BORROWING POLICY

Under the Articles, the Directors are empowered to exercise all of the borrowing powers of the Company, subject to any limitations under the UCITS Regulations, and to charge the assets of the Company as security for any such borrowings.

Under the UCITS Regulations, the Company may not borrow money, grant loans or act as guarantor on behalf of third parties, except (i) foreign currency may be acquired by means of a back-to-back loan (i.e. borrowing one currency against the deposit of an equivalent amount of another currency), provided that where foreign currency borrowings exceed the value of the “back-to-back” deposit, any excess shall be regarded as borrowing and is therefore aggregated with other borrowings for the purposes of the 10% limit referred to below; and (ii) the Company may incur temporary borrowings for the account of any Sub-Fund in an amount not exceeding 10% of the net assets of the Sub-Fund.

INVESTING IN SHARES

The Directors have authority to effect the issue of Shares in any Series or Class in respect of a Sub-Fund and to create new Series or Classes of Shares on such terms as they may from time to time determine in relation to any Sub-Fund. The creation of further Share Classes must be notified to and cleared in advance with the Central Bank. Issues of Shares will be made with effect from a Dealing Day.

The Net Asset Value per Share will be calculated separately for each Class of Shares.

Certain information regarding the Classes of Shares available for each Sub-Fund and how to buy, sell and exchange such Shares is contained in the Relevant Supplement. The designation of each Class of Shares as "Accumulation Shares" or "Income Shares" will be set out in the Relevant Supplement. Accumulation Shares have a share class name which includes a "2" (such as A2, M2 or I2).

The Investment Adviser may hedge the foreign currency exposure of Classes denominated in a currency other than the Base Currency of a Sub-Fund in order that investors in that class receive a return in the currency of that Class substantially in line with the investment objective of the Sub-Fund. As foreign exchange hedging may be utilised for the benefit of a particular Class, transactions will be clearly attributable to that Class and the cost and related liabilities and/or benefits shall be for the account of that class only. Accordingly, such costs and related liabilities and/or benefits will be reflected in the Net Asset Value per Share for shares of any such Class.

All Shares issued will be in registered form and written confirmation of ownership will be sent to Shareholders within ten days of registration. Share certificates will not be issued unless the Directors otherwise determine. The number of Shares issued will be rounded to the nearest one thousandth of a unit and any surplus money will be credited to the relevant Sub-Fund.

Due to anti-money laundering requirements operating within various jurisdictions and within Ireland, the Administrator, the Distributor or the Company (as the case may be) may require further identification from the underlying investors before an application may be processed. Depending on the circumstances of each application, a detailed verification might not be required where (i) the applicant makes the payment from an account held in the applicant's name at a recognised financial institution or (ii) the application is made through a recognised intermediary. These exceptions will only apply if the financial institution or intermediary referred to above is within a country recognised by Ireland as having equivalent anti-money laundering regulations and are made in the sole discretion of the Company's money laundering reporting officer.

By way of example an individual may be required to produce a copy of a passport or identification card duly certified by a notary public, together with evidence of his/her address such as a utility bill or bank statement and date of birth. In the case of corporate applicants this may require production of a notarised copy of the certificate of incorporation (and any change of name), memorandum and articles of association (or equivalent), the names, occupations, dates of birth and residential and business addresses of all directors.

Shares cannot be applied to an account unless full details of registration and anti-money laundering formalities have been completed. Shares cannot be sold from an account unless they have been previously applied to such account. No redemption payment may be made until the original signed subscription request has been received and all documentation required by the Company or the Administrator (including any documents in connection with anti-money laundering procedures) and the relevant anti-money laundering procedures have been completed.

The Administrator, the Distributor and the Company each reserves the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an applicant. In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Administrator, the Distributor or the Company may refuse to accept the application. The Company, the Distributor and the Administrator each shall be held harmless and indemnified by the applicant against any loss arising as a result of a failure to process a subscription or application if such information as has been requested by the Company, the Distributor or the Administrator has not been provided by any sub distributor or the applicant. In completing an application, a sub distributor or applicant also warrants and declares that the monies being invested pursuant to this agreement do not represent directly or indirectly the proceeds of any criminal activity and that the investment is not designed to conceal such proceeds so as to avoid prosecution for an offence or otherwise.

The Company or the Administrator on its behalf reserves the right to refuse to make any redemption payment or distribution to a Shareholder otherwise than to the account from which the corresponding subscription funds were paid if any of the Directors of the Company or the Administrator suspects or is advised that the payment of any redemption or distribution moneys to such Shareholder might result in a breach or violation of any applicable anti-money laundering or other laws or regulations by any person in any relevant jurisdiction, or such refusal is considered necessary or appropriate to ensure the compliance by the Company, its Directors or the Administrator with any such laws or regulations in any relevant jurisdiction.

The Company, the Distributor and the Administrator reserve the right to reject an application, for any reason, in whole or in part in which event the application monies or any balance thereof will be returned to the applicant (without interest) by transfer to the applicant's designated account or by post at the applicant's risk. Furthermore, investors will not be entitled to any interest on subscription monies transferred prior to any payment deadline set out in the Relevant Supplement.

The Directors will not knowingly issue, or approve the transfer of any Shares to any U.S. Person, provided however that nothing in this Prospectus shall prevent Eaton Vance Corp or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries from investing in or acquiring Shares.

Each applicant for Shares will be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as may be required by the Directors and/or the Manager to ensure that these requirements are met prior to the issue of Shares.

The Directors shall be entitled to issue fractional Shares up to three decimal places where the net subscription monies received by the Company are insufficient to purchase an integral number of Shares, provided however that fractional Shares shall not carry any voting rights and provided further that the Net Asset Value per Share of a fractional Share of any Sub-Fund or Class shall be adjusted by the amount which such fractional Share bears to an integral Share of such Sub-Fund or Class at the time of issue of such fractional Share and any dividend payable on such fractional Shares shall be adjusted in like manner.

The Directors, or the Administrator as their delegate, may issue Shares in exchange for assets in which the Company may invest in accordance with the particular investment objective and policies of the relevant Sub-Fund. No Shares may be issued in exchange for such assets unless the Directors are satisfied that (i) the number of Shares issued in the relevant Sub-Fund will not be more than the number which would have been issued for settlement in cash having valued the assets to be exchanged in accordance with the valuation provisions set out in the Articles and summarised herein; (ii) all fiscal duties and charges arising in connection with the vesting of such assets in the Depositary for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund are paid by the person to whom the Shares in such Sub-Fund are to be issued or, at the discretion of the Directors, partly by such person and partly out of the assets of such Sub-Fund; (iii) the terms of such exchange shall not materially prejudice the Shareholders in the relevant Sub-Fund; and (iv) the assets have been vested in the Depositary or its nominees or agents.

Any information furnished in the Company's Share application form or in connection with the investment in the Company shall be held and processed by the Company. The Company will use this information for the purposes of processing the application form and managing and administering any of the services provided in relation to the investment in the Company (including any statutory reporting obligations). Such information may be processed on behalf of the Company by the Manager and the Administrator. This information may also be disclosed to the Manager, Investment Adviser, Distributor and Depositary for the purposes of them providing services to the Company in relation to the investment pursuant to their contracts with the Company.

In connection with the above, information furnished in the Company's Share application form or in connection with the investment in the Company may in the future be transferred for processing in connection with the investment to countries outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") that either do not have data protection laws or have data protection laws that do not provide the same level of protection as EU Data Protection law. Details of countries to which such information may be transferred are available from the Company.

By completing the Company's Share application form, investors consent to the use of any information relating to them (including the transfer of any such information outside the EEA) in the manner outlined above. To the extent that the information contained in the application form or any other information that is furnished in connection with the investment in the Company relates to another individual, the applicant for Shares warrants that they have been authorised by that individual to consent on that individual's behalf to the use of such information as relates to that individual (including the transfer of any such information outside the EEA) in the manner outlined above. The Company or its delegates may share information in relation to a Shareholder (including the size of the Shareholder's shareholding in a Sub-Fund) where such information is required in order to open trading accounts in local markets, to facilitate tax filings, to register a Sub-Fund for sale in a particular jurisdiction, or to comply with the ongoing requirements imposed on a Sub-Fund in a jurisdiction.

An individual has the right at any time to request a copy of any "personal data" that is received within the meaning of the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2003 (as amended or re-enacted from time to time) that the Company holds in relation to him/her (for which the Company may charge a fee) and to have inaccuracies in that information corrected.

The Company does not permit the use of market timing in the Company. The Directors, in consultation with the Administrator and the Investment Advisers, may determine that a pattern of frequent purchases and redemptions is excessive and contrary to the best interests of the Company. In this event, additional purchases of Shares by the relevant Shareholder may be restricted or the Shareholder may be required to redeem Shares in the Company. All relevant factors are considered in determining what constitutes abusive market timing of the Company.

Revocation of market timing trades: Transactions placed in violation of the Company's market timing trading policy are not necessarily deemed accepted by the Company and may be cancelled or revoked by the Company or Administrator on the relevant Dealing Day following receipt by the Administrator.

Market timing consequences: If information regarding a Shareholder's activity in the Company is brought to the attention of the Company or the Administrator and based on that information the Company or its agents in their sole discretion conclude that such trading may be detrimental to the Company, the Company may temporarily or permanently bar a Shareholder's future purchases into the Company or, alternatively, may limit the amount, number or frequency of any future purchases and/or the method by which a Shareholder may request future purchases and redemptions (including purchases and/or redemptions by an exchange or transfer between Sub-Funds).

REDEEMING SHARES

Shareholders may redeem their Shares in one of four ways - by mail, facsimile, by telephone or, in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shareholders may request the Company to redeem their Shares on and with effect from any Dealing Day at a price based on the relevant Net Asset Value per Share on such Dealing Day. Please consult "HOW TO REDEEM SHARES" of the Relevant Supplement for further information regarding redeeming Shares.

The Directors may compulsorily redeem all of the outstanding Shares in any Sub-Fund at the then prevailing Net Asset Value per Share, if:

- (i) the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund falls below U.S.$10,000,000 or its currency equivalent on any Dealing Day within six months of the date of establishment of the relevant Sub-Fund; or
- (ii) the Depositary has served notice of its intention to retire under the terms of the Depositary Agreement (and has not revoked such notice) and no new custodian has been appointed by the Company with the approval of Central Bank within six months of the date of service of such notice.

All outstanding Shares in any Sub-Fund may be redeemed by the Company by not less than thirty days' notice in writing to the appropriate Shareholders if at any time the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day falls below an amount which the Directors, on the advice of the relevant Investment Adviser, believes is economically viable for the relevant Sub-Fund.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid within three Business Days of, and will be paid no later than ten Business Days after, the Dealing Day on which redemptions are effected by electronic transfer to the account designated by the Shareholder in the redemption request form contained in this Prospectus.

Any redemption proceeds may, with the Shareholder's consent and at the discretion of the Manager, be paid by the transfer to such Shareholder of the assets of the Company in specie, provided that the type of the assets to be transferred shall be determined by the Manager as it in its sole discretion deems equitable and not materially prejudicial to the interests of the remaining Shareholders and the allocation of assets has been approved by the Depositary.

If any Shareholder requests the redemption of Shares equal to 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day, the Manager may in its absolute discretion, distribute underlying investments rather than cash provided that: (a) asset allocation is subject to the approval of the Depositary; and (b) any such distribution shall not materially prejudice the interest of other Shareholders. In such circumstances, the relevant Shareholder will have the right to instruct the Manager to procure the sale of such underlying investments on their behalf in which case the Shareholder will receive the proceeds net of all fiscal duties and charges incurred in connection with the sale of such underlying investments.

If outstanding redemption requests from Shareholders of a particular Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day total in aggregate 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of such Sub-Fund on such Dealing Day, the Manager shall be entitled at its discretion to refuse to redeem such number of Shares of that Sub-Fund on that Dealing Day in respect of which redemption requests have been received in excess of 10% of the Net Asset Value of such Sub-Fund as the Manager shall determine in its absolute discretion. If the Manager refuses to redeem Shares due to redemption requests exceeding the 10% threshold, the requests for redemption received on that Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the Shares to which each redemption request relates which are not redeemed shall be treated as if they were redemption requests received on each subsequent Dealing Day, provided that the Company shall not, in any event, be obliged to redeem more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of a particular Sub-Fund outstanding on any Dealing Day. A Shareholder may withdraw his redemption request by notice in writing to the Administrator if the Manager exercises its discretion to refuse to redeem any Shares to which the request relates. Redemptions may result in a taxable gain or loss.

Shareholders are required to notify the Company immediately in the event that they become U.S. Persons (with the exception of Eaton Vance Corp or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) or hold Shares for the account or benefit of U.S. Persons (with the exception of Eaton Vance Corp or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries), they become Irish Residents or cease to be Exempt Investors, or the Declaration made by or on their behalf is no longer valid. Shareholders are also required to notify the Company immediately in the event that they hold Shares for the account or benefit of Irish Residents or Irish Residents who cease to be Exempt Investors and in respect of which the Declaration made on their behalf is no longer valid or if they otherwise hold Shares in breach of any law or regulation or otherwise in circumstances having or which may have adverse regulatory, tax or fiscal consequences for the Company or the Shareholders.

Where the Directors become aware that a Shareholder (a) is a U.S. Person (with the exception of Eaton Vance Corp or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) or is holding Shares for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person (with the exception of Eaton Vance Corp or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) in contravention of the relevant provisions of the Articles; or (b) is holding Shares in breach of any law or regulation or otherwise in circumstances having or which may have adverse regulatory, tax or fiscal consequences for the Company or the Shareholders; the Directors shall either (i) direct the Shareholder to dispose of the relevant Shares to a person who is qualified or entitled to own or hold such Shares or (ii) redeem the relevant Shares at the Net Asset Value per Share as at the Valuation Point immediately following the date of notification of such mandatory redemption to the Shareholder.

Under the Articles, any person who becomes aware that he is holding Shares in contravention of any of the above provisions and who fails to transfer his Shares, or deliver for redemption any certificate representing such Shares pursuant to the above provisions or, who fails to make the appropriate notification to the Company, shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the Directors, the Company, the Manager, the Depositary, the Administrator, the Investment Advisers and the other Shareholders (each an "Indemnified Party") from any claims, demands, proceedings, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by such Indemnified Party arising out of or in connection with the failure of such person to comply with his obligations pursuant to any of the above provisions.

EXCHANGE OR TRANSFER OF SHARES

Shareholders may, on any Dealing Day, exchange Shares in any Sub-Fund (whether an Accumulation Class or an Income Class) for Shares in the same Class category (meaning identified by the same Class letter - e.g. A, B, C, I or M) in any currency offered in that Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund. Although exchanges must be within the same Class category, they may be for any other Sub-Fund offering the relevant Class category, may be for Accumulation or Income Classes, where available, and may be for any currency offered by the relevant Class category within the desired Sub-Fund. In addition, where requested, exchanges of Shares of Class category A in a Sub-Fund for Shares in Class category M in the same or any other Sub-Fund offering Shares in Class category M may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. In addition, any other exchanges requested by a Shareholder not falling within the preceding categories may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors.

An exchange request will be treated as an order to redeem the Shares held prior to the exchange and a purchase order for new Shares with the redemption proceeds. Shareholders are cautioned that such exchanges may be taxable events in many jurisdictions and that they should seek advice from their tax advisors before proceeding with any such exchange. The original Shares will be redeemed at their Net Asset Value per Share and the new Shares will be issued at the Net Asset Value per Share of the corresponding Class of the applicable Sub-Fund. Please consult the Relevant Supplement for further information regarding the exchange of Shares.

Exchanges generally are made when a Shareholder determines to reallocate his investments among the Sub-Funds due to changes in market conditions and/or his financial objectives and circumstances. Excessive exchange transactions can be detrimental to a Sub-Fund's performance. The Directors, in consultation with the relevant Investment Adviser, may determine that a pattern of frequent exchanges is excessive and contrary to the best interests of the Sub-Fund. In this event, additional purchases and/or exchanges of Shares by the relevant Shareholder may be restricted. All relevant factors are considered in determining what constitutes an abusive pattern of exchanges.

The Distributor has negotiated special arrangements pursuant to which certain Shareholders in the Sub-Funds may be able to exchange their Shares in the Sub-Funds for shares in other funds promoted, managed or advised by Eaton Vance and its affiliates or in certain other third party funds. Shareholders who qualify to avail of these arrangements will not be subject to an up-front sales load or an immediate charge to CDSC on the acquisition by them of shares in these other funds. For further details of these arrangements Shareholders should contact the Distributor at Eaton Vance Management (International) Limited, 125 Old Broad Street, London EC2N 1AR, United Kingdom.

Transfers of Shares must be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form approved by the Directors from time to time. Every form of transfer must state the full name and address of each of the transferor and the transferee and must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor. The Directors (or the Administrator on their behalf) may decline to register any transfer of Shares unless the transfer form is deposited at the registered office of the Company, or such other place as the Directors may reasonably require, accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders. A transfer of Shares will not be registered unless the transferee, if not an existing Shareholder, has completed a purchase order to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Transfers of Shares are subject to the prior approval of the Directors but will generally be permitted among affiliated companies in the absence of adverse consequences for the Company. The Directors may decline to register a transfer of Shares, among other circumstances, (i) if in the opinion of the Directors the transfer would be unlawful or result or be likely to result in any adverse regulatory, tax or fiscal consequences or administrative burden to the Company or the Shareholders; (ii) in the absence of satisfactory evidence of the transferee's identity; or (iii) where the Company is required to redeem or cancel such number of Shares as are required to meet the appropriate tax of the Shareholder on such transfer. A proposed transferee may be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as the Directors may require in relation to the above matters. In the event that the Company does not receive a Declaration in respect of a transferee, the Company will be required to deduct appropriate tax in respect of any payment to the transferee or any sale, transfer, cancellation, redemption, repurchase, cancellation or other payment in respect of the Shares as described in the section headed "Taxation" below.

Measures aimed towards the prevention of money laundering may require a detailed verification of the proposed transferee's identity. Depending on the circumstances of each transfer, a detailed verification might not be required where (a) the transferee makes the payment from an account held in the transferee's name at a recognised financial institution; or (b) the transfer request is made through a recognised intermediary. These exceptions will only apply if the financial institution or intermediary referred to above is within a country recognised by Ireland as having equivalent anti-money laundering regulations and are made in the sole discretion of the Company's money laundering reporting officer.

ANTI-DILUTION LEVY

The actual cost of purchasing securities in which a Sub-Fund invests may be higher or lower than the value used in calculating the price of such securities. These costs may include dealing charges, commissions, and transaction charges and the dealing spread may have a materially disadvantageous effect on a Shareholder's interest in a Sub-Fund.

To prevent this effect, known as "dilution", the Company may charge an anti-dilution levy (the "Anti-Dilution Levy") when Shares in a Sub-Fund are purchased or redeemed, but such charge must be fair and in the interests of all Shareholders. In calculating the subscription price in respect of any Class of Shares in any Sub-Fund, the Sub-Fund may on any Dealing Day when there are net subscriptions adjust the subscription price by adding the Anti-Dilution Levy to cover any dealing costs and to preserve the value of the underlying assets of the Sub-Fund. Similarly, in calculating the redemption price in respect of any Class of Shares in any Sub-Fund, the Sub-Fund may on any Dealing Day when there are net redemptions, adjust the redemption price by deducting the Anti-Dilution Levy to cover any dealing costs and to preserve the value of the underlying assets of the Sub-Fund. It is not, however, possible to predict accurately whether dilution will occur at any point in time. The charging of an Anti-Dilution Levy will effectively increase the purchase price of Shares or reduce the redemption proceeds from the sale of Shares. The Anti-Dilution Levy will be paid into the relevant Sub-Fund and become part of the property of the Sub-Fund, thus protecting the value of the remaining Shareholders' interests.

No Anti-Dilution Levy shall be charged in respect of a Sub-Fund save where the possibility of such Anti-Dilution Levy has been disclosed in the Relevant Supplement.

SUBSCRIPTION AND REDEMPTION COLLECTION ACCOUNT

The Company has established the Umbrella Cash Collection Account. Save as specified below, all subscriptions into and redemptions and distributions due from the Sub-Funds will be paid into the Umbrella Cash Collection Account. Monies in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account, including early subscription proceeds received in respect of a Sub-Fund, do not qualify for the protections afforded by the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) Investor Money Regulations 2015 for Fund Service Providers.

Pending issue of the Shares and / or payment of subscription proceeds to an account in the name of the relevant Sub-Fund, and pending payment of redemption proceeds or distributions, monies in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account are assets of the relevant Sub-Funds to which they are attributable, and the relevant investor will be an unsecured creditor of the relevant Sub-Fund in respect of amounts paid by or due to it.

Save as specified below, all subscriptions (including subscriptions received in advance of the issue of Shares) attributable to, and all redemptions, dividends or cash distributions payable from, a Sub-Fund will be channelled and managed through the Umbrella Cash Collection Account. Subscriptions amounts paid into the Umbrella Cash Collection Account will be paid into an account in the name of the Manager / Depositary on behalf of the relevant Sub-Fund, on the contractual settlement date. Redemptions and distributions, including blocked redemptions or distributions, will be held in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account until payment due date (or such later date as blocked payments are permitted to be paid), and will then be paid to the relevant or redeeming Shareholder.

The Depositary will be responsible for safe-keeping and oversight of the monies in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account, and for ensuring that relevant amounts in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account are attributable to the appropriate Sub-Funds.

The Company and the Depositary have agreed an operating procedure in respect of the Umbrella Cash Collection Account, which identifies the participating Sub-Funds of the Company, the procedures and protocols to be followed in order to transfer monies from the Umbrella Cash Collection Accounts, the daily reconciliation processes, and the procedures to be followed where there are shortfalls in respect of a Sub-Fund due to late payment of subscription proceeds, and / or transfers to a Sub-Fund of moneys attributable to another Sub-Fund due to timing differences.

Where subscription monies are received in the Umbrella Cash Collection Account without sufficient documentation to identify the investor or the relevant Sub-Fund, such monies shall be returned to the relevant investor within the timescales and as specified in the operating procedure in respect of the Umbrella Cash Collection Account. Failure to provide the necessary complete and accurate documentation is at the investor's risk.

In the case of subscriptions in certain currencies, such subscriptions may be paid directly into an account in the name of the relevant Sub-Fund.

DIVIDEND POLICY

The Directors may declare dividends in respect of any Shares out of net income (including dividend and interest income) and the excess of realised and unrealised net capital gains over realised and unrealised losses in respect of investments of the Company as specified in the Relevant Supplement. The Articles provide that dividends declared but unclaimed by the relevant Shareholder for six years shall be forfeited by the relevant Shareholder unless otherwise determined by the Directors and shall become payable at the end of the six year period to the Sub-Fund in respect of which they were declared. The distribution policy of each Sub-Fund will be specified in the Relevant Supplement and the Relevant Supplement will indicate whether a Class of Shares is an Accumulation Class or an Income Class.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Information regarding the fees and expenses of each Sub-Fund are primarily described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” in the Relevant Supplement.

DIRECTORS’ FEES

Under the Articles, the Directors are entitled to a fee in remuneration for their services at a rate to be determined from time to time by the Directors, but so that the aggregate amount of Directors’ remuneration in any one year in respect of any Sub-Fund shall not exceed U.S.$50,000 unless otherwise notified to Shareholders. The Directors and any alternate Directors shall also be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or Shareholders or any other meetings with regulatory authorities or professional advisers or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company.

REPRESENTATIVE AND PAYING AGENT FEES

Representatives and paying agents appointed by the Manager in respect of a particular Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds may receive a fee payable out of the assets of the relevant Sub-Fund(s) at what the Manager considers to be normal commercial rates. Expenses of the representatives and paying agents will be allocated to the relevant Sub-Fund(s).

ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATING EXPENSES

The formation expenses of the Sub-Funds will be specified in the Relevant Supplements. Certain other costs and expenses incurred in the operation of a Sub-Fund will also be borne out of the assets of the relevant Sub-Fund, including, without limitation, registration fees and other expenses relating to regulatory, supervisory or fiscal authorities in various jurisdictions, management, investment management, administrative and custodial services; client service fees; writing, typesetting and printing the Prospectus, sales, literature and other documents for investors; taxes and commissions; issuing, purchasing, repurchasing and redeeming Shares; transfer agents, dividend dispersing agents, Shareholder servicing agents and registrars; printing, mailing, auditing, accounting and legal expenses; reports to Shareholders and governmental agencies; meetings of Shareholders and proxy solicitations therefore (if any); insurance premiums; association and membership dues; and such non-recurring and extraordinary items as may arise.

Expenses will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which in the opinion of the Directors they relate. If an expense is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund, the Directors shall have discretion to determine the basis on which the expense shall be allocated between the Sub-Funds. In such cases, the expense will normally be allocated to all Sub-Funds pro rata to the value of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager may, at its discretion, contribute directly towards the expenses attributable to the establishment and/or operation of the Company or any particular Sub-Fund and/or the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may from time to time at its sole discretion waive any or all of the Management Fees in respect of any particular payment period.

The Manager may from time to time and at its sole discretion use part or all of the fees it receives to remunerate certain financial intermediaries. The Manager may pay reimbursements out of its management fee to certain institutional shareholders. The Manager may also pay trailer fees out of its management fees to certain asset managers. An Investment Adviser may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, use part or all of the fees it receives to remunerate certain financial intermediaries. In addition, an Investment Adviser may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, rebate any or all of its fees to some or all Shareholders.

The Distributor may, at its discretion, contribute from its own assets directly towards the expenses attributable to the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may from time to time at its sole discretion waive any or all of the fees payable to it as Distributor in respect of any particular payment period.

DETERMINATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

The Net Asset Value per Share in any Sub-Fund shall be calculated by the Administrator in the Base Currency of that Sub-Fund (which shall be so specified in the Relevant Supplement) to the nearest two decimal places as at each Valuation Point in accordance with the valuation provisions set out in the Articles and summarised below, or to such other number of decimal places as any two Directors may, in their absolute discretion, determine in respect of a Sub-Fund for a particular Dealing Day. The Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of the relevant Sub-Fund and deducting from such amount the liabilities of the Sub-Fund, which shall include all fees and expenses payable and/or accrued and/or estimated to be payable out of the assets of the Sub-Fund as specified in the Relevant Supplement. The Net Asset Value per Share of a Class of Shares in a Sub-Fund shall be calculated by establishing the number of Shares issued in the Class on the relevant Valuation Day and allocating the relevant fees and Class expenses to the Class and making appropriate adjustments to take account of distributions, if any, paid out of the Sub-Fund and apportioning the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund accordingly.

The Net Asset Value per Share as calculated on any Dealing Day with respect to each Sub-Fund will be published after each Dealing Day on the Company's website, <http://international.eatonvance.com>, and on or through such other media as the Manager may from time to time determine.

In calculating the value of the assets of each Sub-Fund:

- (i) each asset which is quoted, listed or traded on or under the rules of any Recognised Market shall be valued at the last traded price or, if unavailable or if bid and offer quotations are made, the latest available mid-market price (i.e. the mean of the bid and offer price quoted) on the relevant Recognised Market at the close of business on such Recognised Market. If the investment is normally quoted, listed or traded on or under the rules of more than one Recognised Market, the relevant Recognised Market shall be that which the Directors, or the Manager as their delegate, determines provides the fairest criterion of value for the investment. If prices for an investment quoted, listed or traded on the relevant Recognised Market are not available at the relevant time, or are unrepresentative in the opinion of the Directors, or the Manager as their delegate, such investment shall be valued at such value as shall be estimated with care and in good faith as the probable realisation value of the investment by a competent professional person, firm or corporation (appointed for such purpose by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary) or at such other value as the Directors who are approved for such purpose by the Depositary consider in the circumstances to be the probable realisation value of the investment estimated with care and in good faith. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the relevant Investment Adviser, the Administrator nor the Depositary shall be under any liability if a price reasonably believed by them to be the last traded price or, as the case may be, the latest available mid-market price, the closing mid-market price, the closing bid or the last bid for the time being, may be found not to be such.
- (ii) the value of any investment which is not normally quoted, listed or traded on or under the rules of a Recognised Market shall be valued at such value as shall be estimated with care and in good faith as the probable realisation value of the investment by a competent professional person, firm or corporation (appointed for such purpose by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary) or at such other value as the Directors who are approved for such purpose by the Depositary consider in the circumstances to be the probable realisation value of the investment estimated with care and in good faith. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the relevant Investment Adviser, the Administrator nor the Depositary shall be under any liability if a price reasonably believed by them to be the last traded price or, as the case may be, the latest available mid-market price, the closing mid-market price, the closing bid or the last bid for the time being, may be found not to be such.
- (iii) units or shares in collective investment schemes (including shares held by a Sub-Fund in another Sub-Fund) which are not valued in accordance with the above provisions shall be valued on the basis of the latest available redemption price of such units or shares after deduction of any redemption charges.

- (iv) cash deposits and similar investments shall be valued at their face value together with accrued interest unless in the opinion of the Manager (in consultation with the relevant Investment Adviser and the Depositary) any adjustment should be made to reflect the fair value thereof.
- (v) derivative instruments including but not limited to swaps, options, interest rate futures contracts and other financial futures contracts which are traded on a Recognised Market shall be valued at the settlement price of such instruments as at the Valuation Point as determined by the relevant Recognised Market, provided that where it is not the practice of the relevant Recognised Market to quote a settlement price, or if a settlement price is not available for any reason, such instruments shall be valued at their probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Directors or a competent person appointed by the Directors and approved for the purpose by the Depositary. The value of forward foreign exchange contracts and interest rate swap contracts which are dealt in on a Recognised Market shall be calculated by reference to freely available market quotations.
- (vi) derivative instruments, forward exchange contracts and interest rate swap contracts not traded on a Recognised Market shall be valued, at least daily, either (i) by the counterparty, provided that the valuation is verified at least weekly either by the Investment Adviser or other independent party, such person to be independent of the counterparty and approved for that purpose by the Depositary, or (ii) by a competent person appointed by the Directors and approved by the Depositary for such purposes, or by other alternative means provided the value is approved by the Depositary, provided that such competent person or other alternative valuation shall follow international best practice and adhere to the principles on valuation of such instruments established by bodies such as IOSCO and AIMA and shall be reconciled to the counterparty valuation on a monthly basis. Any significant differences between such competent person or other alternative valuation and the counterparty valuation shall be promptly investigated and explained.
- (vii) money market instruments having a maturity of three months or less and having no specific sensitivity to market parameters (including credit risk) shall be valued by using the amortised cost method of valuation in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. The valuation of such securities and any deviation from their marked-to-market valuations will be reviewed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank.
- (viii) treasury bills and bills of exchange shall be valued with reference to bid prices ruling in the relevant markets for such instruments of like maturity, amount and credit risk at the relevant Valuation Point.
- (ix) notwithstanding the above provisions the Directors may: (a) adjust the valuation of any particular asset where such adjustment is considered necessary to reflect fair value in the context of currency, marketability, dealing costs and/or such other considerations which are deemed relevant; or (b) permit some other method of valuation for a specific/particular asset where such method is deemed necessary by the Directors or the Manager as its delegate and is approved by the Depositary.

Any value expressed otherwise than in the Base Currency (whether of an investment or cash) and any non-Base Currency borrowing shall be converted into the Base Currency at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Administrator deems appropriate in the circumstances.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF DEALINGS

The Directors may at any time, with the approval of the Depositary, temporarily suspend the issue, valuation, sale, purchase, redemption, repurchase and exchange of Shares during:

- (i) any period when any Recognised Market on which a substantial portion of the investments for the time being comprised in the relevant Sub-Fund are quoted, listed or dealt in is closed otherwise than for ordinary holidays, or during which dealings in any such Recognised Market are restricted or suspended;

- (ii) any period where, as a result of political, military, economic or monetary events or other circumstances beyond the control, responsibility and power of the Company, the disposal or valuation of investments for the time being comprised in the relevant Sub-Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected or completed normally or without prejudicing the interest of Shareholders;
- (iii) any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the value of any investments for the time being comprised in the relevant Sub-Fund or during any period when for any other reason the value of investments for the time being comprised in the relevant Sub-Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be promptly or accurately ascertained;
- (iv) any period when the Company is unable to repatriate funds for the purposes of making redemption or purchase payments or during which the realisation of investments for the time being comprised in the relevant Sub-Fund, or the transfer or payment of funds involved in connection therewith cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be effected at normal prices or normal rates of exchange; or
- (v) any period when, as a result of adverse market conditions, the payment of redemption proceeds may, in the opinion of the Directors, have an adverse impact on the relevant Sub-Fund or the remaining shareholders in such Sub-Fund.

Notice of any such suspension may be published on the Company's website, <http://international.eatonvance.com>, and/or such newspapers or media as the Directors may from time to time determine in respect of any Sub-Fund, if in the opinion of the Directors, it is likely to exceed fourteen days. Any such suspension shall be notified immediately (without delay) to the Central Bank, and as soon as practicable thereafter to any Shareholders affected by such suspension. Shareholders who have requested issue, purchase or redemption of Shares in any Sub-Fund will have their request dealt with on the first Dealing Day after the suspension has been lifted unless such requests have been withdrawn prior to the lifting of the suspension.

TAXATION

IRELAND

The following is a summary of certain Irish tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of Shares. The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the Irish tax considerations that may be relevant. The summary relates only to the position of persons who are the absolute beneficial owners of Shares and may not apply to certain other classes of persons.

The summary is based on Irish tax laws and the practice of the Irish Revenue Commissioners in effect on the date of this Prospectus (and is subject to any prospective or retroactive change). Potential investors in Shares should consult their own advisors as to the Irish or other tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of Shares.

Taxation of the Company

The Company intends to conduct its affairs so that it is Irish tax resident. On the basis that the Company is Irish tax resident, the Company qualifies as an 'investment undertaking' for Irish tax purposes and, consequently, is exempt from Irish corporation tax on its income and gains.

The Company will be obliged to account for Irish tax to the Irish Revenue Commissioners if Shares are held by non-exempt Irish resident Shareholders (and in certain other circumstances), as described below. Explanations of the terms 'resident' and 'ordinarily resident' are set out at the end of this summary.

Taxation of Non-Irish Shareholders

Where a Shareholder is not resident (or ordinarily resident) in Ireland for Irish tax purposes, the Company will not deduct any Irish tax in respect of the Shareholder's Shares once the declaration has been received by the Company confirming the Shareholder's non-resident status. The declaration may be provided by an Intermediary who holds Shares on behalf of investors who are not resident (or ordinarily resident) in Ireland, provided that, to the best of the Intermediary's knowledge, the investors are not resident (or ordinarily resident) in Ireland. An explanation of the term 'Intermediary' is set out at the end of this summary.

If the declaration is not received by the Company, the Company will deduct Irish tax in respect of the Shareholder's Shares as if the Shareholder was a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder (see below).

The Company will also deduct Irish tax if the Company has information which reasonably suggests that a Shareholder's declaration is incorrect. A Shareholder will generally have no entitlement to recover such Irish tax, unless the Shareholder is a company and holds the Shares through an Irish branch and in certain other limited circumstances. The Company must be informed if a Shareholder becomes Irish tax resident.

Generally, Shareholders who are not Irish tax resident will have no other Irish tax liability with respect to their Shares. However, if a Shareholder is a company which holds its Shares through an Irish branch or agency, the Shareholder may be liable to Irish corporation tax in respect of profits and gains arising in respect of the Shares (on a self-assessment basis).

Taxation of Exempt Irish Shareholders

Where a Shareholder is resident (or ordinarily resident) in Ireland for Irish tax purposes and falls within any of the categories listed in section 739D(6) Taxes Consolidation Act of Ireland ("TCA"), the Company will not deduct Irish tax in respect of the Shareholder's Shares once the declaration has been received by the Company confirming the Shareholder's exempt status.

The categories listed in section 739D(6) TCA can be summarised as follows:

1. Pension schemes (within the meaning of section 774, section 784 or section 785 TCA).

2. Companies carrying on life assurance business (within the meaning of section 706 TCA).
3. Investment undertakings (within the meaning of section 739B TCA).
4. Investment limited partnerships (within the meaning of section 739J TCA).
5. Special investment schemes (within the meaning of section 737 TCA).
6. Unauthorised unit trust schemes (to which section 731(5)(a) TCA applies).
7. Charities (within the meaning of section 739D(6)(f)(i) TCA).
8. Qualifying managing companies (within the meaning of section 734(1) TCA).
9. Specified companies (within the meaning of section 734(1) TCA).
10. Qualifying fund and savings managers (within the meaning of section 739D(6)(h) TCA).
11. Personal Retirement Savings Account (PRSA) administrators (within the meaning of section 739D(6)(i) TCA).
12. Irish credit unions (within the meaning of section 2 of the Credit Union Act 1997).
13. The National Asset Management Agency.
14. The National Pensions Reserve Fund Commission or a Commission investment vehicle.
15. Qualifying companies (within the meaning of section 110 TCA).
16. Any other person resident in Ireland who is permitted (whether by legislation or by the express concession of the Irish Revenue Commissioners) to hold Shares in the Company without requiring the Company to deduct or account for Irish tax.

Irish resident Shareholders who claim exempt status will be obliged to account for any Irish tax due in respect of Shares on a self-assessment basis.

If the declaration is not received by the Company in respect of a Shareholder, the Company will deduct Irish tax in respect of the Shareholder's Shares as if the Shareholder was a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder (see below). A Shareholder will generally have no entitlement to recover such Irish tax, unless the Shareholder is a company within the charge to Irish corporation tax and in certain other limited circumstances.

Taxation of Other Irish Shareholders

Where a Shareholder is resident (or ordinarily resident) in Ireland for Irish tax purposes and is not an 'exempt' Shareholder (see above), the Company will deduct Irish tax on distributions, redemptions and transfers and, additionally, on 'eighth anniversary' events, as described below.

Distributions by the Company

If the Company pays a distribution to a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder, the Company will deduct Irish tax from the distribution. The amount of Irish tax deducted will be:

1. 25% of the distribution, where the distributions are paid to a Shareholder who is a company which has made the appropriate declaration for the 25% rate to apply; and
2. 41% of the distribution, in all other cases.

The Company will pay this deducted tax to the Irish Revenue Commissioners.

Generally, a Shareholder will have no further Irish tax liability in respect of the distribution. However, if the Shareholder is a company for which the distribution is a trading receipt, the gross distribution (including the Irish tax deducted) will form part of its taxable income for self-assessment purposes and the Shareholder may set off the deducted tax against its corporation tax liability.

Redemption of Shares

If the Company redeems Shares held by a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder, the Company will deduct Irish tax from the redemption payment made to the Shareholder.. The amount of Irish tax deducted will be calculated by reference to the gain (if any) which has accrued to the Shareholder on the Shares being redeemed and will be equal to:

1. 25% of such gain, where the Shareholder is a company which has made the appropriate declaration for the 25% rate to apply; and
2. 41% of the gain, in all other cases.

The Company will pay this deducted tax to the Irish Revenue Commissioners.

Generally, a Shareholder will have no further Irish tax liability in respect of the redemption payment. However, if the Shareholder is a company for which the redemption payment is a trading receipt, the gross payment (including the Irish tax deducted) less the cost of acquiring the Shares will form part of its taxable income for self-assessment purposes and the Shareholder may set off the deducted tax against its corporation tax liability.

If Shares are not denominated in Euro, a Shareholder may be liable (on a self-assessment basis) to Irish capital gains taxation on any currency gain arising on the redemption of the Shares.

Transfers of Shares

If a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder transfers (by sale or otherwise) an entitlement to Shares, the Company will account for Irish tax in respect of that transfer. The amount of Irish tax deducted will be calculated by reference to the gain (if any) which has accrued to the Shareholder on the Shares being transferred and will be equal to:

1. 25% of such gain, where the Shareholder is a company which has made the appropriate declaration for the 25% rate to apply; and
2. 41% of the gain, in all other cases.

The Company will pay this deducted tax to the Irish Revenue Commissioners. To fund this Irish tax liability, the Company may appropriate or cancel other Shares held by the Shareholder. This may result in further Irish tax becoming due.

Generally, a Shareholder will have no further liability to Irish tax in respect of any payment received in respect of the transfer of Shares. However, if the Shareholder is a company for which the payment is a trading receipt, the payment (less the cost of acquiring the Shares) will form part of its taxable income for self-assessment purposes and the Shareholder may set off the deducted tax against its corporation tax liability.

Additionally, if Shares are not denominated in Euro, a Shareholder may be liable (on a self-assessment basis) to Irish capital gains tax on any currency gain arising on the transfer of the Shares.

‘Eighth Anniversary’ Events

If a non-exempt Irish resident Shareholder does not dispose of Shares within eight years of acquiring them, the Shareholder will be deemed for Irish tax purposes to have disposed of the Shares on the eighth anniversary of their acquisition (and any subsequent eighth anniversary). On such deemed disposal, the Company will account for Irish tax in respect of the increase in value (if any) of those Shares over that eight year period. The amount of Irish tax accounted for will be equal to:

1. 25% of such increase in value, where the Shareholder is a company which has made the appropriate declaration for the 25% rate to apply; and
2. 41% of the gain, in all other cases.

The Company will pay this tax to the Irish Revenue Commissioners. To fund the Irish tax liability, the Company may appropriate or cancel Shares held by the Shareholder.

However, if less than 10% of the Shares (by value) in the relevant Sub-Fund are held by non-exempt Irish resident Shareholders, the Company may elect not to account for Irish tax on this deemed disposal. To claim this election, the Company must:

1. confirm to the Irish Revenue Commissioners, on an annual basis, that this 10% requirement is satisfied and provide the Irish Revenue Commissioners with details of any non-exempt Irish resident Shareholders (including the value of their Shares and their Irish tax reference numbers); and
2. notify any non-exempt Irish resident Shareholders that the Company is electing to claim this exemption.

If the exemption is claimed by the Company, any non-exempt Irish resident Shareholders must pay to the Irish Revenue Commissioners on a self-assessment basis the Irish tax which would otherwise have been payable by the Company on the eighth anniversary (and any subsequent eighth anniversary).

Any Irish tax paid in respect of the increase in value of Shares over the eight year period may be set off on a proportionate basis against any future Irish tax which would otherwise be payable in respect of those Shares and any excess may be recovered on an ultimate disposal of the Shares.

Share Exchanges

Where a Shareholder exchanges Shares on arm's length terms for other Shares in the Company or for Shares in another Sub-Fund of the Company and no payment is received by the Shareholder, the Company will not deduct Irish tax in respect of the exchange.

Stamp Duty

No Irish stamp duty (or other Irish transfer tax) will apply to the issue, transfer or redemption of Shares. If a Shareholder receives a distribution in specie of assets from the Company, a charge to Irish stamp duty could potentially arise.

Gift and Inheritance Tax

Irish capital acquisitions tax (at a rate of 33%) can apply to gifts or inheritances of Irish situate assets or where either the person from whom the gift or inheritance is taken is Irish domiciled, resident or ordinarily resident or the person taking the gift or inheritance is Irish resident or ordinarily resident.

The Shares could be treated as Irish situate assets because they have been issued by an Irish company. However, any gift or inheritance of Shares will be exempt from Irish gift or inheritance tax once:

1. the Shares are comprised in the gift or inheritance both at the date of the gift or inheritance and at the 'valuation date' (as defined for Irish capital acquisitions tax purposes);
2. the person from whom the gift or inheritance is taken is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland at the date of the disposition; and
3. the person taking the gift or inheritance is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in Ireland at the date of the gift or inheritance.

FATCA

Ireland has an intergovernmental agreement with the United States of America (the “IGA”) in relation to FATCA (the Foreign Accounts Tax Compliance Act in the enactment of the United States of America known as Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act 2010), of a type commonly known as a ‘model 1’ agreement. Ireland has also enacted regulations to introduce the provisions of the IGA into Irish law. The Company intends to carry on its business in such a way as to ensure that it is treated as complying with FATCA, pursuant to the terms of the IGA. Unless an exemption applies, the Company shall be required to register with the US Internal Revenue Service as a ‘reporting financial institution’ for FATCA purposes and report information to the Irish Revenue Commissioners relating to Shareholders who, for FATCA purposes, are specified US persons, non-participating financial institutions or passive non-financial foreign entities that are controlled by specified US persons. Exemptions from the obligation to register for FATCA purposes and from the obligation to report information for FATCA purposes are available only in limited circumstances. Any information reported by the Company to the Irish Revenue Commissioners will be communicated to the US Internal Revenue Service pursuant to the IGA. It is possible that the Irish Revenue Commissioners may also communicate this information to other tax authorities pursuant to the terms of any applicable double tax treaty, intergovernmental agreement or exchange of information regime.

The Company should generally not be subject to FATCA withholding tax in respect of its US source income for so long as it complies with its FATCA obligations. FATCA withholding tax would only be envisaged to arise on US source payments to the Company if the Company did not comply with its FATCA registration and reporting obligations and the US Internal Revenue Service specifically identified the Company as being a ‘non-participating financial institution’ for FATCA purposes.

OECD Common Reporting Standard

The Council of the EU has recently adopted Directive 2014/107/EU, which amends Directive 2011/16/EU on administrative cooperation in the field of taxation. This 2014 Directive provides for the adoption of the regime known as the “Common Reporting Standard” proposed by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development and generalises the automatic exchange of information within the European Union as of 1 January 2016. Under these measures, the Company may be required to report information relating to Shareholders, including the identity and residence of Shareholders, and income, sale or redemption proceeds received by Shareholders in respect of the Shares. This information may be shared with tax authorities in other EU member states and jurisdictions which implement the OECD Common Reporting Standard.

Meaning of Terms

Meaning of ‘residence’ for companies

A company which has its central management and control in Ireland is tax resident in Ireland irrespective of where it is incorporated. A company which does not have its central management and control in Ireland but which was incorporated in Ireland on or after 1 January 2015 is tax resident in Ireland except where the company is regarded as not resident in Ireland under a double taxation treaty between Ireland and another country.

A company which does not have its central management and control in Ireland but which was incorporated before 1 January 2015 in Ireland is resident in Ireland except where:

1. the company (or a related company) carries on a trade in Ireland and either the company is ultimately controlled by persons resident in EU member states or in countries with which Ireland has a double tax treaty, or the company (or a related company) are quoted companies on a recognised stock exchange in the EU or in a tax treaty country; or
2. the company is regarded as not resident in Ireland under a double tax treaty between Ireland and another country.

Finally, a company that was incorporated in Ireland before 1 January 2015 will also be regarded as resident in Ireland if the company is (i) managed and controlled in a territory with which a double taxation agreement with Ireland is in force (a 'relevant territory'), and such management and control would have been sufficient, if exercised in Ireland, to make the company Irish tax resident; and (ii) the company would have been tax resident in that relevant territory under its laws had it been incorporated there; and (iii) the company would not otherwise be regarded by virtue of the law of any territory as resident in that territory for the purposes of tax.

Meaning of 'residence' for individuals

An individual will be regarded as being tax resident in Ireland for a calendar year if the individual:

1. spends 183 days or more in Ireland in that calendar year; or
2. has a combined presence of 280 days in Ireland, taking into account the number of days spent in Ireland in that calendar year together with the number of days spent in Ireland in the preceding year. Presence in Ireland by an individual of not more than 30 days in a calendar year will not be reckoned for the purposes of applying this 'two year' test.

An individual is treated as present in Ireland for a day if that individual is personally present in Ireland at any time during that day.

Meaning of 'ordinary residence' for individuals

The term 'ordinary residence' (as distinct from 'residence') relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in Ireland for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year. An individual who has been ordinarily resident in Ireland ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which the individual is not resident. For example, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in Ireland in 2016 and departs Ireland in that year will remain ordinarily resident in Ireland up to the end of the tax year in 2019.

Meaning of 'Intermediary'

An 'Intermediary' means a person who:

1. carries on a business which consists of, or includes, the receipt of payments from a regulated investment undertaking resident in Ireland on behalf of other persons; or
2. holds units in such an investment undertaking on behalf of other persons.

Foreign taxes

The Company may be liable to taxes (including withholding taxes) in countries other than Ireland on income earned and capital gains arising on its investments. The Company may not be able to benefit from a reduction in the rate of such foreign tax by virtue of the double taxation treaties between Ireland and other countries. The Company may not, therefore, be able to reclaim any foreign withholding tax suffered by it in particular countries. If this position changes and the Company obtains a repayment of foreign tax, the Net Asset Value of the Company will not be restated and the benefit will be allocated to the then-existing Shareholders rateably at the time of repayment.

UNITED KINGDOM

The following paragraphs, which are intended as a general guide only and do not constitute tax advice, are based on current United Kingdom tax legislation and what is understood to be the current practice of the United Kingdom HM Revenue & Customs as at the date of this Prospectus. They summarise certain limited aspects of the United Kingdom tax treatment of the Company and Shareholders and relate only to the position of Shareholders who are the absolute beneficial owners of their Shares, who hold their Shares as an investment (as opposed to securities to be realised in the course of a trade) and (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-United Kingdom residents or non-United Kingdom domiciliaries) who are resident and, if an individual, domiciled in, and only in, the United Kingdom for taxation purposes. They do not apply to certain classes of Shareholders, such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, collective investment schemes and Shareholders who have, or are deemed to have, acquired their Shares by reason of, or in connection with, an office or employment. If you are in any doubt as to your taxation position or if you are subject to tax in any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom, you should consult an appropriate professional adviser immediately.

The Company

The Directors intend that the affairs of the Company should be managed and conducted so that it does not become resident in the United Kingdom for United Kingdom taxation purposes. Accordingly, and provided that the Company is not trading in the United Kingdom through a fixed place of business or agent situated therein that constitutes a “permanent establishment” for United Kingdom taxation purposes and that all its trading transactions (if any) in the United Kingdom are carried out through a broker or investment manager acting as an agent of independent status in the ordinary course of its business, the Company will not be subject to United Kingdom corporation tax or income tax on its profits. The Directors and the Manager each intend that the respective affairs of the Company, the Manager and any Investment Adviser are conducted so that these requirements are met, insofar as this is within their respective control. However, it cannot be guaranteed that the necessary conditions will at all times be satisfied.

Certain interest and other amounts received by the Company which have a United Kingdom source may be subject to withholding or other taxes in the United Kingdom.

Shareholders

Subject to their personal circumstances, Shareholders resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes will be liable to United Kingdom income tax or corporation tax in respect of dividends or other distributions of an income nature made by the Company, whether or not such dividends or distributions are reinvested, together with their share of income retained by a reporting fund (as to which see below). The nature of the charge to tax and any entitlement to a tax credit in respect of such dividends or distributions will depend on a number of factors which may include the composition of the relevant assets of the Company and the extent of a Shareholder's interest in the Company.

The Offshore Funds (Tax) Regulations 2009 (the “Offshore Funds Regulations”) set out the regime for the taxation of investments in offshore funds (as defined in the United Kingdom Taxation (International and Other Provisions) Act 2010 (“TIOPA 2010”)) which operates by reference to whether a fund opts into a reporting regime (“reporting funds”) or not (“non-reporting funds”). If an investor who is resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes holds an interest in an offshore fund that does not have reporting fund status (or, where applicable, distributing fund status) throughout the period during which the investor holds that interest, any gain accruing to the investor upon the sale, redemption or other disposal of that interest (including a deemed disposal on death) will be taxed at the time of such sale, redemption or other disposal as income (“offshore income gains”) and not as a capital gain. Investors in reporting funds are subject to tax on the share of the reporting fund's income attributable to their holding in the fund, whether or not distributed, and any gains on disposal of their holding would be taxed as capital gains. Investors in non-reporting funds would not be subject to tax on income retained by the non-reporting fund.

The Shares will constitute interests in an offshore fund. The Relevant Supplements identify those Classes of Shares in a Sub-Fund for which reporting fund status has been sought and obtained or for which it is currently intended to seek reporting fund status but the Directors reserve the right to seek reporting fund status in respect of any other Class. The effect of obtaining and maintaining such status (or, where applicable, distributing fund status) throughout a Shareholder's relevant period of ownership would be that any gains on disposal of such Shares would be taxed as capital gains. However, there can be no guarantee that reporting fund status will be obtained and maintained for each such Class of Shares. Were such application to be unsuccessful or such status subsequently to be withdrawn, any gains arising to Shareholders resident in the United Kingdom on a sale, redemption or other disposal of such Shares (including a deemed disposal on death) would be taxed as offshore income gains rather than capital gains.

The exchange of Shares in one Sub-Fund for Shares in another Sub-Fund (see under the heading “Exchange or Transfer of Shares”) will amount to a disposal of the original Shares for tax purposes and accordingly a chargeable gain (or offshore income gain where recognition of the original Shares as a reporting fund (or, where applicable, distributing fund) has not been obtained and maintained) or an allowable capital loss may be realised. The exchange of Shares of one Class for Shares of another Class in the same Sub-Fund will amount to a disposal if the original Shares are not at the relevant time of a Class which is a reporting fund and the new Shares are of a Class so recognised and may otherwise amount to a disposal depending on the circumstances.

Persons within the charge to United Kingdom corporation tax should note that the regime for the taxation of most corporate debt contained in the United Kingdom Corporation Tax Act 2009 (the “loan relationships regime”) provides that, if at any time in an accounting period of such a person, that person holds an interest in an offshore fund within the meaning of the relevant provisions of the Offshore Funds Regulations and TIOPA 2010, and there is a time in that period when that fund fails to satisfy the “qualifying investments” test, the interest held by such a person will be treated for that accounting period as if it were rights under a creditor relationship for the purposes of the loan relationships regime. An offshore fund fails to satisfy the qualifying investments test at any time when more than 60 per cent. of its assets by market value (excluding cash awaiting investment) comprise “qualifying investments”. Qualifying investments include government and corporate debt securities, cash on deposit, certain derivative contracts and holdings in other collective investment schemes which at any time in the accounting period of the person holding the interest in the offshore fund do not themselves satisfy the qualifying investments test. The Shares will constitute such interests in an offshore fund and on the basis of the investment policies of certain Sub-Funds, such a Sub-Fund could fail to satisfy the qualifying investments test. In that eventuality, the Shares in that Sub-Fund will be treated for corporation tax purposes as within the loan relationships regime with the result that all returns on the Shares in that Sub-Fund in respect of such a person’s accounting period (including gains, profits and losses) will be taxed or relieved as an income receipt or expense on a “fair value accounting” basis. Accordingly, such a person who acquires Shares in the Company may, depending on its own circumstances, incur a charge to corporation tax on an unrealised increase in the value of its holding of Shares (and, likewise, obtain relief against corporation tax for an unrealised reduction in the value of its holding of Shares). The United Kingdom Government on 6 June 2013 announced a consultation on the future of the loan relationships regime, which includes proposals potentially to reform this aspect of the regime.

Anti-avoidance

Individuals resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes should note that Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the United Kingdom Income Tax Act 2007 contains anti-avoidance provisions dealing with the transfer of assets to overseas persons that may in certain circumstances render such individuals liable to taxation in respect of undistributed income profits of the Company.

Persons resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes should note the provisions of section 13 of the United Kingdom Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (“section 13”). Section 13 could be material to any such person who has an interest in the Company as a “participator” for United Kingdom taxation purposes (which term includes a shareholder) at a time when any gain accrues to the Company (such as on a disposal of any of its investments) which constitutes a chargeable gain or an offshore income gain if, at the same time, the Company is itself controlled in such a manner and by a sufficiently small number of persons as to render the Company a body corporate that would, were it to have been resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes, be a “close” company for those purposes. The provisions of section 13 would result in any such person who is a Shareholder being treated for the purposes of United Kingdom taxation as if a part of any chargeable gain or offshore income gain accruing to the Company had accrued to that person directly, that part being equal to the proportion of the gain that corresponds to that person’s proportionate interest in the Company. No liability under section 13 could be incurred by such a person, however, in respect of a chargeable gain or an offshore income gain accruing to the Company if the aggregate proportion of that gain that could be attributed under section 13 both to that person and to any persons connected with him for United Kingdom taxation purposes does not exceed one quarter of the gain. In addition, section 13 does not apply where the asset giving rise to the gain was neither disposed of nor acquired or held as part of a scheme or arrangements having a tax avoidance main purpose. In the case of Shareholders who are individuals domiciled outside the United Kingdom, section 13 applies subject to the remittance basis in particular circumstances.

Companies resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes should note the “controlled foreign companies” legislation contained in Part 9A of TIOPA 2010 (the “CFC rules”). The CFC rules could in particular be material to any company that has (either alone or together with persons connected or associated with it for United Kingdom taxation purposes) an interest in 25 per cent or more of the “chargeable profits” of the Company if the Company is controlled (as “control” is defined in section 371RA of TIOPA 2010) by persons (whether companies, individuals or others) who are resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes or is controlled by two persons taken together, one of whom is resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes and has at least 40 per cent of the interests, rights and powers by which those persons control the Company, and the other of whom has at least 40 per cent and not more than 55 per cent of such interests, rights and powers. The effect of the CFC rules could be to render such companies liable to United Kingdom corporation tax by reference to their proportionate interest in the chargeable profits of the Company. The chargeable profits of the Company do not include any capital gains.

Transfer taxes

Transfers of Shares will not be liable to United Kingdom stamp duty unless the instrument of transfer is executed within the United Kingdom when the transfer will be liable to United Kingdom ad valorem stamp duty at the rate of 0.5 per cent of the consideration paid rounded up to the nearest £5. No United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax is payable on transfers of Shares, or agreements to transfer Shares.

The preceding paragraphs, which are intended as a general guide only and do not constitute tax advice, are based on current United Kingdom tax legislation and what is understood to be the current practice of the United Kingdom HM Revenue & Customs as at the date of this Prospectus. If a Shareholder is in any doubt as to their taxation position or if a Shareholder is subject to tax in any jurisdiction in addition to or other than the United Kingdom, they should consult an appropriate professional adviser immediately. It should be noted that the levels and bases of, and reliefs from, taxation can change.

THE DEPOSITARY

Citi Depositary Services Ireland Designated Activity Company has agreed to act as Depositary pursuant to the Depositary Agreement and the assets of the Company have been entrusted to the Depositary for safekeeping. The Depositary is a limited liability company incorporated in Ireland on 18 September 1992. The Depositary is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank. One of the principal businesses of the Depositary is the provision of custodial and trustee services for collective investment schemes and other portfolios.

The key duties of the Depositary are to perform the depositary duties referred to in Regulation 34 of the UCITS Regulations, essentially consisting of:

- (i) monitoring and verifying the Company's cash flows;
- (ii) safekeeping of the Company's assets, including, inter alia, verification of ownership;
- (iii) ensuring that the issue, redemption, cancellation and valuation of Shares are carried out in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the UCITS Regulations;
- (iv) ensuring that in transactions involving the Company's assets any consideration is remitted to the Company within the usual time limits;
- (v) ensuring that the Company's income is applied in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the UCITS Regulations; and
- (vi) carrying out instructions of the Manager and the Company unless they conflict with the Memorandum and Articles of Association or the UCITS Regulations;

Under the terms of the Depositary Agreement the Depositary has the power to delegate certain of its depositary functions. In general, whenever the Depositary delegates any of its depositary functions to a delegate, the Depositary will remain liable for any losses suffered as a result of an act or omission of the delegate as if such loss had arisen as a result of an act or omission of the Depositary. The use of securities settlement systems does not constitute a delegation by the Depositary of its functions.

As at the date of this Prospectus, the Depositary has entered into written agreements delegating the performance of its safekeeping function in respect of certain of the Company's assets to Citibank N.A. who in turn has appointed the sub-delegates set out in Appendix III and which is accurate as at the date of this Prospectus.

The liability of the Depositary will not be affected by the fact that it has delegated to a third party certain of its safekeeping functions in respect of the Company's assets. In order to discharge its responsibility in regard to the appointment of safekeeping delegates, the Depositary must exercise due skill, care and diligence in the selection, continued appointment and ongoing monitoring of a third party as a safekeeping agent so as to ensure that the third party has and maintains the expertise, competence and standing appropriate to discharge the responsibilities concerned; maintain an appropriate level of supervision over the safekeeping agent; and make appropriate inquiries from time to time to confirm that the obligations of the agent continue to be competently discharged.

From time to time conflicts may arise between the Depositary and the delegates or sub-delegates, for example where an appointed delegate or sub-delegate is an affiliated group company which receives remuneration for another custodial service it provides to the Company. In the event of any potential conflict of interest which may arise during the normal course of business, the Depositary will have regard to the applicable laws.

Up-to-date information on delegations and sub-delegations and related conflicts of interest may be requested from the Depositary by Shareholders.

In certain jurisdictions, where the local law requires that financial instruments are held by a local entity and no local entity satisfies the delegation requirements to which the Depositary is subject, the Depositary may delegate its functions to a local entity for as long as there are no local entities which satisfy the requirements. The Depositary will only do so where the Company has instructed it to do so and Shareholders are notified of such delegation prior to their investment, the reasons for it and the risks involved in the delegation.

Under the Depositary Agreement the Depositary has agreed that it, and any person to whom it delegates custody functions, may not reuse any of the Company's assets held in custody.

Reuse will be permitted in respect of the Company or a Sub-Fund's assets where:

- the reuse is carried out for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund;
- the Depositary acts on the instructions of the Manager on behalf of the relevant Sub-Fund;
- the reuse of assets is for the benefit of the Sub-Fund and the Shareholders; and
- the transaction is covered by high quality and liquid collateral received by the Sub-Fund under a title transfer arrangement, the market value of which shall, at all times, amount to at least the market value of the re-used assets plus a premium.

The Depositary is liable to the Company or to the Shareholders for the loss by the Depositary or a third party to whom the custody of financial instruments that can be held in custody has been delegated. In the case of such a loss of a financial instrument held in custody, the Depositary shall return a financial instrument of identical type or the corresponding amount to the Company or the Manager acting on behalf of the Company without undue delay. The Depositary is not liable if it can prove that the loss has arisen as a result of an external event beyond its reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all reasonable efforts to the contrary.

The Depositary is also liable to the Company and Shareholders for all other losses suffered by them as a result of the Depositary's negligent or intentional failure to properly fulfil its obligations. The Depositary Agreement contains indemnities in favour of the Depositary excluding matters arising by reason of its failure to satisfy its obligation of due skill, care and diligence, or the failure of any agent to satisfy the same standard of care, or any loss for which the Depositary is liable under the UCITS Regulations.

The Depositary Agreement provides that it will continue in force unless and until terminated by any party giving not less than 90 days' prior written notice to the other(s), although termination may be immediate in certain circumstances, such as the insolvency of the Depositary. Upon an (envisaged) removal or resignation of the Depositary, the Company shall with due observance of the applicable requirements of the Central Bank and in accordance with applicable law, rules and regulations, appoint a successor depositary. The Depositary may not be replaced without the approval of the Central Bank.

The Depositary Agreement is governed by the laws of Ireland and the courts of Ireland shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with the Depositary Agreement.

The Manager has appointed Citibank Europe plc to act as administrator of the Company with responsibility for performing the day to day administration of the Company and each Sub-Fund, including the calculation of the Net Asset Value per Share of each Sub-Fund, serving as the Company's agent for the issue and repurchase of Shares and acting as registrar of the Company.

Citibank Europe plc is a licensed bank, authorised and regulated by the Central Bank. Citibank Europe plc was incorporated in Ireland on 9 June 1988, as a public limited company, under registered number 132781 and is a member of the Citigroup group of companies, having its ultimate parent Citigroup Inc., a US publicly quoted company. GENERAL

The Company is an investment company with variable capital and with segregated liability between Sub-Funds incorporated in Ireland on 9 August 1999 under registration number 310760 and authorised by the Central Bank as a UCITS pursuant to the UCITS Regulations. The object of the Company, as set out in Clause 2 of its Memorandum and Articles of Association, is the collective investment of capital raised from the public in transferable securities and/or in other liquid financial assets in accordance with the UCITS Regulations operating on the principle of risk spreading. All holders of Shares are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by and are deemed to have notice of, the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of Company, copies of which are available as described in the “GENERAL - Documents for Inspection” section of this Prospectus.

The Company has been structured as an umbrella fund in that the Directors may from time to time, with the prior approval of the Central Bank, issue different Series of Shares representing separate portfolios of assets. Pursuant to Irish Law, the Company should not be liable as a whole to third parties and there should not be the potential for cross contamination of liabilities between Sub-Funds. However, there can be no categorical assurance that should an action be brought against the Company in the courts of another jurisdiction, the segregated nature of the Sub-Funds will be necessarily upheld.

Under the Articles, the Directors are required to establish a separate Sub-Fund, with separate records, for each Series of Shares in the following manner:

- (i) the Company will keep separate books and records of account for each Sub-Fund. The proceeds from the issue of each Series of Shares will be applied to the Sub-Fund established for that Series of Shares, and the assets and liabilities and income and expenditure attributable thereto will be applied to such Sub-Fund;
- (ii) any asset derived from another asset comprised in a Sub-Fund, will be applied to the same Sub-Fund as the asset from which it was derived and any increase or diminution in value of such an asset will be applied to the relevant Sub-Fund;
- (iii) in the case of any asset which the Directors do not consider as readily attributable to a particular Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds, the Directors have the discretion to determine, with the consent of the Depositary, the basis upon which any such asset will be allocated between Sub-Funds and the Directors may at any time and from time to time vary such basis;
- (iv) any liability will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which in the opinion of the Directors it relates or if such liability is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund the Directors will have discretion to determine, with the consent of the Depositary, the basis upon which any liability will be allocated between Sub-Funds and the Directors may at any time and from time to time vary such basis; and
- (v) the Directors may, with the consent of the Depositary, transfer any assets to and from Sub-Funds if, as a result of a creditor proceeding against certain of the assets of the Company or otherwise, a liability would be borne in a different manner from that in which it would have been borne under paragraph (iv) above or in any similar circumstances.
- (vi) where the assets of the Company (if any) attributable to the Subscriber Shares give rise to any net profit, the Directors may allocate assets representing such net profits to such Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds as they may deem appropriate.

Shares of any particular Series may be divided into different Classes to accommodate different subscription and/or redemption charges and/or charges and/or dividend and/or fee arrangements.

THE SHARE CAPITAL

The authorised share capital of the Company is 500,000,030,000 Shares of no par value divided into 30,000 Subscriber Shares of no par value and 500,000,000,000 Shares of no par value.

Subscriber Shares entitle the holders to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company but do not entitle the holders to participate in the profits or assets of the Company except for a return of capital on a winding-up. Shares entitle the holders to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company and to participate equally (subject to any differences between fees, charges and expenses applicable to different Classes of Shares) in the profits and assets of the Company on the terms and conditions set out in the Relevant Supplement. Subject to any special rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class of Shares with the prior approval of the Central Bank, each Shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes as shall be produced by dividing the aggregate Net Asset Value of that Shareholder's shareholding (expressed or converted into U.S. Dollars and calculated as of the relevant record date) by one. The Subscriber Shareholders shall have one vote for each Subscriber Share held. The "relevant record date" for these purposes shall be a date being not more than thirty days prior to the date of the relevant general meeting or written resolution as determined by the Directors. There are no pre-emption rights attaching to Shares.

The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase its capital, consolidate its Shares or any of them into a smaller number of Shares, sub-divide Shares or any of them into a larger number of Shares or cancel any Shares not taken or agreed to be taken by any person. The Company may by special resolution from time to time reduce its share capital in any way permitted by law.

VOTING RIGHTS

Each Shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes as shall be produced by dividing the aggregate Net Asset Value of that Shareholder's shareholding (expressed or converted into U.S. Dollars and calculated as of the relevant record date) by one. The "relevant record date" for these purposes shall be a date being not more than thirty days prior to the date of the relevant general meeting or written resolution as determined by the Directors. The Subscriber Shareholders shall have one vote for each Subscriber Share held. In relation to a resolution which in the opinion of the Directors gives or may give rise to a conflict of interest between the Shareholders of any Series or Class, such resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed only if, in lieu of being passed through a single meeting of the Shareholders of such Series or Class, such resolution shall have been passed at a separate meeting of the Shareholders of each such Series or Class. All votes shall be cast by a poll of Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the relevant Shareholder meeting or by unanimous written resolution of the Shareholders.

VARIATION OF SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

Under the Articles, the rights attached to each Series or Class of Share may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued Shares of that Series or Class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of Shares of that Series or Class. The rights attaching to any Series or Class of Shares shall not be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu with Shares already in issue, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of those Shares. The provisions of the Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such separate general meeting except that the necessary quorum at such a meeting shall be two persons present in person or by proxy holding Shares of the Series or Class in question or, at an adjourned meeting, one person holding Shares, of the Series or Class in question or his proxy.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Directors, Depositary, the Manager, the Administrator, the Investment Advisers, the Distributors and their delegates may from time to time act as manager, registrar, administrator, transfer agent, trustee, custodian, investment manager or advisor or distributor in relation to, or be otherwise involved in, other funds or collective investment schemes which have similar investment objectives to those of the Company or any Sub-Fund. It is, therefore, possible that any of them may, in the due course of their business, have potential conflicts of interests with the Company or any Sub-Fund. Each will at all times have regard in such event to its obligations under the Articles and/or any agreements to which it is party or by which it is bound in relation to the Company or any Sub-Fund and, in particular, but without limitation to its obligations to act in the best interests of the Shareholders when undertaking any investments where conflicts of interest may arise and they will each respectively endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly and, in particular, each Investment Adviser has agreed to act in a manner which it in good faith considers fair and equitable in allocating investment opportunities to the Company or the Sub-Funds as appropriate.

The Articles provide that the Administrator may accept the estimate of a competent person when determining the probable realisation value of unlisted securities. The Administrator may accept an estimate provided by the Investment Adviser or any other affiliate of the Manager for these purposes and investors should be aware that in these circumstances a possible conflict of interest may arise as the higher the estimated probable realisation value of the security, the higher the fees payable to the Manager and the Investment Adviser.

There is no prohibition on dealing in the assets of the Company by the Depositary, the Manager, the Investment Advisers, the Administrator or their delegates provided that such transactions are conducted at arm's length and in the best interests of the Shareholders. Permitted transactions are subject to (i) a certified valuation of a transaction by a person approved by the Depositary (or the Manager in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary or an affiliate of the Depositary) as independent and competent; (ii) execution on best terms on organised investment exchanges under their rules or (iii), where (i) and (ii) are not practical, the transaction is executed on terms which the Depositary (or the Manager in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary or an affiliate of the Depositary) is satisfied will be deemed to be conducted at arm's length and in the best interests of the Shareholders, but, without limitation, the Depositary may hold funds for the Company subject to the provisions of the Central Bank Acts, 1942 to 1997. The Depositary (or the Manager in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary or an affiliate of the Depositary) shall document how it has complied with (i), (ii) or (iii) above. Where transactions are conducted in accordance with (iii), the Depositary (or the Manager in the case of a transaction involving the Depositary or an affiliate of the Depositary) shall document its rationale for being satisfied that the transaction conformed to the principles outlined in this paragraph.

The Sub-Funds may sell securities to other funds managed by the Investment Advisers as long as the valuation procedures approved by the Depositary are followed. The Sub-Funds may purchase investments from or sell investments to other funds managed by the Investment Advisers provided that such transactions are carried out in accordance with this paragraph.

In placing orders with brokers and dealers (who may in some cases be an affiliate of an Investment Adviser) to make purchases and sales for the Sub-Funds, the Investment Advisers will obtain best execution for the Sub-Funds. In determining what constitutes best execution, each such Investment Adviser may consider factors it deems relevant, including, but not limited to, the breadth of the market in the security, the price of the security, the financial condition and execution capability of the broker or dealer and the reasonableness of the commission, if any, for the specific transaction, on a continuing basis. The Investment Advisers may consider the brokerage and research services (as those terms are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of the United States, as amended) provided to the relevant Sub-Fund and /or other accounts over which the Investment Advisers or their affiliates exercise investment discretion. The Investment Advisers may also consider the receipt of research services under "client commission arrangements" or "commission sharing arrangements" (both referred to as "CCAs") in determining what constitutes best execution. Under a CCA arrangement, an Investment Adviser may cause a Sub-Fund and /or other accounts over which the Investment Adviser or its affiliates exercises investment discretion to effect transactions through a broker-dealer and request that the broker-dealer allocate a portion of the commissions paid on those transactions to a pool of commission credits that are paid to other firms that provide research services to the Investment Adviser. Under a CCA, the broker-dealer that provides the research services need not execute the trade. Participating in CCAs may enable the Investment Adviser to consolidate payments for research using accumulated client commission credits from transactions executed through a particular broker-dealer to periodically pay for research services obtained from and provided by other firms, including other broker-dealers that supply research services. The Investment Advisers will only enter into and utilize CCAs to the extent permitted by Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of the United States, as amended. The Investment Advisers may pay any amount of commission for effecting a securities transaction in excess of the amount of commission another member of an exchange, broker, or dealer would have charged for effecting that transaction, if they determine in good faith that such amount of commission was reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided by such member, broker, or dealer, viewed in terms of either that particular transaction or its overall responsibilities with respect to the Sub-Fund and/or other accounts over which the Investment Advisers or their affiliates exercise investment discretion. The benefits provided under any soft commission arrangements must assist in the provision of investment services to the relevant Sub-Fund. Any soft commission arrangements will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the relevant Sub-Fund.

A director of the Company may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement in which the Company is interested. At the date of this Prospectus other than as disclosed under "MANAGEMENT INFORMATION - The Directors and Secretary" above, no director of the Company has any interest, beneficial or non-beneficial, in the Company or any material interest in any agreement or arrangement relating to the Company. The Directors shall endeavour to ensure that any conflict of interest is resolved fairly.

MEETINGS

All general meetings of the Company shall be held in Ireland and at least one general meeting of the Company shall be held in each year as the Company's annual general meeting. At least twenty one clear days' notice shall be given to Shareholders. The notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and the terms of the resolutions to be proposed. A proxy may attend on behalf of any Shareholder. The voting rights attached to the Shares are set out under the "Voting Rights" section of this Prospectus.

REPORTS AND ACCOUNTS

The Directors shall cause to be prepared an annual report and audited annual accounts for the Company and each Sub-Fund for the period ending 31 December in each year. These will be forwarded to Shareholders within four months of the end of the relevant accounting period end and at least twenty-one days before the annual general meeting. In addition, the Company shall prepare and circulate to Shareholders a half-yearly report for the period ending 30 June in each year which shall include unaudited half-yearly accounts for the Company and each Sub-Fund. The unaudited half-yearly report will be sent to Shareholders within two months of the end of the relevant accounting period.

WINDING UP

The Articles contain provisions to the following effect:

- (a) If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator shall apply the assets of the Company in such manner and order as he thinks fit in satisfaction of creditors' claims.
- (b) The assets available for distribution among the members shall then be applied in the following priority:
 - (i) First, in the payment to the holders of Shares of each Series of a sum in the currency in which that Series is designated or in any other currency selected by the liquidator) as nearly as possible equal (at a rate of exchange determined by the liquidator) to the aggregate Net Asset Value per Share of the Shares of such Series held by such holders respectively as at the date of commencement to wind up provided that there are sufficient assets available in the relevant Sub-Fund to enable such payment to be made.
 - (ii) Secondly, in the payment to the holders of the Subscriber Shares of sums up to the nominal amount paid thereon out of the assets of the Company not comprised within any Sub-Funds. In the event that there are insufficient assets as aforesaid to enable such payment in full to be made, no recourse shall be had to the assets comprised within any of the Sub-Funds.

- (iii) Thirdly, in the payment to the holders of each Series of Shares of any balance then remaining in the relevant Sub-Fund, such payment being made in proportion to the number of Shares of that Series held.
 - (iv) Fourthly, in the payment to the holders of the Shares of any balance then remaining and not comprised within any of the Sub-Funds, such payment being made in proportion to the number of Shares held.
- (c) If the Company shall be wound up (whether the liquidation is voluntary, under supervision or by the Irish High Court) the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution and any other sanction required by the Irish Companies Acts divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, and whether or not the assets shall consist of property of a single kind, and may for such purposes set such value as he deems fair upon any one or more Class or Classes of property, and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different Classes of members. The liquidator may, with the like authority, vest any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of members as the liquidator, with the like authority, shall think fit, and the liquidation of the Company may be closed and the Company dissolved, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any assets in respect of which there is liability.

APPENDIX II

EFFICIENT PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

This section of the Prospectus clarifies the instruments and/or strategies which the Company may use for efficient portfolio management purposes. Where derivative instruments are used for hedging purposes, details of the derivative instruments to be used will be specifically disclosed in the Relevant Supplement.

Each of the Sub-Funds may use the techniques and instruments for efficient portfolio management which are set out below. If this is intended, this will be indicated in the Relevant Supplement, which shall cross refer to this Appendix II. Investors should note that the Company shall comply with the conditions and limits laid down from time to time by the Central Bank under the UCITS Regulations and set out below.

The Company may employ investment techniques and instruments for efficient portfolio management of the assets of the Company or of any Sub-Fund under the conditions and within the limits stipulated by the Central Bank under the UCITS Regulations and described under the heading “Investment Objectives and Policies - Investment Restrictions” above. The Company may, for the purposes of hedging (whether against currency exchange or interest rate risks or otherwise), enter into put and call options, spot and forward contracts, financial futures, stock and bond index futures contracts, repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending agreements. In particular, a Sub-Fund may seek to hedge its investments against currency fluctuations which are adverse to its base currency by utilizing currency options, futures contracts and forward foreign exchange contracts.

The Manager shall ensure that all of the revenues arising from the use of efficient portfolio management techniques, net of direct and indirect operational costs, are returned to the relevant Sub-Fund. The entities to which any direct and indirect costs and fees are paid will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Company and will indicate if these are parties related to the Company or the Depositary.

A Sub-Fund may also from time to time make use of exchange traded stock index and other futures contracts for the purpose of efficient portfolio management to enable it to maintain the appropriate exposure to stock markets in accordance with the relevant Investment Adviser’s recommended overall asset allocation. The use of exchange traded stock index and other futures contracts by the Company will be subject to the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank under the UCITS Regulations.

Use of Repurchase/Reverse Repurchase Agreements

A Sub-Fund may, without limit, enter into repurchase agreements, reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending arrangements, subject to the conditions set out in the Central Bank UCITS Regulations and only for the purposes of efficient portfolio management. Under a repurchase agreement, a Sub-Fund acquires securities from a seller (for example, a bank or securities dealer) who agrees, at the time of sale, to repurchase the security at a mutually agreed-upon date (usually not more than seven days from the date of purchase) and price, thereby determining the yield to the relevant Sub-Fund during the term of the repurchase agreement. The resale price reflects the purchase price plus an agreed upon market rate of interest which is unrelated to the coupon rate or maturity of the purchased security. A Sub-Fund may enter into reverse repurchase agreements under which it sells a security and agrees to repurchase it at a mutually agreed upon date and price.

Subject to the Central Bank UCITS Regulations, a Sub-Fund may enter into, OTC financial derivative instruments, repurchase agreements, reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending arrangements, only in accordance with normal market practice and provided that collateral obtained complies with the following criteria:

- (i) liquidity: collateral (other than cash) should be transferable securities and money market instruments (of any maturity) and should be highly liquid and traded on a regulated market or multi-lateral trading facility with transparent pricing in order that it can be sold quickly at a price that is close to its pre-sale valuation. Collateral received should also comply with the provisions of Regulation 74 of the UCITS Regulations;

- (ii) valuation: collateral should be capable of being valued on a daily basis and assets that exhibit high price volatility should not be accepted as collateral unless suitably conservative haircuts are in place. Collateral may be marked to market daily by the counterparty using its procedures, subject to any agreed haircuts, reflecting market values and liquidity risk and may be subject to variation margin requirements;
- (iii) issuer credit quality: collateral should be of high quality; in making such a determination (i) where the issuer is subject to a credit rating by an agency registered and supervised by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA"), that rating shall be taken into account in the credit assessment process; and (ii) where an issuer is downgraded below the two highest short-term credit ratings by the credit rating agency referred to in (i) this shall result in a new credit assessment of the issuer being conducted without delay;
- (iv) correlation: collateral should be issued by an entity that is independent from the counterparty and is expected not to display a high correlation with the performance of the counterparty; and
- (v) diversification: collateral should be sufficiently diversified in terms of country, markets and issuers. Non-cash collateral will be considered to be sufficiently diversified if the relevant Sub-Fund receives collateral with a maximum exposure to any one issuer of 20% of the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value. When the relevant Sub-Fund is exposed to a variety of different counterparties, the various baskets of collateral are aggregated to ensure exposure to a single issuer does not exceed 20% of its Net Asset Value.

A Sub-Fund may be fully collateralised in different transferable securities and money market instruments issued or guaranteed by a Member State, one or more of its local authorities, a third country, or a public international body to which one or more Member States belong. Any such Sub-Fund shall receive securities from at least 6 different issues, but securities from any single issue should not account for more than 30 per cent of the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value. Where it is intended that a Sub-Fund be fully collateralised in securities issued or guaranteed by a Member State, this shall be set out in the Relevant Supplement. The Member States, local authorities, or public international bodies or guaranteeing securities which can be accepted as collateral for more than 20% of a Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value shall also be set out in the Relevant Supplement.

A Sub-Fund may only enter into OTC financial derivative instruments, repurchase agreements, reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending arrangements with counterparties in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank UCITS Regulations where a credit assessment has been undertaken. Such counterparties will be entities with legal personality typically located in OECD jurisdictions. Where the counterparty is subject to a credit rating by any agency registered and supervised by ESMA, that rating shall be taken into account in the credit assessment. Where a counterparty is downgraded to A2 or below (or comparable rating) by such a credit rating agency, a new credit assessment in respect of the counterparty will be undertaken without delay.

In accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations, up until the expiry of a repurchase agreement, the collateral obtained under such contracts or arrangements must be: (a) marked to market daily, (b) equal or exceed, in value, at all times, the value of the amount invested or securities loaned; (c) transferred to the Depositary, or its agent (where there is title transfer); and (d) capable of being fully enforced by the Company at any time without reference to or approval from the counterparty. The requirement in (c) above is not applicable in the event that there is no title transfer in which case the collateral can be held by a third party custodian which is subject to prudential supervision, and which is unrelated to the provider of the collateral.

Where a Sub-Fund enters into a reverse repurchase agreement it must be able to recall the full amount of the cash at any time or terminate the reverse repurchase agreement on either an accrued basis or a mark to market basis. Where cash is recallable at any time on a mark to market basis, the mark to market basis value of the reverse repurchase agreement must be used to calculate the net asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

Where a Sub-Fund enters into a repurchase agreement it should be able to recall the securities or terminate the repurchase agreement at any time. Fixed term repurchase agreements that do not exceed seven days shall be deemed to comply with this requirement.

Repo contracts do not constitute borrowing or lending for the purposes of the UCITS Regulations.

Any interest or dividends paid on securities which are the subject of securities lending agreements shall accrue to the Company for the benefit of the relevant Sub-Fund.

In addition, the relevant Sub-Fund must have the right at any time to terminate any securities lending agreement entered into by it, and to demand the return of any or all securities lent. Securities lending transactions do not constitute borrowing or lending for the purposes of the UCITS Regulations.

Permitted types of Collateral

It is proposed that a Sub-Fund will accept the following types of collateral in respect of repurchase agreements as set out above in the section titled "Use of Repurchase/Reverse Repurchase Agreements"; OTC financial derivative transactions as may be detailed in the relevant Supplement for the Sub-Fund; and securities lending arrangements as set out above in the section titled "Securities Lending Agreements":

- (i) cash;
- (ii) government or other public securities;
- (iii) certificates of deposit issued by Relevant Institutions;
- (iv) bonds/commercial paper issued by Relevant Institutions or by non-bank issuers where the issue or the issuer are rated A1 or equivalent;
- (v) letters of credit with a residual maturity of three months or less, which are unconditional and irrevocable and which are issued by Relevant Institutions; and
- (vi) equity securities traded on a stock exchange in the EEA, Switzerland, Canada, Japan, the United States, Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man, Australia or New Zealand.

The Company shall implement a haircut policy in respect of each class of assets received as collateral. The policy shall take account of the characteristics of the relevant asset class, including the credit standing of the issuer of the collateral and the price volatility of the collateral. Subject to the framework of agreements in place with the relevant counterparty, which may or may not include minimum transfer amounts, it is the intention of the Company that any collateral received shall have a value, adjusted in light of the haircut policy, which equals or exceeds the relevant counterparty exposure where appropriate.

In the event that a Sub-Fund receives collateral for at least 30% of its net assets, it will implement a stress testing policy to ensure that regular stress tests are carried out under normal and exceptional liquidity conditions in order to allow it to assess the liquidity risk attached to collateral.

Cash received as collateral should be diversified in accordance with the requirements applicable to non-cash collateral and should only be:

- placed on deposit with, or invested in certificates of deposit issued by, an EU credit institution, a bank authorised in the remaining Member States of the European Economic Area (EEA) (Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein), a bank authorised by a signatory state, other than an EU Member State or a Member State of EEA, to the Basle Capital Convergence Agreement of July 1988 (Switzerland, Canada, Japan, United States) or a credit institution authorised in Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man, Australia or New Zealand ("Relevant Institutions"). Invested cash collateral may not be placed on deposit with the counterparty or with any entity that is related or connected to the counterparty;

- invested in high quality government bonds;
- used for the purpose of reverse repurchase agreements provided the transactions are with a Relevant Institution and the Company can recall at any time the full amount of the cash on an accrued basis; and
- invested in “Short Term Money Market Funds” as defined by the ESMA guidelines on a common definition of European money market funds.

Re-invested cash collateral should be diversified in accordance with the diversification requirements application to non-cash collateral.

“Delayed Delivery” and “When Issued” Securities

Subject to the investment restrictions, a Sub-Fund may purchase debt obligations on a “delayed delivery” or “when-issued” basis, that is, for delivery to the Sub-Fund later than the normal settlement date for such securities, at a stated price and yield. Such securities are termed “delayed delivery” when traded in the secondary market, or “when-issued” in the case of an initial issue of securities. The Sub-Fund generally would not pay for such securities or start earning interest on them until they are received. However, when the Sub-Fund undertakes a delayed delivery or when-issued purchase obligation, it immediately assumes the risk of ownership, including the risk of price fluctuation. Failure by the issuer to deliver the securities may result in a loss or missed opportunity for the Sub-Fund to make an alternative investment.

Currency Transactions

A Sub-Fund is permitted to invest in securities denominated in a currency other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund and may purchase currencies to meet settlement requirements. In addition, subject to the restrictions imposed by the UCITS Regulations, a Sub-Fund may enter into various currency transactions, i.e. forward foreign currency contracts, currency swaps, foreign currency or currency index futures contracts and put and call options on such contracts or on currencies, to protect against uncertainty in future exchange rates. Forward foreign currency contracts are agreements to exchange one currency for another - for example, to exchange a certain amount of Euro for a certain amount of U.S. Dollars - at a future date. The date (which may be any agreed-upon fixed number of days in the future), the amount of currency to be exchanged and the price at which the exchange will take place are negotiated and fixed for the term of the contract at the time that the contract is entered into.

Currency transactions undertaken by a Sub-Fund to alter the currency exposure characteristics of transferable securities held by that Sub-Fund through the purchase or sale of currencies other than the currency of denomination of that Sub-Fund or the relevant transferable securities must not be speculative in nature (i.e. they must not constitute an investment in their own right and must be fully covered by the cash flows of the transferable securities held by that Sub-Fund, including any income therefrom).

Currency transactions which alter currency exposure characteristics of transferable securities held by a Sub-Fund may only be undertaken for the purposes of a reduction in risk, a reduction in costs and/or an increase in capital or income returns to that Sub-Fund. Any such currency transactions must be used in accordance with the investment objective of a Sub-Fund (i.e. the currencies to which the Sub-Fund is exposed must be currencies in which it can invest directly) and must be deemed by the Investment Adviser to be economically appropriate. The performance of a Sub-Fund may be strongly influenced by movements in currency rates because currency positions held by the Sub-Fund may not correspond with the securities positions held. Details of transactions entered into during the reporting period and the resulting amounts of commitments must be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Sub-Fund.

A Sub-Fund may “cross-hedge” one foreign currency exposure by selling a related foreign currency into the base currency of the Sub-Fund. Also, in emerging or developing markets, local currencies are often expressed as a basket of major market currencies such as the U.S. Dollar, Euro, Sterling or Japanese Yen; a Sub-Fund may hedge the exposure to currencies other than its base currency in the basket by selling a weighted average of those currencies forward into the base currency.

DEFINITIONS

Words and terms defined in the Prospectus have the same meaning in this Supplement unless otherwise stated herein. The Fund is established pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) ("UCITS Regulations"), and this Supplement shall be construed accordingly and will comply with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Dealing Day" shall mean a day which is a bank business day in Ireland and on which the New York Stock Exchange is also open for business and such other day or days as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders, provided however that the Valuation Point shall always be after the Dealing Deadline.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Valuation Point" shall mean the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (which is normally 4:00 p.m. New York time) on each Dealing Day, or such other time as the Directors shall at their sole discretion determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders and to the Central Bank.

For the purposes of this Supplement, a "Recognised Market" means any of the exchanges or markets listed in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus.

The Base Currency for the Fund shall be U.S. Dollars or such other currency as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify to the Shareholders. Investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in currencies other than the Base Currency.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICIES

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve a high level of current income. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing at all times at least two-thirds of its total assets in a diversified portfolio of high yielding, fixed-income debt securities, and/or floating rate debt securities from issuers that are domiciled in or which derive more than 50% of their revenues or profits from the U.S. These fixed income debt securities and/or floating rate debt securities will be in the lowest investment grade and lower rated obligations, i.e. debt securities which are rated Baa or lower by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), BBB or lower by Standard & Poor's Ratings Group ("S&P"), BBB or lower by Duff & Phelps or Fitch's Investors Service, Inc. or given an equivalent credit rating by an equivalent rating agency (each, a "Recognised Rating Agency") or if unrated, which are determined by the Investment Adviser to be of equivalent investment quality. Fixed-income debt securities or floating rate debt securities which are in the lowest investment grade and lower rating categories or which are unrated generally offer a higher yield than is offered by obligations in the higher rating categories but also are subject to greater credit risks. Unrated bonds are generally regarded as being speculative and expose the investor to risks with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal which are similar to the risks of lower rated bonds. During periods of deteriorating economic conditions and contraction in the credit markets, the ability of issuers of such debt securities to service their debt, meet projected goals, or obtain additional financing may be impaired.

The fixed-income and floating rate transferable debt securities in which the Fund may invest include all types of debt obligations such as bonds, debentures, loan notes (including promissory notes listed or traded on Recognised Markets), commercial paper, and obligations issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government, any state or territory of the United States, any non-U.S. government or any of their respective political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities. Debt securities may bear fixed, fixed and contingent, or variable rates of interest.

The Fund will not have any particular sectoral or industry focus.

Pending investment of subscription proceeds or where market or other factors so warrant, the Fund may, subject to the investment restrictions set out in the Prospectus, hold cash and/or ancillary liquid assets such as money market instruments and cash deposits.

The Fund will not take short positions.

The Investment Adviser expects that the majority of the Fund's assets will be invested in high yield, high risk transferable securities issued in connection with mergers, acquisitions, leveraged buy-outs, recapitalisations and other highly leveraged transactions. These securities are subject to greater risk of default or bankruptcy of the issuer.

Due diligence in the form of credit analysis is done on portfolio investments and relative value to other investments in the marketplace is considered to obtain the best value. In depth qualitative and quantitative credit analysis is conducted in support of all portfolio investments. Investment rationale is constantly revisited as either more information becomes available, market technicals change, or relative value analysis changes.

The Fund may also invest in fixed-income debt securities or floating rate debt securities that include zero coupon bonds, deferred interest bonds and bonds on which the interest is payable in the form of additional bonds of the same kind ("PIK bonds"). Zero coupon and deferred interest bonds are debt obligations which are issued at a significant discount from face value. While zero coupon bonds do not require the periodic payment of interest, deferred interest bonds provide for a period of delay before the regular payment of interest begins. PIK bonds are debt obligations which provide that the issuer thereof may, at its option, pay interest on such bonds in cash or in the form of additional debt securities. Such investments may, due to changes in interest rates, experience greater volatility in market value than debt obligations which make regular payments of interest.

The remainder of the Fund's total assets may be invested as follows: up to a maximum of 25% of net assets in convertible debt securities, listed, traded or dealt in on Recognised Markets and up to 10% in common stocks and other transferable equity securities and warrants when consistent with its objective, or for capital appreciation purposes, or when acquired as a unit combining fixed-income and equity securities, for example as part of a staple-stock issue. A staple-stock issue would generally arise where an issuer is attempting to offer investors the benefit of equity participation allied to a regular stream of income. In such issues the purchase of the equity element is dependent on the concurrent purchase of a fixed income security. The Fund may also receive warrants as a result of corporate actions. No more than 5% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund will be held in warrants. The Fund may invest up to one-third of its net assets in non-U.S. debt securities (which generally will be U.S. Dollar denominated), including debt securities issued or guaranteed by non-U.S. governments or their agencies or instrumentalities. An investment in the Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors. See "SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS AND RISK FACTORS - Lower Quality Debt Securities" in the Prospectus for the risks associated with lower rated and unrated obligations.

The Fund may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in other debt securities that are not paying current income in anticipation of the receipt of possible future income or capital appreciation. Interest and/or principal payments thereon could be in arrears when such debt securities are acquired, and the issuer may be in bankruptcy or undergoing a debt restructuring or reorganisation. Such debt securities may be unrated or categorised as the lowest rated obligations (rated C by Moody's or D by S&P). Bonds rated C by Moody's are regarded as having extremely poor prospects of ever attaining any real investment standing. Bonds rated D by S&P are in payment default or a bankruptcy petition has been filed and debt service payments are jeopardised. The Fund may retain defaulted obligations in its portfolio when such retention is considered desirable by the Investment Adviser. The Fund may also acquire other debt securities, equity securities or warrants issued in exchange for such obligations or issued in connection with the debt restructuring or reorganisation of the issuers, or where such acquisition, in the judgment of the Investment Adviser, may enhance the value of such obligations or would otherwise be consistent with the Fund's investment policies.

Investors should note that there can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. Where sales charges are imposed, the difference between the cost of purchase of Shares and their redemption price may mean that an investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Risk factors for an investor in the Fund to consider are set out under “Special Considerations and Risk Factors” in the Prospectus and herein.

The Fund will invest in transferable securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in accordance with the restrictions listed under “Investment Objectives and Policies” in the Prospectus. Save as outlined herein, it is not the current intention of the Company to employ derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes or for investment purposes. It is not the current intention to enter into repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, or securities lending agreements. If it is proposed to review this matter at any time in the future, the Directors of the Company will notify the Central Bank in advance, and will submit an updated risk management process to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations prior to the Company engaging in the use of such other derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes and/or for investment purposes on behalf of the Fund, and shall update this Supplement to reflect the change of intention.

Investors should note that the Fund may or may not use currency forward contracts and spot contracts to hedge currency risk on Classes of Shares of the Fund which are designated in a currency other than the Base Currency and to hedge currency exposure arising from the Fund's investments in assets denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency. The Fund currently intends to hedge the currency risk on Classes of Shares of the Fund which are designated in a currency other than the Base Currency using forward contracts and spot contracts. In addition, investors should note that the Fund may or may not use credit default swaps on eligible indices and options in order to increase liquidity to meet large redemptions and to rapidly invest large subscriptions. The Fund will not be leveraged over 15% of its net assets. The global exposure of the Fund will be calculated through the use of the commitment approach. With respect to the use of the above financial derivative instruments, a risk management process which enables the Company to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments has been submitted to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

Risks associated with Forward Currency Contracts

Forward currency contracts involve the possibility that the market for them may be limited with respect to certain currencies and, upon a contract's maturity, the possible inability to negotiate with the dealer to enter into an offsetting transaction. There is no assurance that an active forward currency contract market will always exist. These factors restrict the ability to hedge against the risk of devaluation of currencies in which a substantial quantity of securities are being held for the Fund and are unrelated to the qualitative rating that may be assigned to any particular security.

Share Currency Designation Risk

A Class of Shares of the Fund may be designated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and such designated currency may lead to a depreciation of the value of such Shares as expressed in the designated currency. The Fund intends to attempt to hedge out the currency risk of the non-U.S Dollar Shares by hedging them back to U.S Dollars by using any of the efficient portfolio management techniques and instruments set out in the Prospectus within the conditions and limits imposed by the Central Bank. In terms of use of derivative instruments for these purposes, the Fund shall only use currency forward contracts. Save as specified in this paragraph, a Class of Shares may not be leveraged as a result of the use of such techniques and instruments. Such hedging shall be limited to the extent of the relevant Class of Share's currency exposure. In no case will the hedging of the currency exposure be permitted to exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the particular Class of Shares. Hedging will be monitored on at least a monthly basis to ensure that over-hedged positions do not exceed this limit and the level of hedging will be reduced to ensure that positions materially in excess of 100% of the Net Asset Value attributable to the relevant Class will not be carried forward from month to month. While not the intention, over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Fund. Investors should be aware that this strategy may substantially limit Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares from benefiting if the designated currency falls against the Base Currency and/or the currency/currencies in which the assets of the Fund are denominated. In such circumstances, Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund may be exposed to fluctuations in the Net Asset Value per Share reflecting the gains/loss on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments. While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Although hedging strategies will only be used with respect to the non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes of the Fund, the financial instruments used to implement such strategies shall be assets/liabilities of the Fund as a whole. However, the gains/losses on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments relating to Class hedging will accrue solely to the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund. Any currency exposure of this Class of Shares may not be combined with or offset with that of any other Class of Shares of the Fund. The currency exposures of the assets of the Fund will not be allocated to separate Classes of Shares.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors who are seeking a high level of current income by investing in the Fund. This typically means a minimum time horizon of 3 to 5 years but can be less depending upon individual risk profiles.

INVESTMENT ADVISER

The Manager has appointed Eaton Vance Management, Two International Place, Boston, MA 02110, USA ("Eaton Vance" or the "Investment Adviser") as sole investment adviser to the Fund. Eaton Vance is a Massachusetts business trust. Eaton Vance, together with its affiliates and predecessor companies have been managing assets of individuals and institutions since 1924 and managing investment companies in the U.S. since 1931. The Investment Advisory Agreement dated 18 August 1999 between the Company, the Manager and Eaton Vance, as amended (the "Investment Advisory Agreement"), provides that neither the Investment Adviser nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents shall be liable for any costs or liabilities arising from any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) or for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission done or suffered by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement unless such costs, liabilities, loss or damage arose out of or in connection with the gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud of or by the relevant Investment Adviser or any of its directors, officers, employees and agents in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement.

The Company is obliged under the Investment Advisory Agreement to indemnify the Investment Adviser and hold harmless the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) from and against any and all claims, actions, proceedings, damages, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by the Investment Adviser and its directors, officers, employees and agents, arising from or in connection with the performance of its duties and/or the exercise of its powers under the Investment Advisory Agreement, and/or any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement in the absence of any such gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Investment Adviser may, subject to the prior approval of the Manager and the Central Bank, appoint one or more sub-investment advisers from time to time to perform and/or exercise all or any of its functions, powers, discretions, duties and obligations under the Investment Advisory Agreement. Details of any such sub-investment advisers appointed will be provided to Shareholders on request and details of such sub-investment advisers will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Company.

The Investment Adviser intends that while the Fund will not seek to replicate an index, the performance of the Fund will be measured against the BofA Merrill Lynch U.S. High Yield Index (the "Index"). The Index is unmanaged and tracks the performance of below-investment-grade U.S. dollar-denominated corporate bonds publicly issued in the U.S. domestic market. Any change in the use of the Index will be disclosed to Shareholders via the Accounts.

Where a Class I1$, Class I1£, Class I1€, Class I2$, Class I2£ or Class I2€ Shareholder fails to subscribe at least U.S.$5 million, £5 million or €5 million, as relevant, within such time period, the Class I1$ Shares, Class I1£ Shares, Class I1€ Shares, Class I2$ Shares, Class I2£ Shares or Class I2€ Shares, as the case may be, held by such Shareholder may, at the discretion of the Directors, be converted without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder to Class M2$ Shares, Class A2£ Shares or Class A2€ Shares, respectively. Investors are cautioned that such conversions, whether voluntary or involuntary, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

Without prejudice to the minimum subscription amounts set out above, investors may subscribe for the Shares of the Fund by adhering to a share accumulation plan which allows subscribers to spread out the investment over time by making a series of periodical payments.

Each Share Class will be subject to a minimum holding amount of U.S.$1,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent). Pursuant to the Articles, where a Shareholder holds a number of Shares which is less than this minimum holding, the Directors may redeem the Shares at their Net Asset Value per Share as at the Valuation Point immediately following the date of notification of such mandatory redemption to the relevant Shareholder.

Orders for Shares of all Classes of the Fund that are received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders prior to close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") (normally at 4:00 p.m., New York time) (the "Dealing Deadline") will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on that Dealing Day. In the case of faxed application forms or application forms submitted by electronic means, the original application form must be received promptly thereafter by the Administrator, the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders. Orders to subscribe for Shares received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders after the Dealing Deadline for the Fund will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on the next Dealing Day. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that orders placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Where applications are withdrawn any subscription monies will be returned to the applicant at its cost and without interest. The Company reserves the right to require that purchase orders for the Fund be received prior to the close of the NYSE on days when the bond market closes early. The Company may reject any application form in whole or in part with or without reason.

Subscription proceeds for the Fund must be paid by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or in accordance with the provisions described below, no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on the third Business Day after the receipt and acceptance of a subscription order (the "Payment Deadline").

Subscription monies which are not cleared by the Payment Deadline may, if accepted, result in an interest charge to the investor, which will be determined with reference to the daily interest charged to the Fund on the overdraft which arises due to such investor's subscription monies not being cleared by the Payment Deadline. Shareholders will not be entitled to any interest on subscription proceeds transferred to the account specified in the application form prior to the Payment Deadline. Failure to submit payment by the Payment Deadline may result in the order being cancelled. In such event, the sub-distributor as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank or the individual investor may be held liable for any loss to the Fund

For an initial subscription of Shares, a signed original application form should be sent to the address specified in the application form.

Subscription proceeds for Shares must be paid in the currency in which the relevant Share Class is denominated by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or by transfer of assets, in accordance with the provisions described herein and in the Prospectus, no later than the Payment Deadline.

Investors who do not already hold Shares in the Fund may forward a duly completed application form initially by fax or by electronic communication which shall be promptly followed by forwarding the original application form (and supporting documentation in relation to money laundering prevention checks) by post to the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, prior to the relevant Dealing Deadline. Provided that the Company, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent faxed subscription requests or electronic communication for the investor's account may be processed without a requirement to submit original documentation. Similarly, provided that the Company has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent applications may be made by fax, by electronic means or by telephone provided that in the case of telephone or electronic applications, the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone or by electronic communication. Telephone applications can be made c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that applications received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn.

Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone applications being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone application may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who subscribe by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward the appropriate subscription monies to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. Shares allotted to any such defaulting investor will be cancelled. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Shareholders may also subscribe for Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication.

Class A1$, Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares. An investor who purchases Class A1$, Class A2$, Class A2€ or Class A2£ Shares of the Fund may be subject to an initial dealer mark-up of up to 6.25% of the amount invested (which equals 6.66% of the Net Asset Value) all of which is paid to the dealer. The exact amount of this sales charge may vary depending on the size of the purchase, the number of Class A1$, Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares in any Sub-Fund the investor may already own and due to rounding. Class C2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

HOW TO REDEEM SHARES

Shareholders may redeem their Shares in one of four ways - by mail, facsimile, by telephone or in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shareholders may request the Company to redeem their Shares on and with effect from any Dealing Day at a price based on the relevant Net Asset Value per Share on such Dealing Day. Any amendments to a Shareholder's registration details or payment instructions will only be effected on receipt of original documentation.

In the case of non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes, a currency conversion will take place on redemptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See “Share Currency Designation Risk” above.

Redemption by Mail, Facsimile or Electronic Communication. Save where expressly provided herein or in the Prospectus, a signed original redemption request by mail or a signed faxed redemption request or an electronic redemption request must be received by the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to accept redemption requests, at the address, fax number or email address (as relevant), specified in the application form not later than the Dealing Deadline on the relevant Dealing Day. Redemption requests received by fax or by electronic communication will only be processed if the redemption proceeds are to be paid to the account of record. Requests received after the Dealing Deadline on a Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. All requests for redemption must be endorsed by the record owner(s) exactly as the Shares are registered. In addition, in some cases the Administrator may require the furnishing of additional documents such as where the Shares are registered in the name of a corporation, partnership or fiduciary. Investors will not be obliged to deal by electronic means.

Redemption by Telephone. Shares may be redeemed by telephone provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Telephonic redemptions can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that redemption requests received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone.

The proceeds of a telephone redemption may be wired only to the account of record. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of redemption instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

With respect to financial intermediaries, it is the responsibility of such intermediaries to ensure that redemption requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Redemption requests for Shares received by such financial intermediaries prior to the Dealing Deadline but received by the Administrator or the Company after the Dealing Deadline will be processed at the price determined on the next Dealing Day.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone redemptions being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone redemption may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who apply to redeem by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward written confirmation to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. The Redemption request will be cancelled and the Shareholder will continue to hold Shares in the Fund. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid within three (3) Business Days of, and will be paid no later than ten (10) Business Days after, the Dealing Deadline on which redemptions are effected by wire transfer to the account designated by the Shareholder in the redemption request form contained in this Prospectus.

Any redemption proceeds may, with the Shareholder's consent and at the discretion of the Manager, be paid by the transfer to such Shareholder of the assets of the Fund in specie, provided that the type of the assets to be transferred shall be determined by the Manager as it in its sole discretion deems equitable and not materially prejudicial to the interests of the remaining Shareholders and the allocation of assets has been approved by the Depositary.

If any Shareholder requests the redemption of Shares equal to 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day, the Manager may in its absolute discretion, distribute underlying investments rather than cash provided that: (a) asset allocation is subject to the approval of the Depositary; and (b) any such distribution shall not materially prejudice the interest of other Shareholders. In such circumstances, the relevant Shareholder will have the right to instruct the Manager to procure the sale of such underlying investments on their behalf in which case the Shareholder will receive the proceeds net of all fiscal duties and charges incurred in connection with the sale of such underlying investments.

If outstanding redemption requests from Shareholders of the Fund on any Dealing Day total in aggregate 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Fund on such Dealing Day, the Manager shall be entitled at its discretion to refuse to redeem such number of Shares of the Fund on that Dealing Day in respect of which redemption requests have been received in excess of 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund as the Manager shall determine in its absolute discretion. If the Manager refuses to redeem Shares due to redemption requests exceeding the 10% threshold, the requests for redemption received on that Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the Shares to which each redemption request relates which are not redeemed shall be treated as if they were redemption requests received on each subsequent Dealing Day, provided that the Manager shall not, in any event, be obliged to redeem more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of a particular Sub-Fund outstanding on any Dealing Day. A Shareholder may withdraw his redemption request by notice in writing to the Administrator if the Manager exercises its discretion to refuse to redeem any Shares to which the request relates.

Contingent Deferred Sales Charge ("CDSC"). Where an investor purchases Class C1$ and Class C2$ Shares, the Distributor pays an initial dealer mark-up charge of 1.00% of the amount invested to the dealer. Class C1$ and Class C2$ Shares are subject to a CDSC of 1.00%, payable by the investor to the Distributor, on certain redemptions made at the request of the Shareholder within one year of purchase.

The CDSC is calculated based on the lower of the Net Asset Value at the time of purchase or the time of redemption. Shares acquired through the reinvestment of distributions are exempt. Provided that the financial intermediary supplies the Company with the necessary data, redemptions are made first from Shares in the account which are not subject to a CDSC.

In calculating a CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the Shares are deemed to have been acquired at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares and the CDSC schedule applicable to the exchanged Shares will apply to the acquired Shares.

Class C1$ and Class C2$ Shares are subject to the following CDSC schedule:

Age of Shares Redeemed	CDSC %
Less than one year	1.0

The CDSC fees for Class C1$ or Class C2$ Shares may be waived from time to time should the Manager and/or Distributor so determine.

For additional information concerning redemptions and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

HOW TO EXCHANGE OR TRANSFER SHARES

Shareholders may, on any Dealing Day, exchange Shares in the Fund (whether an Accumulation Class or an Income Class) for Shares in the same Class category (meaning identified by the same Class letter – e.g. A, B, C, I or M) in any currency offered in that Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund. Although exchanges must be within the same Class category, they may be for any other Sub-Fund offering the relevant Class category, may be for Accumulation or Income Classes, where available, and may be for any currency offered by the relevant Class category within the desired Sub-Fund. In addition, where requested, exchanges of Shares of Class category A in the Fund for Shares in Class category M in the Fund or in any other Sub-Fund offering Shares in Class category M may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. In addition, any other exchanges requested by a Shareholder not falling within the preceding categories may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. Notwithstanding the above, exchange of Class Z2$ Shares or Class G2$ Shares for Shares in the same Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund may only be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors.

An exchange request will be treated as an order to redeem the Shares held prior to the exchange and a purchase order for new Shares with the redemption proceeds. The original Shares will be redeemed at their Net Asset Value per Share and the new Shares will be issued at the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class of the applicable Sub-Fund. Exchange requests for Shares must be made through the Administrator. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that exchange requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis.

Shares may be exchanged by telephone by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Such exchanges can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator, at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to 4:00 p.m. (New York time). Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of exchange instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded. In times of drastic economic or market changes, technological failure or power interruption, a telephone redemption may be difficult to implement and the right to redeem by telephone may be suspended.

Shareholders may exchange Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shares may be exchanged by electronic communication by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege.

Certain intermediaries or dealers may charge a conversion fee on the value of Shares to be converted and Shareholders should contact their intermediaries or dealers for details of any such fee prior to conversion. Any such fee will be paid by the Shareholder to the intermediary or dealer and will not be received by the Company or the Manager. No exchange fee will be charged by the Company or the Manager.

No CDSC is imposed on exchanges. For purposes of calculating the CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the CDSC schedule applicable to the Shares at the time of purchase will apply and the purchase of Shares acquired in one or more exchanges is deemed to have occurred at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares. For the CDSC schedule applicable to Class C1$ and Class C2$ Shares, see “How to Redeem Shares” above.

Transfers of Shares must be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form approved by the Directors from time to time. Every form of transfer must state the full name and address of each of the transferor and the transferee and must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor. The Directors (or the Administrator on their behalf) may decline to register any transfer of Shares unless the transfer form is deposited at the registered office of the Company, or such other place as the Directors may reasonably require, accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders. A transfer of Shares will not be registered unless the transferee, if not an existing Shareholder, has completed a purchase order to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Exchanges, transfers and conversions, as well as outright sales, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions, and Shareholders and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

For additional information concerning exchanges and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

Shares are freely transferable and may not be subject to any transfer restrictions or compulsory redemption save where the holding of such Shares may result in regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, or where such transfer would result in a Shareholder falling below the specified minimum holding. To avoid such regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, transfers of Shares are subject to the prior approval of the Directors or the Administrator on their behalf. A proposed transferee may be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as the Directors may require in relation to the above matters. In the event that the Company does not receive a Declaration in respect of a transferee, the Company will be required to deduct appropriate tax in respect of any payment to the transferee or any sale, transfer, cancellation, redemption, repurchase or other payment in respect of the Shares as described in the section headed “Taxation” in the Prospectus.

Expenses of the Company will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which, in the opinion of the Directors, they relate. If an expense is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund, the Directors shall have discretion to determine, in a fair and equitable manner, the basis on which the expense shall be allocated between the Sub-Funds. In such cases the expense will normally be allocated to all Sub-Funds pro rata to the value of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager and/or the Investment Adviser may, each at its sole discretion, contribute directly towards the expenses attributable to the establishment and/or operation of the Company or any particular Sub-Fund and/or the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, each at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the management fees due to it in respect of any particular payment period.

This subsidy may be discontinued at any time at the discretion of the Manager/Investment Adviser, as relevant, on notice to the Shareholders.

While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

3. DEFINITIONS

Words and terms defined in the Prospectus have the same meaning in this Supplement unless otherwise stated herein. The Fund is established pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) ("UCITS Regulations") and this Supplement shall be construed accordingly and will comply with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Dealing Day" shall mean a day which is a bank business day in Ireland and on which the New York Stock Exchange is also open for business and such other day or days as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders, provided however that the Valuation Point shall always be after the Dealing Deadline.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Valuation Point" shall mean the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (which is normally 4:00 p.m. New York time on each Dealing Day), or such other time as the Directors shall at their sole discretion determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders and to the Central Bank.

For the purposes of this Supplement, a "Recognised Market" means any of the exchanges or markets listed in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus.

The Base Currency for the Fund shall be U.S. Dollars or such other currency as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify to the Shareholders. Investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in currencies other than the Base Currency.

4. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICIES

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek long-term capital growth. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in a broadly diversified selection of transferable equity securities, emphasizing common stocks of value companies that are considered by the Investment Adviser to be high in quality and attractive in their long-term investment prospects. Value stocks are common stocks that the Investment Adviser believes are inexpensive relative to the overall stock market.

The Fund will invest at all times at least two-thirds of its total assets in common stocks of companies that are domiciled in or which derive more than 50% of their revenues or profits from the U.S., the majority of which are likely to be listed or traded on Recognised Markets in the U.S. Although the Fund may invest in investment-grade preferred stocks and debt securities including a mixture of fixed and floating rate corporate and government bonds rated investment grade, debentures, investment grade notes issued by corporates representing assets owed by the corporate to the Company (such notes may include for example short or medium term notes issued by corporate issuers which entitle the holder thereof to a repayment of capital on maturity plus payments of interest on a regular basis and which are listed or traded on recognised markets) and other types of debt securities (such as collateralised mortgage backed obligations, mortgage-backed securities, asset backed bonds and asset backed securities), the purchase of such securities will normally be limited to securities convertible into common stocks and temporary investments in short-term notes or government obligations. The short-term notes and Government obligations in which the Fund will invest will include U.S. and non-U.S. Government debt obligations, commercial paper, U.S. T-Bills and similar obligations. The majority of these instruments are likely to be listed or traded on Recognised Markets in the U.S. The Fund's holdings will represent a number of different industries (with no particular focus on any specific industry) and no more than 25% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in any one industry. Up to 20% of the Fund's total assets may be invested in transferable equity securities issued by non-U.S. companies. The Fund may invest in warrants and may also receive warrants as a result of corporate actions. No more than 5% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund will be held in warrants.

The Investment Adviser of the Fund employs a bottom-up, research-driven and value-oriented approach that seeks to identify pricing anomalies that occur due to fundamental factors that are perceived to be temporary and not permanent. In selecting securities, the Fund focuses on U.S. and non-U.S. issuers with attractive valuations and sustainable fundamentals. The Investment Adviser also considers how constructing the portfolio and purchasing or selling an investment impacts the overall portfolio's risk profile (for example, the portfolio's beta relative to its benchmark and each economic sector, its standard deviation of return, its active share and tracking error, as well as how its tracking error is composed on an industry and stock level).

Pending investment of subscription proceeds or where market or other factors so warrant, the Fund may, subject to the investment restrictions set out in the Prospectus, hold cash and/or ancillary liquid assets such as money market instruments and cash deposits.

The Fund will not take short positions.

Investors should note that there can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. Where sales charges are imposed, the difference between the cost of purchase of Shares and their redemption price may mean that an investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Risk factors for an investor in the Fund to consider are set out under “Special Considerations and Risk Factors” in the Prospectus and herein.

The Fund will invest in transferable securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in accordance with the restrictions listed under “Investment Objectives and Policies” in the Prospectus. Save as outlined herein, it is not the current intention of the Company to employ derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management, purposes or for investment purposes. It is not the current intention to enter into repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, or securities lending agreements. If it is proposed to review this matter at any time in the future, the Directors of the Company will notify the Central Bank in advance, and will submit an updated risk management process to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations prior to the Company engaging in using such other derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes and/or for investment purposes on behalf of the Fund, and shall update this Supplement to reflect the change of intention.

Investors should note that the Fund may or may not use currency forward contracts and spot contracts to hedge currency risk on Classes of Shares of the Fund which are designated in a currency other than the Base Currency and to hedge currency exposure arising from the Fund's investments in assets denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency. The Fund currently intends to hedge the currency risk on Classes of Shares of the Fund which are designated in a currency other than the Base Currency using forward contracts and spot contracts. The Fund will not be leveraged over 100% of its Net Asset Value. The global exposure of the Fund will be calculated through the use of the commitment approach. With respect to the use of the above financial derivative instruments for these purposes, a risk management process which enables the Company to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments has been submitted to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

Risks associated with Forward Currency Contracts

Forward currency contracts involve the possibility that the market for them may be limited with respect to certain currencies and, upon a contract's maturity, the possible inability to negotiate with the dealer to enter into an offsetting transaction. There is no assurance that an active forward currency contract market will always exist. These factors restrict the ability to hedge against the risk of devaluation of currencies in which a substantial quantity of securities are being held for the Fund and are unrelated to the qualitative rating that may be assigned to any particular security.

Share Currency Designation Risk

A Class of Shares of the Fund may be designated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and such designated currency may lead to a depreciation of the value of such Shares as expressed in the designated currency. The Fund intends to attempt to hedge out the currency risk of the non-U.S. Dollar Shares by hedging them back to U.S. Dollars by using any of the efficient portfolio management techniques and instruments set out in the Prospectus within the conditions and limits imposed by the Central Bank. In terms of use of derivative instruments for these purposes, the Fund shall only use currency forward contracts. Save as specified in this paragraph, a Class of Shares may not be leveraged as a result of the use of such techniques and instruments. Such hedging shall be limited to the extent of the relevant Class of Share's currency exposure. In no case will the hedging of the currency exposure be permitted to exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the particular Class of Shares. Hedging will be monitored on at least a monthly basis to ensure that over-hedged positions do not exceed this limit and the level of hedging will be reduced to ensure that positions materially in excess of 100% of the Net Asset Value attributable to the relevant Class will not be carried forward from month to month. While not the intention, over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Fund. Investors should be aware that this strategy may substantially limit Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares from benefiting if the designated currency falls against the Base Currency and/or the currency/currencies in which the assets of the Fund are denominated. In such circumstances, Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund may be exposed to fluctuations in the Net Asset Value per Share reflecting the gains/loss on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments. While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Although hedging strategies will only be used with respect to the non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes of the Fund, the financial instruments used to implement such strategies shall be assets/liabilities of the Fund as a whole. However, the gains/losses on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments relating to Class hedging will accrue solely to the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund. Any currency exposure of this Class of Shares may not be combined with or offset with that of any other Class of Shares of the Fund. The currency exposures of the assets of the Fund will not be allocated to separate Classes of Shares.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors who are seeking long-term capital growth by investing in the Fund. This typically means a minimum time horizon of 3 to 5 years but can be less depending upon individual risk profiles.

5. INVESTMENT ADVISER

The Manager has appointed Eaton Vance Management, Two International Place, Boston, MA 02110, USA ("Eaton Vance" or the "Investment Adviser") as sole investment adviser to the Fund. Eaton Vance is a Massachusetts business trust. Eaton Vance, together with its affiliates and predecessor companies have been managing assets of individuals and institutions since 1924 and managing investment companies in the U.S. since 1931. Eaton Vance is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eaton Vance Corp., a publicly-held holding company which through its subsidiaries and affiliates engages primarily in investment management, administration and marketing activities. As at 30 April 2016, Eaton Vance and its affiliates had approximately U.S. $318.7 billion in assets under management.

The Investment Advisory Agreement dated 18 August 1999 between the Company, the Manager and Eaton Vance, as amended (the "Investment Advisory Agreement"), provides that neither the Investment Adviser nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents shall be liable for any costs or liabilities arising from any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) or for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission done or suffered by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement unless such costs, liabilities, loss or damage arose out of or in connection with the gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud of or by the relevant Investment Adviser or any of its directors, officers, employees and agents in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement.

The Company is obliged under the Investment Advisory Agreement to indemnify the Investment Adviser and hold harmless the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) from and against any and all claims, actions, proceedings, damages, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by the Investment Adviser and its directors, officers, employees and agents, arising from or in connection with the performance of its duties and/or the exercise of its powers under the Investment Advisory Agreement, and/or any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement in the absence of any such gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Investment Adviser may, subject to the prior approval of the Manager and the Central Bank, appoint one or more sub-investment advisers from time to time to perform and/or exercise all or any of its functions, powers, discretions, duties and obligations under the Investment Advisory Agreement. Details of any such sub-investment advisers appointed will be provided to Shareholders on request and details of such sub-investment advisers will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Company.

The Investment Adviser intends that while the Fund will not seek to replicate an index, the performance of the Fund will be measured against the Russell 1000 Value Index (the "Index"). The Index is an unmanaged index that contains those securities in the Russell 1000 Index with a less-than-average growth orientation. Any change in the use of the Indices will be disclosed to Shareholders via the Accounts.

6. HOW TO BUY SHARES

With respect to Class A2$, Class A2€, Class A2£, Class C2$, Class M2$, Class M2€ Shares, Class I2$ and Class I2€ Shares, these Shares will be issued at their Net Asset Value per Share on each Dealing Day, subject to any sales charge which may be applicable, as described in "FEES AND EXPENSES" below.

Class Z2$ Shares in the Fund will be made available for subscription at the initial price of $10 per Share from 7:00 a.m. (New York time) on 10 July 2012 until the closing date, which in the case of such Shares is 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on 28 February 2017 or, in respect of such Class of Shares, such earlier time and date at which the first application for subscription in the Class is received, or, if no application has been received for such Class by 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on 28 February 2017, such other date as the Directors may determine and notify to the Central Bank (the "Closing Date"), subject to receipt by the Administrator or the Company in the manner described below of applications by 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on the Closing Date.

Thereafter, Class Z2$ Shares will be issued at their Net Asset Value per Share on each Dealing Day, subject to any sales charge which may be applicable, as described below.

Class Z2$ Shares will only be available to investors who have agreed separate fee arrangements with the Investment Adviser or an affiliate of the Investment Adviser.

The Base Currency for the Fund is U.S. Dollars. Class A2€, Class M2€ and Class I2€ Shares are designated in Euro. Class A2£ Shares are designated in Sterling. Investors in such Shares will bear any currency risk associated with fluctuations between the Euro and the Base Currency for the Fund or Sterling and the Base Currency for the Fund, as appropriate, to the extent that share class hedging fails to eliminate such risk. Please refer to "Share Currency Designation Risk" above. All classes of the Fund designated in other than the U.S. Dollar will be hedged against the U.S. Dollar, unless this policy is changed by notice to Shareholders.

In the case of non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See "Share Currency Designation Risk" above.

For Class A2$, Class C2$ and Class M2$ Shares, the minimum initial subscription amount is U.S.$1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S.$100, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class A2€ and Class M2€ Shares is €1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is €100, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class A2£ Shares is £1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is £100, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class I2$ Shares is U.S. $5 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S. $1,000 on any single Dealing Day, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class I2€ Shares is €5 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is €1,000 on any single Dealing Day, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class Z2$ Shares is U.S.$10 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S.$1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, an investor may invest in Class I2$ Shares or Class I2€ Shares in an initial subscription amount which does not meet or exceed U.S. $5 million or €5 million respectively, provided that such investor undertakes to subscribe at least U.S. $5 million or €5 million, as relevant, over a reasonable period, not to exceed 1 year, and the total subscription is anticipated by the Investment Adviser or the Distributor to reach such level within such time period. Where a Class I2$ or Class I2€ Shareholder fails to subscribe at least U.S. $5 million or €5 million, as relevant, within such time period, the Class I2$ Shares or Class I2€ Shares, as the case may be, held by such Shareholder may, at the discretion of the Directors, be converted without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder to Class M2$ Shares or Class M2€ Shares, respectively. Also, an investor who invests in Class M2$ or Class M2€ Shares and subsequently reaches the Class I2$ or Class I2€ Share minimum may, at their request and at the sole discretion of the Directors, be converted to the Class I2$ or Class I2€ Shares, as appropriate, but may, at the sole discretion of the Directors and without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder, be converted back to the Class M2$ or Class M2€ Shares if the investor's total holding subsequently falls below the Class I2$ or Class I2€ Share minimum, as the case may be. Investors are cautioned that such conversions, whether voluntary or involuntary, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

Without prejudice to the minimum subscription amounts set out above, investors may subscribe for the Shares of the Fund by adhering to a share accumulation plan which allows subscribers to spread out the investment over time by making a series of periodical payments.

Each Share Class will be subject to a minimum holding amount of U.S.$1,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent). Pursuant to the Articles, where a Shareholder holds a number of Shares which is less than this minimum holding, the Directors may redeem the Shares at their Net Asset Value per Share as at the Valuation Point immediately following the date of notification of such mandatory redemption to the relevant Shareholder.

Orders for Shares of all Classes of the Fund that are received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders prior to close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") (normally at 4:00 p.m., New York time) (the "Dealing Deadline") will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on that Dealing Day. In the case of faxed application forms or application forms submitted by electronic means, the original application form must be received promptly thereafter by the Administrator, the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders. Orders to subscribe for Shares received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders after the Dealing Deadline for the Fund will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on the next Dealing Day. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank to ensure that orders placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Where applications are withdrawn, any subscription monies will be returned to the applicant at its cost and without interest. The Company reserves the right to require that purchase orders for the Fund be received prior to the close of the NYSE on days when the bond market closes early. The Company may reject any application form in whole or in part with or without reason.

Subscription proceeds for the Fund must be paid by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or in accordance with the provisions described below, no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on the third Business Day after the receipt and acceptance of a subscription order (the "Payment Deadline").

Subscription monies which are not cleared by the Payment Deadline may, if accepted, result in an interest charge to the investor, which will be determined with reference to the daily interest charged to the Fund on the overdraft which arises due to such investor's subscription monies not being cleared by the Payment Deadline. Shareholders will not be entitled to any interest on subscription proceeds transferred to the account specified in the application form prior to the Payment Deadline. Failure to submit payment by the Payment Deadline may result in the order being cancelled. In such event, the sub-distributor as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank or the individual investor may be held liable for any loss to the Fund.

For an initial subscription of Shares, a signed original application form should be sent to the address specified in the application form.

Subscription proceeds for Shares must be paid in the currency in which the relevant Share Class is denominated by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or by transfer of assets, in accordance with the provisions described herein and in the Prospectus, no later than the Payment Deadline.

Investors who do not already hold Shares in the Fund may forward a duly completed application form initially by fax or by electronic communication which shall be promptly followed by forwarding the original application form (and supporting documentation in relation to money laundering prevention checks) by post to the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, prior to the relevant Dealing Deadline. Provided that the Company, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent faxed subscription requests or electronic communication for the investor's account may be processed without a requirement to submit original documentation. Similarly, provided that the Company has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent applications may be made by fax, by electronic communication or by telephone provided that in the case of telephone or electronic applications, the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone or by electronic communication. Telephone applications can be made c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing

Deadline, provided that applications received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn.

Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

In times of active dealing in the Shares, the volume of telephone applications being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone application may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who subscribe by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward the appropriate subscription monies to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. Shares allotted to any such defaulting investor will be cancelled. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Shareholders may also subscribe for Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication.

Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares. An investor who purchases Class A2$, Class A2€ or Class A2£ Shares of the Fund may be subject to an initial dealer mark-up of up to 6.25% of the amount invested (which equals 6.66% of the Net Asset Value) all of which is paid to the dealer. The exact amount of this sales charge may vary depending on the size of the purchase, the number of Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares in any Sub-Fund the investor may already own and due to rounding. Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares of the Fund shall constitute Accumulation Classes.

Class C2$ Shares. An investor who purchases Class C2$ Shares of the Fund is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up but is subject to a CDSC as described below (see under “How to Redeem Shares – Contingent Deferred Sales Charge”). Such investors will also be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class C2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

Class M2$ and Class M2€ Shares. An investor who purchases Class M2$ or M2€ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. Such investor will be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class M2$ and Class M2€ Shares shall constitute Accumulation Classes.

Class I2$ and Class I2€ Shares. An investor who purchases Class I2$ and I2€ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. Such investor will be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class I2$ and Class I2€ Shares shall constitute Accumulation Classes.

Class Z2$ Shares. An investor who purchases Class Z2$ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. No ongoing management fee will be payable in respect of Class Z2$ Shares. Class Z2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

UKRS status has been obtained for the Class A2$, Class A2£, Class A2€, Class I2$ and Class M2$ Shares to the extent that there are any UK investors in the applicable Class. No assurance can be given that any Class will continue to qualify for UKRS status or that the Directors will continue to seek such status in respect of any Class. Please see the section headed “TAXATION – UNITED KINGDOM” in the Prospectus. The Directors reserve the right to seek UKRS status, or not to seek UKRS status, in respect of any Class.

7. HOW TO REDEEM SHARES

Shareholders may redeem their Shares in one of four ways - by mail, facsimile, by telephone or in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shareholders may request the Company to redeem their Shares on and with effect from any Dealing Day at a price based on the relevant Net Asset Value per Share on such Dealing Day. Any amendments to a Shareholder's registration details or payment instructions will only be effected on receipt of original documentation.

In the case of non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes, a currency conversion will take place on redemptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See "Share Currency Designation Risk" above.

Redemption by Mail, Facsimile or Electronic Communication. Save where expressly provided herein or in the Prospectus, a signed original redemption request by mail or a signed faxed redemption request or an electronic redemption request, must be received by the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to accept redemption requests, at the address, fax number or email address (as relevant), specified in the application form not later than the Dealing Deadline on the relevant Dealing Day. Redemption requests received by fax or by electronic communication will only be processed if the redemption proceeds are to be paid to the account of record. Requests received after the Dealing Deadline on a Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. All requests for redemption must be endorsed by the record owner(s) exactly as the Shares are registered. In addition, in some cases the Administrator may require the furnishing of additional documents such as where the Shares are registered in the name of a corporation, partnership or fiduciary. Investors will not be obliged to deal by electronic means.

Redemption by Telephone. Shares may be redeemed by telephone provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Telephonic redemptions can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline provided that redemption requests received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone.

The proceeds of a telephone redemption may be wired only to the account of record. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of redemption instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

With respect to financial intermediaries, it is the responsibility of such intermediaries to ensure that redemption requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Redemption requests for Shares received by such financial intermediaries prior to the Dealing Deadline but received by the Administrator or the Company after the Dealing Deadline will be processed at the price determined on the next Dealing Day.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone redemptions being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone redemption may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who apply to redeem by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward written confirmation to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. The Redemption request will be cancelled and the Shareholder will continue to hold Shares in the Fund. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid within three (3) Business Days of, and will be paid no later than ten (10) Business Days after, the Dealing Deadline on which redemptions are effected by wire transfer to the account designated by the Shareholder in the redemption request form contained in this Prospectus.

Any redemption proceeds may, with the Shareholder's consent and at the discretion of the Manager, be paid by the transfer to such Shareholder of the assets of the Fund in specie, provided that the type of the assets to be transferred shall be determined by the Manager as it in its sole discretion deems equitable and not materially prejudicial to the interests of the remaining Shareholders and the allocation of assets has been approved by the Depositary.

If any Shareholder requests the redemption of Shares equal to 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day, the Directors may in their absolute discretion, distribute underlying investments rather than cash provided that: (a) asset allocation is subject to the approval of the Depositary; and (b) any such distribution shall not materially prejudice the interest of other Shareholders. In such circumstances, the relevant Shareholder will have the right to instruct the Manager to procure the sale of such underlying investments on their behalf in which case the Shareholder will receive the proceeds net of all fiscal duties and charges incurred in connection with the sale of such underlying investments.

If outstanding redemption requests from Shareholders of the Fund on any Dealing Day total in aggregate 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Fund on such Dealing Day, the Manager shall be entitled at its discretion to refuse to redeem such number of Shares of the Fund on that Dealing Day in respect of which redemption requests have been received in excess of 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund as the Manager shall determine in its absolute discretion. If the Manager refuses to redeem Shares due to redemption requests exceeding the 10% threshold, the requests for redemption received on that Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the Shares to which each redemption request relates which are not redeemed shall be treated as if they were redemption requests received on each subsequent Dealing Day, provided that the Manager shall not, in any event, be obliged to redeem more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of a particular Sub-Fund outstanding on any Dealing Day. A Shareholder may withdraw his redemption request by notice in writing to the Administrator if the Manager exercises its discretion to refuse to redeem any Shares to which the request relates.

Contingent Deferred Sales Charge ("CDSC"). Where an investor purchases Class C2$ Shares, the Distributor pays an initial dealer mark-up charge of 1.00% of the amount invested to the dealer. Class C2$ Shares are subject to a CDSC of 1.00%, payable by the investor to the Distributor, on certain redemptions made at the request of the Shareholder within one year of purchase.

The CDSC is calculated based on the lower of the Net Asset Value at the time of purchase or the time of redemption. Shares acquired through the reinvestment of distributions are exempt. Provided that the financial intermediary supplies the Company with the necessary data, redemptions are made first from Shares in the account which are not subject to a CDSC.

In calculating a CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the Shares are deemed to have been acquired at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares and the CDSC schedule applicable to the exchanged Shares will apply to the acquired Shares.

Class C2$ Shares. Class C2$ Shares are subject to the following CDSC schedule:

Age of Shares Redeemed	CDSC %
Less than one year	1.0

The CDSC fees for Class C2$ Shares may be waived from time to time should the Manager and/or Distributor so determine.

For additional information concerning redemptions and restrictions thereon, please consult "Investing in Shares" in the Prospectus.

8. HOW TO EXCHANGE OR TRANSFER SHARES

Shareholders may, on any Dealing Day, exchange Shares in the Fund (whether an Accumulation Class or an Income Class) for Shares in the same Class category (meaning identified by the same Class letter – e.g. A, B, C, I or M) in any currency offered in that Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund. Although exchanges must be within the same Class category, they may be for any other Sub-Fund offering the relevant Class category, may be for Accumulation or Income Classes, where available, and may be for any currency offered by the relevant Class category within the desired Sub-Fund. In addition, where requested, exchanges of Shares of Class category A in the Fund for Shares in Class category M in the Fund or in any other Sub-Fund offering Shares in Class category M may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. In addition, any other exchanges requested by a Shareholder not falling within the preceding categories may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. Notwithstanding the above, exchange of Class Z2$ Shares for Shares in the same Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund may only be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors.

An exchange request will be treated as an order to redeem the Shares held prior to the exchange and a purchase order for new Shares with the redemption proceeds. The original Shares will be redeemed at their Net Asset Value per Share and the new Shares will be issued at the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class of the applicable Sub-Fund. Exchange requests for Shares must be made through the Administrator. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that exchange requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis.

Shares may be exchanged by telephone by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Such exchanges can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator, at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to 4:00 p.m. (New York time). Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of exchange instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded. In times of drastic economic or market changes, technological failure or power interruption, a telephone redemption may be difficult to implement and the right to redeem by telephone may be suspended.

Shareholders may exchange Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shares may be exchanged by electronic communication by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege.

Certain intermediaries or dealers may charge a conversion fee on the value of Shares to be converted and Shareholders should contact their intermediaries or dealers for details of any such fee prior to conversion. Any such fee will be paid by the Shareholder to the intermediary or dealer and will not be received by the Company or the Manager. No exchange fee will be charged by the Company or the Manager.

No CDSC is imposed on exchanges. For purposes of calculating the CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the CDSC schedule applicable to the Shares at the time of purchase will apply and the purchase of Shares acquired in one or more exchanges is deemed to have occurred at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares. For the CDSC schedule applicable to Class C2$ Shares see “How to Redeem Shares” above.

Transfers of Shares must be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form approved by the Directors from time to time. Every form of transfer must state the full name and address of each of the transferor and the transferee and must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor. The Directors (or the Administrator on their behalf) may decline to register any transfer of Shares unless the transfer form is deposited at the registered office of the Company, or such other place as the Directors may reasonably require, accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders. A transfer of Shares will not be registered unless the transferee, if not an existing Shareholder, has completed a purchase order to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Exchanges, transfers and conversions, as well as outright sales, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions, and Shareholders and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

For additional information concerning exchanges and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

Shares are freely transferable and may not be subject to any transfer restrictions or compulsory redemption save where the holding of such Shares may result in regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, or where such transfer would result in a Shareholder falling below the specified minimum holding. To avoid such regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, transfers of Shares are subject to the prior approval of the Directors or the Administrator on their behalf. A proposed transferee may be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as the Directors may require in relation to the above matters. In the event that the Company does not receive a Declaration in respect of a transferee, the Company will be required to deduct appropriate tax in respect of any payment to the transferee or any sale, transfer, cancellation, redemption, repurchase or other payment in respect of the Shares as described in the section headed “Taxation” in the Prospectus.

In addition, the Investment Adviser may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, rebate any or all of its fees to some or all Shareholders.

THE DISTRIBUTOR

The Manager may pay the Distributor a fee from its assets to compensate the Distributor for services provided and expenses incurred in connection with the distribution and promotion of the fund ("Distributor Fee"). The Distributor may, in its discretion, pay all or a portion of its Distributor Fee to dealers that are appointed by the Distributor to distribute Shares to their clients. Such dealers may act as intermediaries between the investors and the Company. Any Distributor Fee will accrue daily, will be paid quarterly in arrears and will not be paid directly by the Company.

OPERATING EXPENSES

Expenses of the Company will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which, in the opinion of the Directors, they relate. If an expense is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund, the Directors shall have discretion to determine, in a fair and equitable manner, the basis on which the expense shall be allocated between the Sub-Funds. In such cases the expense will normally be allocated to all Sub-Funds pro rata to the value of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager and/or the Investment Adviser may, each at its sole discretion, contribute directly towards the expenses attributable to the establishment and/or operation of the Company or any particular Sub-Fund and/or the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, each at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the management fees due to it in respect of any particular payment period.

The Distributor may, at its discretion, contribute from its own assets directly towards the expenses attributable to the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the fees payable to it as Distributor in respect of any particular payment period.

While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Investors should refer to the “Fees and Expenses” section of the Prospectus for Directors’ fees and any other fees that may be payable and which are not specifically mentioned here.

DEFINITIONS

Words and terms defined in the Prospectus have the same meaning in this Supplement unless otherwise stated herein. The Fund is established pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) ("UCITS Regulations"), and this Supplement shall be construed accordingly and will comply with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Dealing Day" shall mean a day which is a bank business day in Ireland and on which the New York Stock Exchange is also open for business and such other day or days as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders, provided however that the Valuation Point shall always be after the Dealing Deadline.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Valuation Point" shall mean the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (which is normally 4:00 p.m. New York time) on each Dealing Day, or such other time as the Directors shall at their sole discretion determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders and to the Central Bank.

For the purposes of this Supplement, a "Recognised Market" means any of the exchanges or markets listed in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus.

The Base Currency for the Fund shall be U.S. Dollars or such other currency as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify to the Shareholders. Investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in currencies other than the Base Currency.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICIES

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek long-term capital appreciation.

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in a diversified portfolio of common stocks of companies which are domiciled in or which derive more than 50% of their revenues or profits from emerging market countries. The Fund may also invest in other transferable securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in accordance with the restrictions listed under "Investment Objectives and Policies" in the Prospectus.

The Fund will invest at least two-thirds of its total assets in equity securities of companies which are domiciled in or which derive more than 50% of their revenues or profits from emerging market countries. Equity securities, for the purposes of this two-thirds policy, will be limited to common and preferred stocks; equity interests in trusts, partnerships, joint ventures and other unincorporated entities or enterprises; special classes of shares available only to foreign investors in markets that restrict ownership by foreign investors to certain classes of equity securities (e.g. India, Kuwait, Thailand); and participation notes. A participation note is an instrument, generally not rated, designed to provide a return which is directly linked to the performance of a particular equity security or basket of securities. Participation notes are technically promissory notes from an issuer agreeing to provide a return according to the return on the underlying equity security or basket of securities. The Fund may also invest in convertible preferred stocks and other convertible instruments (including, without limitation, a mixture of fixed and floating rate convertible bonds) and debt securities but will generally do so only when received through corporate actions and such investment will generally not exceed 5% of the Fund's net assets. The convertible instruments and debt securities in which the Fund will invest will generally not be rated and will typically be equivalent in credit quality to below investment grade securities. Investment by the Fund in convertible debt securities rated, or which the Investment Adviser determines as having an implied rating, below investment grade will not exceed 20% of the Fund's net assets. Investment grade securities are those which are rated at least Baa by Moody's or BBB by S&P, or otherwise rated in the four highest rating categories assigned by any other recognised rating agency, or securities determined by the Investment Adviser to be of equivalent investment quality). The investment by the Fund in equity interests in trusts, partnerships and other unincorporated entities or enterprises will be subject to the restrictions set out in paragraph (iii) of the section headed “INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES - Investment Restrictions” in the Prospectus. The Fund may invest in securities traded on the Russian securities markets - the RTS Stock Exchange and the Moscow Interbank Currency Exchange (“MICEX”) provided for in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus. The reference in Appendix 1 of the Prospectus to investment on these markets in equity securities only will not apply. See “Russian Markets Risk” hereunder. The Fund will not have any particular sectoral or industry focus.

Emerging market countries are generally countries not considered to be developed market countries, and therefore not included in the Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) World Index. The Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) World Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to measure the equity market performance of developed markets. Further information in respect of the emerging market countries in which the Fund will invest is available on request from the Distributor.

In response to European legal developments and investor preferences with regard to investing in companies directly involved in the development, production, maintenance or trade of so-called “controversial weapons,” the Fund has adopted a policy of excluding such investments from its portfolio. Controversial weapons include, without limitation, the following categories: anti-personnel mines, cluster munitions, biological and chemical weapons, white phosphorus, depleted uranium ammunition and nuclear weapons and such other weapons as may from time to time be deemed controversial weapons by the Investment Adviser without notice to shareholders. The Fund uses a third-party service provider to identify and avoid such investments.

The Fund will not take short positions.

Pending investment of subscription proceeds or where market or other factors so warrant, the Fund may, subject to the investment restrictions set out in the Prospectus, hold cash and/or ancillary liquid assets such as money market instruments (including, without limitation, certificates of deposit, commercial paper and bankers’ acceptances) and cash deposits.

The Fund may invest in depositary receipts which are securities issued by a financial institution that evidence ownership interests in a security or pool of securities deposited with the financial institution. This may include, but is not limited to, American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”), Global Depositary Receipts (“GDRs”) and Non-Voting Depositary Receipts (“NVDRS”). In the case of the Fund, the ADRs, GDRs and NVDRS will evidence ownership in equity securities of emerging market issuers.

In accordance with the UCITS Regulations, no more than 10% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested in transferable securities which are not listed or traded on a Recognised Market.

To the extent that any assets of the Fund are not invested in emerging markets countries, the Fund may invest such assets in a diversified portfolio of all types of equity securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in developed markets and in investment grade and comparable unrated debt securities, including fixed or floating corporate bonds and other short-term securities, commercial paper and U.S. and non U.S. government debt obligations, denominated in U.S. dollars and other currencies, listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in developed markets.

The Fund may invest in open-ended collective investment schemes, which provide exposure to common stocks, as well as other equity securities, of companies in emerging market countries. Investment in aggregate in collective investments schemes and investment in any one collective investment scheme will not exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The Fund may invest in exchange-traded funds, which are typically open-ended funds or unit investment trusts, listed on a Recognised Market, and where such exchange-traded funds are classified as collective investment schemes, such investment will be subject to the limit set out in the preceding sentence.

The Fund’s assets may be denominated in a number of different currencies. Exchange rates may fluctuate significantly over short periods of time causing the Fund’s Net Asset Value to fluctuate as well. Save as specified below in respect of forward contracts and spot contracts, the Investment Adviser has no current intention to hedge the currency risk in the Fund. Costs are incurred in connection with conversions between various currencies.

There is no limit on the amount which the Fund may invest in warrants.

Investments in emerging market countries can be considered speculative, and therefore may offer higher potential for gains and losses than investments in developed markets of the world. An investment in a fund which invests in emerging markets should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors. See “SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS AND RISK FACTORS - Emerging Markets” in the Prospectus, as well as the risks disclosed herein.

Investors should note that there can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. Where sales charges are imposed, the difference between the cost of purchase of Shares and their redemption price may mean that an investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Risk factors for an investor in the Fund to consider are set out under “Special Considerations and Risk Factors” in the Prospectus and herein.

The Fund will invest in transferable securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets in accordance with the restrictions listed under “Investment Objectives and Policies” in the Prospectus. Save as outlined herein, it is not the current intention of the Company to employ derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes or for investment purposes. It is not the current intention to enter into repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, or securities lending agreements. If it is proposed to review this matter at any time in the future, the Directors of the Company will notify the Central Bank in advance, and will submit an updated risk management process to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations prior to the Company engaging in using such other derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes and/or for investment purposes on behalf of the Fund, and shall update this Supplement to reflect the change of intention.

Investors should note that the Fund may or may not use currency forward contracts and spot contracts to hedge currency exposure arising from the Fund's investments in assets denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency but currently intends to do so only to a very limited extent to hedge currency exposure between trade and settlement date. The Fund will not be leveraged over 100% of its net assets. The global exposure of the Fund will be calculated through the use of the commitment approach. With respect to the use of the above financial derivative instruments for these purposes, a risk management process which enables the Company to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments has been submitted to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

Risks associated with Forward Currency Contracts

Forward currency contracts involve the possibility that the market for them may be limited with respect to certain currencies and, upon a contract's maturity, the possible inability to negotiate with the dealer to enter into an offsetting transaction. There is no assurance that an active forward currency contract market will always exist.

Economic and Political Risks

The economies of individual emerging market countries may differ favourably or unfavourably from the economy in industrialised countries in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, currency depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency, accounting standards and balance of payments position. Further, the economies of emerging market countries generally are heavily dependent upon international trade and, accordingly, have been and may continue to be adversely affected by trade barriers, exchange controls, managed adjustments in relative currency values and other protectionist measures imposed or negotiated by the countries with which they trade. These economies also have been and may continue to be adversely affected by economic conditions in the countries with which they trade.

With respect to any emerging market country, there is the possibility of nationalisation, expropriation or confiscatory taxation, political changes, government regulation, social instability or diplomatic developments (including war) which could affect adversely the economies of such countries or the value of the Fund's investments in those countries. In addition, it may be difficult to obtain and enforce a judgment in a court in those countries.

Securities Markets of Emerging Markets Countries

Trading volume in the securities markets of emerging markets countries is substantially less than that in industrialised countries. Further, securities of some companies in emerging markets are less liquid and more volatile than securities of comparable companies in industrialised countries. As a result, obtaining prices or portfolio securities from independent sources may be more difficult. In addition, brokerage expenses and other transaction costs generally are higher in emerging market countries than in industrialised countries. Securities markets, broker-dealers, and issuers in emerging markets generally are subject to less government supervision and regulation than in industrialised countries. Further, disclosure and reporting requirements are minimal and anti-fraud and insider trading legislation is generally rudimentary.

Settlement Mechanisms/Custodial Risk

The stock markets in emerging markets generally have settlement mechanisms that are less developed and reliable than those in more developed countries. In certain markets there have been times when settlements have been unable to keep pace with the volume of transactions, thereby making it difficult to conduct such transactions. Delays in settlement could result in temporary periods when assets of the Fund are uninvested and no return is earned thereon. The inability of the Fund to make intended purchases due to settlement problems could cause it to miss attractive investment opportunities. Inability to dispose of securities due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Fund due to subsequent declines in value of the security or, if it has entered into a contract to sell the security it could result in a possible liability of it to the purchaser. While the Fund will endeavour to ensure that it will not invest in a market, fund, or sub-fund unless adequate custodial arrangements are available, there is no assurance that settlement delays or difficulties will not occur. Delays in settlement may affect the ability of the Fund to invest its assets or to liquidate positions in a timely manner.

Lack of adequate custodial systems in some emerging market countries may prevent investment in a given country or may require the Fund to accept greater custodial risks than in developed countries in order to invest in such countries. In addition, the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in emerging market countries in which the Fund may invest may not provide the same degree of information to investors as would generally apply in more developed markets. In particular, valuation of assets, depreciation, exchange differences, deferred taxation, contingent liabilities and consolidation may be treated differently from accounting standards in more developed markets.

As the Fund may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Fund which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to the risk that loss will be suffered by the Fund or its Shareholders in circumstances where the Depositary has no liability because it has exercised due care and diligence in appointing such sub-custodians.

Investment and Repatriation Restrictions; Exchange Controls

Some emerging market countries impose substantial restrictions on investments in their financial markets, especially equity markets, by foreign investors. These restrictions may include a requirement of governmental approval, a limitation on the amount of investment in a company or in a market as a whole, or a prohibition on foreigners owning particular securities. Countries also may prohibit foreign investment in particular sectors, such as the media, telecommunications or financial sectors.

Some emerging markets now or in the future may impose limitations on the ability of foreign investors to repatriate investment income or the proceeds from the sale of securities. These countries also may limit the Fund's ability to exchange income or proceeds into U.S. Dollars or other freely convertible currencies.

Foreign Taxation

With respect to certain countries, there is a possibility of expropriation, confiscatory taxation, imposition of withholding or other taxes on dividends, interest, capital gains or other income, limitations on the removal of cash or other assets of the Fund, political or social instability or diplomatic developments that could affect investments in those countries.

Risks of Emerging Markets Investing

The Fund, through its equity investments in emerging markets securities, invests in emerging markets throughout the world. As a result, the Fund is subject to risks relating to (i) currency exchange matters, including fluctuations in the rate of exchange between the U.S. Dollar and the various foreign currencies in which the Fund's investments will be denominated, and costs associated with conversion of investment principal and income from one currency into another and (ii) the possible imposition of withholding taxes on income received from or gains with respect to such securities. In addition, certain of these capital markets involve certain factors not typically associated with investing in established securities markets, including risks relating to (i) differences between markets, including potential price volatility in and relative illiquidity of some foreign securities markets, (ii) the absence of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practices and disclosure requirements and less government supervision and regulation and (iii) certain economic and political risks, including potential exchange control regulations and potential restrictions on foreign investment and repatriation of capital. The currency risk noted above is in addition to any currency risk attributable to the currency risk borne by Sterling Shares of the Fund, which is further explained below under Share Currency Designation Risk below, such Sterling Shares are subject to the variances in the rate of exchange between the U.S. Dollar and Sterling because the Base Currency of the Fund is the U.S. Dollar.

Russian Markets Risk

There are significant risks inherent in investing in Russia. There is no history of stability in the Russian market and no guarantee of future stability. The economic infrastructure of Russia is poor and the country maintains a high level of external and internal debt. Tax regulations are ambiguous and unclear and there is a risk of imposition of arbitrary or onerous taxes. Banks and other financial systems are not well developed or regulated and as a result tend to be untested and have low credit ratings. Bankruptcy and insolvency are a commonplace feature of the business environment. Foreign investment is affected by restrictions in terms of repatriation and convertibility of currency.

The concept of fiduciary duty on the part of a company's management is generally non-existent. Local laws and regulations may not prohibit or restrict a company's management from materially changing the company's structure without shareholder consent. Foreign investors cannot be guaranteed redress in a court of law for breach of local laws, regulations or contracts. Regulations governing securities investment may not exist or may be applied in an arbitrary and inconsistent manner.

Equity securities in Russia are issued only in book entry form and ownership records are maintained by registrars who are under contract with the issuers. Although a Russian sub-custodian will maintain copies of the registrar's records ("Share Extracts") on its premises, such Share Extracts may not, however, be legally sufficient to establish ownership of securities. Further a quantity of forged or otherwise fraudulent securities, Share Extracts or other documents are in circulation in the Russian markets and there is therefore a risk that the Fund's purchases may be settled with such forged or fraudulent securities.

American Depositary Receipts, Global Depositary Receipts and Non-Voting Depositary Receipts

The Fund may purchase sponsored or unsponsored ADRs, GDRs and NVDRs (collectively "Depositary Receipts") typically issued by a bank or trust company which evidence ownership of underlying securities issued by a foreign corporation. Generally, Depositary Receipts in registered form are designed for use in the U.S. securities market and Depositary Receipts in bearer form are designed for use in securities markets outside the United States. Depositary Receipts may not necessarily be denominated in the same currency as the underlying securities into which they may be converted. Depositary Receipts may be issued pursuant to sponsored or unsponsored programs. In sponsored programs, an issuer has made arrangements to have its securities traded in the form of Depositary Receipts. In unsponsored programs, the issuer may not be directly involved in the creation of the program. Although regulatory requirements with respect to sponsored and unsponsored programs are generally similar, in some cases it may be easier to obtain financial information from an issuer that has participated in the creation of a sponsored program. Accordingly, there may be less information available regarding issuers of securities underlying unsponsored programs and there may not be a correlation between such information and the market value of the Depositary Receipts.

Share Currency Designation Risk

Two Classes of Shares of the Fund are designated in Sterling. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and Sterling may lead to a depreciation of the value of such Sterling Shares. The Fund will not attempt to mitigate this currency risk.

In the case of Sterling Shares, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole, however, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for long-term investors who are looking to receive capital appreciation by investing in the Fund. This typically means a minimum time horizon of 3 to 5 years but can be less depending upon individual risk profiles.

INVESTMENT ADVISER

The Manager has appointed Parametric Portfolio Associates, LLC, 1918 Eighth Avenue, Suite 3100, Seattle, WA 98101, USA ("PPA" or the "Investment Adviser") as sole investment adviser to the Fund. PPA has been actively involved in the investment advisory business since 1987. As at 31 March 2016, PPA and its affiliates had approximately U.S.$159.3 billion in assets under management.

The Investment Advisory Agreement dated 1 February 2008 between the Company, the Manager and PPA, as amended (the "Investment Advisory Agreement"), provides that neither the Investment Adviser nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents shall be liable for any costs or liabilities arising from any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) or for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission done or suffered by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement unless such costs, liabilities, loss or damage arose out of or in connection with the negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud of or by the Investment Adviser or any of its directors, officers, employees and agents in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement.

The Company is obliged under the Investment Advisory Agreement to indemnify the Investment Adviser and hold harmless the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) from and against any and all actions, proceedings, claims, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable legal and professional fees and expenses arising therefrom or incidental thereto) which may be made or brought against or directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by the Investment Adviser (or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations and duties hereunder in the absence of any negligence, wilful default, fraud or bad faith of or by the Investment Adviser in the performance of its duties hereunder or as otherwise may be required by law.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Investment Adviser may, subject to the prior approval of the Manager and the Central Bank, appoint one or more sub-investment advisers from time to time to perform and/or exercise all or any of its functions, powers, discretions, duties and obligations under the Investment Advisory Agreement. Details of any such sub-investment advisers appointed will be provided to Shareholders on request and details of such sub-investment advisers will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Company.

The Investment Adviser intends that while the Fund will not seek to replicate an index, the performance of the Fund will be measured against the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (the "Index"). The Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalisation index designed to measure equity market performance in the global emerging markets. Any change in the use of the Index will be disclosed to Shareholders via the Accounts.

Thereafter, Class A2£ and Class Z2$ Shares will be issued at their Net Asset Value per Share on each Dealing Day, subject to any sales charge which may be applicable, as described below.

Class Z2$ Shares will only be available to investors who have agreed separate fee arrangements with the Investment Adviser or an affiliate of the Investment Adviser.

The Base Currency for the Fund is U.S. Dollars. Class A2£, Class I1£ and Class I2£ Shares (the "Sterling Shares") are designated in Sterling and will not be hedged back to the Base Currency. Investors in Class A2£, Class I1£ and Class I2£ Shares will bear any currency risk associated with fluctuations between Sterling and the Base Currency for the Fund.

In the case of Sterling Shares, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See "Share Currency Designation Risk" above.

For Class A2$ Shares, Class C2$ Shares and Class M2$ Shares, the minimum initial subscription amount is U.S. $1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S.$100, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class I2$ Shares is U.S.$5 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S.$1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class I1£ and Class I2£ Shares is £5 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is £1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

The minimum initial subscription amount for Class Z2$ Shares is U.S.$10 million, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases, and the minimum subsequent subscription amount for such Shares is U.S.$1,000, or such other amount as the Directors, or the Distributor as their delegate, may determine from time to time either generally or in specific cases.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, an investor may invest in Class I2$, Class I1£ or Class I2£ Shares in an initial subscription amount which does not meet or exceed U.S.$5 million or £5 million respectively, provided that such investor undertakes to subscribe at least U.S.$5 million or £5 million, as relevant, over a reasonable period, not to exceed 1 year, and the total subscription is anticipated by the Investment Adviser or the Distributor to reach such level within such time period. Where a Class I2$, Class I1£ or Class I2£ Shareholder fails to subscribe at least U.S.$5 million or £5 million, as relevant, within such time period, the Class I2$, Class I1£ or Class I2£ Shares, as case may be, held by such Shareholder may, at the discretion of the Directors, be converted without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder to Class M2$ or Class A2£ Shares, respectively. Also, an investor who invests in Class M2$ Shares and subsequently reaches the Class I2$ minimum may, at their request and at the sole discretion of the Directors, be converted to the Class I2$ Shares, but may, at the sole discretion of the Directors and without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder, be converted back to the Class M2$ Shares if the investor's total holding subsequently falls below the Class I2$ Share minimum. Investors are cautioned that such conversions, whether voluntary or involuntary, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

Without prejudice to the minimum subscription amounts set out above, investors may subscribe for the Shares of the Fund by adhering to a share accumulation plan which allows subscribers to spread out the investment over time by making a series of periodical payments.

Each Share Class will be subject to a minimum holding amount of U.S.$1,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent). Pursuant to the Articles, where a Shareholder holds a number of Shares which is less than this minimum holding, the Directors may redeem the Shares at their Net Asset Value per Share as at the Valuation Point immediately following the date of notification of such mandatory redemption to the relevant Shareholder.

Orders for Shares of all Classes of the Fund that are received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders prior to close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") (normally at 4:00 p.m., New York time) (the "Dealing Deadline") will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on that Dealing Day. In the case of faxed application forms or application forms submitted by electronic means, the original application form must be received promptly thereafter by the Administrator, the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders. Orders to subscribe for Shares received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders after the Dealing Deadline for the Fund will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on the next Dealing Day. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that orders placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Where applications are withdrawn any subscription monies will be returned to the applicant at its cost and without interest. The Company reserves the right to require that purchase orders for the Fund be received prior to the close of the NYSE on days when the bond market closes early. The Company may reject any application form in whole or in part with or without reason.

Subscription proceeds for the Fund must be paid by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or in accordance with the provisions described below, no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on the third Business Day after the receipt and acceptance of a subscription order (the "Payment Deadline").

Subscription monies which are not cleared by the Payment Deadline may, if accepted, result in an interest charge to the investor, which will be determined with reference to the daily interest charged to the Fund on the overdraft which arises due to such investor's subscription monies not being cleared by the Payment Deadline. Shareholders will not be entitled to any interest on subscription proceeds transferred to the account specified in the application form prior to the Payment Deadline. Failure to submit payment by the Payment Deadline may result in the order being cancelled. In such event, the sub-distributor as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank or the individual investor may be held liable for any loss to the Fund.

For an initial subscription of Shares, a signed original application form should be sent to the address specified in the application form.

Subscription proceeds for Shares must be paid in the currency in which the relevant Share Class is denominated by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or by transfer of assets, in accordance with the provisions described herein and in the Prospectus, no later than the Payment Deadline.

Investors who do not already hold Shares in the Fund may forward a duly completed application form initially by fax or by electronic communication which shall be promptly followed by forwarding the original application form (and supporting documentation in relation to money laundering prevention checks) by post to the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, prior to the relevant Dealing Deadline. Provided that the Company, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent faxed subscription requests or electronic communication for the investor's account may be processed without a requirement to submit original documentation. Similarly, provided that the Company has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent applications may be made by fax, by electronic communication or by telephone provided that in the case of telephone applications or electronic applications, the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone or by electronic communication. Telephone applications can be made c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that applications received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn.

Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

In times of active dealing in the Shares, the volume of telephone applications being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone application may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who subscribe by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward the appropriate subscription monies to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. Shares allotted to any such defaulting investor will be cancelled. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Shareholders may subscribe for Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication.

Class A2$ and Class A2£ Shares. An investor who purchases Class A2$ or Class A2£ Shares of the Fund may be subject to an initial dealer mark-up of up to 6.25% of the amount invested (which equals 6.66% of the Net Asset Value) all of which is paid to the dealer. The exact amount of this sales charge may vary depending on the size of the purchase, the number of Class A2$ and Class A2£ Shares in any Sub-Fund the investor may already own and due to rounding. Class A2$ and Class A2£ Shares of the Fund shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

Class C2$ Shares. An investor who purchases Class C2$ Shares is subject to a CDSC as described below (see under “How to Redeem Shares – Contingent Deferred Sales Charge”). Such investors will also be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class C2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

Class M2$ Shares. An investor who purchases Class M2$ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. Such investor will be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class M2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

Class I2$, Class I1£ and Class I2£ Shares. An investor who purchases Class I2$, Class I1£ or Class I2£ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. Such investor will be subject to an ongoing management fee as described in “FEES AND EXPENSES” below. Class I2$ and Class I2£ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class. Class I1£ shall constitute an Income Class.

Class Z2$ Shares. An investor who purchases Class Z2$ Shares is not subject to an initial dealer mark-up or a CDSC. No ongoing management fee will be payable in respect of Class Z2$ Shares. Class Z2$ Shares shall constitute an Accumulation Class.

UKRS status has been obtained for the Class A1$, Class I2$, Class I1£ and Class I2£ Shares to the extent that there are any UK investors in the applicable Class. No assurance can be given that any Class will continue to qualify for UKRS status or that the Directors will continue to seek such status in respect of any Class. Please see the section headed “TAXATION – UNITED KINGDOM” in the Prospectus. The Directors reserve the right to seek UKRS status, or not to seek UKRS status, in respect of any Class.

HOW TO REDEEM SHARES

Shareholders may redeem their Shares in one of four ways - by mail, facsimile, by telephone or, in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shareholders may request the Company to redeem their Shares on and with effect from any Dealing Day at a price based on the relevant Net Asset Value per Share on such Dealing Day. Any amendments to a Shareholder's registration details or payment instructions will only be effected on receipt of original documentation.

In the case of Sterling Shares, a currency conversion will take place on redemptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See “Share Currency Designation Risk” above.

Redemption by Mail, Facsimile or Electronic Communication. Save where expressly provided herein or in the Prospectus, a signed original redemption request by mail or a signed faxed redemption request or an electronic redemption request, must be received by the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to accept redemption requests, at the address, fax number or email address (as relevant), specified in the application form not later than the Dealing Deadline on the relevant Dealing Day. Redemption requests received by fax or by electronic communication will only be processed if the redemption proceeds are to be paid to the account of record. Requests received after the Dealing Deadline on a Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. All requests for redemption must be endorsed by the record owner(s) exactly as the Shares are registered. In addition, in some cases the Administrator may require the furnishing of additional documents such as where the Shares are registered in the name of a corporation, partnership or fiduciary. Investors will not be obliged to deal by electronic means.

Redemption by Telephone. Shares may be redeemed by telephone provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Telephonic redemptions can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that redemption requests received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone.

The proceeds of a telephone redemption may be wired only to the account of record. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of redemption instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

With respect to financial intermediaries, it is the responsibility of such intermediaries to ensure that redemption requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Redemption requests for Shares received by such financial intermediaries prior to the Dealing Deadline but received by the Administrator or the Company after the Dealing Deadline will be processed at the price determined on the next Dealing Day.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone redemptions being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone redemption may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who apply to redeem by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward written confirmation to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. The Redemption request will be cancelled and the Shareholder will continue to hold Shares in the Fund. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid within three (3) Business Days of, and will be paid no later than ten (10) Business Days after, the Dealing Deadline on which redemptions are effected by wire transfer to the account designated by the Shareholder in the redemption request form contained in this Prospectus.

Any redemption proceeds may, with the Shareholder's consent and at the discretion of the Manager, be paid by the transfer to such Shareholder of the assets of the Fund in specie, provided that the type of the assets to be transferred shall be determined by the Manager as it in its sole discretion deems equitable and not materially prejudicial to the interests of the remaining Shareholders and the allocation of assets has been approved by the Depositary.

If any Shareholder requests the redemption of Shares equal to 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day, the Manager may in its absolute discretion, distribute underlying investments rather than cash provided that: (a) asset allocation is subject to the approval of the Depositary; and (b) any such distribution shall not materially prejudice the interest of other Shareholders. In such circumstances, the relevant Shareholder will have the right to instruct the Manager to procure the sale of such underlying investments on their behalf in which case the Shareholder will receive the proceeds net of all fiscal duties and charges incurred in connection with the sale of such underlying investments.

If outstanding redemption requests from Shareholders of the Fund on any Dealing Day total in aggregate 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Fund on such Dealing Day, the Manager shall be entitled at its discretion to refuse to redeem such number of Shares of the Fund on that Dealing

Day in respect of which redemption requests have been received in excess of 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund as the Manager shall determine in its absolute discretion. If the Manager refuses to redeem Shares due to redemption requests exceeding the 10% threshold, the requests for redemption received on that Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the Shares to which each redemption request relates which are not redeemed shall be treated as if they were redemption requests received on each subsequent Dealing Day, provided that the Manager shall not, in any event, be obliged to redeem more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of a particular Sub-Fund outstanding on any Dealing Day. A Shareholder may withdraw his redemption request by notice in writing to the Administrator if the Manager exercises its discretion to refuse to redeem any Shares to which the request relates.

Contingent Deferred Sales Charge. Where an investor purchases Class C2$ Shares, the Distributor pays an initial dealer mark-up charge of 1.00% of the amount invested to the dealer. Class C2$ Shares are subject to a CDSC of 1.00%, payable by the investor to the Distributor, on certain redemptions made at the request of the Shareholder within one year of purchase. The CDSC is calculated based on the lower of the Net Asset Value at the time of purchase or the time of redemption. Shares acquired through the reinvestment of distributions are exempt. Provided that the financial intermediary supplies the Company with the necessary data, redemptions are made first from Shares in the account which are not subject to a CDSC.

In calculating a CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the Shares are deemed to have been acquired at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares and the CDSC schedule applicable to the exchanged Shares will apply to the acquired Shares.

Class C2$ Shares. Class C2$ Shares are subject to the following CDSC schedule:

Age of Shares Redeemed	CDSC %
Less than one year	1.0

The CDSC fees for Class C2$ Shares may be waived from time to time should the Manager and/or Distributor so determine.

For additional information concerning redemptions and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

HOW TO EXCHANGE OR TRANSFER SHARES

Shareholders may, on any Dealing Day, exchange Shares in the Fund (whether an Accumulation Class or an Income Class) for Shares in the same Class category (meaning identified by the same Class letter – e.g. A, B, C, I or M) in any currency offered in that Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund. Although exchanges must be within the same Class category, they may be for any other Sub-Fund offering the relevant Class category, may be for Accumulation or Income Classes, where available, and may be for any currency offered by the relevant Class category within the desired Sub-Fund. In addition, where requested, exchanges of Shares of Class category A in the Fund for Shares in Class category M in the Fund or in any other Sub-Fund offering Shares in Class category M may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. In addition, any other exchanges requested by a Shareholder not falling within the preceding categories may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. Notwithstanding the above, exchange of Class Z2$ Shares for Shares in the same Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund may only be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors.

An exchange request will be treated as an order to redeem the Shares held prior to the exchange and a purchase order for new Shares with the redemption proceeds. The original Shares will be redeemed at their Net Asset Value per Share and the new Shares will be issued at the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class of the applicable Sub-Fund. Exchange requests for Shares must be made through the Administrator. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that exchange requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis.

Shares may be exchanged by telephone by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Such exchanges can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator, at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to 4:00 p.m. (New York time). Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of exchange instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded. In times of drastic economic or market changes, technological failure or power interruption, a telephone redemption may be difficult to implement and the right to redeem by telephone may be suspended.

Shareholders may exchange Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shares may be exchanged by electronic communication by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege.

Certain intermediaries or dealers may charge a conversion fee on the value of Shares to be converted and Shareholders should contact their intermediaries or dealers for details of any such fee prior to conversion. Any such fee will be paid by the Shareholder to the intermediary or dealer and will not be received by the Company or the Manager. No exchange fee will be charged by the Company or the Manager.

No CDSC is imposed on exchanges. For purposes of calculating the CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the CDSC schedule applicable to the Shares at the time of purchase will apply and the purchase of Shares acquired in one or more exchanges is deemed to have occurred at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares.

Exchanges, transfers and conversions, as well as outright sales, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions, and Shareholders and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

For additional information concerning exchanges and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

Transfers of Shares must be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form approved by the Directors from time to time. Every form of transfer must state the full name and address of each of the transferor and the transferee and must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor. The Directors (or the Administrator on their behalf) may decline to register any transfer of Shares unless the transfer form is deposited at the registered office of the Company, or such other place as the Directors may reasonably require, accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders. A transfer of Shares will not be registered unless the transferee, if not an existing Shareholder, has completed a purchase order to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Shares are freely transferable and may not be subject to any transfer restrictions or compulsory redemption save where the holding of such Shares may result in regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, or where such transfer would result in a Shareholder falling below the specified minimum holding. To avoid such regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, transfers of Shares are subject to the prior approval of the Directors or the Administrator on their behalf. A proposed transferee may be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as the Directors may require in relation to the above matters. In the event that the Company does not receive a Declaration in respect of a transferee, the Company will be required to deduct appropriate tax in respect of any payment to the transferee or any sale, transfer, cancellation, redemption, repurchase or other payment in respect of the Shares as described in the section headed "Taxation" in the Prospectus.

DIVIDEND POLICY

The Directors may declare dividends in respect of any Shares out of net income (including dividend and interest income) and the excess of realised and unrealised net capital gains over realised and unrealised losses in respect of investments of the Company.

The Directors currently intend that all income and gain attributable to each Accumulation Class will be accrued in the Net Asset Value per Share of those Shares.

The Directors intend to declare dividends annually, on the last Business Day of October of each year, or such other date as the Directors may determine and notify in advance to Shareholders (the "Distribution Date"), out of the net income of the Class I1£ Shares. It is not currently intended to declare dividends out of capital gains for this Class. Dividends which are declared annually will be reinvested or, if requested by the Shareholder in the relevant Shareholder's application, be paid annually by electronic transfer to the account specified in the relevant Shareholder's application form. All such payments to Shareholders will be made within 10 Business days of the Distribution Date.

Expenses of the Company will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which, in the opinion of the Directors, they relate. If an expense is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund, the Directors shall have discretion to determine, in a fair and equitable manner, the basis on which the expense shall be allocated between the Sub-Funds. In such cases the expense will normally be allocated to all Sub-Funds pro rata to the value of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager and/or the Investment Adviser may, each at its sole discretion, contribute directly towards the expenses attributable to the establishment and/or operation of the Company or any particular Sub-Fund and/or the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, each at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the management fees due to it in respect of any particular payment period.

In the case of Sterling Shares, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole, however, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

DEFINITIONS

Words and terms defined in the Prospectus have the same meaning in this Supplement unless otherwise stated herein. The Fund is established pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) ("UCITS Regulations"), and this Supplement shall be construed accordingly and will comply with the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Dealing Day" shall mean a day which is a bank business day in Ireland and on which the New York Stock Exchange is also open for business and such other day or days as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders, provided however that the Valuation Point shall always be after the Dealing Deadline.

For the purposes of Share dealings and valuations of the Fund, "Valuation Point" shall mean the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (which is normally 4:00 p.m. New York time) on each Dealing Day, or such other time as the Directors shall at their sole discretion determine and notify in advance to the Shareholders and to the Central Bank.

For the purposes of this Supplement, a "Recognised Market" means any of the exchanges or markets listed in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus.

The Base Currency for the Fund shall be U.S. Dollars or such other currency as the Directors shall from time to time determine and notify to the Shareholders. Investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in currencies other than the Base Currency.

An investment in the Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

The Fund may invest principally in financial derivative instruments.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICIES

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek to return income plus capital appreciation.

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective through exposure to currencies, and U.S. and non-U.S. interest rates and issuers. Such exposure may be achieved by investing in securities and other instruments, including, debt securities (which may be fixed and/or floating rate and rated or unrated) issued by governments of both developed and emerging market countries or their sub-divisions, government agencies and government-sponsored enterprises, mortgage-backed securities and other asset-backed securities, units in open and closed-ended collective investment schemes, inflation-indexed bonds issued by both governmental, quasi-governmental and/or corporate issuers, corporate debt securities (including, without limitation, convertible securities and corporate commercial paper), structured products which comply with the requirements set out in the Central Bank UCITS Regulations and deposits. The Fund may also achieve this exposure by investing primarily in derivative instruments as described in more detail below. The leverage and risk management process of the Fund are described under "Risk Management" below. The Fund will invest in securities which are traded or dealt on Recognised Markets worldwide. For the purposes of this Supplement, "Recognised Markets" shall include all of the recognised exchanges and markets listed in Appendix 1 to the Prospectus. In accordance with the UCITS Regulations, no more than 10% of the Fund's net assets will be invested in securities which are not listed or traded on a Recognised Market.

The Fund will not have any particular sectoral or industry focus.

Subject to the UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank UCITS Regulations, the Fund may indirectly obtain exposure to commodities through investment in the derivative instruments referred to below.

The Fund may invest without limit in foreign currencies. The Fund's investments may be highly concentrated in a geographic region or country and typically a portion will be invested in emerging market countries, making them more susceptible to risks associated with a single economic, political or regulatory occurrence than a more diversified portfolio might be. Emerging market countries for the purposes of investment by the Fund are defined to include any country which did not accede to (i.e., did not become a member of) the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (O.E.C.D.) prior to 1975 and Turkey. The Fund's diversification will comply with the UCITS Regulations. The Fund may invest up to 100% of its net assets in the securities of issuers of emerging market countries, which shall include, without limitation, issuers that conduct a substantial portion of their business in emerging market countries or are expected, in the opinion of the Investment Adviser, to do so in the future and issuers that alone or on a consolidated basis, in the opinion of the Investment Adviser, derive more than 30% of their annual revenue growth or operating or net profit growth from either goods produced, sales made or services performed in an emerging market country.

The Investment Adviser adjusts investments to take advantage of differences in securities, countries, currencies and credits based on its perception of various factors, including the most favourable markets, interest rates and issuers, the relative yield and appreciation potential of a particular country's securities, and the relationship of a country's currency to the U.S. Dollar. The Investment Adviser identifies countries and currencies where the Fund's investments will out-perform comparable investments in other countries and currencies and in many cases seeks to predict changes in economies, markets, political conditions, and other factors.

The Fund may invest up to 10% of its net assets in common stock and other equity securities listed, traded or dealt on Recognised Markets.

Other products managed by the Investment Adviser, with a similar investment strategy, have historically experienced relatively low volatility and the Investment Adviser anticipates that the Fund will also have relatively low volatility, however, no guarantee can be given as to the volatility of the Fund.

The Fund may invest primarily in derivative instruments. Derivative instruments may be purchased or sold to enhance total return, to hedge against fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates or currency exchange rates, to change the duration of obligations held, to manage certain investment risks and/or as a substitute for the purchase or sale of securities or currencies. Transactions in derivative instruments may include: the purchase or sale of futures and forward contracts on securities, indices or other financial instruments or currencies, including, but not limited to: futures and forwards on U.S. and other government bills or bonds, stock index futures and forwards, interest rate futures and forwards, foreign currency futures, and deliverable and nondeliverable ("NDF") forward foreign currency exchange contracts; options on futures and forward contracts; exchange-traded and over-the-counter options on securities, indices or currencies; interest rate, total return swaps (the underlying reference assets of the total return swaps can be indices, single name equity or equity securities, custom baskets of equity securities or currencies) and credit default swaps; forward rate agreements; and credit linked notes and other similarly structured products, including, but not limited to, instruments that have a greater or lesser credit risk than the security underlying that instrument. The Fund may invest in warrants and may also receive warrants as a result of corporate actions. No more than 5% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund will be held in warrants.

The use of derivatives is highly specialized and engaging in derivative transactions for purposes other than hedging is speculative. Transactions in derivative instruments involve risks such as losses due to unanticipated adverse changes in prices, interest rates, index values or currency exchange rates; the inability to close out a position; default by or bankruptcy of the counterparty; imperfect correlation between a position and the desired hedge; tax constraints on closing out positions; and portfolio management constraints on securities subject to such transactions. The loss on derivative instruments (other than purchased options) may substantially exceed the initial investment therein and may unfavorably impact investment performance. In addition, the Fund may lose the entire premium paid for purchased options that expire before they can be profitably exercised. Transaction costs are incurred in opening and closing positions in derivative instruments.

Forwards are individually negotiated and privately traded so they are dependent upon the creditworthiness of the counterparty. They are subject to the risk of a number of complex political and economic factors applicable to the countries issuing the underlying currencies. Furthermore, there is no systematic reporting of last sale information with respect to the foreign currencies underlying forwards. As a result, available information may not be complete.

Interest rate swaps involve the exchange by the Fund with another party of their respective commitments to pay or receive interest, e.g., an exchange of fixed rate payments for floating rate payments. Cross-currency swaps are interest rate swaps in which the notional amount upon which the fixed interest rate is accrued is denominated in one currency and the notional amount upon which the floating rate is accrued is denominated in another currency. The notional amounts are typically determined based on the spot exchange rate at the inception of the trade.

Credit default swap agreements ("CDS") enable the Fund to buy or sell credit protection on an individual issuer or basket of issuers. The Fund may enter into CDS to gain long or short exposure to sovereign bond markets. Long CDS positions are utilized to gain exposure to a sovereign bond market (similar to buying a bond) and are akin to selling insurance on the bond. Short CDS positions are utilized to short exposure to a sovereign bond market (similar to shorting a bond) and are akin to buying insurance on the bond. In response to recent market events, certain regulators have proposed regulation of the CDS market. These regulations may limit the Fund's ability to use CDS and/or the benefits of CDS. A credit linked note is a form of funded credit derivative whose cash flow is dependent upon an event which is linked to a credit event such as a default, or change in credit spreads or a rating change. CDS, credit linked notes and similarly structured products involve risks, including the risk that the counterparty may be unable to fulfill the transaction or that the Fund may be required to purchase securities to meet delivery obligations. The Fund may have difficulty, be unable or may incur additional costs to acquire such securities.

In addition to the above, the Fund may use all of the instruments and strategies set out in Appendix II to the Prospectus for efficient portfolio management. Without limitation to the foregoing, the Fund may, for the purposes of hedging (whether against currency exchange or interest rate risks or otherwise), enter into put and call options, spot and forward contracts, financial futures, stock and bond index futures contracts, repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending agreements. In particular, the Fund may seek to hedge its investments against currency fluctuations which are adverse to its base currency by utilizing currency options, futures contracts and forward foreign exchange contracts.

The Fund will not take short positions.

The Fund may also from time to time make use of exchange traded stock index and other futures contracts for the purpose of efficient portfolio management to enable it to maintain the appropriate exposure to stock markets in accordance with the Investment Manager's recommended overall asset allocation. The use of exchange traded stock index and other futures contracts by the Fund will be subject to the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank under the UCITS Regulations.

The Investment Adviser will adjust investments and engage in active management techniques in an effort to take advantage of differences in securities, countries, currencies and credits based on its perception of various factors, including the most favourable markets, interest rates and issuers, the relative yield and appreciation potential of a particular country's securities, and the relationship of a country's currency to the U.S. Dollar. This strategy requires the Investment Adviser to identify countries and currencies where the Fund's investments will out-perform comparable investments in other countries and currencies and in many cases to predict changes in economies, markets, political conditions, and other factors. The success of this strategy involves the risk that the Investment Adviser's predictions may be untimely or incorrect.

Exposure to securities financing transactions

The Fund's exposure to total return swaps, repurchase agreements and securities lending transactions is as set out below (in each case as a percentage of Net Asset Value):

Instrument	Expected	Maximum
Total Return Swaps	10%	500%
Repurchase Agreements	3%	100%

Securities Lending	0%	100%
--------------------	----	------

The Fund's investments are subject to the risks disclosed under "Special Considerations and Risk Factors" in the Prospectus and herein.

Investments in emerging market countries can be considered speculative, and therefore may offer higher potential for gains and losses than investments in developed markets of the world. Investors should note that there can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. Where sales charges are imposed, the difference between the cost of purchase of Shares and their redemption price may mean that an investment should be viewed as medium to long term.

Risk factors for an investor in the Fund to consider are set out under "Special Considerations and Risk Factors" in the Prospectus and herein.

Profile of a Typical Investor: The Fund is suitable for long-term investors who are looking to receive capital appreciation by investing in the Fund. This typically means a minimum time horizon of 3 to 5 years but can be less depending upon individual risk profiles.

Risk Management

The Manager employs a risk management process in respect of the Company which enables it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments ("FDI"). A statement of this risk management process has been submitted to the Central Bank. The Company will, on request, provide supplementary information to Shareholders relating to any risk management methods to be employed by the Company in respect of any Sub-Fund, including the quantitative limits that are applied, and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments.

The Fund is subject to an advanced risk management process in compliance with the UCITS Regulations. The Fund will utilise an "Absolute VAR" approach which aims to ensure that on any day the value-at-risk of the Fund, measured using a 20 day (one month) holding period, will be no greater than 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The Fund may be leveraged as a result of its use of FDI. Historically, over the most recent one year time period, the leverage (as measured by the sum of the notional of derivative positions) in the Fund has varied between 674% and 341% of the net assets of the Fund. The level of leverage in the Fund may exceed this range in certain market conditions or where the Investment Adviser believes that the use of additional derivatives is appropriate to achieve the investment objectives of the Fund. However, in such circumstances the level of leverage is not expected to exceed 2,000% of the net assets of the Fund.

The Fund is not expected to have an above average risk profile through the use of FDI. The Fund will utilize FDI for both hedging and investment purposes. When used for investment purposes, these instruments are intended to expose the Fund to a particular region, country, interest rate, credit, currency, or other underlying investment. Use of FDI to achieve investment exposures is not intended to increase the risk or volatility of the Fund as compared to a security investment used to achieve the equivalent exposure.

Risks associated with Forward Currency Contracts

Forward currency contracts involve the possibility that the market for them may be limited with respect to certain currencies and, upon a contract's maturity, the possible inability to negotiate with the dealer to enter into an offsetting transaction. There is no assurance that an active forward currency contract market will always exist. These factors restrict the ability to hedge against the risk of devaluation of currencies in which a substantial quantity of securities are being held for the Fund and are unrelated to the qualitative rating that may be assigned to any particular security.

Share Currency Designation Risk

A Class of Shares of the Fund may be designated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and such designated currency may lead to a depreciation of the value of such Shares as expressed in the designated currency. The Fund intends to attempt to hedge out the currency risk of the non-U.S. Dollar Shares by hedging them back to U.S. Dollars by using any of the efficient portfolio management techniques and instruments set out in the Prospectus within the conditions and limits imposed by the Central Bank. In terms of use of derivative instruments for these purposes, the Fund shall only use currency forward contracts. Save as specified in this paragraph, a Class of Shares may not be leveraged as a result of the use of such techniques and instruments. Such hedging shall be limited to the extent of the relevant Class of Share's currency exposure. In no case will the hedging of the currency exposure be permitted to exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the particular Class of Shares. Hedging will be monitored on at least a monthly basis to ensure that over-hedged positions do not exceed this limit and the level of hedging will be reduced to ensure that positions materially in excess of 100% of the Net Asset Value attributable to the relevant Class will not be carried forward from month to month. While not the intention, over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Fund. Investors should be aware that this strategy may substantially limit Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares from benefiting if the designated currency falls against the Base Currency and/or the currency/currencies in which the assets of the Fund are denominated. In such circumstances, Shareholders of the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund may be exposed to fluctuations in the Net Asset Value per Share reflecting the gains/loss on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments. While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Although hedging strategies may not necessarily be used in relation to each Class of Shares within the Fund, the financial instruments used to implement such strategies shall be assets/liabilities of the Fund as a whole. However, the gains/losses on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments relating to Class hedging will accrue solely to the relevant Class of Shares of the Fund. Any currency exposure of this Class of Shares may not be combined with or offset with that of any other Class of Shares of the Fund. The currency exposures of the assets of the Fund will not be allocated to separate Classes of Shares.

Mortgage-Backed Securities

Mortgage-Backed Securities ("MBS") represent participation interests in pools of adjustable and fixed-rate mortgage loans. MBS also include classes of collateralized mortgage obligations ("CMOs"), including fixed- or floating-rate tranches. MBS may be issued by the United States or other governments (or their agencies or instrumentalities) or privately issued but collateralized by mortgages that are insured, guaranteed or otherwise backed by governments or their agencies or instrumentalities. Adjustable rate mortgages are mortgages whose interest rates are periodically reset when market rates change. Unlike conventional debt obligations, MBS provide monthly payments derived from the monthly interest and principal payments (including any prepayments) made by the individual borrowers on the pooled mortgage loans. MBS that include loans that have had a history of refinancing opportunities in the United States are referred to as "seasoned MBS". MBS that are not seasoned MBS are referred to as generic MBS. Seasoned MBS tend to have a higher collateral to debt ratio than other MBS because a greater percentage of the underlying debt has been repaid and the collateral property may have appreciated in value. MBS may be "premium bonds" acquired at prices that exceed their par or principal value. MBS that are purchased at a premium generate current income that exceeds market rates for comparable investments but tend to decrease in value as they mature.

The mortgage loans underlying MBS are generally subject to a greater rate of principal prepayments in a declining interest rate environment and to a lesser rate of principal prepayments in an increasing interest rate environment, although investment in seasoned MBS can mitigate this risk. Under certain interest and prepayment rate scenarios, the Fund may fail to recover the full amount of its investment in MBS, notwithstanding any direct or indirect governmental or agency guarantee. Because faster than expected prepayments must usually be invested in lower yielding securities, MBS are less effective than conventional bonds in "locking in" a specified interest rate. For premium bonds, prepayment risk may be enhanced. In a rising interest rate environment, a declining prepayment rate will extend the average life of many MBS. This possibility is often referred to as extension risk. Extending the average life of an MBS increases the risk of depreciation due to future increases in market interest rates. This possibility is often referred to as extension risk. Extending the average life of an MBS increases the risk of depreciation due to future increases in market interest rates.

Asset-Backed Securities

Asset-backed securities represent interests in a pool of assets, such as home equity loans, commercial mortgage-backed securities, automobile receivables or credit card receivables. Unscheduled prepayments of asset-backed securities may result in a loss of income if the proceeds are invested in lower-yielding securities. Delays in repayment of principal may result in the securities outstanding for a longer period of time than expected at the time of purchase. In addition, issuers of asset-backed securities may have limited ability to enforce the security interest in the underlying assets, and credit enhancements (if any) may be inadequate in the event of default.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are highly liquid, short-term securities such as commercial paper, time deposits, certificates of deposit, short-term notes, and short-term U.S. Government obligations.

Economic and Political Risks

The economies of individual emerging market countries may differ favourably or unfavourably from the economy in industrialised countries in such respects as growth of gross domestic product, rate of inflation, currency depreciation, capital reinvestment, resource self-sufficiency, accounting standards and balance of payments position. Further, the economies of emerging market countries generally are heavily dependent upon international trade and, accordingly, have been and may continue to be adversely affected by trade barriers, exchange controls, managed adjustments in relative currency values and other protectionist measures imposed or negotiated by the countries with which they trade. These economies also have been and may continue to be adversely affected by economic conditions in the countries with which they trade.

With respect to any emerging market country, there is the possibility of nationalisation, expropriation or confiscatory taxation, political changes, government regulation, social instability or diplomatic developments (including war) which could affect adversely the economies of such countries or the value of the Fund's investments in those countries. In addition, it may be difficult to obtain and enforce a judgment in a court in those countries.

Securities Markets of Emerging Markets Countries

Trading volume in the securities markets of emerging markets countries may be substantially less than that in industrialised countries. Further, securities of some companies in emerging markets may be less liquid and more volatile than securities of comparable companies in industrialised countries. As a result, brokerage expenses and other transaction costs generally are higher in emerging market countries than in industrialised countries. Securities markets, broker-dealers, and issuers in emerging markets generally are subject to less government supervision and regulation than in industrialised countries. Further, disclosure and reporting requirements are minimal and anti-fraud and insider trading legislation is generally rudimentary.

Settlement Mechanisms/Custodial Risk

Lack of adequate custodial systems in some emerging market countries may prevent investment in a given country or may require the Fund to accept greater custodial risks than in developed countries in order to invest in such countries. In addition, the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in emerging market countries in which the Fund may invest may not provide the same degree of information to investors as would generally apply in more developed markets. In particular, valuation of assets, depreciation, exchange differences, deferred taxation, contingent liabilities and consolidation may be treated differently from accounting standards in more developed markets.

As the Fund may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Fund which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to the risk that loss will be suffered by the Fund or its Shareholders in circumstances where the Depositary has no liability because it has exercised due care and diligence in appointing such sub-custodians.

The stock markets in emerging markets generally have settlement mechanisms that are less developed and reliable than those in more developed countries. In certain markets there have been times when settlements have been unable to keep pace with the volume of transactions, thereby making it difficult to conduct such transactions. Delays in settlement could result in temporary periods when assets of the Fund are uninvested and no return is earned thereon. The inability of the Fund to make intended purchases due to settlement problems could cause it to miss attractive investment opportunities. Inability to dispose of securities due to settlement problems could result either in losses to the Fund due to subsequent declines in value of the security or, if it has entered into a contract to sell the security it could result in a possible liability of it to the purchaser. While the Fund will endeavour to ensure that it will not invest in a market, fund, or sub-fund unless adequate custodial arrangements are available, there is no assurance that settlement delays or difficulties will not occur. Delays in settlement may affect the ability of the Fund to invest its assets or to liquidate positions in a timely manner.

Investment and Repatriation Restrictions; Exchange Controls

Some emerging market countries impose substantial restrictions on investments in their financial markets, especially equity markets, by foreign investors. These restrictions may include a requirement of governmental approval, a limitation on the amount of investment in a company or in a market as a whole, or a prohibition on foreigners owning particular securities. Countries also may prohibit foreign investment in particular sectors, such as the media, telecommunications or financial sectors.

Some emerging markets now or in the future may impose limitations on the ability of foreign investors to repatriate investment income or the proceeds from the sale of securities. These countries also may limit the Fund's ability to exchange income or proceeds into U.S. Dollars or other freely convertible currencies.

Foreign Taxation

With respect to certain countries, there is a possibility of expropriation, confiscatory taxation, imposition of withholding or other taxes on dividends, interest, capital gains or other income, limitations on the removal of cash or other assets of the Fund, political or social instability or diplomatic developments that could affect investments in those countries.

Risks of Emerging Markets Investing

The Fund, through its investments in emerging markets securities and derivatives, invests in emerging markets throughout the world. As a result, the Fund is subject to risks relating to (i) currency exchange matters, including fluctuations in the rate of exchange between the U.S. Dollar and the various foreign currencies in which the Fund's investments will be denominated, and costs associated with conversion of investment principal and income from one currency into another and (ii) the possible imposition of withholding taxes on income received from or gains with respect to such securities. In addition, certain of these capital markets involve certain factors not typically associated with investing in established securities markets, including risks relating to (i) differences between markets, including potential price volatility in and relative illiquidity of some foreign securities markets, (ii) the absence of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practices and disclosure requirements and less government supervision and regulation and (iii) certain economic and political risks, including potential exchange control regulations and potential restrictions on foreign investment and repatriation of capital.

INVESTMENT ADVISER

The Manager has appointed Eaton Vance Management, Two International Place, Boston, MA 02110, USA ("Eaton Vance" or the "Investment Adviser") as sole investment adviser to the Fund. Eaton Vance is a Massachusetts business trust. Eaton Vance, together with its affiliates and predecessor companies, have been managing assets of individuals and institutions since 1924 and managing investment companies in the U.S. since 1931. Eaton Vance is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eaton

Vance Corp., a publicly-held holding company which through its subsidiaries and affiliates engages primarily in investment management, administration and marketing activities. As at 31 April 2016, Eaton Vance and its affiliates had approximately U.S.$318.7 billion in assets under management.

The Investment Advisory Agreement dated 18 August 1999 between the Company, the Manager and Eaton Vance, as amended (the "Investment Advisory Agreement"), provides that neither the Investment Adviser nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents shall be liable for any costs or liabilities arising from any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) or for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly out of any act or omission done or suffered by the Investment Adviser (including any of its directors, officers, employees or agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement unless such costs, liabilities, loss or damage arose out of or in connection with the gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud of or by the Investment Adviser or any of its directors, officers, employees and agents in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement.

The Company is obliged under the Investment Advisory Agreement to indemnify the Investment Adviser and hold harmless the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) from and against any and all claims, actions, proceedings, damages, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) directly or indirectly suffered or incurred by the Investment Adviser and its directors, officers, employees and agents, arising from or in connection with the performance of its duties and/or the exercise of its powers under the Investment Advisory Agreement, and/or any error of judgement, investment decision or mistake of law by the Investment Adviser (and each of its directors, officers, employees and agents) in the performance of its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement in the absence of any such gross negligence, wilful default, bad faith or fraud.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Investment Adviser may, subject to the prior approval of the Manager and the Central Bank, appoint one or more sub-investment advisers from time to time to perform and/or exercise all or any of its functions, powers, discretions, duties and obligations under the Investment Advisory Agreement. Details of any such sub-investment advisers appointed will be provided to Shareholders on request and details of such sub-investment advisers will be disclosed in the periodic reports of the Company.

The Investment Adviser intends that while the Fund will not seek to replicate an index, the performance of the Fund will be measured against the U.S. LIBOR Market 3-Month Total Return Index (the "Index"). Any change in the use of this Index will be disclosed to Shareholders via the Accounts.

In the case of non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See "Share Currency Designation Risk" above.

Where a Class I2$, Class I2£ or Class I2€ Shareholder fails to subscribe at least U.S.$5 million, £5 million or €5 million, as relevant, within such time period, the Class I2$ Shares, Class I2£ Shares or Class I2€ Shares, as the case may be, held by such Shareholder may, at the discretion of the Directors, be converted without prior notice to the relevant Shareholder to Class M2$ Shares, Class A2£ or Class M2€ Shares, respectively. Investors are cautioned that such conversions, whether voluntary or involuntary, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

Without prejudice to the minimum subscription amounts set out above, investors may subscribe for the Shares of the Fund by adhering to a share accumulation plan which allows subscribers to spread out the investment over time by making a series of periodical payments.

Each Share Class will be subject to a minimum holding amount of U.S.$1,000 (or its foreign currency equivalent). Pursuant to the Articles, where a Shareholder holds a number of Shares which is less than this minimum holding, the Directors may redeem the Shares at their Net Asset Value per Share as at the Valuation Point immediately following the date of notification of such mandatory redemption to the relevant Shareholder.

In the case of faxed application forms or application forms submitted by electronic means, the original application form must be received promptly thereafter by the Administrator, the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders. Orders to subscribe for Shares received by the Administrator or the Company or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders after the Dealing Deadline for the Fund will, if accepted, be processed at the offering price determined on the next Dealing Day. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries /Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that orders placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Where applications are withdrawn any subscription monies will be returned to the applicant at its cost and without interest. The Company reserves the right to require that purchase orders for the Fund be received prior to the close of the NYSE on days when the bond market closes early. Subscription proceeds for the Fund must be paid by wire transfer to the account specified in the application form, or in accordance with the provisions described below, no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on the third Business Day after the receipt and acceptance of a subscription order (the "Payment Deadline").

Subscription monies which are not cleared by the Payment Deadline may, if accepted, result in an interest charge to the investor, which will be determined with reference to the daily interest charged to the Fund on the overdraft which arises due to such investor's subscription monies not being cleared by the Payment Deadline. Shareholders will not be entitled to any interest on subscription proceeds transferred to the account specified in the application form prior to the Payment Deadline. Failure to submit payment by the Payment Deadline may result in the order being cancelled. In such event, the sub-distributor as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank or the individual investor may be held liable for any loss to the Fund.

For an initial subscription of Shares, a signed original application form should be sent to the address specified in the application form.

Provided that the Company, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to receive orders, has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent faxed subscription requests or electronic communication for the investor's account may be processed without a requirement to submit original documentation. Similarly, provided that the Company has already received a duly completed application form by mail, subsequent applications may be made by fax, by electronic communication or by telephone - provided that in the case of telephone or electronic applications, the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone or electronic applications. Telephone applications can be made c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that applications received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn.

Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone applications being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone application may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who subscribe by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward the appropriate subscription monies to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. Shares allotted to any such defaulting investor will be cancelled. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Shareholders may also subscribe for Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication.

The exact amount of this sales charge may vary depending on the size of the purchase, the number of Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares in any Sub-Fund the investor may already own and due to rounding. Class A2$, Class A2€ and Class A2£ Shares of the Fund shall constitute Accumulation Classes.

HOW TO REDEEM SHARES

Shareholders may redeem their Shares in one of four ways - by mail, facsimile, by telephone or, in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shareholders may request the Company to redeem their Shares on and with effect from any Dealing Day at a price based on the relevant Net Asset Value per Share on such Dealing Day. Any amendments to a Shareholder's registration details or payment instructions will only be effected on receipt of original documentation.

In the case of non-U.S. Dollar Share Classes, a currency conversion will take place on redemptions at prevailing exchange rates. The costs of such conversion shall generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. See “Share Currency Designation Risk” above.

Redemption by Mail, Facsimile or Electronic Communication. Save where expressly provided herein or in the Prospectus, a signed original redemption request by mail or a signed faxed redemption request or an electronic redemption request must be received by the Company, c/o the Administrator, or any intermediary or agent of the Company appointed with limited power to accept redemption requests at the address, fax number or email address (as relevant), specified in the application form not later than the Dealing Deadline on the relevant Dealing Day. Redemption requests received by fax or by electronic communication will only be processed if the redemption proceeds are to be paid to the account of record. Requests received after the Dealing Deadline on a Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. All requests for redemption must be endorsed by the record owner(s) exactly as the Shares are registered. In addition, in some cases the Administrator may require the furnishing of additional documents such as where the Shares are registered in the name of a corporation, partnership or fiduciary. Investors will not be obliged to deal by electronic means.

Redemption by Telephone. Shares may be redeemed by telephone provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Telephonic redemptions can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to the Dealing Deadline, provided that redemption requests received by telephone after the Dealing Deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed on the next Dealing Day unless previously withdrawn. Investors will not be obliged to deal by telephone.

The proceeds of a telephone redemption may be wired only to the account of record. Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of redemption instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded.

Instructions received by telephone from dealers appointed from time to time by the Distributor will be processed upon receipt of the telephone instruction.

With respect to financial intermediaries, it is the responsibility of such intermediaries to ensure that redemption requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis. Redemption requests for Shares received by such financial intermediaries prior to the Dealing Deadline but received by the Administrator or the Company after the Dealing Deadline will be processed at the price determined on the next Dealing Day.

In times of active dealing in the Shares the volume of telephone redemptions being received by the Administrator may mean that delays are experienced in contacting the Administrator by telephone. In such times a telephone redemption may be temporarily difficult to implement. The Company shall notify the Shareholders in writing if the right to apply by telephone is withdrawn.

Investors who apply to redeem by telephone in accordance with the above procedures will be liable to the Company for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of the failure by such investors to forward written confirmation to the Company in accordance with the procedures set out above. The Redemption request will be cancelled and the Shareholder will continue to hold Shares in the Fund. The Distributor has agreed to reimburse the Company for the amount of any such loss in return for an assignment by the Company to the Distributor of its rights against the defaulting investor.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid within three (3) Business Days of, and will be paid no later than ten (10) Business Days after, the Dealing Deadline on which redemptions are effected by wire transfer to the account designated by the Shareholder in the redemption request form contained in this Prospectus.

Any redemption proceeds may, with the Shareholder's consent and at the discretion of the Manager, be paid by the transfer to such Shareholder of the assets of the Fund in specie, provided that the type of the assets to be transferred shall be determined by the Manager as it in its sole discretion deems equitable and not materially prejudicial to the interests of the remaining Shareholders and the allocation of assets has been approved by the Depositary.

If any Shareholder requests the redemption of Shares equal to 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day, the Manager may in its absolute discretion, distribute underlying investments rather than cash provided that: (a) asset allocation is subject to the approval of the Depositary; and (b) any such distribution shall not materially prejudice the interest of other Shareholders. In such circumstances, the relevant Shareholder will have the right to instruct the Manager to procure the sale of such underlying investments on their behalf in which case the Shareholder will receive the proceeds net of all fiscal duties and charges incurred in connection with the sale of such underlying investments.

If outstanding redemption requests from Shareholders of the Fund on any Dealing Day total in aggregate 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Fund on such Dealing Day, the Manager shall be entitled at its discretion to refuse to redeem such number of Shares of the Fund on that Dealing Day in respect of which redemption requests have been received in excess of 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund as the Manager shall determine in its absolute discretion. If the Manager refuses to redeem Shares due to redemption requests exceeding the 10% threshold, the requests for redemption received on that Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the Shares to which each redemption request relates which are not redeemed shall be treated as if they were redemption requests received on each subsequent Dealing Day, provided that the Manager shall not, in any event, be obliged to redeem more than 10% of the Net Asset Value of a particular Fund outstanding on any Dealing Day. A Shareholder may withdraw his redemption request by notice in writing to the Administrator if the Manager exercises its discretion to refuse to redeem any Shares to which the request relates.

Contingent Deferred Sales Charge (“CDSC”). Where an investor purchases Class C2$ Shares, the Distributor pays an initial dealer mark-up charge of 1.00% of the amount invested to the dealer. Class C2$ Shares are subject to a CDSC of 1.00%, payable by the investor to the Distributor, on certain redemptions made at the request of the Shareholder within one year of purchase. The CDSC is calculated based on the lower of the Net Asset Value at the time of purchase or the time of redemption. Shares acquired through the reinvestment of distributions are exempt. Provided that the financial intermediary supplies the Company with the necessary data, redemptions are made first from Shares in the account which are not subject to a CDSC.

In calculating a CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the Shares are deemed to have been acquired at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares and the CDSC schedule applicable to the exchanged Shares will apply to the acquired Shares.

Class C2$ Shares. Class C2$ Shares are subject to the following CDSC schedule:

Age of Shares Redeemed	CDSC %
Less than one year	1.0

The CDSC fees for Class C2$ Shares may be waived from time to time should the Manager and/or Distributor so determine.

For additional information concerning redemptions and restrictions thereon, please consult “Investing in Shares” in the Prospectus.

HOW TO EXCHANGE OR TRANSFER SHARES

Shareholders may, on any Dealing Day, exchange Shares in the Fund (whether an Accumulation Class or an Income Class) for Shares in the same Class category (meaning identified by the same Class letter – e.g. A, B, C, I or M) in any currency offered in that Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund. Although exchanges must be within the same Class category, they may be for any other Sub-Fund offering the relevant Class category, may be for Accumulation or Income Classes, where available, and may be for any currency offered by the relevant Class category within the desired Sub-Fund. In addition, where requested, exchanges of Shares of Class category A in the Fund for Shares in Class category M in the Fund or in any other Sub-Fund offering Shares in Class category M may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. In addition, any other exchanges requested by a Shareholder not falling within the preceding categories may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors. Notwithstanding the above, exchange of Class Z2$ Shares for Shares in the same Class category in the same or any other Sub-Fund may only be permitted in the sole discretion of the Directors.

An exchange request will be treated as an order to redeem the Shares held prior to the exchange and a purchase order for new Shares with the redemption proceeds. The original Shares will be redeemed at their Net Asset Value per Share and the new Shares will be issued at the Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Class of the applicable Sub-Fund. Exchange requests for Shares must be made through the Administrator. It is the responsibility of financial intermediaries/Distributors, as appointed in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, to ensure that exchange requests placed through them are transmitted onwards to the Administrator on a timely basis.

Shares may be exchanged by telephone by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege. Such exchanges can be effected by calling the Company, c/o the Administrator, at +353 1 622 1372 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. (Dublin time) to 4:00 p.m. (New York time). Neither the Directors, the Manager, the Administrator, the Depositary nor the Distributor will be responsible for the authenticity of exchange instructions received by telephone, provided that reasonable procedures to confirm that instructions communicated by telephone are genuine have been followed. Telephone instructions will be tape recorded. In times of drastic economic or market changes, technological failure or power interruption, a telephone redemption may be difficult to implement and the right to redeem by telephone may be suspended.

Shareholders may also exchange Shares in certain circumstances, and where agreed in advance by the Manager and the Administrator, by electronic communication. Shares may be exchanged by electronic communication by an investor provided the investor has not disclaimed in writing the use of the privilege.

Certain intermediaries or dealers may charge a conversion fee on the value of Shares to be converted and Shareholders should contact their intermediaries or dealers for details of any such fee prior to conversion. Any such fee will be paid by the Shareholder to the intermediary or dealer and will not be received by the Company or the Manager. No exchange fee will be charged by the Company or the Manager.

No CDSC is imposed on exchanges. For purposes of calculating the CDSC upon the redemption of Shares acquired in an exchange, the CDSC schedule applicable to the Shares at the time of purchase will apply and the purchase of Shares acquired in one or more exchanges is deemed to have occurred at the time of the original purchase of the exchanged Shares. For the CDSC schedule applicable to the Class C2$ Shares see "How to Redeem Shares" above.

Transfers of Shares must be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form approved by the Directors from time to time. Every form of transfer must state the full name and address of each of the transferor and the transferee and must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor. The Directors (or the Administrator on their behalf) may decline to register any transfer of Shares unless the transfer form is deposited at the registered office of the Company, or such other place as the Directors may reasonably require, accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Shareholders. A transfer of Shares will not be registered unless the transferee, if not an existing Shareholder, has completed a purchase order to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Exchanges, transfers and conversions, as well as outright sales, may be taxable events in certain jurisdictions, and Shareholders and potential investors are advised to consult their professional advisers concerning possible taxation or other consequences of subscribing, holding, selling, converting or otherwise disposing of Shares in the Fund and the other Sub-Funds.

For additional information concerning exchanges and restrictions thereon, please consult "Investing in Shares" in the Prospectus.

Shares are freely transferable and may not be subject to any transfer restrictions or compulsory redemption save where the holding of such Shares may result in regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, or where such transfer would result in a Shareholder falling below the specified minimum holding. To avoid such regulatory, pecuniary, legal, taxation or material administrative disadvantage for the Company or its Shareholders as a whole, transfers of Shares are subject to the prior approval of the Directors or the Administrator on their behalf. A proposed transferee may be required to provide such representations, warranties or documentation as the Directors may require in relation to the above matters. In the event that the Company does not receive a Declaration in respect of a transferee, the Company will be required to deduct appropriate tax in respect of any payment to the transferee or any sale, transfer, cancellation, redemption, repurchase or other payment in respect of the Shares as described in the section headed "Taxation" in the Prospectus.

The Manager shall pay the Investment Adviser a fee as agreed between the Manager and the Investment Adviser. Such fee shall accrue daily and be paid quarterly in arrears out of the Manager's fee and shall not be paid directly by the Company. The Investment Adviser may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, use part or all of the fees it receives to remunerate certain financial intermediaries. In addition, the Investment Adviser may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, rebate any or all of its fees to some or all Shareholders.

THE DISTRIBUTOR

The Manager may pay the Distributor a fee from its assets to compensate the Distributor for services provided and expenses incurred in connection with the distribution and promotion of the fund ("Distributor Fee"). The Distributor may, in its discretion, pay all or a portion of its Distributor Fee to dealers that are appointed by the Distributor to distribute Shares to their clients. Such dealers may act as intermediaries between the investors and the Company. Any Distributor Fee will accrue daily, and will be paid quarterly in arrears, and will not be paid directly by the Company.

OPERATING EXPENSES

The effect of this accounting treatment is not material to the financial statements. If the effect of the accounting treatment becomes material in the future and there is a requirement to write off the amortised balance of establishment and organisational costs, the Directors will reconsider this policy. Certain other costs and expenses incurred in the operation of the Fund will also be borne out of the assets of the Fund, including without limitation, registration fees and other expenses relating to regulatory, supervisory or fiscal authorities in various jurisdictions, management, investment management, administrative and custodial services; client service fees; writing, typesetting and printing the Prospectus, sales, literature and other documents for investors; taxes and commissions; issuing, purchasing, repurchasing and redeeming Shares; transfer agents, dividend dispersing agents, Shareholder servicing agents and registrars; printing, mailing, auditing, accounting and legal expenses; reports to Shareholders and governmental agencies; meetings of Shareholders and proxy solicitations therefor (if any); insurance premiums; association and membership dues; and such non-recurring and extraordinary items as may arise.

Expenses of the Company will be allocated to the Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds to which, in the opinion of the Directors, they relate. If an expense is not readily attributable to any particular Sub-Fund, the Directors shall have discretion to determine, in a fair and equitable manner, the basis on which the expense shall be allocated between the Sub-Funds. In such cases the expense will normally be allocated to all Sub-Funds pro rata to the value of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager and/or the Investment Adviser may, each at its sole discretion, contribute directly towards the expenses attributable to the establishment and/or operation of the Company or any particular Sub-Fund and/or the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, each at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the management fees due to it in respect of any particular payment period.

The Distributor may, at its discretion, contribute from its own assets directly towards the expenses attributable to the marketing, distribution and/or sale of Shares and may, from time to time, at its sole discretion, waive any or all of the fees payable to it as Distributor in respect of any particular payment period.

The Manager and the Investment Adviser have currently agreed to subsidize the expenses of the Fund so that the total expense ratio in respect of the Class A2$, Class A2€ and the Class A2£ Shares will not exceed 2.05% of their respective Net Asset Value annually. The total expense ratio of the Class C2$ Shares will not exceed 2.30% of the respective Net Asset Value annually. The total expense ratio of the Class M2$ and the Class M2€ Shares will not exceed 1.30% of their respective Net Asset Value annually. The total expense ratio of the Class I1¥, Class I2$, Class I2€, Class I2£ and Class I2¥ Shares will not exceed 1.15% of their respective Net Asset Value annually. The total expense ratio of the Class Z2$ Shares will not exceed 0.35% of the respective Net Asset Value annually.

The expense reimbursement relates to ordinary expenses only and does not include expenses such as brokerage commissions, interest charges, taxes related to investments, or litigation expenses. Amounts reimbursed may be recouped by the Manager or Investment Adviser to the extent actual expenses are less than the expense cap in any financial year. This subsidy may be discontinued at any time at the discretion of the Manager/Investment Adviser, as relevant, on notice to the Shareholders.

While the costs of hedging for the benefit of hedged Classes of the Fund are solely allocated to the relevant Share Class, a currency conversion will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and exchanges at prevailing exchange rates and the costs of the conversion will generally be borne by the Fund as a whole. However, the Manager reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, in appropriate circumstances to require the relevant applicant or Shareholder to bear the cost of the conversion.

Investors should refer to the “Fees and Expenses” section of the Prospectus for Directors’ fees and any other fees that may be payable and which are not specifically mentioned here.
