Tracking Error

Each of the Funds listed in the table employs a “passive” investment strategy designed to replicate the performance of its benchmark index. Some of the Funds attempt to fully replicate the index by holding all of the component securities, in approximately the same proportion as their weighting in the index. Other Funds instead use an index sampling process, holding a representative sample of securities which approximates the full index in terms of key risk factors and other characteristics.

Tracking error measures the volatility of the return difference between the Fund and the index. It is calculated as the standard deviation of the tracking difference between the Fund and the index (gross of fees for the trailing 36-month period, or since the Fund’s inception if it does not have 36 months of performance history). Realised tracking error may vary from the anticipated tracking error, depending on a range of circumstances. These include transaction costs, securities lending income and withholding tax differences. The anticipated tracking error and realised tracking error are not expected to vary significantly under normal circumstances.

The Realised Tracking Error excludes adjustments for swing pricing.

For the year ended 30 June 2024, the following tracking error disclosed for each Fund is in the same currency as the Fund's base currency:

Report From the Directors

The Board of Directors (the “Directors” or the “Board”) submits its Annual Report together with the audited financial statements for Vanguard Funds plc (the “Company”) for the year ended 30 June 2024.

Directors’ Responsibilities Statement

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with Irish law and regulations.

Irish company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements giving a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the profit or loss of the Company for each year. Under that law, the Directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland.

In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- Assess the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern; and
- State whether the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, identify those standards and note the effect and the reasons for any material departure from those standards.

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2014, the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) (the “UCITS Regulations”) and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 (the “CBI UCITS Regulations”). open to them to safeguard the assets of the Company. In this regard the Directors have entrusted the assets of the Company to a Depositary for safe-keeping. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities. The Directors are also responsible for preparing a directors’ report that complies with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014.

The financial statements are published at www.ie.vanguard/home. The work carried out by the auditors does not involve consideration of the maintenance and integrity of the website and accordingly, the auditors accept no responsibility for any changes that have occurred to the financial statements presented on the website. Legislation in the Republic of Ireland governing the presentation and dissemination of the financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Statement of Relevant Audit Information

The Directors in office at the date of this report have each confirmed that:

- As far as they are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Company’s auditor is unaware; and
- They have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as a director in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Company’s auditor is aware of that information.

Directors’ Compliance Statement

It is the policy of the Company to comply with its relevant obligations (as defined in the Companies Act 2014, as amended). As required by Section 225(2) of the Companies Act 2014, as amended, the Directors acknowledge that they are responsible for securing the Company’s compliance with the relevant obligations. The Directors have drawn up a compliance policy statement as defined in Section 225(3)(a) of the Companies Act 2014, as amended, and a compliance policy which refers to the arrangements and structures that are in place and which are, in the Directors’ opinion, designed to secure material compliance with the Company’s relevant obligations. In discharging their responsibilities under Section 225, the Directors relied upon, among other things, the services provided, advice and/or representations from third parties whom the Directors believe have the requisite knowledge and experience in order to secure material compliance with the Company's relevant obligations.

Accounting Records

The measures taken by the Directors to secure compliance with the Company's obligations to keep adequate accounting records are the use of appropriate systems and procedures, appointment of an administrator and employment of competent persons. The accounting records are kept at the Brown Brothers Harriman Fund Administration Services (Ireland) Limited (the "Administrator"), 30 Herbert Street, Dublin 2, Ireland.

Corporate Governance Statement

The Company is subject to and complies with Irish statute comprising the Companies Act 2014, as amended, and with the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations, 2011 (as amended), the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 and the Listing Rules of the Euronext Dublin. Financial Reporting Process Description of Main Features

The Board is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control and risk management systems of the Company in relation to the financial reporting process. Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve the Company's financial reporting objectives and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board has established processes regarding internal control and risk management systems to ensure its effective oversight of the financial reporting process. These include appointing the Administrator to maintain the books and records. The Administrator is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland and must comply with the rules imposed by the Central Bank of Ireland. The Administrator is also contractually obliged to prepare for review and approval by the Board the annual report, including financial statements intended to give a true and fair view, and the half-yearly financial statements. The Board evaluates and discusses significant accounting and reporting issues as the need arises. From time to time the Board also examines and evaluates the Administrator's financial accounting and reporting routines and monitors and evaluates the external auditors' performance, qualifications and independence.

The Administrator has operating responsibility in respect of its internal controls in relation to the financial reporting process and the Administrator's report to the Board.

Risk Assessment

The Board is responsible for assessing the risk of irregularities whether caused by fraud or error in financial reporting and ensuring the processes are in place for the timely identification of internal and external matters with a potential effect on financial reporting. The Board has also put in place processes to identify changes in accounting rules and recommendations and to ensure that these changes are accurately reflected in the Company's financial statements.

Control Activities

The Administrator maintains control structures to manage the risks over financial reporting. These control structures include appropriate division of responsibilities and specific control activities aimed at detecting or preventing the risk of significant deficiencies in financial reporting for every significant account in the financial statements and the related notes in the Company's annual report. Examples of control activities exercised by the Administrator include analytical review procedures, reconciliations and automated controls over IT systems.

Information and Communication

The Company's policies and the Board's instructions with relevance for financial reporting are updated and communicated via appropriate channels, such as e-mail, correspondence and meetings, to ensure that all financial reporting information requirements are met in a complete and accurate manner.

Monitoring

The Board receives regular presentations and reviews reports from the Depositary, Manager, Investment Manager and Administrator. The Board also has an annual process to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to consider and address the shortcomings identified and measures recommended by the independent auditors.

Capital Structure

No person has a significant direct or indirect holding of securities in the Company. No person has any special rights of control over the Company's share capital. There are no restrictions on voting rights.

Powers of the Directors

With regard to the appointment and replacement of Directors, the Company is governed by its Articles of Association, Irish statute comprising the Companies Act 2014, as amended, the UCITS Regulations, the CBI UCITS Regulations and the Listing Rules of the Euronext Dublin as applicable to investment funds. The Articles of Association themselves may be amended by special resolution of the shareholders.

The Board is responsible for managing the business affairs of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Directors may delegate certain functions to the Administrator and other parties, subject to supervision and direction by the Directors. The Directors have delegated the day-to-day administration of the Company to the Administrator and the investment management and distribution functions to the Investment Manager. Consequently none of the Directors is an executive Director.

The Articles of Association provide that the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property or any part thereof and may delegate these powers to the Investment Manager.

The Directors may, at any time and from time to time, temporarily suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value of a particular Fund and the issue, repurchase and conversion of Shares in any of the following instances:

- (a) during any period (other than ordinary holiday or customary weekend closings) when any market or Recognised Exchange is closed and which is the main market or Recognised Exchange for a significant part of investments of the relevant Fund, or in which trading thereon is restricted or suspended;
- (b) during any period when an emergency exists as a result of which disposal by the Company of investments which constitute a substantial portion of the assets of the relevant class is not practically feasible; or it is not possible to transfer monies involved in the acquisition or disposition of investments at normal rates of exchange; or it is not practically feasible for the Directors or their delegate fairly to determine the value of any assets of the relevant Fund;
- (c) during any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of any of the investments of the relevant Fund or of current prices on any market or Recognised Exchange;

(d) when for any reason the prices of any investments of the relevant class cannot be reasonably, promptly or accurately ascertained;

(e) during any period when remittance of monies which will or may be involved in the realisation of or in the payment for any of the investments of the relevant class cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be carried out at normal rates of exchange;

(f) for the purpose of winding up the Company or terminating any Fund; or

(g) if any other reason makes it impossible or impracticable to determine the value of a substantial portion of the investments of the Company or any Fund.

Notice of any such suspension and notice of the termination of any such suspension shall be given immediately to the Central Bank of Ireland and to the relevant stock exchanges and will be communicated to applicants for shares or to shareholders requesting the repurchase of shares at the time of application or filing of the written request for such repurchase. Where possible, all reasonable steps will be taken to bring any period of suspension to an end as soon as possible.

Registered shares may be transferred by instrument in writing. The instrument of transfer must be accompanied by a certificate from the transferee that it is not acquiring such shares on behalf of or for the benefit of a US Person. In the case of the death of one or joint shareholders, the survivor or survivors will be the only person or persons recognised by the Administrator as having any title to or interest in the shares registered in the names of such joint shareholders. The Directors may decline to register a transfer if they are aware or reasonably believe the transfer would result in the beneficial ownership of shares by a person in contravention of any restrictions on ownership imposed by the Directors or might result in legal, regulatory, pecuniary, taxation or material administrative disadvantage to the relevant Fund or shareholders generally.

The Directors have the power, under the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, to determine the time and place at which payment for shares must be made. Accordingly, the Directors in exceptional circumstances have discretion to accept subscription monies after the dealing time specified in the Prospectus. In exercising this discretion, the Directors will take into account legal considerations, timing considerations and other relevant considerations.

Review of Business and Future Development

There was no change in the nature of the Company's business during the financial year. The performance review encompasses tracking error and tracking difference disclosures which are key metrics as to how well the Fund has been managed against their benchmark indices. There is a detailed review in the Performance Summary of factors contributing to the Funds' performance. The Directors do not anticipate any change in the structure or investment objectives of the Company.

Shareholder Meetings

The Annual General Meeting of the Company will usually be held in Dublin, normally during the month of December or such other date as the Directors may determine. Notice convening the Annual General Meeting in each year at which the audited financial statements of the Company will be presented (together with the Directors' and Auditors' reports of the Company) will be sent to shareholders at their registered addresses not less than 21 clear days before the date fixed for the meeting. Other general meetings may be convened from time to time by the Directors in such manner as provided by Irish law.

Each of the shares entitles the holder to attend and vote at meetings of the Company and of the Fund represented by those shares. Matters may be determined by a meeting of Shareholders on a show of hands unless a poll is requested by any shareholder having the right to vote at the meeting or unless the chairman of the meeting requests a poll. Each shareholder has one vote on a show of hands. Each share gives the holder one vote in relation to any matters relating to the Company which are submitted to shareholders for a vote by poll. No class of shares confers on the holder thereof any preferential or preemptive rights or any rights to participate in the profits and dividends of any other share class or any voting rights in relation to matters relating solely to any other share class.

Any resolution to alter the class rights of the shares requires the approval of three-quarters of the holders of the shares represented or present and voting at a general meeting of the class. The quorum for any general meeting of the class convened to consider any alteration to the class rights of the shares shall be such number of shareholders being two or more persons whose holdings comprise one-third of the shares.

Each of the shares other than Subscriber shares entitles the shareholder to participate equally on a pro-rata basis in the dividends and net assets of the Fund in respect of which the shares have been issued, save in the case of dividends declared prior to becoming a shareholder.

Management shares entitle the shareholders holding them to attend and vote at all general meetings of the Company but do not entitle the holders to participate in the dividends or net assets of the Company.

Composition and Operation of Board and Committees

There are eight Directors currently, four of whom are independent of the Investment Manager. The Directors may be removed by the shareholders by ordinary resolution in accordance with the procedures established under the Irish Companies Act 2014, as amended. The Board meets at least quarterly.

An audit committee has been formed as a sub-committee of the Board. There are no other sub-committees of the Board.

Diversity Report

With respect to diversity, the Company has no employees and the only individuals engaged directly by it are its Directors. When there is a vacancy on the Board, in line with the Company's Diversity Policy, the objective is to ensure that the Board is diversified with an appropriate mix as regards age, gender and educational/professional backgrounds, while achieving compliance by all individuals with regulatory requirements and an overall composition with the requisite experience and skills.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains.
- In this environment, Vanguard LifeStrategy 80% Equity UCITS ETF returned 17.11% for both share classes for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, reflecting its allocations to global stocks and bonds.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Developed Europe All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in developed markets in Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 15.24% for the fiscal year.
- Returns for the benchmark index were positive in all markets except Portugal and France. The United Kingdom, Denmark and the Netherlands contributed most.
- By sector, financials, health care and technology contributed the most to the index's results. The top detractor was consumer staples; energy and utilities saw minor declines.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Emerging Markets All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Emerging Markets All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Emerging All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in emerging markets around the world.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 12.24% for the 12-month period.
- The benchmark, the FTSE Emerging All Cap Choice Index Net in USD, is constructed from the FTSE Global All Cap Index. The parent index is screened for certain environmental, social and corporate governance criteria by the sponsor of the index, which is independent of Vanguard.
- Top-performing markets included Taiwan and India. Among sectors, technology, financials and health care were among the top contributors to performance.
- The ETF's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period owing in part to the treatment of capital gains in some markets.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Global All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG Global All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Global All Cap Choice Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in markets around the world.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 19.59% for the period. The benchmark, the FTSE Global All Cap Choice Index, is constructed from the FTSE Global All Cap Index. The parent index is screened for certain environmental, social and corporate governance criteria by the sponsor of the index, which is independent of Vanguard.
- Strong overall performance by US stocks, the largest market in the index, contributed most to returns. Taiwan, Japan and India were also strong contributors to returns. China was the biggest detractor.
- The largest sector, technology, had outsized performance and the biggest contribution to returns. Financials, consumer discretionary and health care also were strong contributors. Energy and consumer staples were the sole detractors.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period up 18.81%, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. By region, the US outperformed, thanks in part to strong returns from tech stocks. Outside the US, emerging markets fared a little better than Europe and Asia-Pacific.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 23.75% for the 12 months ended 30 June, largely because of the performance of US stocks, which made up more than 95% of the index.
- Among industry sectors, 10 of 11 posted positive results. Technology – which had the largest weighting and best returns in the index – contributed most, followed by financial and consumer discretionary stocks.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE 100 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE 100 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE 100 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of the UK market's most highly capitalised blue-chip companies.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index, which represents the UK market's largest companies, returned 12.76% for the fiscal year ended 30 June.
- Nine of 11 sectors in the benchmark posted positive returns for the 12 months. Financials, industrials and energy contributed most to returns.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in British pounds.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE 250 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE 250 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE 250 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of mid-capitalised companies of the United Kingdom.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 13.81% for the 12 months ended 30 June.
- The index, which represents mid-capitalisation companies in the UK market, saw positive returns in nine of its 11 sectors. Financials, industrials and real estate contributed most to returns.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in British pounds.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE All-World UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE All-World UCITS ETF seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the FTSE All-World Index, a market capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in developed and emerging markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark returned 19.17% for the fiscal year.
- Most of the countries represented in the index gained ground over the period. The United States, which accounted for more than half the index's holdings, and Japan, the next largest market, helped performance the most.
- Ten of the index's 11 sectors posted positive returns. Technology, financials, industrials and consumer discretionary helped performance the most. Consumer staples was the only sector that detracted from results.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE All-World High Dividend Yield UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE All-World High Dividend Yield Index, a free-float-adjusted market capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of companies, excluding real estate trusts, in developed and emerging markets that pay dividends that are generally higher than average.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 13.07% for the fiscal year.
- The United States, which represents more than 40% of the index, contributed about half of the index's return. Japan, the United Kingdom, Taiwan and Australia were the other top contributors. Hong Kong, Indonesia and Thailand were the biggest detractors.
- Eight of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Financials, technology, energy and industrials contributed most. Health care and consumer staples were the top detractors.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 7.41% for the period.
- Returns were positive in all markets except Hong Kong. The healthiest gains were seen in Australia and South Korea. By sector, financials, technology and telecommunications contributed the most. The top detractors were basic materials, industrials and energy.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe Index, a widely recognised benchmark of stock market performance of European developed countries that is composed of the stocks of large- and mid-capitalised companies in developed Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 13.81% for the fiscal year. The fund's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.
- Nearly every market represented in the index had positive returns, with the United Kingdom, Denmark, Germany and the Netherlands contributing the most. Portugal slightly detracted.
- Nine of the index's 11 industry sectors recorded a positive performance. Financials, industrials, health care and technology contributed most to results. Consumer staples and utilities detracted.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe ex UK UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed Europe ex UK UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe ex UK Index, a widely recognised market capitalisation-weighted index of stock market performance of European developed countries, excluding the United Kingdom, that is composed of the stocks of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in that region.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 13.55% for the fiscal year.
- Nearly every market represented in the index turned in a positive performance. Denmark, Germany and the Netherlands were among the strongest contributors. Portugal was a minor detractor.
- Nine of the index's 11 sectors contributed to performance, with financials, technology and health care contributing the most. Consumer staples was the top detractor.
- The fund's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Developed World UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Developed World UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Index, a widely recognised benchmark of large- and mid-capitalisation companies in global developed markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 19.80% for the fiscal year.
- The United States, which represents more than two-thirds of the index, contributed most to the index's results. Japan, France, the United Kingdom and Denmark were the other top contributors. Hong Kong slightly detracted.
- Ten of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns; consumer staples was the sole detractor. Technology contributed the most to the index's results, followed by financials, consumer discretionary and industrials.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 13.46% for the fiscal year.
- Chinese stocks, which made up nearly a third of the index on average, detracted from performance. India and Taiwan contributed the most to results.
- Seven of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Technology, financials and energy helped performance the most. Consumer staples, health care, real estate and consumer discretionary detracted.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard FTSE Japan UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard FTSE Japan UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Japan Index, a widely recognised benchmark of large- and mid-capitalised companies in Japan.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 12.26% for the fiscal year.
- Ten of the benchmark's 11 industry sectors posted positive results. Financials, industrials, technology and consumer discretionary contributed the most. Health care was the sole detractor.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Investment Objective

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period up 18.81%, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. By region, the US outperformed, thanks in part to strong returns from tech stocks. Outside the US, emerging markets fared a little better than Europe and Asia-Pacific.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 23.47% for the 12 months, largely because of the positive performance of US stocks, which made up more than 95% of the index.
- All 11 industry sectors posted positive results. Technology – which had by far the largest weighting and the best returns in the index – led the way, followed by financials and consumer discretionary.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard Germany All Cap UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard Germany All Cap UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE Germany All Cap Index, a free-float-adjusted market capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks of companies located in Germany, and is derived from the broader FTSE Global Equity Index Series.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period with double-digit gains. In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 11.50% for the period.
- Seven of the index's 11 sectors produced positive returns. Technology, financials and industrials contributed most to returns. Health care detracted the most.
- The fund's return differed from that of its benchmark during the period owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard S&P 500 UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard S&P 500 UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Standard & Poor's 500 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of US stock market performance that is composed of the stocks of large US companies.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Global bonds gave back some of their gains in 2024 as progress on inflation slowed, delaying expectations that central banks would cut rates. However, stocks kept rising, with a number of major market indices reaching record highs. Labour markets and consumer spending remained on solid footing, and the US economy continued to perform better than expected.
- Global stocks finished the period up 18.81%, as measured by the FTSE Global All Cap Index in US dollars. By region, the US outperformed thanks in part to strong returns from tech stocks. Outside the US, emerging markets fared a little better than Europe and Asia-Pacific.
- In this environment, the ETF's benchmark index returned 24.00% for the 12 months.
- All of the index's 11 industry sectors contributed positively to results, led by information technology, which had by far the largest weighting. Communication services and financials were also leading contributors. Real estate and utilities, while positive, trailed the other sectors.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

Returns are based on NAV with income reinvested.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

¹ The return of the S&P 500 UCITS ETF is adjusted by 15% for the withholding tax on dividends paid by US securities. The return of the S&P 500 Index is adjusted by 30%.

² Since-inception returns: USD Accumulating, 14 May 2019.

Vanguard ESG EUR Corporate Bond UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG EUR Corporate Bond UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Bloomberg MSCI EUR Corporate Liquid Bond Screened Index, a EUR denominated universe of investment grade corporate fixed-rate bonds.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Although global stocks continued to rally into 2024, bonds gave back some ground. The Bank of Canada and the European Central Bank were among the central banks that began cutting rates towards the end of the period, but others including the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England waited for inflation to fall closer to their 2% target.
- Global bonds finished the period in positive territory.
- The ETF's benchmark index returned 6.44% for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024.
- Among the largest constituents in the index, Sweden, Switzerland, the Netherlands and Italy outperformed. Among the laggards were the United States and France.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder returned more than their higher-rated counterparts. By maturity, results were mixed.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Although global stocks continued to rally into 2024, bonds gave back some ground. The Bank of Canada and the European Central Bank were among the central banks that began cutting rates towards the end of the period, but others including the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England waited for inflation to fall closer to their 2% target.
- Global bonds returned 0.93% for the period, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index in US dollars.
- The ETF's benchmark index returned 6.31% for the 12 months.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder returned more than their higher-rated counterparts. By maturity, shorter-dated bonds performed best.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG USD Corporate Bond UCITS ETF

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

Vanguard ESG USD Corporate Bond UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the Bloomberg MSCI USD Corporate Float-Adjusted Liquid Bond Screened Index, a USD denominated universe of investment grade corporate fixed-rate bonds.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- Global financial markets posted gains for the 12 months ended 30 June 2024, with stocks registering especially strong returns.
- Early in the period, many central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England, ended a streak of hiking short-term interest rates. Progress on inflation and the prospect that rates may have peaked helped buoy financial markets, with bonds posting strong gains in November and December.
- Although global stocks continued to rally into 2024, bonds gave back some ground. The Bank of Canada and the European Central Bank were among the central banks that began cutting rates towards the end of the period, but others including the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England waited for inflation to fall closer to their 2% target.
- Global bonds returned 0.93% for the period, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index in US dollars.
- The ETF's benchmark index returned 4.67% for the 12 months.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder returned more than their higher-rated counterparts. By maturity, shorter-dated bonds performed best.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

Returns are based on NAV with income reinvested.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.
