Market Review (unaudited)

Overview

Global equities, as measured by the MSCI World Index, rose by 23.7% in sterling and 24.4% in US dollar terms during the reporting year, as inflation cooled and major central banks approached the end of their monetary tightening campaigns. An end-of-year rally, underpinned by growing expectations that policy makers would cut interest rates in 2024, and strong interest in artificial intelligence (“AI”) also boosted markets. Bouts of uncertainty about the direction of monetary policy, China’s underwhelming recovery from COVID-19 lockdowns and potential contagion from a US regional banking crisis in the spring exerted downward pressure on markets during 2023. Government bonds performed weakly for most of the year on expectations that interest rates would stay higher for longer. However, they rallied in November and December on the increased likelihood that borrowing conditions would ease in 2024, which also dragged down the US dollar against a basket of currencies. Oil prices fell due to uncertainty about the demand outlook.

UK

The FTSE All Share Index gained 7.9% in sterling terms as pricing pressures eased and major central banks turned less hawkish. The FTSE 100 Index hit a record high in February, although the market generally trended downwards thereafter as annual inflation proved ‘stickier’ than expected, before equities rallied towards the end of 2023. The Bank of England increased its benchmark interest rate from 3.5% to 5.25% during the year, although it kept the rates on hold from September. GDP contracted by 0.1% over the third quarter, following no growth over the previous quarter, heightening anxiety about a possible recession. More positively, a data revision at the end of September showed that the economy had recovered more strongly than previously thought from the COVID-19 pandemic. Sterling strengthened against the US dollar – it reached a 15-month high in mid-July – largely due to the US currency’s weakness.

Europe

The FTSE Europe ex UK Index increased by 15.7% in sterling and 17.7% in euro terms as inflation cooled, markets predicted that monetary policy makers would turn dovish and the region avoided a winter energy shortage. Fears about a mini-banking crisis in March hit sentiment, as did worries about China’s recovery, conflict in the Middle East and tighter-for-longer monetary policy. The European Central Bank (“ECB”) announced a series of rate hikes, which helped to bring down eurozone annual inflation from 8.6% in January to a two-year low of 2.4% in November, although it climbed back to 2.9% in December. In September, the ECB raised its deposit rate by 25 basis points to an all-time high of 4.0%, where it remained for the rest of the year. The eurozone economy was weak and shrank – unexpectedly – by 0.1% over the third quarter, following just 0.1% growth over the previous quarter. The euro declined against sterling and strengthened against the US dollar during the year.

US

The S&P 500 Index strengthened by 19.2% in sterling and 26.3% in US dollar terms, with the benchmark nearing a record high in December, driven by optimism about slowing inflation and the prospect of loosening borrowing conditions. The collapse of three US regional lenders, uncertainty about US debt ceiling negotiations, coupled with the consequent threat of a government shutdown, and worries about higher-for-longer interest rates caused significant volatility during the year. The annual inflation rate cooled from 6.4% in January to 3.1% in November, putting it within reach of the US Federal Reserve’s (“Fed”) 2% target. The Fed, which raised interest rates from 4.5% to a 22-year high of 5.5% in 2023, announced a number of ‘hawkish pauses’ from the middle of the year as it maintained a cautious stance because of the economy’s resilience. However, its tone turned more dovish in December as it indicated that it could begin to loosen monetary policy sometime in 2024. The economy expanded by an annualised 4.9% in the third quarter, up from 2.1% growth in the previous quarter. The US dollar weakened against a basket of currencies, with the prospect of looser monetary policy pulling down the US currency to a five-month low in December.

Japan

The TOPIX advanced 13.3% in sterling and 28.3% in yen terms as it benefited from a weak yen, which boosted exporters, interest from foreign investors and corporate governance reforms. The benchmark Nikkei 225 Index hit a 33-year high late in the year, helped by the improved global mood and as the Tokyo Stock Exchange pushed for improvements in corporate governance. In November, the government announced a US$113bn stimulus package to boost the economy. The Bank of Japan (“BoJ”) maintained its highly accommodative monetary policy stance, despite persistent speculation it was about to change course after making minor adjustments to its yield curve controls. The annual core inflation rate, which excludes fresh food prices, moderated to 2.5% in November from 4.2% in January. The economy shrank by an annualised 2.9% in the third quarter, which was worse than expected and followed second-quarter growth of 3.6%, highlighting the challenges facing the government and monetary authorities. The yen weakened against the US dollar, hitting its lowest level in about a year in November, largely due to the BoJ’s continued monetary stimulus, before it recovered somewhat in December.

Asia

The MSCI AC Asia Pacific ex Japan Index was up by 1.6% in sterling and 7.9% in US dollar terms. China’s economic reopening initially lifted the mood across the region. However, signs that the recovery was stalling unsettled investors, before the region joined the end-of-year global rally. Chinese equities fell heavily as the country’s economic recovery remained shaky, stimulus measures fell short of expectations, geopolitical tensions continued to simmer, consumer prices turned deflationary and anxiety about the debt-laden property sector persisted. South Korean and Taiwanese equities rallied – the latter market was particularly strong – as they benefited from gains in the key technology sector. Australian shares rose, with the benchmark S&P/ASX 200 Index achieving its best monthly performance in more than three years in December. The county's economy continued to expand while inflation eased.

Index returns are sourced from Refinitiv Datastream and are presented in local currency total return terms unless otherwise stated. Past performance is not a guide to future performance.

Emerging markets

The MSCI Emerging Markets Index was higher by 4.0% in sterling and 10.3% in US dollar terms as sentiment improved towards the end of 2023 while China's uncertain recovery limited the gains. Indian shares advanced as continued economic growth and foreign investor interest helped the benchmark Nifty 50 and S&P BSE Sensex indices hit all-time highs. Relatively robust economic growth and interest rate cuts boosted sentiment in Brazil, where the benchmark Bovespa Index also hit record levels. Argentina's market surged on investor hopes that Javier Milei – who won November's presidential election – would revitalise growth by pursuing policies of economic liberalisation, which outweighed concerns about soaring inflation. South African stocks dropped in sterling terms but rose modestly in US dollar terms, with the rand weakening against both currencies. Continued power cuts caused the country's economy to shrink in the third quarter. Turkey's market fell in sterling and US dollar terms, with the lira hitting record lows against the US currency. The country's central bank announced a series of large interest rate rises to combat rampant inflation, signalling its return to monetary policy orthodoxy.

Fixed income and commodities

Within fixed income, the JPM Global Government Bond Index returned -1.7% in sterling and 4.1% in US dollar terms. Core government bond markets – including the US, UK, Germany and Japan – were mixed. The yield on US benchmark 10-year Treasuries was little changed overall, having hit a 16-year high in October on worries that interest rates would stay higher for longer, before falling precipitously (prices rose sharply, reflecting their inverse relationship) on expectations that the Fed would loosen monetary policy in 2024. The yield on 10-year UK gilts was also broadly unchanged, while the yield on 10-year German bunds fell over the year. The equivalent yield on 10-year Japanese government bonds increased – reaching a 10-year high in late October – as investors predicted the BoJ would, ultimately, change policy. Corporate bonds outperformed government bonds, taking their cue more from equity markets as they joined the end-of-year rally.

In commodity markets, oil prices fell as uncertainty about demand outweighed worries about tightening supply. US crude benchmark West Texas Intermediate, which hit a 2023 high above US$90 per barrel in September, ended the year down by about 10%. Spot gold prices rose strongly to hit an all-time high at year end. Copper prices were slightly higher, having declined over much of 2023 due to disappointment about China's recovery, before the heightened possibility of loosening monetary policy and a weakening US dollar helped the market to rebound.

Financial Reporting Process – Description of Main Features

The Board is ultimately responsible for overseeing the establishment and maintenance of adequate internal control and risk management systems of the Company in relation to the financial reporting process. The Company has no employees and has delegated all functions, including the preparation of the financial statements, to JHIESA which has in turn delegated responsibility for certain functions to other parties as outlined herein. The Manager has appointed J.P Morgan Administration Services (Ireland) Limited (the “Administrator”) as the Company’s administrator. The Administrator has functional responsibility for the preparation of the Company’s interim and annual financial statements and the maintenance of its accounting records. On appointing the Administrator, the Board and the Manager noted that it was regulated by the Central Bank and in the Board’s and the Manager’s opinion, had significant experience as an administrator. The Board and the Manager also noted the independence of the Administrator from the Company’s investment adviser and the Manager. Subject to the supervision of the Manager and the overall supervision of the Board, the appointment of the Administrator is intended to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve the Company’s financial reporting objectives and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board evaluates and discusses significant accounting and reporting issues as the need arises. The Board reviews the financial statements prior to their approval, though it should be noted that such review does not include verification of information in the financial statements to source documents. The annual financial statements are subject to independent audit by PricewaterhouseCoopers and the Board receives and considers a report from PricewaterhouseCoopers as to the audit process.

Risk Assessment

The Board is responsible for assessing the risk of irregularities whether caused by fraud or error in financial reporting and for ensuring that processes are in place for the timely identification of internal and external matters with a potential effect on financial reporting. The Board is advised by the Administrator as to changes in accounting rules and provides recommendations as to how these changes are best reflected in the Company’s financial statements. The Board’s appointment of an administrator independent of the investment adviser to the Company and which is regulated by Central Bank is intended to mitigate though not eliminate the risk of fraud or irregularities which may impact the financial statements of the Company.

Monitoring

The Board receives and reviews regular reporting from the Depositary, Investment Adviser and Administrator. The Board also has an annual process to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to consider and address any control weaknesses identified and measures recommended by the independent auditors.

Capital Structure

No individual person or individual company has a significant direct or indirect holding of securities in the Company. No individual person or individual company has any special rights of control over the Company’s share capital. There are no restrictions on voting rights.

For the appointment and replacement of Directors, the Company is governed by its Articles of Association. The Articles of Association themselves may be amended by special resolution of the shareholders.

Composition and Operation of the Board of Directors

Each of the Directors has entered into a letter of appointment with the Company.

All related party transactions during the financial year are detailed in Note 3 to the financial statements. The Articles of Association do not provide for retirement of Directors by rotation. However, the Directors may be removed by the shareholders by ordinary resolution in accordance with the procedures established under the Companies Act. The Board meets at least quarterly. There are no sub-committees of the Board.

The Board is responsible for managing the overall business affairs of the Company. Under the Articles of Association, the Board has appointed the Depositary to act as depositary to the Company and has delegated certain of its powers, duties and functions to the Manager which has in turn delegated certain of its powers, duties and functions to the Administrator, the Transfer Agent, the Distributors, and the Investment Adviser.

Shareholder Meetings

The annual general meeting (the "AGM") of the Company will usually be held in Dublin as determined by the Directors, normally during the month of June. In any event it shall be held within six months of the Company's financial year-end as determined by the Directors. Notice convening the AGM in each year at which the audited financial statements of the Company will be presented (together with the Directors' and Independent Auditors' Reports of the Company) will be sent to Shareholders at their registered addresses with 21 clear days notice before the date fixed for the meeting. Other general meetings may be convened from time to time by the Directors in such manner as provided by Irish law and the Articles of Association.

Each of the Shares entitles the holder to attend and vote at meetings of the Company and of the Funds represented by those Shares. Matters may be determined by a meeting of Shareholders on a show of hands unless a poll is requested by at least five Shareholders present or by Shareholders present holding 10% or more of the Shares in issue having the right to vote at the meeting or unless the chairman of the meeting requests a poll. Each Shareholder has one vote on a show of hands. Each Share gives the holder one vote in relation to any matters relating to the Company which are submitted to Shareholders for a vote by poll.

No Class confers on the holder thereof any preferential or preemptive rights or any rights to participate in the profits and dividends of any other Class or any voting rights in relation to matters relating solely to any other Class.

The quorum for any general meeting shall be two shareholders present in person or by proxy save that where it is proposed to vary the rights attached to a particular class of Shares, unless otherwise provided, the quorum at such general meeting shall be two or more shareholders of that class present in person or by proxy together holding at least one-third of the Shares of that class.

Each of the Shares other than subscriber shares entitles the Shareholder to participate equally on a pro-rata basis in the dividends and net assets of the Fund in respect of which the Shares have been issued, save in the case of dividends declared prior to becoming a Shareholder.

Accounting Records

To ensure that adequate accounting records are kept in accordance with Section 281 to 285 of the Companies Act 2014, the Board has employed a service organisation, J.P. Morgan Administration Services (Ireland) Limited (the "Administrator"). The accounting records are kept at J.P. Morgan Administration Services (Ireland) Limited, 200

Independent auditors' report to the members of Janus Henderson Capital Funds plc

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

In our opinion, Janus Henderson Capital Funds plc's financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the Company's and Funds' assets, liabilities and financial position as at 31 December 2023 and of their results for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland (accounting standards issued by the Financial Reporting Council of the UK, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and Irish law); and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014 and the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended).

We have audited the financial statements, included within the Annual Report & Accounts, which comprise:

- the Statement of Financial Position of the Combined Company and each of its Funds as at 31 December 2023;
- the Statement of Comprehensive Income of the Combined Company and each of its Funds for the year then ended;
- the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Redeemable Ordinary Shareholders for the Combined Company and each of its Funds for the year then ended;
- the Portfolio Investments for each of the Funds as at 31 December 2023; and
- the notes to the financial statements for the Company and for each of its Funds, which include a description of the accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (Ireland) ("ISAs (Ireland)") and applicable law.

Our responsibilities under ISAs (Ireland) are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We remained independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Ireland, which includes IAASA's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

Emphasis of matter - financial statements prepared on a basis other than going concern

In forming our opinion on the financial statements, which is not modified, we draw attention to note 1 to the financial statements which describes the reasons why the financial statements of Janus Henderson Global Research Fund, Janus Henderson US Research Fund and Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund have been prepared on a basis other than going concern.

Conclusions relating to going concern

With the exception of Janus Henderson Global Research Fund, Janus Henderson US Research Fund and Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund where a basis of accounting other than going concern has been adopted as set out in the Emphasis of matter - financial statements prepared on a basis other than going concern above, based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Company's and Funds' ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from the date on which the financial statements are authorised for issue.

With the exception of Janus Henderson Global Research Fund, Janus Henderson US Research Fund and Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund where a basis of accounting other than going concern has been adopted as set out in the Emphasis of matter - financial statements prepared on a basis other than going concern above, in auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

However, because not all future events or conditions can be predicted, this conclusion is not a guarantee as to the Company's and Funds' ability to continue as a going concern.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Reporting on other information

The other information comprises all of the information in the Annual Report & Accounts other than the financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion or, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in this report, any form of assurance thereon. In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify an apparent material inconsistency or material misstatement, we are required to perform procedures to conclude whether there is a material misstatement of the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report based on these responsibilities.

With respect to the Report of the Directors, we also considered whether the disclosures required by the Companies Act 2014 have been included.

Based on the responsibilities described above and our work undertaken in the course of the audit, ISAs (Ireland) and the Companies Act 2014 require us to also report certain opinions and matters as described below:

- In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit, the information given in the Report of the Directors for the year ended 31 December 2023 is consistent with the financial statements and has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.
- Based on our knowledge and understanding of the Company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified any material misstatements in the Report of the Directors.

Responsibilities for the financial statements and the audit

Responsibilities of the directors for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities set out on page 9, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable framework and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

The directors are also responsible for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's and Funds' ability to continue as going concerns, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (Ireland) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Our audit testing might include testing complete populations of certain transactions and balances, possibly using data auditing techniques. However, it typically involves selecting a limited number of items for testing, rather than testing complete populations. We will often seek to target particular items for testing based on their size or risk characteristics. In other cases, we will use audit sampling to enable us to draw a conclusion about the population from which the sample is selected.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the IAASA website at:

https://www.iaasa.ie/getmedia/b2389013-1cf6-458b-9b8f-a98202dc9c3a/Description_of_auditors_responsibilities_for_audit.pdf.

This description forms part of our auditors' report.

Use of this report

This report, including the opinions, has been prepared for and only for the Company's members as a body in accordance with section 391 of the Companies Act 2014 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving these opinions, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

Other required reporting

Companies Act 2014 opinions on other matters

- We have obtained all the information and explanations which we consider necessary for the purposes of our audit.

Janus Henderson Balanced Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a return, from a combination of capital growth and income.

Performance target: To outperform the 'Balanced' Index (55% S&P 500® + 45% Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond) by 1.5% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests between 35%-65% of its assets in the shares (equities) of mainly US companies, and between 35%-65% of its assets in bonds of any quality, including up to 35% in high yield (non-investment grade) bonds and loans (non-investment grade) issued mainly by US companies or the US government.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the 'Balanced' Index (55% S&P 500® + 45% Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond), which is broadly representative of the companies and bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to choose individual investments for the Fund.

Fund Overview

Jeremiah Buckley, Greg Wilensky and Michael Keough,
portfolio managers

We began the period with an equity exposure at roughly 56%, our fixed income exposure at 43%, and a small portion in cash. We increased equity exposure during the period and were positioned with roughly 61% in equities, 38% in fixed income, and a small portion in cash for the latter half of the year. This asset allocation positioning, with a consistent overweight to equities, and corresponding underweight to fixed income benefited relative performance as equities advanced sharply and outgained returns in fixed income.

The equity allocation underperformed the S&P 500 Index. Stock selection in the consumer discretionary and industrials sector were primary detractors from relative performance. Conversely, security selection in the health care and financials sectors helped relative performance.

American variety store Dollar General was among the top detractors as the discount retailer struggled amid inventory challenges as well as financial constraints facing core clientele. A meaningful deterioration in company fundamentals and our reduced confidence that new management team members could turn the business around in the short term contributed to our decision to close the position during the period.

Deere & Company, an agricultural equipment manufacturer, was also among the top relative detractors. Despite reporting strong fiscal year earnings, the share price fell amid a more cautious 2024 industry outlook. Lower sales forecasts, market uncertainties around farm fundamentals, and elevated interest rates contributed to the company's conservative outlook, particularly in Brazil.

Companies tied to the artificial intelligence ("AI") theme helped offset some of the detractors. Semiconductor manufacturing equipment company Lam Research Corp. benefited from industry optimism for a recovery in wafer fabrication equipment in 2025, and an expectation that capital expenditure in memory chips would have a sharp recovery.

Technology company Microsoft was also among the top contributors to relative performance in the equity allocation. The stock strongly benefited from the developments in and optimism around AI – particularly in Microsoft's implementation of AI in its products such as the Bing search engine. The potential for increased demand for its cloud business, Azure, also supported the stock.

The portfolio's fixed income allocation outperformed the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index. Interest-rate positioning contributed to relative results. We entered the year underweight duration as the Federal Reserve ("Fed") maintained its hawkish stance and inflation remained unacceptably high. We actively managed duration throughout the year's interest rate volatility and held an overweight position in the latter half of the period. This proved beneficial as rates began to rally in November, and rallied further in December when the Fed signalled that monetary policy could turn more accommodative in 2024.

Within our spread risk allocation, while we maintained a relatively defensive stance, we held more risk versus the benchmark throughout the year. As the year progressed and the outlook continued to improve, we increased the allocation to corporate bonds. We also added to our overweight to securitised sectors, as we continued to identify high-quality assets at attractive valuations and on our belief that, throughout the year, securitised spreads appropriately reflected the risk of an economic slowdown. Our positioning in credit sectors contributed as spreads ultimately tightened on the back of economic data that suggested the chances for an economic 'soft landing' had increased. Positioning in non-agency residential mortgages was particularly beneficial. Security selection within agency mortgage-backed securities detracted, somewhat offsetting relative outperformance.

Performance target: To outperform the 'Balanced' Index (55% S&P 500® + 45% Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond) by 1.5% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Total Expense Ratio includes fees payable to Distributors. In some cases where the Fund's outperformance target (before the deduction of charges) relative to the benchmark has been achieved, the return for an individual class may ultimately be below the benchmark return if its ongoing charges exceed the outperformance.

Please note the Gross Returns 5 year annualised table is only applicable for share classes which have been active for 5 or more years and the performance target is to be achieved over a specific annualised time period. Performance target and index shown in USD.

Past performance does not guarantee future returns. The rates of return will vary and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of Shares. All returns are calculated in the base currency of the representative Share Class.

Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a total return, from a combination of capital growth and income over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the composite benchmark comprising 60% MSCI All Country World Index NR + 40% Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index by 1% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests in a globally diverse portfolio of company shares (also known as equities) and equity-related investments, bonds of any type, commodities (such as gold, oil and agricultural produce), cash and money market instruments. The Fund may gain its exposure to these assets either directly, via other funds (collective investment schemes, including exchange traded funds) and investment trusts/companies, or by using derivatives (complex financial instruments). The Investment Manager has flexibility to shift allocations between different asset classes and may invest up to 100% of its assets in any of these classes, depending on prevailing market conditions. The Fund has no specific geographical or industrial focus and may invest in developing countries.

The Investment Manager may use derivatives (complex financial instruments), including total return swaps, with the aim of making investment gains in line with the Fund's objective, to reduce risk or to manage the Fund more efficiently.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the 60% MSCI All Country World Index NR + 40% Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index, which is broadly representative of the assets in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to choose individual investments for the Fund

Ashwin Alankar, portfolio manager

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 16.41% (Net) and 17.51% (Gross) compared with 15.43% for the Fund's benchmark, 60% MSCI All Country World Index/40% Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index, and 16.58% for its target benchmark.

Global financial markets rallied during the period as investors grew optimistic that a material economic slowdown could be averted and inflation was sufficiently tamed to allow for eventual rate cuts. The equities rally broadened the handful of mega-cap technology stocks that had dominated markets for much of the year, as a resilient economy improved the prospects for smaller-cap and more cyclical companies. The earlier sell-off in sovereign bonds reversed in October, with the ensuing drop in rates sending many bond indices into positive territory for the year.

Based on the profile and magnitude of expected upside and downside tail risks gleaned from our proprietary, option-based models, we see risk premiums that are attractive across capital markets. The strength of these signals decreased as 2023 came to an end, but nevertheless have remained strong. There are risks to this thesis, namely a resurgence of inflation and/or the negative effect on growth as monetary tightening lags make their way through the economy.

We believe that US inflation will continue to moderate. Unlike previous inflationary episodes, the Federal Reserve ("Fed") has kept conditions tight despite prices having fallen steadily for over a year. Even with the Fed's preferred inflation gauge under a 2.0% annualized pace over the past six months, the US central bank has not balked on its tightening. This has resulted in the cost of money — the overnight lending rate less inflation — at over 2.0%, which is the highest level since the Fed commenced tightening. As a result, it would be very difficult under these conditions for a second inflation wave to unfold. Ironically, the market should be cheering a patient Fed and not one eager to cut rates as the latter would very likely feed a second inflation wave, leading to painful consequences.

What we find remarkable is the Fed's tightening and that the elevated cost of money has not triggered signs of economic malaise, suggesting a high probability of a successful economic "soft landing" in the Fed's inflation battle.

We must be mindful of risks, however. A second wave of inflation is a significant risk to our optimistic view, especially given the strong market consensus that inflation risk is drastically diminished. Inflation catalysts include geopolitical risks leading to supply disruptions, such as those seen in the Red Sea, and on the demand side, monetary conditions loosening too quickly and "cheap" liquidity bolstering spending.

Janus Henderson Global Life Sciences Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the MSCI World Health Care Index by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% in shares (also known as equities) of companies, of any size, with a life sciences orientation, in any country.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the MSCI World Health Care NR Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose individual investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Andy Acker and Daniel Lyons¹, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 7.04% (Net) and 7.97% (Gross) compared with 3.76% for the Fund's benchmark, the MSCI World Health Care IndexSM, and 5.83% for its target benchmark.

Stock selection in biotechnology and pharmaceuticals contributed the most to the Fund's performance. Conversely, positioning in managed healthcare and healthcare equipment weighed on returns.

Looking at individual holdings, ImmunoGen was the top contributor. Shares of the company surged when AbbVie announced plans to buy it for $10 billion, representing a 95% premium to the prior closing price. (Janus Henderson was among the top active holders.) ImmunoGen develops antibody drug conjugates ("ADC"), among the hottest areas of cancer research. One can think of an ADC as a precision-guided missile that brings chemotherapy directly to cancer cells with less collateral toxicity. Ovarian cancer patients taking ImmunoGen's Elahere saw a 33% reduction in mortality risk compared to chemotherapy – the first time an overall survival benefit had been achieved in chemo-resistant ovarian cancer. AbbVie said it expected to complete the acquisition by mid-2024.

An underweight to Pfizer also aided performance. The stock struggled in 2023 due to a lack of clarity around future COVID-19 revenues (with a precipitous decline in 2023 vaccine and treatment sales due to the end of the pandemic Public Health Emergency).

¹Effective 31 January 2023 Daniel Lyons also manages this Fund.

Pfizer appeared to have been too optimistic with guidance, which disappointed investors. Although the large-cap biopharmaceutical company's defensive characteristics and strong balance sheet were appealing, given the near-term uncertainty, the Fund was underweight the stock during the period and eventually exited the position.

Conversely, Akero Therapeutics was a detractor. The biotechnology company is developing efruxifermin for non-alcoholic steatohepatitis ("NASH"), a fatty liver disease that affects over 10 million adults in the US and is a leading cause of liver failure. The company reported phase 2 data in the most severe NASH patients and failed to hit statistical significance on the main endpoint, in this case for fibrosis reversal. Despite achieving statistical significance on other disease markers and prior trials that proved the drug's benefit in moderate NASH patients, investors beat a retreat. This appeared to have more to do with a recent (and likely misguided) perception that glucagon-like peptide 1 (GLP-1) receptor agonists will crowd out the rest of the NASH market.

Despite a significant position, the Fund's underweight to Eli Lilly also detracted from performance. The company's GLP-1 drug, Zepbound, received Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") approval in November. In addition, Eli Lilly benefited from enthusiasm over its growing pipeline of next-generation weight-loss drugs (including a promising triple hormone version) and Alzheimer's candidate, donanemab, which was recently submitted for FDA approval. The Fund added to Eli Lilly throughout 2023 but lagged the stock's growing weight in the benchmark.

Performance target: To outperform the MSCI World Health Care NR Index by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Total Expense Ratio includes fees payable to Distributors. In some cases where the Fund's outperformance target (before the deduction of charges) relative to the benchmark has been achieved, the return for an individual class may ultimately be below the benchmark return if its ongoing charges exceed the outperformance.

Please note the Gross Returns 5 year annualised table is only applicable for share classes which have been active for 5 or more years and the performance target is to be achieved over a specific annualised time period. Performance target and index shown in USD.

Past performance does not guarantee future returns. The rates of return will vary and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of Shares. All returns are calculated in the base currency of the representative Share Class.

Janus Henderson Global Technology and Innovation Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the MSCI All Country World Index Technology Index by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares (also known as equities) of companies, of any size, which are technology-related or derive profits from technology, in any country.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the MSCI All Country World Index Technology Index NR, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose individual investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Denny Fish and Jonathan Cofsky, portfolio manager

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 54.20% (Net) and 55.58% (Gross) compared with 51.02% for the Fund's benchmark, the MSCI ACWI Technology Index, and 54.04% for its target benchmark.

Unlike 2022, when macro factors, such as the rise in interest rates, seemed to dictate technology's fortunes, for much of 2023, the sector's trajectory was left to its own devices. For the most part, it thrived, benefiting from not only the enthusiasm surrounding the wider public's introduction to artificial intelligence ("AI"), but also resilient earnings. The macro factors returned late in the year as dovish signals by the Federal Reserve ignited a broad-based rally.

Idiosyncratic developments were largely behind the period's leading individual contributors and detractors. Facebook parent Meta Platforms continued to benefit from its cost rationalization program. The company has also worked on its AI initiatives, with the aim of buttressing advertising revenues.

The semiconductor capital equipment complex was also a beneficiary of AI tailwinds, as increasingly sophisticated chips will be required for AI to reach its full potential. Individual contributor Lam Research is firmly enmeshed in the fabrication of leading-edge chips and has enjoyed strong competitive position in its core offerings.

Real estate technology platform CoStar, on the other hand, impeded results. The market continued to grapple with management's decision to grow its residential business, especially as the fruits of this investment were likely to be slow. Also, there was no escaping the slowdown in CoStar's core commercial real estate market, which was impacted by higher interest rates.

Another detractor was chipmaker Nvidia. The company's stock surged on the back of AI enthusiasm, as its graphics processing units were considered well suited for carrying out the complex calculations necessary for AI's progression. Given its material size within the benchmark, we tended to hold an underweight position in Nvidia for risk management purposes.

The recognition of AI's potential serves as a reminder of the essential role that a few secular technology themes play in the ongoing digitization of the global economy. A core tenet of our investment approach is that the technology sector will garner an increasing share of aggregate global earnings as commercial users adopt these platforms and applications to enhance productivity and consumers look for convenience.

The next phase of the AI rollout will require companies to present viable use cases, including the potential for monetization and a realistic build-up of financials. At that point we would expect to see a bifurcation between true AI beneficiaries and companies that are along for the ride but face secular headwinds, often due to their legacy business models.

Vital to these developments are semiconductors. In our view, this has become the most important industry in the global economy. As evidenced during pandemic-related shortages, all other sectors are reliant upon chips.

Thank you for investing in Janus Henderson Global Technology and Innovation Fund.

Performance Target: To outperform the MSCI All Country World Index Technology Index NR by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Total Expense Ratio includes fees payable to Distributors. In some cases where the Fund's outperformance target (before the deduction of charges) relative to the benchmark has been achieved, the return for an individual class may ultimately be below the benchmark return if its ongoing charges exceed the outperformance.

Please note the Gross Returns 5 year annualised table is only applicable for share classes which have been active for 5 or more years and the performance target is to be achieved over a specific annualised time period. Performance target and index shown in USD.

Past performance does not guarantee future returns. The rates of return will vary and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of Shares. All returns are calculated in the base currency of the representative Share Class.

Janus Henderson US Contrarian Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the S&P 500® Index by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares (also known as equities) of companies, of any size, in any industry, in the United States.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the S&P 500® Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to exercise conviction, which may result in a high degree of bias within the portfolio. The Fund may hold companies which are not within the index.

Fund Overview

Nick Schommer, portfolio manager

The BeautyHealth Company was among the top relative detractors. Later in the period, the medical aesthetic company missed third-quarter estimates and lowered guidance while experiencing operational challenges rolling out its HydraFacial Syndeo product. In the near term, we are monitoring management's execution of the machine recall, but we remained confident in the consumable nature of the product and end-customer's satisfaction.

Medical device company Globus Medical, which makes products to support spine health, was another detractor. The stock declined after the company announced it would acquire NuVasive to build scale in the spinal device market. Given the mixed success of previous mergers in the industry, the market has taken a sceptical approach to the announcement. However, we were constructive on the deal's merits.

Advanced Micro Devices ("AMD"), a semiconductor manufacturer, was among the top relative contributors. Later in the period, AMD reported better-than-expected revenue growth for the third quarter of 2023, which reflected strong demand for its products from data centres, and indicated a solid revenue outlook for 2024. Investors have been particularly excited about AMD's new opportunities tied to artificial intelligence ("AI"). The company's recent launch of its new MI300x graphics processing unit accelerator has demonstrated broad customer momentum and favourable performance metrics.

Core & Main, another contributor, distributes products used in storm drainage and other large water-related infrastructure projects. It has been a beneficiary of higher infrastructure spending. The company used its first-ever investor day in October to outline its growth targets for the next few years. Investors responded positively to the news, which helped the stock to advance. The company also indicated that it has seen some stabilisation in input prices.

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a total return, based on a combination of 2.5% income and capital growth. Neither the income nor capital value at maturity is guaranteed.

Performance Target: To deliver 2.5% per annum income (based upon the initial subscription value) and capital growth, before the deduction of fees and expenses, to 18 November 2026 ("Maturity").

At least 75% of the Fund is invested in US assets.

The Fund is actively managed without reference to a benchmark. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to choose individual investments for the Fund.

Fund Overview

Jeremiah Buckley, Greg Wilensky and Michael Keough,
portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the Y2 HEUR share class returned 8.12% (Net) and 10.04% (Gross).

We began the period with an equity exposure at roughly 37%, our fixed income exposure at 62%, and a small portion in cash. We increased equity exposure during the period and closed December with roughly 41% in equities, 58% in fixed income, and a small portion in cash. This asset allocation positioning, with a consistent overweight to equities, and corresponding underweight to fixed income benefited relative performance as equities advanced sharply and outgained returns in fixed income.

The equity allocation underperformed the S&P 500 Index. Stock selection in the consumer discretionary and industrials sector were the primary detractors from relative performance. Conversely, security selection in the health care and financials sectors helped relative performance.

American variety store Dollar General was among the top detractors as the discount retailer struggled amid inventory challenges as well as financial constraints facing core clientele. A meaningful deterioration in company fundamentals and our reduced confidence that new management team members could turn the business around in the short term contributed to our decision to close the position during the period.

Deere & Company, an agricultural equipment manufacturer, was also among the top relative detractors. Despite reporting strong fiscal year earnings, the share price fell amid a more cautious 2024 industry outlook. Lower sales forecasts, market uncertainties around farm fundamentals, and elevated interest rates contributed to the company's conservative outlook, particularly in Brazil.

Companies tied to the artificial intelligence ("AI") theme helped offset some of the detractors. Semiconductor manufacturing equipment company Lam Research Corp. benefited from industry optimism for a recovery in wafer fabrication equipment in 2025, and an expectation that capital expenditure in memory chips would have a sharp recovery.

Technology company Microsoft was also among the top contributors to relative performance in the equity allocation. The stock strongly benefited from the developments in and optimism around AI – particularly in Microsoft's implementation of AI in its products such as the Bing search engine. The potential for increased demand for its cloud business, Azure, also supported the stock.

The portfolio's fixed income allocation outperformed the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index. Interest-rate positioning contributed to relative results. We entered the year underweight duration as the Federal Reserve ("Fed") maintained its hawkish stance and inflation remained unacceptably high. We actively managed duration throughout the year's interest rate volatility and held an overweight position in the latter half of the period. This proved beneficial as rates began to rally in November, and rallied further in December when the Fed signalled that monetary policy could turn more accommodative in 2024.

Within our spread risk allocation, while we maintained a relatively defensive stance, we held more risk versus the benchmark throughout the year. As the year progressed and the outlook continued to improve, we increased the allocation to corporate bonds. We also added to our overweight to securitized sectors, as we continued to identify high-quality assets at attractive valuations and on our belief that, throughout the year, securitised spreads appropriately reflected the risk of an economic slowdown. This positioning contributed as spreads ultimately tightened on the back of economic data that suggested the chances for an economic 'soft landing' had increased. Positioning in securitised credit was particularly beneficial, with exposure to non-agency residential mortgages and collateralised loan obligations aiding results. Security selection within agency mortgage-backed securities detracted, somewhat offsetting relative outperformance.

Placement fee	(351,505)	(551,303)
Closing NAV	48,423,813	48,274,842

For the purposes of calculating the Janus Henderson US Balanced 2026 published NAV, in accordance with its prospectus and leading industry practice, the placement fee with respect to Y shares has been capitalised and is amortised through the Statement of Comprehensive Income over a 7 year period from the date of commencement of the Fund's operations. However, as the financial statements are prepared under Irish GAAP and FRS102, the placement fee was expensed in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for the period 18 November 2019 to 31 December 2019.

The difference between the published NAV per share and that shown in the financial statements is wholly attributable to the differences arising from expensing the placement fee. This has no impact on the published NAV per share, its related redemption pricing or the calculation of fees due to the Janus Henderson US Balanced 2026 Fund.

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Russell 1000® Growth Index by at least 2.5% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares (also known as equities) of companies, in any industry, in the United States. The Fund is focused towards larger US companies.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Russell 1000® Growth Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to exercise conviction, which may result in a high degree of bias within the portfolio. The Fund may hold companies which are not within the index.

Fund Overview

Doug Rao, Nick Schommer and Brian Recht, portfolio managers

Stock selection in the healthcare and industrials sectors detracted from benchmark-relative performance, while stock selection in the communication services sector and underweight to the consumer staples sector contributed to performance.

llumina, a leader in advanced tools used for genetic sequencing, was among the top detractors for the period. In August, management reduced its 2023 revenue growth forecast as the company experienced a challenging life science end-market alongside other tool companies. In addition, about 10% of the company's revenue has been derived from China, which has experienced weakness amid a slow COVID-19 recovery.

Deere & Company, an agricultural equipment manufacturer, was also among the top relative detractors. Despite reporting strong fiscal year earnings, the share price fell amid a more cautious 2024 industry outlook. Lower sales forecasts, market uncertainties around farm fundamentals, and elevated interest rates contributed to the company's conservative outlook, particularly in Brazil. We have continued to assess Deere's position in its business cycle as the company may be closer to the bottom than mid-cycle. We also recognised its investments in competitive advantages beyond its agricultural roots and were encouraged by improvements in business fundamentals.

Stocks linked to artificial intelligence ("AI") were among the period's best performers, including one of the Fund's top relative contributors, Meta Platforms. In fact, estimates have risen so much over the last 12 months that entering 2023, Meta's stock was trading at only seven times earnings when considering the current consensus 2024 estimates. Investor sentiment improved as management took steps to increase efficiencies after overextended operations in the wake of the pandemic. The company continued to benefit from its cost rationalisation programme following a year in which it faced headwinds from Apple's iOS privacy changes and a slowing online advertising market. Investors also perceived that AI initiatives could buttress advertising revenues despite a tougher macroeconomic backdrop.

Advanced Micro Devices ("AMD") was also among the top relative contributors. The company produces a suite of semiconductor chips, and investors were particularly excited about AMD's new opportunities tied to AI. The company's recent launch of its new MI300x graphics processing unit accelerator has demonstrated broad customer momentum and favourable performance metrics. Later in the period, the stock outperformed as investors became more optimistic about a potential resurgence in chip demand in 2024. AMD also reported better-than-expected revenue growth for the third quarter of 2023, which reflected strong demand for its products from data centres, and indicated a solid revenue outlook for 2024.

Janus Henderson US Small-Mid Cap Value Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Russell 2500® Value Index at least by 2.5% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares (also known as equities) of small and medium sized companies in any industry, in the United States. Companies will be incorporated, headquartered, listed on an exchange in, or deriving significant revenue from, the United States.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Russell 2500® Value Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose individual investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Kevin Preloger and Justin Tugman, portfolio managers

Stock selection in the financials and materials sectors detracted from the Fund's relative performance. Investments in the information technology and communication services sectors contributed, due primarily to positive stock selection.

While the Fund underperformed for the 12 months, we were pleased with how our portfolio defended against periods of market volatility. We were also gratified with the degree to which the Fund participated in the end-of-the-year rally despite our defensive positioning. We also stand by our disciplined approach to managing downside risk.

The first quarter of 2023 proved challenging for the Fund's bank stocks, as a crisis of confidence led customers to pull deposits out of several regional banks. These included Silicon Valley Bank, a subsidiary of our holding SVB Financial. This run on deposits was not caused by credit concerns but rather by the relative maturities of balance-sheet assets and liabilities in a rising interest rate environment. We responded to this situation by quickly admitting our mistake and liquidating our investment in SVB Financial. Nonetheless, the stock was a significant detractor for the 12-month period. First Interstate Bancsystem was another detractor, as the Montana-based regional bank reported weaker-than-expected first-quarter results and declining deposits. Given the headwinds for bank profitability and the potential for credit losses in a weaker economy, we exited the stock. We also reduced our weightings in other banks that did not earn our highest confidence.

Outside of the financials sector, relative performance was hindered by our investment in Globus Medical, a maker of medical devices that support spine health. The stock faced headwinds due to investor concerns around integration issues involving the company's acquisition of NuVasive. In our view, the market was overly focused on these short-term issues while ignoring the potential benefits of the deal. We remained invested in Globus Medical.

Stock selection in the information technology sector aided relative performance. Vontier, a top sector contributor, provides technologies that support vehicle fleet tracking and point-of-sale payments at gasoline pumps. Vontier generated strong free cash flow, and the stock gained new attention from investors following its underperformance in 2022. We also benefited from our investment in Insight Enterprises, a provider of enterprise technology solutions that delivered above-average revenue increases and higher margins.

Elsewhere, home builder Toll Brothers was another prominent contributor. The stock rallied in the fourth quarter on strong financial results and hopes around falling mortgage rates.

Performance target: To outperform the Russell 2500® Value Index by 2.5% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Total Expense Ratio includes fees payable to Distributors. In some cases where the Fund's outperformance target (before the deduction of charges) relative to the benchmark has been achieved, the return for an individual class may ultimately be below the benchmark return if its ongoing charges exceed the outperformance.

Please note the Gross Returns 5 year annualised table is only applicable for share classes which have been active for 5 or more years and the performance target is to be achieved over a specific annualised time period. Performance target and index shown in USD.

Past performance does not guarantee future returns. The rates of return will vary and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of Shares. All returns are calculated in the base currency of the representative Share Class.

Janus Henderson US Venture Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Russell 2000® Growth Index by 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares (also known as equities) of companies, in any industry, in the United States. Companies will be incorporated, headquartered, listed on an exchange in, or deriving significant revenue from, the United States. The Fund will invest at least 50% in smaller US companies.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Russell 2000® Growth Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose individual investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Jonathan Coleman, Scott Stutzman and Aaron Schaechterle¹, portfolio managers

Stock selection in the health care and communication services sectors detracted from relative performance. Stock selection in the consumer discretionary and consumer staples sectors contributed.

Among individual holdings, WNS Holdings was a relative detractor. This provider of outsourced business processing services faced concerns that it might lose business to artificial intelligence ("AI") solutions. We believed it was too early to assess how AI may impact individual companies, and that the pressure on WNS was out of line with the business fundamentals. Moreover, the management team has indicated that it will seek ways to harness the power of AI internally to improve worker productivity and reduce expenses.

ICU Medical, another detractor, supplies intravenous (IV) delivery solutions such as IV pumps, consumable bags, and IV solutions. It has taken longer than expected to work through some of the operational challenges of its largest acquisition to date, Smiths Medical.

¹Effective 1 September 2023 Aaron Schaechterle also manages this Fund.

It also faced uncertainty around recent headwinds for hospital spending and over the impact of new glucagon-like peptide 1 weight-loss drugs on treatments for medical conditions typically associated with obesity.

We continued to like ICU Medical for its strong competitive positioning.

Core & Main was a top positive contributor. This industrials company distributes products used in storm drainage and other large water-related infrastructure projects. It has benefited from higher infrastructure spending, which helped it report better-than-expected results. The company also indicated some stabilization in input prices, which led it to raise guidance on operating margins.

Stride was another relative contributor. Stride provides a remote learning platform used for both K-12 education and professional training and recertification. It has reported very strong student enrolment and retention metrics, which supported better-than-expected earnings growth. Stride's specialized career training programs for secondary students differentiated it from competitors in the K-12 market. Its career training business also grew faster than the general education market. We were excited to see the company gain market share across its businesses, while it delivered solid revenue growth.

Janus Henderson Global Real Estate Equity Income Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a positive level of income with the potential for capital growth over the long term (five years or more).

Performance target: To achieve a dividend yield exceeding that of the FTSE EPRA Nareit Global REIT Index, before the deduction of charges, on an annual basis.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in shares (also known as equities) and equity-related securities of real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and companies, which invest in property, in any country. Companies will derive the main part of their revenue from owning, developing and managing real estate.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the FTSE EPRA Nareit Global REIT Index, which is broadly representative of the companies in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Guy Barnard and Tim Gibson, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 9.08% (Net) and 10.06% (Gross) compared with 9.61% for the Fund's benchmark, the FTSE EPRA Nareit Global REITs Index and 9.61% for its target benchmark.

Global equities finished the year strongly, as the prospect of an economic "soft landing" came closer into view after a series of softer inflation prints. Investors increased bets on the end of the rate-hiking cycle following more dovish tones from central banks and the Federal Reserve surprising the market by signalling 75 basis points of rate cuts in 2024.

Having struggled for traction for much of the year, due to persistent inflationary pressures and rising rates, listed property stocks were among the best performing sectors of the equity market in the end-of-year rally, rising 15% in the fourth quarter, with falling real rates a tailwind, alongside tightening credit spreads. Notable strength came from Europe, led by the Nordic markets and Germany. Australia also continued its strong rebound into year-end. In the US, despite the real estate investment trust ("REIT") sector's rapid ascent in the fourth quarter, not all stocks or sectors fared equally, as names with high leverage and high short interest made more significant gains. Notably, office, mall and hotel landlords enjoyed stellar returns, while storage and cell tower stocks also reversed months of underperformance. Defensive sectors such as net lease, healthcare, data centres and manufactured housing lagged the broader recovery. Elsewhere, Japanese REITs were a relative loser and Hong Kong/China property names lagged meaningfully, posting by far the worst returns globally over the year.

Performance

The Fund performed close to its benchmark over the year. The strongest performance came from senior living focused names Welltower in the US and Chartwell Retirement Residences in Canada, both of which have benefited from favourable demographic trends and an ongoing recovery post-COVID-19. Holdings in various industrial operators generated alpha, including Australian logistics REIT Goodman, Canadian REIT Dream Industrial and US logistics owner STAG Industrial. US self-storage REIT Life Storage also gained, following a bid from peer Extra Space Storage. However, defensive positions in the triple net lease sector lagged the broad sector rally to end the year. Additionally, life science office REIT Alexandria Real Estate Equities underperformed, as there were concerns in the early part of the period surrounding the venture capital funding backdrop as potential fallout from the Silicon Valley Bank failure. In addition, there was slower demand from tenants as new supply was delivered over the year.

Activity

Within the portfolio, we remained close to index weights at a regional level and therefore continued to provide well-diversified global exposure. On a sub-sector level, we increased our hotel, healthcare, and multi-family exposure, and decreased our weights to the retail and office sectors.

We made changes within the US residential sector over the period, added a new position in US apartment landlord AvalonBay Communities, as we anticipated East Coast fundamentals would illustrate relative outperformance in 2024. We increased our exposure to healthcare through Sabra Health Care REIT, based on its attractive valuation and high, yet sustainable dividend yield. Healthcare facilities continued to see a rebound in occupancy post-COVID-19, which we expected to continue to support fundamentals in the sector. We added Park Hotels & Resorts ahead of its special dividend while we were constructive on company-specific revenue drivers in 2024. In storage, we exited Life Storage following the bid for the business and switched from CubeSmart to National Storage Affiliates.

We made changes to our UK exposure, selling out of UK diversified landlord Land Securities, switching into peer British Land following significant relative underperformance. Elsewhere in Europe, we added higher-yielding continental healthcare and retail exposure, specifically in companies that have benefited from inflation-linked rental contracts that have supported rising cashflows and dividends. In Australia, we switched out of retail landlord Vicinity Centres into peer Scentre Group. We also took profit in Stockland, and added

Mirvac Group given its exposure to prime office, as well as high-quality apartment portfolio and pipeline.

Outlook

While real estate markets will continue to face headwinds from a slowing economy and more restrictive financial conditions, increasing confidence that we have reached peak interest rates is likely to prove a key moment for the listed property sector. While the private commercial real estate market can dominate media headlines and is slow to adjust reported values to the challenging macroeconomic landscape, the listed market has already reacted, resulting in shares trading at wide discounts to private asset values and “pricing in” a more uncertain environment.

Public REITs have continued to offer reliable and growing income streams, supported by strong balance sheets, more exposure to high-quality properties in areas of structural growth, and astute management teams. From pricing levels that we believe reflect today's economic reality, we think these characteristics could reward investors with current income and growth over time, as they have historically.

Performance target: To achieve a dividend yield exceeding that of the FTSE EPRA Nareit Global REIT NR Index, before the deduction of charges, on an annual basis.

The Total Expense Ratio includes fees payable to Distributors. In some cases where the Fund's outperformance target (before the deduction of charges) relative to the benchmark has been achieved, the return for an individual class may ultimately be below the benchmark return if its ongoing charges exceed the outperformance.

Please note the Gross Returns 5 year annualised table is only applicable for share classes which have been active for 5 or more years and the performance target is to be achieved over a specific annualised time period. Performance target and index shown in USD.

Past performance does not guarantee future returns. The rates of return will vary and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of Shares. Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide positive, consistent returns (although not guaranteed) above those that would be earned on cash-equivalent investments over time.

Performance target: To outperform the FTSE 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index by at least 2% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a global portfolio of bonds of any quality, including high yield (non-investment grade) bonds and asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities, issued by governments or companies. The Fund may invest directly or via derivatives (complex financial instruments).

In certain market conditions, the Fund may invest more than 35% of its assets in government bonds issued by any one body. The Fund will not invest more than 15% of its assets in high yield (non-investment grade) bonds and will never invest in bonds rated lower than B- or B3 (credit agency ratings), or if unrated deemed to be of a comparable quality by the Investment Manager.

The Investment Manager may use derivatives (complex financial instruments), including total return swaps, with the aim of making investment gains in line with the Fund's objective, to reduce risk or to manage the Fund more efficiently.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the FTSE 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to choose individual investments for the Fund.

Fund Overview

Jason England and Daniel Siluk, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the G2 USD share class returned 5.81% (Net) and 6.29% (Gross) compared with 5.26% for the Fund's benchmark, the FTSE 3-month US Treasury Bill Index, and 7.36% for its target benchmark.

The Fund seeks to generate consistent returns by focusing on higher-quality, shorter-dated credits that tend to offer attractive income generation – or carry – as they near maturity. The primary positive contributors during the year were carry on securities as the higher rate regime has again enabled bonds to generate attractive levels of income.

Given continued interest rate volatility, we deployed securities with the aim of dampening the impact of future rate swings. The contribution from these securities was modestly positive.

Our view that this rate-hiking cycle had reached its zenith was largely confirmed by the Federal Reserve's ("Fed")

December comments. Consequently, we believe that the next move in rates will be lower. After having spent much of 2023 aggressively increasing portfolio duration as we posited that the worst of the inflationary surge was behind us, we modestly reduced duration to 0.68 years by period end. In contrast with late 2022, this level falls within our neutral range and allows us to capture a sufficient level of yield unavailable just a few quarters ago. We believe this positioning is appropriate until we have greater visibility on the direction of the global economy and the degree to which inflation continues along its downward path toward the Fed's – and other central banks' – preferred objectives.

This shift in the Fed's stance has considerable implications for the fixed income landscape. Foremost, given Chairman Jerome Powell's laser focus on price stability after 2022's botched transitory call, the Fed would not even hint that a pivot – much less 75 basis points of reductions – was on the cards unless it believed the inflation genie was being placed back in the bottle.

Moderating economic growth means that a peak in the rates cycle has been reached. Importantly, a fixed income allocation can now offer yields at levels that had been absent for over a decade. Should an economic 'soft landing' materialize, we believe higher-quality corporate and securitized credits could potentially offer value as their financial positions should help them weather a modest economic slowdown. If, however, growth surprises to the downside, we could see the safest segments of the bond market – namely Treasuries – rally across maturities. The resulting capital appreciation would then serve as a diversifier against the riskier equities and high-yield corporates that could experience a drawdown in a bearish scenario.

Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a return, from a combination of income and capital growth, while seeking to limit losses to capital (although not guaranteed).

Performance target: To outperform the FTSE 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index by at least 3% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a global portfolio of bonds of any quality, including high yield/non-investment grade and unrated bonds, issued by companies or governments, asset-backed and mortgage backed securities.

In certain market conditions, the Fund may invest more than 35% of its assets in government bonds issued by any one body. The Investment Manager makes extensive use of derivatives (complex financial instruments), including total return swaps, with the aim of making investment gains in line with the Fund's objective, to reduce risk or to manage the Fund more efficiently.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the FTSE 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has a high degree of freedom to choose individual investments for the Fund.

Fund Overview

Jason England and Daniel Siluk, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the A2 USD share class returned 6.55% (Net) and 7.67% (Gross) compared with 5.26% for the Fund's benchmark, the FTSE 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index, and 8.41% for its target benchmark.

The Fund seeks to generate consistent returns by focusing on higher-quality, shorter-dated credits that tend to offer attractive income generation – or carry – as they near maturity. The primary positive contributors during the year were carry on securities as the higher rate regime has again enabled bonds to generate attractive levels of income.

Given continued interest rate volatility, we deployed securities with the aim of dampening the impact of future rate swings. The contribution from these securities was effectively neutral over the period.

Our view that this rate-hiking cycle had reached its zenith was largely confirmed by the Federal Reserve's ("Fed") December comments. Consequently, we believe that the next move in rates will be lower.

After having spent much of 2023 aggressively increasing portfolio duration as we posited that the worst of the inflationary surge was behind us, we modestly reduced duration to 1.03 years by period end. In contrast with late 2022, this level falls within our neutral range and allows us to capture a sufficient level of yield unavailable just a few quarters ago. We believe this positioning is appropriate until we have greater visibility on the direction of the global economy and the degree to which inflation continues along its downward path toward the Fed's – and other central banks' – preferred objectives.

This shift in the Fed's stance has considerable implications for the fixed income landscape. Foremost, given Chairman Jerome Powell's laser focus on price stability after 2022's botched transitory call, the Fed would not even hint that a pivot – much less 75 basis points of reductions – was on the cards unless it believed the inflation genie was being placed back in the bottle.

Moderating economic growth means that a peak in the rates cycle has been reached. Importantly, a fixed income allocation can now offer yields at levels that had been absent for over a decade. Should a soft landing materialize, we believe higher-quality corporate and securitized credits could potentially offer value as their financial positions should help them weather a modest economic slowdown. If, however, growth surprises to the downside, we could see the safest segments of the bond market – namely Treasuries – rally across maturities. The resulting capital appreciation would then serve as a diversifier against the riskier equities and high-yield corporates that could experience a drawdown in a bearish scenario.

Thank you for investing in the Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund.

Janus Henderson Flexible Income Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a return, from a combination of income and capital growth, while seeking to limit losses to capital (although not guaranteed) over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index by 1.25% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 67% (but typically more than 80%) of its assets in US bonds of any quality, including high yield (non-investment grade) bonds and asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities, issued by governments, companies or any other type of issuer.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index, which is broadly representative of the bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Greg Wilensky and Michael Keough, portfolio managers

The Fund's overall interest-rate risk positioning contributed to relative results. We entered the year with an underweight to duration risk as the Federal Reserve ("Fed") maintained its hawkish stance and inflation remained unacceptably high. We added duration as Treasury rates rose during the year on stronger-than-expected GDP growth, sticky core inflation, and expectations of a 'higher-for-longer' interest rate environment. Our duration position nearly touched seven years in October, the highest ever in the strategy.

Following the rate rally in November and December, and the Fed's dovish policy pivot at its final meeting of 2023, we trimmed our duration position. We ended the year with a small duration overweight, as we believed rates were likely to fall further in 2024. We also liked the defensive characteristics of higher-duration exposure in the event the economy cools more quickly than expected.

Within our spread risk allocation, we maintained more risk versus the benchmark throughout the year. This contributed as spreads broadly tightened on the back of economic data that suggested the chances for an economic 'soft landing' had increased. Corporate investment-grade credit spreads narrowed to under 100 basis points by year end – a level not seen for 24 months and a sign that the corporate credit market has embraced the soft landing. As the year progressed and the outlook continued to improve, we decreased our exposure to US Treasuries in favor of a higher allocation to corporate bonds. We also added to our overweight to securitized sectors, as we continued to identify high-quality assets at attractive valuations.

Outperformance versus the benchmark was driven by a small allocation to high-yield corporates, an underweight to US Treasuries, and an allocation to credit risk transfer securities. Security selection within agency mortgage-backed securities detracted, somewhat offsetting relative outperformance. While credit spread products delivered strong excess returns in the year, valuations have priced in a lot of the more favorable economic outlook. Nevertheless, we continue to think the yields available across these asset classes are attractive and may drive strong investor demand.

In 2024, our focus will be on the health of the consumer, the job market outlook, and how corporations fare through this environment. We still favor an overweight to credit-spread risk and interest-rate risk, as the economy remains resilient and rate cuts are now on the table. Further, we continue to prefer securitized sectors for their relative value, as well as higher-rated assets for their defensiveness, in case we witness economic softening.

Janus Henderson Global Investment Grade Bond Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a return, from a combination of income and capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Corporate Bond Hedged USD Index by 1.25% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in a global portfolio of investment grade (equivalent to BBB rated or higher) corporate bonds, issued by companies and issuers.

The Investment Manager may use derivatives (complex financial instruments), including total return swaps, with the aim of making investment gains in line with the Fund's objective, to reduce risk or to manage the Fund more efficiently.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Corporate Bond Hedged USD Index, which is broadly representative of the bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

James Briggs, Michael Keough, Brad Smith and Tim Winstone, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 7.68% (Net) and 8.28% (Gross) compared with 9.10% for the Fund's benchmark, the (Bloomberg Global Aggregate Corporate Bond Hedged USD Index) and 10.46% for its target benchmark.

Sector allocation detracted from performance, as did the Fund's underweight to credit beta relative to the benchmark over the first three quarters of 2023, as credit spreads tightened. The Fund's overweight interest rate duration position, expressed through the US and UK, also hurt performance. However, security selection contributed positively to returns.

At a sector level, the overweight position to and security selection within banks detracted from performance, as did the Fund's overweight allocation to other utilities. Underweight positions in the other financial and electric utility sectors and an overweight position in technology contributed to performance, as did security selection in consumer non-cyclical, technology and transportation.

At a single-issue level, small positions in Silicon Valley Bank and Credit Suisse detracted from performance, with most of the underperformance occurring at the end of the first quarter. We only held senior holdco bonds in Credit Suisse and none of the Additional Tier 1 instruments that were written down during the merger with UBS. Some other second-tier US banks detracted marginally, as their credit spreads were volatile following the market turmoil in March. This included Fifth Third Bank, US Bancorp and Truist Bank. Elsewhere, UK water utility Thames Water detracted from performance. The underperformance was triggered by headlines in June that suggested the water regulator was concerned about the company's leverage and ability to raise funds to service its existing debt. This coincided with the surprise resignation of Thames Water's CEO, Sarah Bentley. We closed the position after the bonds recouped some performance in July.

More positively, overweight positions in International Distributions Services, semiconductor company Broadcom and chemicals company Sartorius contributed to performance. An overweight position to commercial real estate group CBRE Group also performed well, as did HSBC and UK company EDF Energy. A mild overweight position in Tenet Healthcare, which reported strong third-quarter results and a solid annual earnings forecast, also added to performance.

From a positioning perspective, we upgraded the quality of the Fund in the first half of 2023, reducing exposure to higher-beta bonds that are more economically sensitive and maintaining an underweight position in more cyclical sectors. Following US bank failures in March, we reduced the size of the Fund's overweight position to banks to acknowledge the additional risk-taking within the financials sector and the elevated risk of deposit flight. Our bank exposure continued to be focused on the most senior parts of the capital structure (the last to absorb any losses) and 'national champions' (which typically benefit from a flight to safety in a weak environment) as they were likely to perform better in a turbulent market. We preferred US global systemically important banks over US regional banks, given greater regulatory scrutiny and better liquidity profiles.

The last two months of the year were extraordinary for fixed income, resulting in one of the best quarterly performances in over two decades. Investors have moved quickly to price in an economic 'soft landing', but it is still unclear which path the economy is going to take in 2024. With central banks seemingly close to easing rates, investors will remain all-consumed on any central bank rhetoric and data releases that could trigger that first rate cut, so we expect volatility to remain elevated.

While we maintain our cautious stance, we see potential for investment grade credit in 2024 due to the resilience of the US economy and eurozone inflation levels that have already neared targets. Many large companies have termed-out debt profiles and continue to have reasonably good interest cover ratios. However, we continue to see genuine credit risks on the horizon and think the market has become more complacent about the longer-term outlook for credit, especially if we fall into recessionary territory. The cost of servicing debt has risen in the wake of higher yields and may remain elevated, with potential central bank cautiousness in cutting rates too soon.

Liquidity withdrawal and rate hikes are still feeding through to money supply and bank lending standards. Stronger, larger companies can still access capital, but at a higher price, with each refinancing coming at a premium. Credit fundamentals are gradually moving lower at the aggregate level and interest coverage has been good, but that is changing as rates have moved higher. Overall issuance, particularly in European credit markets, has remained low and continues to be a positive market technical for the asset class. That said, we caution that the 'refinancing wall' is getting closer as more and more companies will likely look to refinance. This is something we are monitoring closely. As a result of these tougher conditions, with weaker issuers facing increasing financing risks, our focus on quality will remain.

We also see elevated macroeconomic risks for the global economy. These include the lagged impact of monetary policy tightening, uncertainty around the upcoming US presidential election and heightened geopolitical risk. There is also the worry that the European Central Bank may have overtightened in its fight against inflation. In the US, we view the labour market as normalising, rather than a cyclical cause for concern. Yet, we still have no clarity on an equilibrium level for growth, inflation, employment and margins.

The resilience of investment grade credit has been surprising, and while we reduced our small credit beta overweight into December's rally, we feel spreads have the potential to tighten a little more. We continue to favour the prospects of banking debt. Valuations remain attractive while the banking model benefits from a higher interest rate regime.

We believe rates will move a little lower, hence we are comfortable in maintaining our marginal overweight duration position for now – although we have moderated this recently. But given the headwinds, and the extreme market rally of the last couple of months, we will continue to leverage the expertise of our credit research team and focus on security selection as opposed to making large macroeconomic calls. We think that a discriminating approach to security selection is essential when choosing mispriced securities in a market that has remained relatively strong against a backdrop of elevated uncertainty.

Janus Henderson High Yield Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a high income with the potential for some capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Bloomberg US Corporate High Yield Bond TR Index by 1.25% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in US high yield (non-investment grade, equivalent to BB+ rated or lower) corporate bonds, issued by companies or any other type of issuer.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Bloomberg US Corporate High Yield Bond TR Index, which is broadly representative of the bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Tom Ross, Brent Olson and Seth Meyer, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 11.64% (Net) and 12.32% (Gross) compared with 13.44% for the Fund's benchmark, Bloomberg US Corporate High Yield Bond Index, and 14.86% for its target benchmark.

High-yield credit spreads narrowed significantly on better-than-anticipated corporate results, expectations that the US economy may avert a recession, and, later in the year, on the Federal Reserve's dovish pivot. As high-yield bonds delivered strong excess returns in 2023, valuations priced in a highly favorable outlook. Nevertheless, we still think the yields available are attractive and may continue to drive investor demand.

The Fund's relative underperformance was driven by security selection within high-yield corporates, coupled with a small allocation to investment-grade corporates. Allocations to bank loans and convertible bonds contributed, helping to somewhat offset relative underperformance.

Individual detractors included Ard Finance, First Quantum Minerals, and Silicon Valley Bank ("SVB"). Packaging company Ard detracted on the back of lower volumes and financial results that failed to meet market expectations. First Quantum was impacted after Panama's top court ruled in November that the government contract to operate the Cobre Panama mine was unconstitutional and too favorable to the company.

First Quantum was subsequently ordered to suspend production at the mine. And while we moved swiftly to close out all positions and exit the Fund's exposure to SVB, a small allocation to the bank detracted when it was placed under Federal Deposit Insurance Corp receivership in March.

Individual contributors included Carnival Corp, Chart Industries, and Catalent Pharmaceuticals. In the first quarter, Catalent rallied on potential buyout interest from Danaher Corp. Equipment manufacturer Chart benefitted from a vibrant liquid natural gas industry and a softening in investor concerns regarding the firm's amount of leverage. Carnival bonds typically trade with a high beta, which resulted in relative outperformance in a year where spreads tightened. The cruise industry also continued to see a rebound in demand, while Holland America Line (a division of Carnival) set a new Black Friday record for bookings in the US with 20% growth year over year.

From a credit spread risk perspective, we maintained a cautiously optimistic outlook. At the time of writing, high-yield spreads traded tighter than their 10-year averages, while corporates continued to exhibit stronger fundamentals than we have typically seen this late in the cycle. We would expect some spread widening if economic conditions deteriorate, yet high-yield spread levels have been supported by several mitigating factors: the somewhat lower expected default rate relative to prior periods of credit stress (around 4%), and the higher quality of the Bloomberg US Corporate High Yield Bond Index versus history (BB rated issuers make up almost 50% of this index). Additionally, the high-yield market has continued to look attractive from a technical standpoint, as supply has remained moderate by historical standards. The high-yield universe is expected to shrink again in 2024, due in part to several 'rising stars' moving into the investment-grade universe, and a limited new issuance calendar.

Thank you for investing in Janus Henderson High Yield Fund.

Janus Henderson Multi-Sector Income Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a high income with the potential for some capital growth over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index by 1.25% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 70% of its assets in a multi-sector portfolio of US bonds of any quality, including high yield (non-investment grade) bonds and asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities, issued by governments, companies or any other type of issuer.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index, which is broadly representative of the bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Seth Meyer, John Lloyd and John Kerschner, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 8.93% (Net) and 9.74% (Gross) compared with 5.53% for the Fund's benchmark, Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index, and 6.85% for its target benchmark.

Relative outperformance was primarily driven by the Fund's broad overweight to spread risk, and by asset-allocation decisions within our spread-risk exposure. At the sector level, overweight allocations to high-yield corporates and securitized sectors were the key contributors. An underweight to investment-grade corporates detracted as corporate spreads tightened significantly, somewhat offsetting relative outperformance. While corporates have continued to deliver strong excess returns, we have maintained the Fund's exposure to the sector near historical lows due to their very tight spread levels and limited additional upside potential. Most of the Fund's spread risk exposure has been shifted to securitized sectors, where spreads have traded at attractive valuations.

The Fund's overall interest-rate risk positioning further contributed to relative returns. While the 10-year US Treasury ended virtually unchanged at 3.88%, rates were highly volatile during the year. The rate on the 10-year US Treasury fell to 3.27% in April on the back of turmoil in the regional banking sector, and peaked at 4.99% in October due to a stronger-than-expected economy and concerns regarding a 'higher-for-longer' interest-rate environment. We actively managed duration amid the volatility, resulting in relative outperformance. While we maintained our structural underweight to duration risk, we added to our duration position late in December, as we believed rates had more room to rally given cooling inflation and a now-dovish Federal Reserve ("Fed"). We also liked the defensive characteristics of higher-duration exposure in the event the economy slows more than expected.

In addition to the more upbeat macroeconomic backdrop, we believe the strategy is well positioned for strong absolute and risk-adjusted returns in 2024. In our view, the portfolio is well balanced and well positioned to outperform under multiple economic scenarios. If the economy enters a recession, we expect our defensive duration position to counter any spread widening, while our spread risk exposure is predominantly in securitized sectors where spread levels already reflect the risk of recession. On the other hand, if the Fed has engineered an economic 'soft landing', we would expect securitized spreads to narrow meaningfully and result in outperformance versus corporate-heavy benchmarks and peers. We consider the hard or soft landing to be the two most likely scenarios. But in the less-likely event that we see a resurgence in inflation and a rise in rates, we believe the portfolio's yield should help to soften any price effects from rising yields, while our underweight to corporate debt should be a net positive as we would expect corporate spreads to widen meaningfully in this scenario.

Thank you for investing in Janus Henderson Multi-Sector Income Fund.

Janus Henderson US Short-Term Bond Fund

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide as high a level of income as is consistent with the aim of limiting losses to capital over the long term.

Performance target: To outperform the Bloomberg 1-3 Year US Government/Credit TR Index by 0.75% per annum, before the deduction of charges, over any 5 year period.

The Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in US short-term and intermediate-term bonds, of which 70% will be investment grade, issued by governments or companies.

The Fund is actively managed with reference to the Bloomberg 1-3 Year US Government/Credit TR Index, which is broadly representative of the bonds in which it may invest, as this forms the basis of the Fund's performance target. The Investment Manager has discretion to choose investments for the Fund with weightings different to the index or not in the index, but at times the Fund may hold investments similar to the index.

Fund Overview

Greg Wilensky and Michael Keough, portfolio managers

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 USD share class returned 5.04% (Net) and 5.55% (Gross) compared with 4.61% for the Fund's benchmark, Bloomberg Barclays 1-3 Year US Government/Credit Index, and 5.40% for its target benchmark.

Our objective is to generate moderate income from credit spread sectors while limiting drawdowns over the cycle. To do this, we construct the portfolio with credit risk and a modest amount of interest-rate risk.

Within our spread risk allocation, we maintained more risk versus the benchmark throughout the year. This contributed as spreads broadly tightened on the back of economic data that suggested the chances for an economic 'soft landing' had increased. Corporate investment-grade credit spreads narrowed to under 100 basis points by year end – a level not seen for 24 months and a sign that the corporate credit market has embraced the soft landing. As the year progressed and the outlook continued to improve, we decreased our exposure to US Treasuries in favor of a higher allocation to corporate bonds. We also added to our overweight to securitized sectors, as we continued to identify high-quality assets at attractive valuations.

Outperformance versus the benchmark was driven by allocations to credit risk transfer securities and high-yield corporates, and by security selection within investment-grade corporates. Our overweight allocation to securitized sectors also broadly contributed. While credit spread products delivered strong excess returns in the year, valuations have priced in a lot of the more favorable economic outlook. Nevertheless, we continued to think the yields available across these asset classes were attractive and could drive strong investor demand.

The Fund's overall interest-rate risk positioning detracted from relative results. We entered the year with a duration underweight, as the Federal Reserve ("Fed") maintained its hawkish stance and inflation remained unacceptably high. We added duration as Treasury rates rose during the year on stronger-than-expected GDP growth, sticky core inflation, and expectations of a 'higher-for-longer' interest-rate environment.

We trimmed our duration position following the rate rally in November and December and the Fed's dovish policy pivot at its final meeting of 2023. We ended the year with a small duration overweight, as we believed rates were likely to fall further in 2024. We also liked the defensive characteristics of higher-duration exposure in the event the economy cools more quickly than expected.

In 2024, our focus will be on the health of the consumer, the job market outlook, and how corporations fare through this environment. We still favor an overweight to credit-spread risk and interest-rate risk, as the economy remains resilient and rate cuts are on the table. Further, we continue to prefer securitized sectors for their relative value, as well as higher-rated assets for their defensiveness, in case we witness economic softening.

Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (USD) 2027

Fund Overview (unaudited)

Investment Objective and Policy

The Fund aims to provide a regular income while aiming to preserve the initial capital invested over the Term.

The income amount or capital value is not guaranteed. The value of the Shares at the end of the Term may be less than the value at the time of investment because of the Fund's distribution policy or market movements.

Performance target: The Fund is managed on a buy and maintain basis without reference to a benchmark. The Sub-Investment Adviser has a high degree of freedom to choose investments for the Fund but will aim to keep activity in the portfolio to a low level.

The Fund invests at least 75% of its net asset value in global Investment Grade corporate bonds (equivalent to BBB rated or higher).

The Fund may invest up to 25% of its net asset value in Debt Securities or preference shares rated below Investment Grade, of which up to 5% of its net asset value in Debt Securities or preference shares from Developing Markets and up to 5% in unrated Debt Securities determined by the relevant Sub-Investment Adviser to be of comparable quality.

The Fund may also invest in high yield (non-Investment Grade) bonds, government bonds, municipal bonds, commercial paper, certificates of deposit and cash. The Fund may invest up to 10% of its net asset value in agency MBS (which does not include CMOs). The Fund will not invest in contingent convertible bonds. The Fund may invest up to 5% of its net asset value in the securities of other Eligible Collective Investment Schemes. During the Subscription Period, the Fund can hold up to 100% of its net assets in cash or cash equivalents, such as Money Market Instruments.

Fund Overview

Following the closure of the Subscription Period, the Fund is no longer open to subscriptions, transfers and/or exchanges into the Fund.

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the I2 USD share class (launched 12 July 2023) returned 4.16% (Net) and 4.48% (Gross).

Fixed income markets enjoyed a remarkable rally over the latter two months of the period, and both global investment grade credit and global high yield credit posted positive total returns in the fourth quarter. Excess returns (versus equivalent government debt) were positive.

The quarter launched with a weak month for bond markets following the outbreak of conflict between Israel and Hamas and fears of wider escalation. Resilient US economic data also provoked fresh concerns about the interest rate outlook, although weaker eurozone data and the expectation that the European Central Bank ("ECB") will be done with interest rates hikes led to outperformance from European government bonds. Investment grade and high yield credit recovered strongly in November, with government bond yields rallying on signs that the US economy was cooling. Annual inflation in the US eased from 3.7% in September to 3.1% in November, while economic growth for the third quarter was revised down to an annualised rate of 4.9% from the previous reading of 5.2%. The rebound in fixed income markets continued in December, as positive macroeconomic data and the prospect of looser monetary policy in the US triggered fresh optimism among investors for an economic 'soft landing'. This led to both investment grade and high yield spreads tightening, particularly following the US Federal Reserve's ("Fed") meeting where policy makers signaled rate cuts of 75 basis points ("bps") in 2024. The positive sentiment around potential interest rate cuts fuelled investors' risk appetite, leading higher-yielding credit to outperform sovereign and investment grade bonds. Within high yield, spreads of US high yield bonds tightened by more than European high yield bonds.

Over the quarter, the 10-year Treasury yield fell 69 bps to 3.88%, the German 10-year yield fell 82 bps to 2.01% and the UK 10-year yield fell 90 bps to 3.54%.

The Fed, Bank of England ("BoE") and ECB all held rates steady across the quarter. Both the ECB and BoE stressed that borrowing conditions would remain tight for as long as needed to contain inflation.

Portfolio Review

Credit returns and interest rate effects contributed positively to performance.

At the sector level, banks, financial services and technology were among the strongest contributing sectors. The Fund's exposure to consumer cyclicals and non-cyclicals also added to performance. No sector had a negative effect on performance, although transportation and other industrials had the weakest positive effect.

At the issuer level, several financial holdings contributed positively to performance, including US financial services company OneMain Financial, insurer Athene Global Funding and Bank of Montreal. The Fund's holdings in Germany-based SLM, which manufactures 3D metal printers, and US industrial conglomerate Standard Industries also had a strong positive effect. Only one issuer had a negative effect on performance, namely US financial services company Burford Capital.

In terms of credit ratings, allocations to BBB rated debt had the strongest positive credit effects relative to single A and BB rated debt, which had a more modest positive effect.

Manager Outlook

The last two months of 2023 were extraordinary for fixed income, resulting in one of the best quarterly performances in over two decades. Investors have moved quickly to price in a soft landing after positively surprising inflation falls and the change in tone from central bank officials. However, it is still unclear which path the economy is going to take in 2024. With central banks seemingly close to easing rates, investors will remain all-consumed on any central bank rhetoric and data releases that could trigger that first rate cut, so we expect volatility to remain elevated.

While we maintain our cautious stance, we see potential for investment grade credit in 2024 due to the resilience of the US economy and eurozone inflation levels that are already nearing targets. Many large companies have termed-out debt profiles and continue to have reasonably good interest cover ratios thanks to strong free cash flow. However, we continue to see genuine credit risks on the horizon and think the market has become more complacent about the longer-term outlook for credit, especially if we fall into recessionary territory. The cost of servicing debt has risen in the wake of higher yields and may remain elevated with potential central bank cautiousness in cutting rates too soon.

Liquidity withdrawal and rate hikes are still feeding through to money supply and bank lending standards. Stronger, larger companies can still access capital, but at a higher price, with each refinancing coming at a premium. Credit fundamentals are gradually moving lower at the aggregate level and interest coverage has been good, but that is changing as rates have moved higher. Overall issuance, particularly in European credit markets, has remained low and continues to be a positive market technical for the asset class. That said, we caution that the 'refinancing wall', though not right upon us, is getting closer as more and more companies will likely look to refinance. This is something we are monitoring closely. As a result of these tougher conditions, with weaker issuers facing increasing financing risks, our focus on quality will remain.

We also see elevated macroeconomic risks for the global economy. These include the lagged impact of monetary policy tightening, uncertainty around the upcoming US presidential election and heightened geopolitical risk. There is also the worry that the ECB may have overtightened in its fight against inflation. In the US, we view the labour market as normalising, rather than a cyclical cause for concern. Yet, we still have no clarity on an equilibrium level for growth, inflation, employment and margins.

The resilience of investment grade credit has been surprising, but we do feel spreads have the potential to tighten a little more. We continue to favour the prospects of banking debt. Valuations remain attractive while the banking model benefits from a higher interest rate regime.

As part of our disciplined repeatable process, we will continue to conduct ongoing surveillance and risk monitoring, leveraging the expertise of our credit research team to avoid exposure to bonds where there is increased risk of default, while simultaneously defending the portfolio's yield.

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the H2 EUR share class (launched 2 November 2023) returned 3.50% (Net) and 3.61% (Gross).

The last two months of 2023 were extraordinary for fixed income, resulting in one of the best quarterly performances in over two decades. Investors have moved quickly to price in an economic 'soft landing' after positively surprising inflation falls and the change in tone from central bank officials. However, it is still unclear which path the economy is going to take in 2024. With central banks seemingly close to easing rates, investors will remain all-consumed on any central bank rhetoric and data releases that could trigger that first rate cut, so we expect volatility to remain elevated.

While we maintain our cautious stance, we see potential for investment grade credit in 2024 due to the resilience of the US economy and eurozone inflation levels that are already nearing targets. Many large companies have termed-out debt profiles and continue to have reasonably good interest cover ratios thanks to strong free cash flows. However, we continue to see genuine credit risks on the horizon and think the market has become more complacent about the longer-term outlook for credit, especially if we fall into recessionary territory. The cost of servicing debt has risen in the wake of higher yields and may remain elevated with potential central bank cautiousness in cutting rates too soon.

Liquidity withdrawal and rate hikes are still feeding through to money supply and bank lending standards. Stronger, larger companies can still access capital, but at a higher price, with each refinancing coming at a premium. Credit fundamentals are gradually moving lower at the aggregate level and interest coverage has been good, but that is changing as rates have moved higher. Overall issuance, particularly in European credit markets, has remained low and continues to be a positive market technical for the asset class. That said, we caution that the 'refinancing wall', though not right upon us, is getting closer as more and more companies will likely look to refinance. This is something we are monitoring closely. As a result of these tougher conditions, with weaker issuers facing increasing financing risks, our focus on quality will remain.

We also see elevated macroeconomic risks for the global economy. These include the lagged impact of monetary policy tightening, uncertainty around the upcoming US presidential election and heightened geopolitical risk. There is also the worry that the European Central Bank may have overtightened in its fight against inflation. In the US, we view the labour market as normalising, rather than a cyclical cause for concern. Yet, we still have no clarity on an equilibrium level for growth, inflation, employment and margins.

The resilience of investment grade credit has been surprising, but we feel spreads have the potential to tighten a little more. We continue to favour the prospects of banking debt. Valuations remain attractive while the banking model benefits from a higher interest rate regime.

As part of our disciplined repeatable process, we will continue to conduct ongoing surveillance and risk

Published NAV	69,562,197
Placement fee	(421,098)
Closing NAV	69,141,099

For the purposes of calculating the Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027 published NAV, in accordance with its prospectus and leading industry practice, the placement fee with respect to Y1 shares has been capitalised and is amortised through the Statement of Comprehensive Income over a 4 year period from the date of commencement of the Fund's operations. However, as the financial statements are prepared under Irish GAAP and FRS102, the placement fee was expensed in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for the period 2 November 2023 to 31 December 2023.

All share classes (except Class Y1 shares) are subject to a redemption fee (exit fee) if an Investor redeems shares during the term of the Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027 fund, on a sliding scale depending on the date of redemption.

The difference between the published NAV per share and that shown in the financial statements is wholly attributable to the differences arising from expensing the placement fee. This has no impact on the published NAV per share, its related redemption pricing or the calculation of fees due to the Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies and estimation techniques adopted by the Company are as follows:

Statement of Compliance

The financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 are prepared in accordance with FRS 102 Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued by the Financial Reporting Council ("FRC") and the UCITS Regulations 2011 as amended and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 (the "Central Bank UCITS Regulations").

The Company has applied the same accounting policies and methods of computation in this annual report and financial statements as in its annual financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2022 unless otherwise stated.

The format and certain wordings of the financial statements have been adapted from those contained in the FRS 102 and the Companies Act 2014 so that, in the opinion of the Directors, they more appropriately reflect the nature of the Company's business as an investment fund.

Fair Value Measurement

Under FRS 102, in accounting for its financial instruments a reporting entity is required to apply either:

- a) the full requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments,
- b) the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments, or
- c) the recognition and measurement provisions of IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments. The Company has chosen to apply the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments.

Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are deemed to have occurred at the beginning of the year.

Use of Estimates

Management makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are outlined within this note to the financial statements.

Basis of Measurement

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention as modified to include financial assets held at fair value through profit or loss.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis except for Janus Henderson US Research Fund, Janus Henderson Global Research Fund and Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund.

The financial statements for the Funds listed below have been prepared on a basis other than going concern as the Funds have ceased investment activity on the dates provided below.

Fund Name	Closure Date
Janus Henderson US Research Fund	28 September 2023
Janus Henderson Global Research Fund	28 September 2023
Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund	1 December 2023

Cash Flow Statement

The Funds are not required to produce a cash flow statement as they meet the exemption criteria set out in Section 7 of FRS 102 as the Funds' investments are highly liquid, are carried at market value and a Statement of change in net assets attributable to redeemable ordinary shareholders is provided for each Fund.

Valuation

The financial statements have been prepared using a valuation date of 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022.

Investment Valuation

The Company values both financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value in the Statement of Financial Position and Statement of Comprehensive Income. Gains and losses arising from changes in their fair value are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in the financial year in which they arise.

All the Company's assets and liabilities are held for the purpose of being traded.

The Manager has assigned the responsibility to review and approve level 3 fair value pricing decisions on a regular basis to the Janus Henderson USPC.

The Fair Value Hierarchy tables within each individual funds' financial statements present the positions which were fair valued by Janus Henderson USPC and classified as level 3, as at 30 December 2023 and 31 December 2022. These estimated fair values may not reflect amounts that could be realised upon immediate sale or amounts that ultimately may be realised.

Listed Securities

Securities listed on a recognised exchange or traded on any other organised market are valued at the latest available market price on that regulated market, as at the close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange

("NYSE") on the relevant Business Day (normally 4:00 p.m., New York time, Monday through Friday) or, if unavailable or, in the opinion of the Administrator unrepresentative of fair value, the last available market price on the principal exchange. If for specific assets the latest available prices do not, in the opinion of the Administrator, reflect their fair value or if prices are unavailable, the value shall be calculated by the Administrator in consultation with the Investment Adviser or the relevant Sub-Investment Adviser on the basis of the probable realisation value for such assets as at the close of the regular trading session of the NYSE on the relevant Business Day. The Administrator may use a systematic fair valuation model provided by an independent third party to value equity securities in order to adjust for stale pricing which may occur between the close of foreign exchanges and the relevant Valuation Point.

Debt Securities

The fair value of debt securities (including corporate and government bonds) are based on closing evaluated mid prices at the Statement of Financial Position date. The mid prices are obtained from reputable pricing sources. The Fund would exercise judgement on the quantity and quality of pricing sources used. Where no market price is available the Investment Manager/Investment Adviser will determine the fair value using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques include the use of comparable recent arm's length transactions, reference to other instruments that are substantially the same, discounted cash flow analysis and other valuation techniques used by market participants.

Investment Funds

Units or shares in investment funds are valued at the latest available unaudited net asset value estimated by the underlying administrator or, if listed or traded on a Regulated Market, at the latest quoted trade price or a mid-quotation (or, if unavailable, a bid quotation) or, if unavailable or unrepresentative, the latest available unaudited net asset value estimated by the underlying administrator as deemed relevant to the investment fund.

Short-Term Investments

Amortised cost calculated using the effective yield method, which approximates fair value, is used to value discounted debt obligations with 60 days or less remaining to maturity, unless a competent person appointed by the Directors or its duly appointed delegate determine that this does not represent fair value. All other short-term investments, including time deposits, are valued at cost, which approximates their fair value. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Company estimates cash flows considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument but does not consider future credit losses.

Exchange Traded Derivative Instruments

Exchange traded derivative instruments are valued at the close of the regular trading session of the NYSE on the relevant Business Day at the settlement price for such instruments on such market. If the settlement price of an exchange traded derivative instrument is not available, the value of such instrument shall be the probable realisation value estimated with care and in good faith by the Administrator or other competent person approved for the purpose by the Depository.

Over-the-Counter ("OTC") Derivative Instruments

OTC financial derivative instruments are valued daily using either the counterparty valuation or an alternative valuation, such as a valuation calculated by the Company or by an independent pricing vendor appointed by the Company provided that the Company or other party has adequate human and technical means to perform the valuation and is approved for that purpose by the Depository. The counterparty to derivative instruments not traded on an exchange must be prepared to value the contract and to close out the transaction at the request of the Company at fair value. Where the counterparty valuation is used, the valuation must be approved or verified at least weekly by an independent party who is approved for the purpose by the Depository and who is independent of the counterparty. The independent verification shall be carried out at least monthly. Where an alternative valuation is used, the Company shall follow international best practice and shall adhere to the principles on the valuation of OTC instruments established by bodies such as International Organisation of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") and Alternative Investment Management Association ("AIMA") such valuation shall be reconciled on a monthly basis to the valuation provided by the counterparty to such instrument. Where significant differences arise these will be promptly investigated and explained.

Futures Contracts

Futures are contracts for delayed delivery of securities in which the seller agrees to make delivery at a specified future date of an instrument, at a specified price or yield. Initial margin deposits are made upon entering into future contracts and are generally made in cash or cash equivalents. Futures contracts are fair valued based upon their daily quoted settlement price. For open futures contracts, changes in the fair value of the contract are recognised as unrealised gains or losses by "marking-to-market" the value of the contract at the Statement of Financial Position date. When the contract is closed, the difference between the proceeds from (or cost of) the closing transactions and the original transaction is recorded as a realised gain or loss. Futures contracts are held at fair value through profit or loss. The variation margin receivable or payable at the financial year end date is reported as an asset or liability, as applicable, in the Statement of Financial Position, gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the futures contracts are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in the financial year which they arise.

Options

Options are rights to buy or sell an underlying asset or instrument for a specified price (the exercise price) during, or at the end of, a specified contractual period. The seller (or writer) of the option receives a payment, or premium, from the buyer, which the writer keeps regardless of whether the buyer uses (or exercises) the option. The premium on purchased put options exercised is subtracted from the proceeds of the sale of the underlying security or foreign currency in determining the realised gain or loss. The premium on purchased call options exercised is added to the cost of the securities or foreign currencies purchased. Premiums paid from the purchase of options, which expire unexercised are treated as realised losses. The premium on written call options exercised is added to the proceeds from the sale of the underlying security or foreign currency in determining the realised gain or loss. The premium on written put options exercised is subtracted from the cost of the securities or foreign currencies purchased. Premiums received from written options, which expire unexercised are treated as realised gains. A call option gives the holder (buyer) the right to buy the underlying asset from the seller (writer) of the option. A put option gives the holder the right to sell the underlying asset to the writer of the option. Options can trade on exchanges or in the OTC market and may be bought or sold on a wide variety of underlying assets or instruments, including financial indices, individual securities, and other derivative instruments, such as futures contracts, foreign currencies, forward currency contracts, structured investments (derivative securities which are specifically designed to combine the characteristics of one or more underlying securities in a single note) and yield curve options. Options that are written on futures contracts are subject to margin requirements similar to those applied to futures contracts.

Options, held at fair value through profit or loss, are fair valued daily based upon the quotation provided by counterparty on the principal exchange on which the option is traded. Realised and unrealised gains and losses arising from option contracts are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in the financial year in which they arise.

Swaptions

Swaptions are similar to options on securities except that instead of selling or purchasing the right to buy or sell a security, the writer or purchaser of the swaption is granting or buying the right to enter into a previously agreed upon swap agreement at any time before the expiration of the option.

In purchasing and writing swaptions, the Fund bears the market risk of an unfavourable change in the price of the underlying swap or the risk that the Fund may not be able to enter into a closing transaction due to an illiquid market.

Exercise of a written swaption could result in the Fund purchasing a swap at a price different from the current market value. The Funds execute transactions in over-the-counter swaptions. When swaptions are closed, the difference between the premium and the amount paid or received or the full amount of the premium if the swaption expires worthless, is recognized as a gain or loss and is presented in the Statement of Comprehensive Income within net gains/(losses) on financial assets/liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Swaps

A swap is an agreement that obligates two parties to exchange a series of cash flows at specified intervals based upon or calculated by reference to changes in specified prices or rates for a specified amount of an underlying asset. The Company may utilise swap agreements as a means to gain exposure to certain common stocks and/or to "hedge" or protect their portfolios from adverse movements in securities prices or interest rates. Swap contracts of the Company are reported as an asset or liability on the Statement of Financial Position. Realised gains and losses of the swaps are reported in "Net gain/(loss) on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss" on the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Total return swaps involve an exchange by two parties in which one party makes payments based on a set rate, either fixed or variable, while the other party makes payments based on the return of an underlying asset, which includes both the income it generates and any capital gains over the payment financial period. The Company's maximum risk of loss for total return swaps from counterparty risk or credit risk is the discounted value of the payments to be received from/paid to the counterparty over the contract's remaining life, to the extent that the amount is positive. The risk is mitigated by having a netting arrangement between the Company and the counterparty and by the posting of collateral to the Company to cover the Company's exposure to the counterparty. Total return swaps are valued daily by independent pricing vendor Markit.

Equity swaps involve an exchange of cash flows between two parties that allows each party to diversify its income, while still holding its original assets. The two sets of nominally equal cash flows are exchanged as per the terms of the swap, which may involve an equity-based cash flow (such as from a stock asset) that is traded for a fixed-income cash flow (such as a benchmark rate). Equity swaps are valued daily by independent pricing vendor Markit.

An interest rate swap is an agreement between two parties in which one stream of future interest payments is exchanged for another based on a specified principal amount. Interest rate swaps usually involve the exchange of a fixed interest rate for a floating rate, or vice versa, to reduce or increase exposure to fluctuations in interest rates or to obtain a marginally lower interest rate than would have been possible without the swap. Interest rate swaps are valued daily by independent pricing vendor Markit.

Credit default swap agreements ("CDS") enable the Company to buy or sell credit protection on an individual issuer or basket of issuers. The Company may enter into CDS to gain long or short exposure to sovereign bond markets. Long CDS positions are utilised to gain exposure to a sovereign bond market (similar to buying a bond) and are akin to selling insurance on the bond. Short CDS positions are utilised to short exposure to a sovereign bond market (similar to shorting a bond) and are akin to buying insurance on the bond. CDS are valued daily by independent pricing vendor Markit. All credit default swap positions held are centrally cleared.

Some derivatives may be centrally cleared through a Central Counterparty Clearing House ("CCP"). A CCP is a financial institution that takes on counterparty credit risk between parties to a transaction and provides clearing and settlement services for trades in foreign exchange, securities, options, and derivative contracts. For centrally cleared trades the CCP marks contracts to market, and requires the posting of variation margin in response to changes in market values. Details of individual Funds exposure to the CCP is detailed in the relevant portfolio investments.

Forward Currency Contracts

The Company may, without limitation, enter into three types of forward currency contracts: non-base currency Share Class level hedging, foreign security hedging and security transaction level hedging. The unrealised appreciation or depreciation on open forward currency contracts is calculated by reference to the difference between the contracted rate and the rate to close out the contract. Realised gains or losses include net gains/losses on contracts, which have been settled or offset by other contracts.

For foreign security and security transaction level hedging, realised and unrealised gains and losses are allocated at Fund level. For non-base currency Share Class level hedging the realised and unrealised gains and losses are allocated solely to the relevant Share Class.

Tranche Loans

The Company invests in direct debt instruments which are interests in amounts owed to lenders or lending syndicates by corporate, governmental, or other borrowers. A Fund's investment in loans may be in the form of participations in loans or assignments of all or a portion of loans from third parties. When investing in a tranche loan, a Fund has the right to receive payments of principal, interest and any fees to which it is entitled only from the lender selling the loan agreement and only upon receipt of payments by the lender from the borrower. Tranche loans are fair valued based on valuations provided by the independent pricing vendor Markit. Fees earned or paid and the receipt of payments of principal are recorded as a component of net gain/(loss) on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Private Placement Investments

A private placement is a private alternative to issuing a publicly offered security as a means for raising capital. In a private placement the sale of securities is made directly by the issuer to a select number of investors without public offering through an investment bank. Typically, when the Fund invests through a private placement, the Fund makes a commitment to invest a specified amount of capital in the investee private company in a series of tranches. The capital commitment for the initial and any future closings are triggered following the completion of defined conditions or events.

The Fund recognises investment purchases in the financial statements for tranches that completed or became binding transactions prior to the end of the financial reporting period. These are then included in the year end investment portfolio as an investment holding. Private placements are fair valued using valuation techniques approved by the Janus Henderson USPC in line with the valuation policy. Future tranches that have not completed before the year end and are dependent on future events are unfunded commitments and not recognised in the financial statements. These future commitments are disclosed in the Unfunded commitments and contingent liabilities Note 14.

Receivables and Payables

Receivables and payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Allocations between Classes

A Fund's income, expenses provisions, accruals and changes in values are allocated between classes using an allocation ratio representing the proportion of the Fund nominally owned by each class. In addition class specific movements, such as class fees and charges are applied to just the appropriate class. Subscriptions, redemptions and gains or losses on share class hedges are applied as class specific items.

Cash, Bank Overdraft and Other Liquid Assets

Cash, bank overdraft and other liquid assets are valued at their fair value with the relevant interest accrued, where applicable, and charged to the Statement of Comprehensive Income when incurred.

Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for as of the date purchased or sold. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in the financial period in which they arise. The weighted average cost basis is used to calculate realised gains and losses on the sale of investments. The Fund derecognises an investment as a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or a financial asset is transferred and the transfer qualifies for derecognition with FRS 102. The Fund derecognises an investment as a financial liability when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired.

Dividends are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income on the dates on which the relevant securities are listed as "ex-dividend". Interest income is accrued daily on an effective yield basis. Income is shown gross of non-recoverable withholding tax. Withholding tax is shown net of any reclaim receivable.

Expenses

Expenses are accounted for on an accruals basis and are charged to the Statement of Comprehensive Income when incurred.

Transaction Costs

Transaction costs include fees and commissions paid to agents (including employees acting as selling agents), advisers, brokers and dealers, levies by regulatory agencies and securities exchanges, and transfer taxes and duties. Transaction costs do not include debt premiums or discounts, financing costs or internal administrative costs. Transaction costs on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are expensed as incurred. Transaction costs per Fund are presented in Note 12.

Distributions Payable to Holders of Redeemable Ordinary Shares

Distributions to holders of redeemable ordinary shares are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when they are appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the Company. Distributions paid to holders of redeemable ordinary Shares are classified as finance costs in the Statement of Comprehensive Income. Please refer to the Prospectus for details on distribution policies applicable to each Class of Shares.

Income Equalisation

All Funds operating a distributing share class intend to operate income equalisation. Income equalisation prevents the dilution of current shareholders' earnings by applying a portion of the proceeds from Shares issued or redeemed to undistributed income. When Shares are purchased or redeemed the price may include an element of income. Equalisation is this element of income paid out to shareholders who have purchased or redeemed during this financial year and it is accounted for in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Redeemable Ordinary Shareholders in the Proceeds from/Redemption of redeemable ordinary shares.

Dilution Adjustment

A Fund may suffer dilution which is a reduction in the value of the assets as a result of the costs incurred in dealing in its underlying investments and of any spread between the buying and the selling prices of such investments which is not reflected in the issue or redemption price paid by or to shareholders. With a view to countering this (which, if it is significant, disadvantages existing or continuing shareholders), the Directors may make an adjustment to the share price on a dealing day. The dilution adjustment may apply to redemptions or to subscriptions and if charged, the value of the dilution adjustment will be paid into the Fund and will become part of the net asset attributed to the relevant Fund. Any dilution adjustments are disclosed in Statement of Changes in the Net Assets Attributable to Redeemable Ordinary Shareholders.

Where a dilution adjustment is applied, it will increase the Net Asset Value per Share of a Fund when there are net inflows and decrease the Net Asset Value per Share of a Fund when there are net outflows. The Net Asset Value per Share, as adjusted by any dilution adjustment, will be applicable to all transactions in Shares or the relevant Fund on the relevant dealing day. Therefore, for an investor who subscribes to a Fund on a dealing day when the dilution adjustment increases the Net Asset Value per Share, the cost per Share to the investor will be greater than it would have been absent the dilution adjustment. For an investor who redeems a certain number of Shares from a Fund on a dealing day when the dilution adjustment decreases the Net Asset Value per Share, the amount received by the investor in redemption proceeds for the Shares redeemed will be less than it would have been absent the dilution adjustment.

Foreign Exchange Translation

Functional and Presentation Currency

Items included in the Company's financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates (the "functional currency"), which is the US Dollar ("USD"). All amounts disclosed in the financial statements are in USD (the "presentation currency"), with the exception of the Janus Henderson Intech European Core and Fixed Maturity Bond EUR 2027 for which the functional currency is the Euro ("EUR").

The Statement of Financial Position is translated using exchange rates listed in Note 11 at the financial year end and the Statement of Comprehensive Income and Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Redeemable Ordinary Shareholders are translated at an average rate over the financial year for inclusion in the combined financial statements of the Company. The resulting notional currency gain/(loss) on retranslation of opening net assets is included in the Combined Company Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Redeemable Ordinary Shareholders.

The method of translation has no effect on the value of net assets allocated to the individual Funds.

Transactions and Balances

Assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the functional currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates ruling at the Statement of Financial Position date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Gains and losses on foreign exchange transactions are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in determining the result for the financial year.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the Statement of Financial Position where the Company has a legally enforceable right to set-off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2. Share Capital

Authorised

The paid up share capital of the Company shall at all times equal the combined net asset value of the Funds. The Directors are authorised to issue up to 500 billion Shares of no par value each. For financial statements purposes, these are deemed to be either subscriber shares or redeemable ordinary Shares ("Ordinary Shares").

Subscriber Shares

There are currently 30,000 subscriber shares in issue of no par value, held by two subscriber shareholders. The subscriber shares do not form part of the net asset value of the Company and are thus not disclosed in the financial statements except by way of this note only. The subscriber shares entitle the shareholders holding them to attend and vote at all meetings of the Company, but do not entitle the holders to participate in the dividends or net asset value of any Fund or of the Company.

Redeemable Ordinary Shares

The Company issues redeemable ordinary shares, which are redeemable at the holder's option and are classified as financial liabilities. Redeemable ordinary shares can be put back to the Company at any time for cash equal to a proportionate share of the net asset value of the relevant Fund. The redeemable ordinary share is carried at the redemption amount that is payable at the Statement of Financial Position date if the holder exercises the right to put the share back to the Company at that date. Holders of redeemable ordinary shares are entitled to attend and vote at meetings of the Company and of the Fund represented by those Shares.

The net asset value for each Class of Shares of each Fund is calculated by determining the value of the assets of the relevant Fund applicable to that Class, including accrued income, and deducting all liabilities (including all fees and charges) of that Class, and dividing the resultant sum by the total number of Shares of that Class in the relevant Fund in issue or allotted at that time, to give the net asset value per Share per Class of the Fund. As the Share Classes of each Fund will have different amounts of liabilities, the net asset value per Share attributable to each of them, even within the same Fund, will be different.

Hedged Share Classes

In order to limit the currency exposure between the share classes denominated in a currency other than the relevant Fund's base currency (with the exception of BRL Hedged share classes which are denominated in the relevant Fund's base currency) and that include the prefix "H" in their names, the relevant currency of the share class may be hedged provided that (1) it is generally in the best interests of the Shareholders of the relevant class and (2) the overhedged position will not exceed 105% of the net asset value of the share class.

Alternatively a hedged currency share class (the "Portfolio Hedged Share Class") that include the prefix "PH" in their name may be created with the aim of hedging any currency exposure between the currency of the share class and the currency of any underlying investment of a Fund to the extent a Fund has not hedged the currency exposure between the Base Currency of that Fund and the currencies of the underlying investments of that Fund.

Cash collateral provided by a Fund is identified in the Statement of Financial Position as collateral cash and is not included as a component of cash and foreign currency. Cash collateral payable to the broker is identified in the Statement of Financial Position as Collateral cash payable to broker. For collateral other than cash, if the party to whom the collateral is provided has the right by contract or custom to sell or re-pledge the collateral, a Fund classifies that asset in its Statement of Financial Position separately from other assets and identifies the asset as pledged collateral. Where the party to whom the collateral is provided does not have the right to sell or re-pledge, a disclosure of the collateral provided is made in the notes to the financial statements.

6. Commitments and Contingent Liabilities

For Credit Default Swaps in which the Company is selling protection the notional amount of the Credit Default Swaps contracts, on which protection has been sold represents the maximum payout. As at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022 there is no credit risk exposure.

8. Soft Commissions Arrangements

The Investment Manager and where relevant, sub-investment managers, use investment research, both internally generated and externally sourced, to inform their decision making.

The Investment Manager, and where relevant sub-investment managers, pay for investment research from their own resources.

For the year ending 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022 there were no soft commission arrangements.

9. Cross Liability

The Company has segregated liability between Funds. This ensures that the liabilities incurred on behalf of a Fund will generally be discharged solely out of the assets of that Fund and there generally can be no recourse to the other Funds to satisfy those liabilities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no assurance that, should an action be brought against the Company in the courts of another jurisdiction, the segregated nature of the Funds would necessarily be upheld. In addition, whether or not there is a cross-liability between Funds, proceedings involving an individual Fund could involve the Company as a whole which could potentially affect the operation of all Funds.

10. Efficient Portfolio Management

The Company may enter into derivative contracts and Securities Financing Transactions (a repurchase transaction, securities or commodities lending and securities or commodities borrowing, a buy-sell back transaction or sell-buy back transaction and a margin lending transaction) for the purposes of efficient portfolio management. Efficient portfolio management means investment decisions involving transactions that are entered into for one or more of the following specific aims: the reduction of risk; the reduction of cost; or the generation of additional capital or income for the Funds with an appropriate level of risk, taking into account the risk profile of the Funds. Permitted efficient portfolio management transactions are transactions in derivative contracts dealt in or traded on regulated markets operating regularly or over-the-counter arrangements with highly rated financial institutions specialising in this type of transactions.

During the financial year, forward currency contracts, futures, options, swaps transactions and stock lending arrangements were entered into for the purpose of efficient portfolio management in order to hedge currency and market exposure and/or for investment purposes. Details of all open transactions at the financial year end are disclosed in the Portfolio Investments.

The Funds did not engage in any efficient portfolio management techniques using repurchase and reverse repurchase arrangements during the years ended 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022.

Transaction costs on purchases or sales of investments at fair value through profit or loss are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within 'Net (loss)/gain on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss', in the period in which they arise.

13. Distribution Policy

The Company will declare or make dividend payments as per the distribution policy of each share class.

Where the above Classes of Shares operate equalisation, distributions made by such Classes of Shares will include an amount of income equalisation. This amount corresponds to the equalisation income included in the net asset value per Share of such Classes.

Please refer to pages 373 to 374 (which are unaudited) for details on distribution policies applicable to each Class of Share.

14. Financial Instruments and Financial Derivative Instruments

As an investment company, in pursuing their investment objectives set out in the Prospectus, the Funds hold a number of financial instruments, and derivatives for efficient portfolio management, which means that the assessment and monitoring of these risks attached to these instruments is fundamental to the financial position and results of the Company. These comprise of:

- Equity and non-equity shares, fixed income securities, floating rate securities, tranche loans and derivatives. These are held in accordance with each Fund's investment objectives and policies;
- Cash, liquid resources and short-term debtors and creditors that arise directly from operations; and
- Redeemable ordinary shares which represent investors' monies which are invested on their behalf.

Risk can be separated into the following components: Market Risk, Credit Risk and Liquidity Risk. The main risks arising from the Company's financial instruments are market price, foreign currency, interest rate, liquidity, credit, counterparty risk, increased margin calls and unlimited risk of loss. Further details of these and other risks are set out in the Prospectus under the heading "Risk Factors and Special Considerations".

Assessment and Monitoring of Risk

Day-to-day risk management of the Company is undertaken by the Investment Adviser. The Investment Adviser together with the Sub-Investment Advisers identify, monitor and manage all applicable risks pertaining to the Company to the extent required under the UCITS Regulations. The Investment Adviser has undertaken to report to the Manager on a monthly basis matters arising in relation to the monitoring of certain material risks arising from a Fund's investments in financial instruments. In addition to the Investment Adviser undertaking a daily review of a Fund's investments in financial instruments, other risk management issues are also reported on a quarterly basis to the Manager by the individual or individuals within the relevant service providers responsible for monitoring risk including certain operational risks relating to the Company's key service providers.

The risk management process is well integrated with the Investment Adviser's investment process. The Investment Adviser has a dedicated Risk Management Group that ensures that risk is continuously monitored versus the benchmarks. The Risk Management Group meets periodically with the Portfolio Managers to highlight the risk and positioning of the portfolios.

Securities Lending Arrangements

A Fund may seek to earn additional income through lending its securities to certain qualified broker-dealers and institutions. There is the risk that when portfolio securities are lent, the securities may not be returned on a timely basis, and a Fund may experience delays and costs in recovering the security or gaining access to the collateral provided to a Fund to collateralise the loan. If a Fund is unable to recover a security on loan, the Fund may use the collateral to purchase replacement securities in the market. There is a risk that the value of the collateral could decrease below the value of the replacement security, resulting in a loss to the Fund. In participating in any securities lending programme, assets of the Company may be transferred to certain borrowers. Notwithstanding the requirement to receive collateral from any borrower, there are certain risks inherent in the lending of securities such as the default or failure of a borrower or securities lending agent. In addition, there are certain market risks associated with the investment of any collateral received from a borrower which could result in a decline in the value of the invested collateral, resulting in a loss to the Company.

The Investment Adviser has appointed the following Sub-Investment Advisers with responsibility for investing and managing the assets of the Funds and for assisting in identifying, monitoring and managing the relevant risks.

1. Janus Henderson Investors US LLC ("JHIUS"), Janus Henderson Investors (Singapore) Limited ("JHISL") and Janus Henderson Investors UK Limited ("JHIUKL")

JHIUS and JHISL generally take a "bottom-up" approach to building portfolios. In other words, they seek to identify individual companies with earnings growth potential that may not be recognised by the market at large. Those Funds in the Equity and Allocation Funds and Alternative Fixed Income Investment Funds categories with the exception of the Janus Henderson US Small-Mid Cap Value Fund follow an investment strategy in which companies are considered principally on their own fundamental qualitative and quantitative characteristics. Commonly referred to as stock picking or bottom up investing, portfolios of fundamental based investment funds are built one security at a time following intensive in house research into each company. Areas of research focus can include the company's management, financials, competitive strengths and weaknesses, earnings growth prospects and numerous other metrics. This approach rests on a belief that some companies have inherent strengths for creating shareholder value over time, have superior prospects to their peer groups and should therefore outperform even in challenging industry and economic circumstances. The purpose of a fundamental investment approach is to identify and invest in such companies.

JHIUKL is the Sub-Investment Adviser for the Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund, Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund, Janus Henderson Multi-Sector Income Fund and Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund I (This fund was authorised during the year 2020, the fund is yet to launch), Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (USD) 2027 (This fund was authorised during the year 2023) and Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027 (This fund was authorised during the year 2023). There is no overarching house style used by JHIUKL team. Each team is responsible for their investment process, stock selection, and portfolio construction. Research analysts are embedded within teams as required, depending on the requirements of the individual investment processes.

2. Intech Investment Management LLC ("Intech")

Intech the Sub-Investment Adviser for the Janus Henderson Intech European Core Fund which closed on 1 December 2023, applies a mathematical approach to building portfolios. Intech developed the formulas underlying this mathematical process. The process is designed to take advantage of market volatility (variation in stock prices), rather than using research or market/economic trends to predict the future stocks. The process seeks to generate a return in excess of the relevant Risk Managed Equity Fund's benchmark over the long term, while controlling the risk relative to the benchmark.

Intech's investment and risk process is unique in that it is based on a rigorous mathematical theory – its risk process employs a proprietary optimisation process to identify the target security weights in the portfolio. Using a precise mathematical formula and applying that within specific risk constraints, the process attempts to identify a portfolio that is more efficient than the benchmark index.

3. Kapstream Capital PTY Limited ("Kapstream")

Kapstream, is the Sub-Investment Adviser for the Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund and Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund during the year. Kapstream portfolios are managed on a largely unconstrained basis, with risk constraints limited mostly to headline exposures. Risk is specifically managed and monitored through a combination of proprietary in-house and external quantitative risk systems (Kapstream Analytics Portal, SimCorp Dimension, Bloomberg, FINCAD) and the judgment of the portfolio managers.

Market Risk

This risk comprises of three types of risk, Market Price Risk, Foreign Currency Risk and Interest Rate Risk.

Market Price Risk

Market price risk arises mainly from uncertainty about future prices of financial instruments held, which are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. It represents the potential loss the Company might suffer through holding market positions in the face of price movements. The value of Shares of a Fund and the related income may rise or fall, as the fair value price of the securities in which the Fund invests may fluctuate. Each Fund seeks to maintain a diversified portfolio but certain Funds may be less diversified leading to an increased concentration of investments which will increase the risk of that Fund suffering proportionately higher loss should a particular investment decline in value. Investment concentrations within the portfolio for each Fund are disclosed in the Portfolio Investments. There can be no assurance that the Funds will achieve their investment objectives. Certain Sub-Investment Advisers may take a "bottom up" approach to building portfolios. In other words, they seek to identify individual companies with earnings growth potential that may not be recognised by the market at large.

As at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022, for the Funds listed in the following table, should the market value have increased or decreased by 5% with all other variables remaining constant, the increase or decrease in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable ordinary shares at the year end is shown in the following table:

Global Derivative Exposure

For all Funds other than the Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund, Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund and Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund, the Investment Adviser uses the "commitment approach" to quantitatively measure the Fund's global exposure when using financial derivative instruments ("FDI"). In the case of the Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund, Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund, Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund, Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (USD) 2027 and Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027 the Investment Adviser uses the Value at Risk ("VaR") method.

The VaR of the relevant Funds, are set to a time horizon of 20 days and a one-tailed confidence level of 99% such that the resulting VaR number represents the level of loss that should occur in only one out of one hundred periods. The models and methods are continuously backtested in each Fund's specific environment to ensure they are capturing the extreme risks of a Fund to within an accepted tolerance level. The Funds are stress tested continuously, with a review of these tests being carried out quarterly. Further to the above, There are two types of VaR measure which can be used to monitor and manage the global exposure of a Fund: "Relative VaR" and "Absolute VaR".

(a) Relative VaR is where the VaR of a Fund is divided by the VaR of an appropriate benchmark or reference portfolio, allowing the global exposure of a Fund to be compared to, and limited by reference to, the global exposure of the appropriate benchmark or reference portfolio. The UCITS Regulations specify that the VaR of the Fund must not exceed twice the VaR of its benchmark.

(b) Absolute VaR is commonly used as the relevant VaR measure for absolute return style Funds, where a benchmark or reference portfolio is not appropriate for risk measurement purposes. The UCITS Regulations specify that the VaR measure for such a Fund must not exceed 20% of that Fund's Net Asset Value.

From 29 December 2023, the following funds within the Janus Henderson Capital Funds plc will be measured using the VaR Methodology. These funds were changed on the last working day before the Company's financial year end and for that reason, will be included to VaR and Leverage reporting going forward.

Janus Henderson Flexible Income Fund
 Janus Henderson Global Investment Grade Bond Fund
 Janus Henderson Multi-Sector Income Fund
 Janus Henderson US Short-Term Bond Fund

The following table details the lowest, highest and average Absolute VaR limit during the financial years 2023 and 2022:

Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund	4.60	9.40	6.00
Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund	0.40	0.80	0.60
Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund	0.80	1.40	1.10

Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund	0.30	2.40	0.80
Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund	0.70	2.70	1.20

Limitations of VaR

Whilst VaR is a good general risk measure, it does have certain limitations, including:

- The measure is a point-in-time calculation, reflecting positions as recorded at that date, which do not necessarily reflect the risk positions held at any other time.
- VaR is a statistical estimation and therefore it is possible that there could be, in any period, a greater number of days in which losses could exceed the calculated VaR than implied by the confidence level.
- Although losses are not expected to exceed the calculated VaR on 99% of occasions, on the other 1% of occasions losses will be greater and might be substantially greater than the calculated VaR.
- The period over which positions are expected to be held may differ and so will the modelled losses incurred.
- A look back period of 2 year means that any return that has not been evidenced in this time period will not be present in the distribution.

The following table details the lowest, highest and average utilisation of VaR limit during the financial years 2023 and 2022:

31 December 2023
	Lowest Utilisation (%)	Highest Utilisation (%)	Average Utilisation (%)
Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund	23.10	47.10	30.20

However it does not hedge or otherwise seek to avoid movement risk on income accrued but not received.

Janus Henderson US Research Fund, Janus Flexible Income Fund, Janus Henderson US Contrarian Fund, Janus Henderson US Balanced 2026 Fund and Janus US Short-Term Bond Fund had partial but insignificant exposure to foreign currencies other than their functional currency as at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022.

Foreign Currency Risk

Each of the Funds has the flexibility to invest a portion of its net assets in non-base currency securities. As long as a Fund holds a foreign currency asset or liability, its value will be affected by the value of the local currency relative to the base currency of the Fund. While the Company will attempt to hedge against currency exposure in the non-base currency Share Classes, there can be no guarantee that the value of these Classes will not be affected by the value of these currencies relative to the base currency of the Funds as applicable.

The Investment Adviser has identified three principal areas where foreign currency risk could impact the Company:

- Movements in rates affect the fair value of investments;
- Movements in rates affect short-term timing differences; and
- Movements in rates affect the income received.

The Company can hedge the initial investment and subsequent gains of the value of investments that are priced in other currencies. The hedging is done by entering into forward currency contracts to minimise the amount of foreign currency risk. For more information on open forward currency contracts please refer to the section "Forward Currency Contracts" in the Portfolio Investments of the Financial Statements. The Investment Adviser also employs forward currency contracts to hedge the currency exposure of the Classes and the base currency of the Funds, as applicable, provided that the conditions set out in the Prospectus are met ("Class Level Hedging").

The Company may be subject to short-term exposure to exchange rate movements, for instance, where there is an exchange difference between the date an investment purchase or sale is entered into and the date when settlement of the proceeds occurs. When the Company enters into such a transaction which will involve the buying and selling of foreign currency in order to complete it, a forward currency contract can be entered into at the same time as the initial transaction in order to minimise foreign currency risk.

The Company receives income in currencies other than the non-base currency of the Funds and the value of this income can be affected by movements in exchange rates. The Company converts all receipts of income into the base currency as appropriate on or near the date of receipt.

The following table demonstrates the effect on net assets attributable to holders of shares at the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022 of a movement in foreign currencies against the Funds' functional currency by way of illustration. In the interests of providing consistent comparisons across the Funds the analysis assumes a 5% upward movement in the value of the local currencies (a negative 5% would have similar negative results).

Interest Rate Risk

The performance of the Fixed Income Funds (and the debt or interest bearing component of the Equity & Allocation Funds and Global Real Estate Fund, if any) depends primarily on interest rate risk. Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a portfolio will fluctuate in response to changes in interest rates. Generally, the value of debt securities will tend to decrease in value when interest rates rise and increase in value when interest rates fall. Shorter term securities are less sensitive to interest rate changes than longer term securities, but they also usually offer lower yields. Subject to applicable maturity restrictions, each Fund will vary the average maturity of its portfolio based on a Sub-Investment Adviser's analysis of interest rate trends and other factors.

The Fixed Income investment process begins with an investment outlook that provides a broad framework of macroeconomic factors followed by JHIUS's views on the valuation and expected performance of various sectors.

For interest rate sensitive portfolios, the Investment Adviser's risk measurement tools quantify interest rate, curve, and sector risk versus the respective benchmarks. The Funds may utilise interest rate swaps and swap related products to manage interest rate risk. The Risk Management Group of the Investment Adviser also generates tracking error and scenario analysis reports. These reports quantify intended and unintended risks versus the respective benchmarks and enable the Sub-Investment Adviser to structure optimal portfolios based on its investment outlook.

The Investment Adviser's basic investment philosophy for the credit portfolios is to add value through in-depth fundamental research. The Investment Adviser has developed a proprietary system that brings together Relative Value, Quantitative Default analysis, Risk Management and Attribution for the Credit portfolio on one platform. This system gives the Investment Adviser the ability to look across analytics and quantitative scores across bonds and bank loans and enables the Investment Adviser to have a consistent way to analyse credits. To maximise the Investment Adviser's risk adjusted return within the sector, JHIUS and the Sub-Investment Advisers use a combination of fundamental analysis and the Investment Adviser's proprietary system outputs.

The Investment Adviser's risk management tool quantifies the tail risk for the Credit portfolio, sectors and issues. The output of this tool factors default frequency, correlations between sectors, seniority in capital structure and recovery values. The Investment Adviser also has credit reviews on a periodic basis where the analyst presents the credit analysis of the names held by a Fund to the group.

The Funds with a majority of financial assets held in equity shares which neither pay interest nor have a maturity date are not subject to significant amounts of risk due to fluctuations in prevailing levels of market interest rates. The cash positions are monitored daily by the Investment Adviser and any overdraft positions are on a short term basis. Any excess cash and cash equivalents are invested at short term interest rates.

At 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022 the following Funds are exposed to material interest rate risk to the extent disclosed in the following Interest Risk Table. It includes for each Fund the assets and liabilities at fair value, categorised by the earlier of contractual repricing or maturity dates. Results of the Funds that do not invest in floating and fixed rate bonds are not included as there was minimal interest rate risk for those Funds.

The following funds invest in floating and fixed rate bonds: Janus Henderson US Balanced 2026 Fund, Janus Henderson Balanced Fund, Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Fund, Janus Henderson Flexible Income Fund, Janus Henderson Global Investment Grade Bond Fund, Janus Henderson High Yield Fund, Janus Henderson Global Adaptive Multi-Asset Fund, Janus Henderson Absolute Return Income Opportunities Fund, Janus Henderson Multi-Sector Income Fund, Janus Henderson US Short-Term Bond Fund Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (USD) 2027 and Janus Henderson Fixed Maturity Bond Fund (EUR) 2027. The basis of calculation for the floating rate notes is based on the date of change of each coupon rate as opposed to the bond maturity date disclosed in the Portfolio Investments. The floating rate notes held by the Funds at the financial year end are tracking the US LIBOR one or three month indices.

The performance of the debt or interest bearing component depends primarily on interest rates. Generally, the value of debt securities will tend to decrease in value when interest rates rise and vice versa. Shorter-term securities are less sensitive to interest rate changes than longer-term securities, but they usually offer lower yields. Each of the above Funds varies the average maturity profile of its portfolio based on an analysis of interest rate trends and other factors.

Any change to the interest rates relevant for particular securities may result in either income increasing or decreasing, or the Sub-Investment Advisers being unable to secure similar returns on the expiry of contracts or the sale of securities. In addition, changes to prevailing rates or changes in expectations of future rates may result in an increase or decrease in the value of securities held.

The following table shows the corresponding +/- performance effect on each of the Fixed Income Funds and the Janus Henderson Balanced Fund of a +/- 1% move in interest rates calculated by reference to the duration of the respective portfolios as at 31 December 2023 and 2022 assuming no convexity. It also assumes that both the securities and derivatives held in these Funds as at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022 and the overall balance of long and short positions would remain unchanged in the event such a shift in interest rates was anticipated or actually occurred, which would not generally be the case. Furthermore, as with the analysis of market price risk, as the Funds' portfolios are managed on an active and dynamic basis with frequent changes in the holdings, the Directors believe that this sensitivity should not be relied on as a measure of future performance. Finally, it should also be considered that although duration is widely used as a measure of portfolio interest rate sensitivity, it is only useful as a measure for interest rate changes which are relatively small in size and it is itself sensitive to changes in the level and term structure of interest rates, which may cause portfolio duration to change independently of changes in the actual portfolio held.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may not be able to generate sufficient cash resources to settle its obligations in full as they fall due or can only do so on terms that are materially disadvantageous. The Company is exposed to daily cash redemptions of redeemable ordinary shares. Each Fund therefore invests the majority of its assets in investments that are traded in an active market and can be readily disposed of; it invests only a limited proportion of its assets in investments that are not actively traded on a listed exchange. Listed securities of each Fund are considered readily realisable, as they are listed on a regulated stock exchange. The Investment Adviser may use derivative instruments and debt securities, if appropriate, such as exchange traded futures contracts to allow exposure to markets whilst maintaining sufficient liquidity.

Where a Fund acquires securities on the over-the-counter markets, there is no guarantee that the Fund will be able to realise the fair value of such securities due to their tendency to have limited liquidity and comparatively high price volatility.

The Company has the ability to borrow in the short term to ensure settlement. In order to manage the Company's overall liquidity and to facilitate an orderly disposition of securities the Directors are able to refuse to repurchase any shares in excess of one tenth of the shares in issue in a Fund on any one valuation day by way of the provisions in the prospectus. All redemption requests were met during the period in line with the prospectus and none were withheld as at 31 December 2023 and 2022.

All securities investments present a risk of loss of capital. The maximum loss of capital on purchased options, long equity and debt securities is limited to the fair value of those positions. On written call options and short futures positions the maximum loss of capital can be unlimited. The maximum loss of capital on written put options, long futures and forward currency contracts is limited to the notional contract values of those positions.

The main liability of the Funds tends to be outstanding payables on the purchase of investments and the redemption of any redeemable ordinary shares that investors wish to sell. Substantially all financial liabilities of each Fund are payable within two months.

The Investment Adviser has established a liquidity risk management policy to monitor and manage the liquidity risks of each Fund and to ensure that the liquidity profile of the investments held by each Fund will facilitate compliance with the Fund's obligation to meet redemption requests. The Investment Adviser liquidity policy takes into account different factors including but not limited to the investment strategy; the liquidity profile; the redemption policy; the dealing frequency; the ability to enforce redemption limitations and the fair valuation policies of the relevant Fund. Please refer to the prospectus for further details on liquidity risk management.

Credit Risk

The Company is exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom it trades and bears the risk of settlement default. The Company minimises concentrations of credit risk by undertaking transactions with a number of counterparties on recognised and reputable exchanges.

Each Fund's exposure is limited to the contracts in which it currently has a financial asset position reduced by any collateral received from the counterparty, or to counterparties who have received collateral from each Fund or any margin arrangements in place with the counterparty.

Credit default swaps are transactions under which the parties' obligations depend on whether a credit event has occurred in relation to the reference asset. The credit events are specified in the contract and are intended to identify the occurrence of a significant deterioration in the creditworthiness of the reference asset. The buyer in a credit default swap contract is obligated to pay the seller a periodic stream of payments over the term of the contract provided that no event of default on an underlying reference asset has occurred. If a credit event occurs, the seller must pay the buyer the full notional value of the reference asset that may have little or no value.

All Funds' assets are currently held within J.P Morgan SE – Dublin Branch depositary network, with the exception of Tranche Loans and Financial Derivative Instruments as appropriate. Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Depositary may cause the Funds' rights with respect to securities held by the Depositary to be delayed or limited. The Company monitors this risk by monitoring the credit quality and financial position of the Depositary. The Depositary's credit rating at 31 December 2023 is A+ (31 December 2022: A+).

The Company may invest in financial assets which are rated (by well known rating agencies) or unrated. Unrated securities are treated by the Investment Adviser as non investment grade securities unless the Investment Adviser or the relevant Sub-Investment Adviser determines that such securities are the equivalent of investment grade securities.

Cash and non-cash collateral pledged are reflected as assets on the Statement of Financial Position, their use is restricted until the underlying contracts are closed out. See note 5 for details.

The Funds hold credit default swaps at year end which are centrally cleared through ICE (Central Counterparty Clearing House "CCP"). Centrally cleared credit default swaps are subject to the credit risk of the clearing broker which is Citigroup through which the Funds hold the positions.

Inflation Risk

Inflation risk is the risk that a Fund's assets or income from a Fund's investments may be worth less in the future as inflation decreases the value of money. As inflation increases, the real value of a Fund's portfolio could decline. Funds that aim to keep the turnover of the portfolio low may hold fixed income securities until maturity. Fixed income securities that are held until maturity and are not inflation-linked (coupon and/or principal adjustment) will provide a lower real return as inflation increases.

Deflation Risk

Deflation risk is the risk that prices throughout the economy may decline over time. Deflation may have an adverse effect on the creditworthiness of issuers and may make issuer default more likely, which may result in a decline in the value of a Fund's portfolio.

Counterparty Risk

The Investment Adviser undertakes a detailed review of all counterparties before any arrangements are entered into. The credit quality of all counterparties is monitored on a regular basis. The Investment Adviser reports to the board on a commitment basis or value-at-risk basis depending on the Fund as part of the UCITS V periodic reporting.

Details of the counterparties are included in the Portfolio Investments.

Unfunded commitments and contingent liabilities

The Fund invests in a number of private placement investments where there are unfunded future commitments at the year end date. These future commitments arise through the tranche structure of the investment process for such securities and are dependent on future events that have not occurred at the year end date. These typically relate to future financial or commercial targets set in the investment agreement with the investee entity and it is not practicable to assign any probability of achieving these in the financial statement disclosures. When the triggers are met, there is a binding commitment to fund the additional purchase, at which point an investment purchase transaction is recognised. The unfunded commitments expose the Fund to certain risks.

The Fund's exposure to price risk may be increased by such future commitments because there is a probability of increased exposure to investments already held in the portfolio.

There is also a liquidity risk because future tranches will become binding commitments at a future date and the Fund may need to liquidate other assets or raise further capital to meet these commitments. Such future commitments that may become payable are considered as part of the Fund's investment strategy in such a way as to mitigate the risk of needing to liquidate portfolio holdings at an inopportune time. The fund manager will also be aware of future commitments that may crystallise and will receive regular communications from the investee entities so that fund raising to meet them can be planned. The Fund will also receive notice of the future commitment and can then make investment decisions on how to realise sufficient cash for the commitment to be met. Due to the nature of private placements, the free negotiability of these assets is restricted.

As at 31 December 2023, the funds had no total unfunded commitments (31 December 2022: Nil).

The Janus Henderson Global Life Sciences Fund was subject to an indemnity holdback amount of cash consideration on completion of the acquisition of Bigfoot Biomedical Inc by Abbott Laboratories. The holdback applies for 18 months from the date of the merger completion at which point the residual value of the indemnity holdback amount will be paid to eligible shareholders. The total value withheld is USD 2,902,811 with an expected release date of any residual value on the 22 February 2025.

Fair Value Estimation

Under FR2 102 the Company is required to classify its investments using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements.

For financial instruments held at fair value in the Statement of Financial Position, the Funds are required to disclose for each class of financial instrument, an analysis of the level in the following fair value hierarchy into which the fair value measurements are categorised. A fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

- Level 1: The unadjusted quoted price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: Inputs are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

The inputs or methodologies used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The tables providing a summary within the fair value hierarchy of the Funds' financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value at 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2022 are disclosed in the individual Fund sections.

Remuneration Disclosure

In line with the requirements of the UCITS Regulations, the Company has adopted a remuneration policy which is consistent with the principles outlined in the ESMA guidelines on sound remuneration policies under the UCITS Directive (the "Remuneration Guidelines"). The remuneration policy is appropriate to the Company's size, internal organisation and the nature, scope and complexity of its activities.

The Company's remuneration policy applies to certain identified staff whose professional activities have a material impact on the risk profile of the Company. As at 31 December 2023, the Company did not have any employees and the Company's remuneration policy applies only to members of the Company's management body (i.e. the board of directors). The directors not affiliated with the Investment Adviser receive a fixed annual fee which is inline with the fees paid by other Irish funds and compensates these directors for their tasks, expertise and responsibilities.

Directors that are employees of the Investment Adviser (or an affiliate) are not paid any fees for their services as directors.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2023, only the Independent Directors received a fixed fee from the Company in their roles as directors, which was in aggregate USD 113,568. None of the directors are entitled to receive any variable remuneration from the Company.

The remuneration policy was amended to take account of the issue of Remuneration Guidelines in October 2016, and the policy is reviewed on an annual basis with the most recent review to ensure that it remains consistent with the Remuneration Guidelines, with the most recent review being undertaken in February 2022.

¹ The actual number of employees who are fully or partly involved in the activities of Janus Henderson Capital Funds – no attempt has been made to apportion the time spent specifically in support of Janus Henderson Capital Funds, as this data is not captured as part of the Company's normal processes.

² Please note that due to the employment structure and resourcing of the Janus Henderson Group, the staff indicated in this table may provide services to other companies in the Janus Henderson Group.

³ The remuneration disclosed is only in respect of the provision of services to each of the funds of Janus Henderson Capital Funds for the year, rather than the total remuneration for the year – for this purpose, remuneration has been apportioned between the provision of services to Janus Henderson Capital Funds and to other entities in the Janus Henderson Group, in respect of fixed pay and annual/long term incentive bonuses, as follows:

- where fixed pay is directly attributable to Janus Henderson Capital Funds (for example, fees for Janus Henderson Capital Funds Board members), 100% of those fees;
- pro-rated using the average AUM of Janus Henderson Capital Funds (as a proportion of the aggregate average AUM of Janus Henderson Group PLC) as a proxy.
- in respect of performance fee incentives, 100% of any direct allocations of performance fees generated within the Company

⁴ Senior Management includes the Janus Henderson Executive Committee and other Group Board members and the Board of Janus Henderson Capital Funds.

⁵ Other Code Staff includes all other JHIESA Code Staff.

⁶ Please note that rounding off of values could lead to a mismatch of individual numbers and their sum.

Non-Financial Risks (unaudited)

Political and Economic Risk

Investments in certain countries, particularly Developing Markets, may be subject to heightened political and economic risks. Subject to the limitations on investments set forth under "Investment Objective and Policies" in each Supplement, the Funds may invest in Developing Markets. Developing Markets involve risks such as immature economic structures, national policies restricting investments by foreigners, and different legal systems.

Special Situations

Certain Funds may invest in special situations or turnarounds such as development of a new product, a technological breakthrough or management change. A Fund's performance could suffer if the anticipated development in a "special situation" investment does not occur or does not attract the expected attention.

Cyber Security and Identity Theft

Information and technology systems relied upon by the Company, a Fund, the Manager, the Investment Adviser, the Sub-Investment Advisers, a Fund's service providers (including, but not limited to, the auditors, Depositary, Administrator, Transfer Agent and Distributor) and/or the issuers of securities in which a Fund invests may be vulnerable to damage or interruption from computer viruses, network failures, computer and telecommunication failures, infiltration by unauthorised persons and security breaches, usage errors by their respective professionals, power outages and catastrophic events such as fires, tornadoes, floods, hurricanes and earthquakes. Although the parties noted above have implemented measures to manage risks relating to these types of events, if these systems are compromised, become inoperable for extended periods of time or cease to function properly, significant investment may be required to fix or replace them. In addition, there are inherent limitations in such measures, including the possibility that certain risks have not been identified. The failure of these systems and/or of disaster recovery plans for any reason could cause significant interruptions in the operations of a Fund, the Manager, the Investment Adviser, a Sub-Investment Adviser, a service provider and/or the issuer of a security in which a Fund invests and may result in a failure to maintain the security, confidentiality or privacy of sensitive data, including personal information relating to investors (and the beneficial owners of investors). Such a failure could also harm a Fund's, the Manager's, the Investment Adviser's, a Sub-Investment Adviser's, a service provider's and/or an issuer's reputation, subject such entity and its affiliates to legal claims and otherwise affect their business and financial performance. When such issues are present with regard to an issuer of a security in which the Fund invests, the Fund's investment in such securities may lose value.

Regulatory Risk and Legal Framework

There may be less government supervision of markets in Developing Markets, and issuers in such markets may not be subject to the uniform accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards and practices applicable to issuers in the developed countries. There may be less publicly available information about issuers in Developing Markets.

The legislative framework in Developing Markets for the purchase and sale of investments and in relation to the beneficial interests in those investments may be relatively new and untested and there can be no assurance regarding how the courts or agencies of Developing Markets will react to questions arising from a Fund's investments in such countries and arrangements contemplated in relation thereto.

Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation and EU Taxonomy Regulation (unaudited)

The EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation ("SFDR") (Regulation (EU) 2019/2088) has applied since 10 March 2021. Pursuant to Article 11 of SFDR (Transparency of the promotion of environmental or social characteristics and of sustainable investments in periodic reports), the Manager is required to provide:

With respect to each Article 8 Fund: prescribed information on the extent to which environmental or social characteristics are met.

Please see this information disclosed in the below Annexes for each Fund.

In addition, the EU Taxonomy Regulation ("Taxonomy Regulation") (Regulation (EU) 2020/852) establishes a framework for identifying economic activities as environmentally sustainable within the EEA and requires the Funds to additionally disclose whether the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities has been taken into account. This information is set out as follows:

With respect to each Article 8 Funds: the Funds promote environmental or social characteristics and as such, are required as per Article 6 of the Taxonomy Regulation to state that the 'do no significant harm' principle applies only to those investments held in the strategy that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. It should be noted that the Funds do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities within the meaning of the Taxonomy Regulation and the Funds portfolio alignment with the Taxonomy Regulation is not calculated. Therefore, the 'do not significant harm' principle does not apply to any of the investments of each Funds' strategy.

With respect to each Article 6 Fund listed below, the investments underlying this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

► Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

From 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023 (herein referred to as the 'reference period'), the Fund promoted climate change mitigation through the adoption of GHG emission reductions targets and support for the UN Global Compact Principles (which cover matters including human rights, labour, corruption, and environmental pollution). The Fund also seeks to avoid investments in certain activities with the potential to cause harm to human health and wellbeing by applying binding exclusions. Accordingly, the team applies screens to exclude companies deemed to have failed to comply with the UNGC Principles. The team also excludes direct investment in Prison Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITS) and applies the Firmwide Exclusions Policy. The Fund does not use a reference benchmark to attain its environmental or social characteristics.

How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicators performed in line with expectations with the portfolio adhering to the overall UN Global Compact principles and science based-emission targets.

More specifically, issuers were excluded if they were deemed to have failed to comply with the UNGC Principles (which cover matters including human rights, labour, corruption and environmental pollution). In addition, the Investment Manager actively engaged with companies to encourage the adoption of science-based emission targets, or a verified commitment to adopt science based emissions targets, as defined by the Science Based Target Initiative. The Investment Manager committed a minimum of 10% of companies within the portfolio having approved or committed targets and monitored the progress of those companies against those targets. As at 31 December 2023, around 53% of portfolio companies had either committed or approved science-based emissions targets.

The Fund also adhered to the Firmwide Exclusions Policy as it did not make any direct investments in the companies involved in the current manufacture of, or minority shareholding of 20% or more in a manufacturer of controversial weapons.

The Fund has scope 1 & 2 emissions below its benchmark index.

ANNEX 1 – ARTICLE 8

...and compared to previous periods?

As was the case in the prior period, the Fund excluded all issuers that failed to comply with the UNGC principles.

The portfolio saw its exposure to companies having approved or committed science-based emissions targets, as defined by the Science Based Target Initiative, increase from 40% to 53% of portfolio companies as at 31 December 2023. The Investment Manager will continue to engage with portfolio companies to encourage the adoption of science-based emissions targets and monitor progress towards said targets.

In line with historic periods, the Fund adhered to Firmwide Exclusions Policy as it did not make any direct investments in the companies involved in the current manufacture of, or minority shareholding of 20% or more in a manufacturer of controversial weapons.
